Applications, no new members to fill the ranks. California needs more Native Sons! Today's responsibility of every member of the Order is to convince eligibles. Don't leave this important duty for "Gorge" to perform.

Vocal solos were rendered by President Harald Hansen and A. C. Niel, and the drill team of Manzanita entertained. Chairman Covey was the main speaker, his topic being "The History of Our Flag." An Italian supper, served under the supervision of Ed Freeman, followed the program. President Hansen was the toastmaster, and among those who responded was Grand Trustee Eben K. Smart.

Emery, an active member of the Parlor, died May 28; she was a native of Colorado, aged 38. Deputy Grand President Albert V. A part of the first permanent irrigation project by white men in California. Marker placed by San Diego Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, May 17, 1941."

Oakland—Piedmont No. 120 went to old Sonoma for its annual outing June 8, and a perfect day was enjoyed. beautiful gifts, and delicious refreshments were served. In charge of arrangements for the happy occasion were Supervising Deputy Loraine Toscano, Deputies Lillian Stammerjohan, Alice Phoenix, Ethel Gardner and Violet Roselli. Morada has chosen Gertrude Schroeder president for the new term.—M.J.B.

A Perfect Evening.

Hollister—"The cat is out of the bag" was the theme of the revealing party of Copa de Oro No. 105, when the identity of secret pals of the past year was disclosed. Attached to each attractively-wrapped pal gift was a small bag, from the top of which protruded the head of a black cat and inside was the donor's name. A bountiful potluck dinner was served at tables prettily decorated with sweetpeas in pastel shades. The planners of the event asked all to appear in costume, and the result was truly the melting pot of the world. President Pauline Saufnauer appeared in an elegant costume of Yugoslavia.

A perfect evening and a jolly crowd contributed to the happiness of the June 4 social session. Members of the Parlor motored to the country home of Elma Libao, where long tables, prettily decorated with bright geraniums, were set beneath the spreading trees beside Tres Pinos Creek. A tasty picnic supper was followed by a program before a blazing fire. Birthdays of April, May and June members were observed. Alma Nyland supplied accordion music.

N.D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.D.G.W.

Stockton—Joaquin No. 5 won a lovely cup for having the best decorated car in the "I Am an American Day" parade. Generous donations have been made to the Red Cross and the Stockton Business Girls Club. Edna Williamson, as president, will head the Parlor's new corps of officers.

Weaverville—The historic Chinese Joss House here was marked with a bronze plaque by Eltopome No. 55 May 25. Grand Vice-president Clarice E. Cook delivered the dedicatory address, and the marker was unveiled by Charter Members Lulu Wallace and Celia Weinheimer. Others participating in the program were Clara Weinheimer, J. J. Jackson and Deputy Katherine Ryan.

President Margaret Cobb was in charge of arrangements. Sue Engfer and Martha Faulkner were sewing club hostesses last month. Irene Allen has presented the Parlor a beautiful scrapbook.—I.M.S.

The proceeds will be used for new uniforms. A rummage and food sale increased very satisfactorily the Parlor treasury, and the annual mothers night party was an outstanding affair. SAN FRANCISCO

SAN ANSELMO (MARIN COUNTY)—Superior Judge—Frank Henry Dunne, Past Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, died June 17, survived by his wife and two children.

He had the distinction of having served more years, forty-nine, on the bench than any other jurist in California. In San Francisco in 1892 he was elected a justice of the peace, and in 1896 he became a Superior Court judge of that county, serving continuously in that capacity until his death. Some of San Francisco's most noted criminal cases were tried before him.

Past Grand President Dunne was born at San Francisco, December 1, 1862. He originally affiliated with Columbia Parlor No. 121 of that city, which consolidated with Golden Gate Parlor No. 29 in February of 1900. He first attended the Grand Parlor as a delegate from Columbia Parlor to the Twelfth (San Rafael 1889) Session. He was elected Grand Lecturer at the Sixteenth (Sacramento 1893) Grand Parlor, became Grand President at the Eighteenth (Oakland 1895) Session, and presided at the Nineteenth (San Luis Obispo 1896) Grand Parlor.

IMPRESSIVE MEMORIAL CEREMONIES.

Some five hundred Native Sons and Native Daughters gathered in Redwood Memorial Grove, Golden Gate Park, June 1, to pay tribute to deceased members of the Orders. In the course of his address, Grand President Schnarr of the Native Sons, referring to those who made the supreme sacrifice in World War No. One, said: "These boys thought the world would be a little better for their sacrifice, but, unfortunately, the beliefs and dreams of those who gave their all were not to be realized. . . . There has arisen a world philosophy that disagrees with the policy of the American people and the ways of free nations, and the net result is another world catastrophe. However, we say here today that those heroes of the past have not died in vain, that right shall prevail, and regardless of minute reverses the true inward feeling of humanity shall be registered in the victory record of the human race."

Also in attendance were Grand Secretary Sal-lie R. Thaler and Grand Trustee Emily Ryan of the Native Daughters, and Grand First Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Trustee Richard F. McCarthy and Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy of the Native Sons.

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE TO N.S.G.W. PAST GRAND PRESIDENT FRANK H. DUNNE

HON. FRANK H. DUNNE, DEAN OF the N.S.G.W. Past Grand Presidents, was called to his final rest June 17, 1941. He was also one of the judges of the Superior Court of California, in and for the County of San Francisco, and had served as such for forty-five years, a longer period than any other judge in California had so served. June 27 memorial services were held for him in the courtroom which he had occupied in the San Francisco City Hall, and a distinguished assemblage of judges, attorneys and friends filled the auditorium. The only vacant seat was the one Judge Dunne had occupied on the bench for so many years.

Frank T. Deasy, presiding judge of the Superior Court, officiated as chairman at the ceremonies and presented as the speaker for the judiciary Judge Julian Goodell, and as the representative of the attorneys of the state Lewis F. Byington, Past Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. As reported by The Recorder, official organ of the courts, Past Grand President Byington paid the following tribute to Judge Dunne:

"If your honor please, and you, my friends, I can only rise here and in simple language voice the feelings that come to my heart at the recollection of this great judge. I knew him for over forty years, from the time he became a lawyer, and the first thing that strikes me in the character of Judge Frank H. Dunne is the quality of the men who appealed to him. From his earliest days I saw his heart warm to men of integrity, and if in this community you look around you and find the men with whom Judge Dunne traveled, you will find that they were the men of the same class as himself, men of pure lives, men of integrity, men of honor in every walk of life.

"I remember distinctly his close companion, Maurice T. Dooling, a judge of the Federal Court, and when they first met in a fraternal association I saw how the heart of one warmed to the other. And in the forty-five years that Judge Dunne sat upon the bench, no finger could be placed upon a single act of his that did not square itself with the highest tenets of manhood and of the judiciary.

"Someone has said that the king camps on our trail and the night will come when the waxing and waning moon will look for us in vain, and knowing that it is inevitable, man meets this condition of life with a calm and serene grace. But there is one thing that outlives this life, and that is a man's character, the honor which he leaves along life's pathway. All through life Judge Dunne kept his honor bright, and that will be transmitted to his family and his children's children forever and a day.

"It is now forty years since I, as district attorney, had my office adjoining the courtroom of Judge Dunne at the Hall of Justice in this city. Most of those who sat on the bench in those days have gone. There are a few left. Judge Fritz and Judge Mogan, who then sat in the Hall of Justice, still remain. Judge Carroll Cook and Judge Wm. P. Lawlor have passed on. Here in this courtroom today are Judges Ward, Fitzpatrick and Harris, then my deputies, and in close and friendly association with Judge Dunne.

Politics appealed to him not at all, if they conducted in any manner with his duty as a judge. His sole desire was to uphold the Constitution and the laws of his country fearlessly, no matter where the consequences fell. He was firm in dealing out justice. To the man who violated the law and who appeared before him indicating that his consciousness of right and wrong was gone, he dealt out justice severely; but if, down in the heart of the man he thought that there was a quality which could redeem that man or a quality which could redeem a child, he was the first to extend the hand of sympathy and of aid. I cannot recall a single deed that he did upon the bench or that he did as a man that I would change if I had the power.

"It is well that here by that seat of justice, now vacant, but which he filled for so many years with honor and ability, should hang the greatest symbol of justice, the American Flag, and beside it the historic flag of the California Republic. Judge Dunne knew and revered the history of this country.

"He respected and loved the fathers of this great America of ours. He endeavored in every way to uphold the Constitution and the law as transmitted to us by the pioneers of this state. He loved the tradition of the California Pioneer, and I received from his wife the other day, in response to a floral emblem sent him by the Past Grand Presidents of the Native Sons, a letter expressing the sentiment that there was nothing that he held dearer than his love and regard for those who were members of the fraternity, and that his annual gathering with the Past Grands was one of the purest joys of his heart. And there is no member of that Order in the State of California who did not feel a pang at his heart when he heard of the death of Past Grand President Frank H. Dunne.

"He has gone to his final rest in the state in which he was born and the state in which he lived, and it will be well that every man upon the bench, that every practitioner before the American bar, look to the career, look to the integrity and look to the character of Frank H. Dunne, a man with a stainless escutcheon, to follow in this life of ours.

"I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead; he is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
He wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you, O you, who the wildest yearn
For the oldtime step and the glad return,
Think of him, faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of him still as the same, I say,
He is not dead; he is just away!"
"And his example will live in our hearts forever and a day."

ADMISSION DAY CELEBRATION AT OAKLAND

(JAMES HALL SNELL.)

Oakland.—Let credit fall where credit is due. To those visionary and sturdy pioneers who many years ago put on the first Admission Day celebration under the auspices of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West much of the credit for the success of the Admission Day celebration at Oakland come next September. For a success it will be, sure as shooting. It hasn't failed for over forty years, at the signs are right for 1941. All Native Sons and Native Daughters are feeling an aching in their bones, a pain that liniment does not alleviate. Ask the bearded oldtimer who wears the fifty-year pin and he'll tell you that he has been in this ache each summer now till his memory faileth not to the contrary.

What is so dear as our homeland, and what is so cherished as an opportunity to pay tribute to California on its natal day! Into the hands of the Native Sons and Native Daughters has fallen a sacred trust. The City of Oakland and Alameda County will hold it high. Three whole days will be chockful of activities. Witnesseth: September 7, Sunday, drum corps, drill team, band-and-bugle corps competitions. September 8, Monday, athletic contests, and a grand ball night. September 9, Tuesday, the day of days, Admission Day, the annual parade—one not too long, yet sufficient to show a watching country that the Natives can march in unison and unity.

What do events matter? It is the fellowship that is important: the warm handclasp the brother from San Diego gives the brother from Alaska; the glance some young Native Son from San Bernardino gives that sweet Native Daughter from Jackson; a chance to renew acquaintances, to make new friends; men and women meeting on a common ground; wealthy and the less-fortunate alike bound by a common tie, the love of country and state.

AMERICA'S PLACE in this hour, when so many fraudulent causes are being dangled before our eyes, is to religiously stay out of the present war, preserve our resources, maintain a degree of solvency as is possible, to stand that when the hour of exhaustion comes to Europe we can be the anchor and the helping hand that the world is going to so desperately need if it is to be saved from worse than war.—United States Senator Gerald P. Nye.

Sutter's Dream is the title of a pageant to be featured in connection with the fifth annual gold celebration at Sutter Creek, Amador County, August 8-10.

The Humboldt County Fair is scheduled for September-August 12-17.

Respectfully and with sweet devotion, which has been an inheritance to all of her sisters,

Whereas, The loss of our Sister will be keenly felt, as our Parlor has been devoted to our true and faithful friend, resolved, That Auburn Parlor No. 233 N.D.G.W. extend to the bereaved family the sympathy of our members; and resolved, That copies of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, and copies be sent to the Placer Herald, the Auburn Journal, and The Grizzly Bear for publication.

EIGHTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL STATE FAIR, SACRAMENTO

(NEILL M. TOOHY.)

California's traditional pageant of achievement and progress, the California State Fair, throws open the doors of the eighty-seventh annual exposition August 29 for a ten-day run through September 7. Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West take a particular interest in the annual fair, which has played so important a part in calling attention to California's economic progress since 1854, when it was organized as the State Agricultural Society. From a modest exposition in a small San Francisco hall, the California State Fair has grown into the world's premier state fair, operating on a 220-acre plant in Sacramento valued at more than $5,000,000.

Traditionally concerned with the state's agricultural, horticultural and livestock achievements, the 1941 fair will present a lavish array of the finest fruits of California's soil and industry. As a fitting background for the brilliant exposition, the fair officials have prepared an elaborate program of entertainment and amusements. At the top of the list is a huge musical revue which will be presented by distinguished artists of radio, stage and screen.

Contestants in all competitive events at the fair will share prizes and premiums amounting to more than $182,500. More than thirty counties are expected to enter exhibits of fruits, vegetables, grains, wines, honey, flowers and home-made articles.

The annual livestock parade will present a $2,000,000 array of champion horses, goats, and beef and dairy cattle. A feature of the 1941 fair will be the opening of two new buildings, the Hall of Flowers and the Press-Radio Building, both removed from Treasure Island and reconstructed on the fair grounds. The former will contain a huge display of California-grown flowers, shrubs and ornamental plants.

In the field of education and arts, a concert will be offered by the Sacramento Municipal Symphony Orchestra, the second annual Salon of Pictorial Photography and an exhibition of oil paintings and water colors by living professional artists of California will be held, and the Education Building will display more than 10,000 educational and vocational exhibits.

The California State Fair is the outstanding livestock show of the West, the foremost agricultural show of the world and the nation's premier state fair. With this prestige in mind, the officials of the 1941 fair invite the people of the West to the greatest and finest exposition in the state's history.

A TERRIFIC STORM OF WIND, RAIN and thunder visited San Bernardino and Redlands August 11, 1891. The rain came down in torrents, Mill Creek overflowed and the business houses of Redlands were flooded. The storm was heaviest at Crofton, three miles east of Redlands. The Mill Creek zanja, which was lined with alder trees from Crofton to Redlands, was a scene of desolation.

The thermometer registered 113 degrees in the shade at Modesto and Merced August 24.

The first carload of sugar from the Chino, San Bernardino County, factory was shipped to Los Angeles August 29.

Hammons Jr., assistant district attorney of Ventura County, "that we have probably established an all-time record for increase in Parlor membership, and naturally we are very proud. We still feel, however, that we have only started to get Cabrillo rolling again."

August 6, at the Elks Club in Ventura, the Parlor will have another class of fifty or more for initiation. The ritual will again be exemplified by the deputies team of District No. One. All Native Sons are invited to the ceremonies, which will be preceded by a 6:30 dinner.

TAKING ISSUE WITH THE RECORD-breaking tentative school budget now being considered by the Los Angeles City Board of Education, N. Bradford Trenham, executive secretary of the California Taxpayers Association, told members of the Town Hall: "No more pupils are expected in Los Angeles schools next year than were enrolled in the year just closed. Enrollment last year was nearly 4,000 below that for 1939-40."

"No one knows what the Federal Government tax bill for this year and for coming years will be, except that it will be a tremendous one and that the people of Los Angeles will pay their full share. . . . There is no justification for increasing the school budget. . . . Defense demands should be recognized by the Board of Education and the school budget kept within the size of the cloth—the ability of the people to pay."

NOW'S A GOOD TIME TO PAINT YOUR HOUSE

If "the old homestead" needs a paint job (inside or out) now is the time to have it done. You not only protect the investment you have in your home by keeping it in good physical condition; you also give yourself a "lift" when you brighten up your surroundings. Here's what to do: See any reputable paint dealer, painter or painting contractor and have him estimate the cost of doing the job; then ask about an FHA (Title I) loan at any neighborhood office of California Bank.

A buffet supper and dancing followed the installation. In charge of the evening's entertainment were Edna Williams and Bernard J. Abbott, co-chairmen, Frances Marshall, Jennie Crivello, Dorothy Rose, Dena Benson, Jeannette Anderson and Annie Williams. Sequoia had a lecture-luncheon, Frances Marshall chairman, July 26. Placentia—Grace No. 242 has adopted its ninth baby, Clarence Arthur, named after the husbands of two of the Parlor members—Clarence for Mayor Haiber, husband of Organist Marie Haiber, and Arthur for Arthur Anderson, husband of Past President Helen Anderson. Several members and guests enjoyed the annual treat at the hospitable Newport Beach home of Anne Lemke, who was assisted by Mae Lemke, Rebecca Hasson and Rena Johnson. Following a fish luncheon Joanna Kent was pleasantly surprised with a stork shower.

Officers of the Parlor, with Erna Watts as president, were installed July 17 by Deputy Catherine Hackett, who was assisted by Deputy Marshal Mary B. Noerenberg and members of Rudecinda Parlor No. 230, San Pedro. Members of the Parlor are still busily engaged in Red Cross sewing. Financial Secretary Matilda Enfield is the proud grandmother of Michael Louis Enfield, born to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Enfield.—N.M.C.

FIESTA TIME IN SANTA BARBARA

(JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE.)

Santa Barbara—At historic El Paseo, July 23, Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. united in another of their annual pre-fiesta receptions and teas ushering in the Old Spanish Days Fiesta, which will occupy the Channel City this year August 6-9. More than 800 invitations were sent to this year's function, and most of them were accepted. This year's celebration was given a patriotic note with the program theme, "California United and Unafraid." Paul G. Sweetser served as chairman of the day and presented Father Patrick Roddy, O.F.M., guardian of the Queen of Missions, who spoke on "California's Heritage."

The presidents of the Parlors, Mrs. Henry Griffiths and Raymond B. Romero, delegated chairmanship of the tea to Mrs. Robert Phelan and Leland Smith. "The Star Spangled Banner" was sung by Jean Mylne Coyes with audience participation, and she also sang "Santa Barbara," written in 1910 by Fr. Florian Zettel, O.F.M., outstanding musician of the Franciscans, and dedicated to the Native Daughters. A liberty bell and mission bells were accented in the decorations. Particularly honored were El Presidente Sam J. Stanwood and the officers of the Old Spanish Days Fiesta Association. Also given places of honor were descendants of pioneers of the Spanish period of California's settlement. Pioneers of the American period are honored each year with a tea at Rockwood with which the Parlors celebrate Admission Day.

Santa Barbara and Reina del Mar Parlors will have an active part in the annual fiesta, particularly in the historical parade of Thursday, August 7. The Native Daughters have selected one of their number, June Vance King, to pose as Saint Barbara on the "saint" float in the fiesta parade. For years Harry C. Sweetser has served as grand marshal of the parade, which in many ways is fiesta's outstanding feature. The Native Sons will have their own section and again this year Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz and his mounted posse of Los Angeles County will be their guests.

Thursday evening the Native Sons will have a tenderloin steak barbecue, followed by a reception and dance, at Veterans Memorial Building. C. A. Dinsmore is chairman of the posse supper committee that is planning a gala evening. Grand officers of both Orders have promised to participate. Reservations, at $2.25 per plate, must be made in advance.

THE GRAND PARLOR OF THE ORDER of Native Sons of the Golden West sponsored an Admission Day celebration at Santa Cruz, September 9, 1891, in observance of the forty-first anniversary of California's admittance to statehood. Santa Cruz Parlor No. 90 had charge of the arrangements. A difficulty that arose between the joint committee of the San Francisco Parlor and the Southern Pacific Railroad over transportation rates had a tendency to lessen the attendance.

The extensive Admission Day morning parade was in charge of Grand Marshal Frank Mattison. At literary exercises in the Santa Cruz Opera House in the afternoon Grand President Robert M. Fitzgerald presided, Past Grand President William H. Miller offered prayer, Carl E. Lindsay extended a welcome, and the Admission Day oration was delivered by Grand Orator W. B. Josselyn. Miss Eleanor Connell was the vocal soloist, and Hastings' band rendered selections. The day's festivities concluded with a grand ball. Admission Day 1891 was also celebrated at Downieville, Sierra County; Marysville, Yuba County; Jackson, Amador County; Eureka, Humboldt County, and Stockton, San Joaquin County.

A long and severe shock of earthquake was felt at 1:30 p.m. of September 23 at Healdsburg, Sonoma County.

Labor Day was fittingly celebrated September 7 by parades and ceremonies in several of the state's larger cities.

Four hundred thousand boxes of raisins of twenty pounds each were produced in San Bernardino County this season.

A nugget of gold weighing 202 ounces was found September 23 in the Ruby Mine at Downieville, Sierra County.

John L. Townsend, a California Pioneer of 1849, dropped dead in the Holbrook & Harrington mine at Randolph Flat September 3.

Manuella M. Saer, one of the oldest residents of Marin County, died September 6 at Fairfax. Her husband, Domingo Saer, was a soldier at the San Francisco Presidio and in 1836 the Mexican Government granted him a tract of land in San Geronimo Valley, now known as Fairfax.

Superintendent John Colman of the Ruby Mine at Downieville, Sierra County, was shot and killed September 3 by Night Watchman John St. Pierre.

At the San Francisco Police Station September 10 Police Officer Alexander Grant was shot dead by Actor M. B. Curtis.

Henry Neimeyer, wealthy Los Angeles winery owner, was struck and killed by a railroad train September 30.

The Redding, Shasta County, and Weaverville, Trinity County, stage was held up and robbed by two masked men between Roberts and Stillwater September 29.

The Los Angeles express was held up by two masked men September 3 at Ceres, Stanislaus County. Messenger Reed refused to open the door to the express car and the robbers left after they had exploded a bomb and shot Detective Len Harris in the neck.

Leon Denny, a prominent socialite, was cowhided by Mrs. Emma Woodruff on Powell Street, San Francisco, September 2.

Sixteen-year-old George White was drowned while swimming in the Piedmont Baths at Oakland September 20.

Mrs. Laura Vice, mother of George Vice, now United States Marshal, purchased the Sacramento baseball franchise for $2,000 September 22.

J. W. Montgomery shot and killed his fiancée, May Adams, at Woodland September 17 and then committed suicide. The affair caused a sensation in the Yolo County metropolis.

Superintendent S. Golavotti of the Derby Drift Mine was murdered by highwaymen September 17 while on his way to Nevada City, Nevada County, with a $5,000 gold bar.

Lorenzo Sawyer, United States Judge for the Northern District of California, died September 7 at San Francisco. To succeed him President Harrison appointed Congressman W. W. Morrow September 19.

QUEEN OF THE CONTRA COSTA

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

MAY 23, 1940, THE LAST DAY OF the Sixty-third (Bakersfield) Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, a resolution was adopted providing that the 1941 Admission Day celebration be held in the City of Oakland. It would seem that that bay was wisely taken, for Oakland has always been a stronghold of the Order. The very first expansion of the fraternity, founded in San Francisco July 11, 1875, came two and a half years later when, December 17, 1877, Oakland Parlor No. 2 was instituted. A number of the early grand officers of the Order were members of that Parlor: John W. Bankhead, Grand Treasurer 1878-79; Joseph Becht, Grand Treasurer 1881-82; J. J. E. Cordes, Grand Treasurer 190-81; Robert M. Fitzgerald, Grand President 191-92; William G. Hawtett, Grand President 192-79; W. E. Lindenberger, Grand Trustee 194-87; C. F. McWilliams, Grand Marshal 195-80; W. A. Nash, Grand Lecturer 1880-81. These men belonged either to the original Oakland Parlor No. 2, which flourished from 1877 to 1883, or to Oakland Parlor No. 50, which has enjoyed an uninterrupted existence since its institution February 6, 1885. Alameda County has given six Grand Presidents to the Order: Hykett and Fitzgerald, mentioned above; Joseph R. Knowland of Halcyon Parlor No. 146, 189-10; Harry G. Williams of Oakland Parlor No. 50, 1922-23; William J. Hayes of Berkeley Parlor No. 210, 1923-24, and the incumbent, Edward T. Schnarr of Fruitvale Parlor No. 252. Indeed, it was to honor the last named that the Grand Parlor selected his home-city for the 1941 celebration.

Most of the cities located on that great body of water so rich in industrial possibilities, known as San Francisco Bay, owe their origin to continued existence to the economic support which comes from the harbor facilities of the great bay itself. To this, Oakland is no exception. Those who have written the history of Oakland have stressed the fact that most of what is now the city was originally grants of land given in 1820 and 1822 to Don Luis Maria Peralta, who for forty years had been a faithful and exemplary soldier at the Presidio of San Francisco. Notwithstanding the original ownership vested in Don Luis, the fact remains that the first settlement which led to the modern city was when a group of men squatted on the shores of that body of water now known as Oakland Estuary. For many years this arm of the bay, which forms the southern boundary of the city, was known as Oakland Creek. In the Mexican period and in the early fifties, when men commenced to settle on the shore, it was known as San Antonio Creek, taking its name from the official title of the Peralta properties, that is, Rancho San Antonio.

The first settler to pitch his tent on San Antonio Creek was Moses Chase. He located at what is now the foot of Broadway, Oakland's principal street. That was in 1849. May 1, 1852, Governor John Bigler approved a bill, which he passed the State Legislature, incorporating the Town of Oakland. Pursuant to the terms of the act the freeholders incorporated the town as Parlor No. 4. Shortly thereafter a city council was elected. Not much is known about those early trustees, but their acts led to the conclusion that they were men of vision, and they did realize that development of Oakland would achieve its greatest growth. They recognized that it must develop its main natural asset, its place as a harbor on San Francisco Bay. Hence it was but a few weeks after the incorporation of the Town of Oakland, or May 17, 1852, that the trustees passed an ordinance looking toward the development of harbor facilities. Unfortunately, this law gave an exclusive franchise for harbor development to one Horace Carpentier, and it took many years of litigation to undo that mistake, but the aim of building Oakland by making its shipping possibilities a fact was there.

The incorporation of the Town of Oakland antedates by about a year the creation of Alameda County. February 18, 1850, the Legislature divided the state into counties, and most of the area which now comprises Alameda County was included in Contra Costa County. By 1853, however, a number of settlements, including Oakland, had sprung up, and many felt that the large County of Contra Costa should be divided.

Accordingly, a petition of residents of the southern part of the county, and of the Washington Township of Santa Clara County, praying for a new county, was filed with the Legislature. In accordance with the wishes of the people thus expressed, the Legislature passed a bill creating the County of Alameda, and this bill received the approval of Governor Bigler April 6, 1853.

Horace Carpentier, to whom the franchise for the development of Oakland's waterfront had been granted, tried to have Oakland named the government seat of the new county, but was unsuccessful, and it was located at Alvarado, situated near the northern boundary of Washington Township. In 1874, however, the Legislature authorized the moving of the county seat to Oakland. This action was permissive, not mandatory. The Legislature granted permission to the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County to move the county seat, if the City of Oakland should deed to the county the Washington and Franklin Squares in that city for county buildings. After much pressure had been exerted upon them the Board of Supervisors accepted the offer, and the county seat was removed to Oakland. The Washington and Franklin Squares were located on opposite sides of Broadway, Oakland's principal street. The Court House was built upon Washington Square, on the west, while the Hall of Records was erected upon Franklin Square, on the east.

The words Contra Costa are the Spanish for opposite coast, and the name was given to indicate that part of the bayshore east of San Francisco. For many years after the southern portion of Contra Costa County was made into Alameda County, the expression Contra Costa was used to denote generally that side of San Francisco Bay on the east. Of all the communities that have developed in the eastbay area, Oakland has for long been definitely the largest in population and area. For that reason it has been referred to in the title to the "Queen of the Contra Costa."

For the years 1892, 1893, 1901, 1903, 1904, 1918 and 1921 the Grand Parlor sponsored no general celebration of Admission Day, but local celebrations were held in various communities.

The position of San Francisco situated across the bay on a peninsula, was not attractive for a great railroad terminus. For this reason Oakland became the great railroad center of the bay area. This was not without a struggle with another city, however. Vallejo made a decided effort to attract the railroad. In order to ward off this competition early Oakland civic leaders prepared to build a bridge out to Yerba Buena Island, a project which was finally abandoned after vigorous opposition from San Francisco. This was a cause of illwill between the two cities for years. Notwithstanding this rivalry, however, Oakland and San Francisco always had close intercourse by means of the ferries. The first two boats to ply between the two centers were The Hector and The Corning.

Conurbation, that is, the expansion of a city by virtue of the growth of nearby suburbs, is true of Oakland. Three good-sized centers have come out of Oakland. These are Brooklyn, Alameda and Berkeley. The last two are today prominent California cities, and no explanation as to their location is needed. Brooklyn, however, has disappeared and it may not be amiss to say a few words regarding it. Brooklyn was the name applied to that great stretch of territory now known as East Oakland. There are still two townships of Alameda County which converge into the territory of the City of Oakland, namely, Oakland Township on the west and Brooklyn Township on the east. In Brooklyn Township there rose in the early days the Town of Brooklyn. Near Brooklyn and in the same township developed the Town of Clinton. The latter, however, merged with Brooklyn at an early date. Brooklyn was the county seat from 1872 until 1875, when it was removed, as noted above, to Oakland proper. Brooklyn was so closely connected with Oakland that in 1872 it consolidated with the latter, and has ever since been the largest single district of Oakland.

The matter of land titles was a very embarrassing item in the early development of Oakland. It has been stated above that the town began when a number of men squatted along the shores of San Antonio Creek. The Peraltas, however, were not long in challenging their rights. To satisfy them, one of the squatters, A. J. Moon, an attorney, leased from the Peralta family a large portion of what is now downtown Oakland. As settlers poured in these lands were sold for home and business sites. But the property had only been leased and Moon had no authority to pass title. The whole matter was cleared up in 1852, shortly before the incorporation of the town. In March of that year Peralta surrendered his title to the leased portion upon payment of $10,000.

Oakland's first public school was built at Market and Seventh streets in 1855. In 1867 gas and water works were opened. By 1870 the population was 10,500, and within the next ten years reached 34,500. Oakland is today the third largest city of California, being exceeded only by Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The Order of Native Sons of the Golden West has for long been very strong not only in the City of Oakland but generally throughout Alameda County. Oakland Parlor No. 2 was instituted December 17, 1877. This Parlor went out of existence in 1883, but a year later was revived as Oakland Parlor No. 50. In the meantime Alameda Parlor No. 47 had been instituted at Alameda. The next development came at Livermore with the institution of Las Positas Parlor No. 96, which takes its name from the old Las Positas Grant upon which the city is built. Eden Parlor No. 113, named after Eden Township, instituted at Hayward in 1887, was followed by the establishment of Piedmont Parlor No. 120 at Oakland in 1888. Next in order came Wisteria Parlor No. 127 at Alvarado, and Halcyon Parlor No. 146 at Alameda. Brooklyn Parlor No. 151 was instituted at Brooklyn in 1890. In 1934 this Parlor was reorganized and in so doing took a new name and number, namely, Lakemont Parlor No. 275. Washington Parlor No. 169 at Centerville takes its name from Washington Township. Athens Parlor No. 195 is located in Oakland. Berkeley Parlor No. 210 is named after Berkeley, while Estudillo Parlor No. 223 of San Leandro is named after J. J. Estudillo, who originally owned the grant upon which that city is built. Bay View Parlor No. 238 was organized at West Oakland, sometimes known as the Bay View District. This Parlor later consolidated with Fruitvale No. 252, a Parlor organized at Fruitvale, a suburb of Oakland originally, but now a part of the city. There are also three other Parlors, to wit, Claremont No. 240 at Emeryville, Pleasanton No. 244 at Pleasanton

ALAMEDA NATIVE SONS PAY TRIBUTE TO GRAND PRESIDENT

Oakland (Alameda County).—The sixteen Alameda County Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West paid tribute to Grand President Edward T. Schnarr at a reception-dinner August 29 at the Oakland Hotel attended by more than 250. At the conclusion of the dinner a recessed meeting of Fruitvale Parlor No. 122 was held, and twenty-eight candidates, designated as the "Grand President's class," were initiated—eight for Fruitvale, six for Berkeley Parlor No. 210, four for Piedmont Parlor No. 20, three for Eden Parlor No. 113, two each for Athens Parlor No. 195, Estudillo Parlor No. 23 and Claremont Parlor No. 210, and one for Alameda Parlor No. 47.

The ritual was exemplified by the following: Eph H. Olsen, Fruitvale Parlor No. 252, president; Lester J. Cosgrove, Grand Second Vice-president Wayne R. Millington, Grand Third Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Treasurer John A. Corot, Grand Outside Sentinel Larry W. Marvin, Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Trustees Richard F. McCarthy, Eben K. Smart, Thomas C. Ryan, Louis Bosch and Joseph E. Muey.

at Niles No. 250 at Niles. Representatives of all these Alameda County Parlor are working indefatigably to make the 1941 Admission Day celebration a very great success. Judging by Oakland's record for hospitality at previous celebrations and Grand Parlor held there, there is little doubt that this will be a banner Admission Day.

In addition to the Grand Presidents and early past officers mentioned at the outset of this article, the Order has called on a number of Alameda County men to serve in high stations in later years. These are Frank Barnett of Piedmont Parlor No. 120, one term as Grand Trustee; Frank M. Carr of Eden Parlor No. 113 and later of Fruitvale Parlor No. 252, two terms as Grand Trustee; William F. Chipman of Halcyon Parlor No. 146, one term as Grand Trustee; Rod Wonder Parlor Adds Thirty-seven.

Ventura—Some 250 members of the Order, representing most of the southland Parlors, attended the August 6 meeting of Cabrillo No. 114. The evening's festivities opened with a program of musical and dance numbers, which was followed by a chicken dinner at which all visitors were guests. Then the crowd proceeded to the lodgeroom, where Superior Judge Louis C. Drapeau, the Parlor's new president, conducted an open session at which the following "outsiders" spoke briefly: James J. McBride, state senator; Harry Green, manager Ventura County Star Free-Press, and George Poulos, president Ventura Chamber of Commerce. Judge Robert M. Clarke, a former member of Cabrillo now affiliated with Ramona No. 109, Los Angeles, was the main speaker, and other speakers were Dr. Charles Stuart, District Attorney M. Arthur Waite and Postmaster Emilio Ortega, members of No. 114.

FULL CO-OPERATION IS EXPECTED

The Sixty-fourth (Lake Tahoe) Grand Parlor N.S.G.W. adopted a resolution providing for the formation of emergency first aid units by Subordinate Parlors. In a communication to the Parlors, Grand President Edward T. Schnarr says the American Red Cross is the best-equipped organization to further this work, because it has branches throughout the state and instructors who will teach first aid without cost.

He therefore urges every Parlor to contact the Red Cross in its community and have a representative explain in detail the nature of the work and what will be expected of members who will agree to enter a class for instruction.

"The participation of your Parlor in this movement," says Grand President Schnarr, "will provide a service interest that will attract the attention of the people of your community. Not only is the project of a service nature, but it fittingly works in with our national defense plans. First aid training is not only beneficial to the individual who receives it, but to the many people who will benefit therefrom should an emergency arise. Your full co-operation is expected!"

dent. August 4 the Parlor, through George W. Hall, a fifty-year member, presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the City of San Mateo.

August 14 Redwood celebrated its fifty-sixth institution birthday at a dinner under the direction of C. M. Junker, Grand Second Vice-president Wayne Millington, master of ceremonies, presented fifty-year emblems to F. W. Johnson and James T. O'Keefe, and six twenty-five-year emblems were also presented. Entertainment was furnished by the Parlor's hillbillies, and there were talks by Dan E. Stafford, George W. McNulty and H. A. Beeger, former mayors of Redwood City, and many oldtimers. More than a hundred members were in attendance. The Parlor now has 225 members and assets of $33,000.

Menlo Parlor No. 185 of Menlo Park recently consolidated with Redwood under the direction of Grand Second Vice-president Millington, and the same evening No. 66 initiated five candidates. Visitors included Grand Trustee Thomas C. Ryan, Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, who gave a very interesting talk on the history of the Bear Flag, Rev. Thos. J. McKeon of Calistoga No. 86, Supervising Deputy Avilla and District Deputy Semichy. On behalf of Redwood, Grand Second Vice-president Millington recently presented a Bear Flag to Redwood City for its hundred-foot flagpole.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS of Subordinate Parlors, Native Daughters of the Golden West—Dear Sisters: As we blow out the last of the ninety-one imaginary candles on our birthday cake this year let us visualize in its last flickering flame the story of California and its wonderful progress since 1850.

"The good news and official documents announcing our Statehood were brought to California by General John Bidwell. The trip aboard the mail packet Oregon took thirty-nine days to the west coast, so the news did not reach California until October when the ship docked at San Francisco. Never has there been a more jubilant scene anywhere than the one that greeted the announcement of California's admission to the Union, first state. Peter Burne trick of fate, be in San Francisco the news arrived was into his General Bidwell's papers. "From that we have advanced step by step, until we are now rank as one of the leading states of the Union. Through modern processes of refrigeration it is now possible for the products of our fields, orchards and waterways to be sold in the markets of the entire world.

"Industrially, we can be proud of the high position we hold. Into the keeping of California has been entrusted the greatest of all industries, the manufacture of aircraft. In this field we rank first, and it is followed closely by shipbuilding and manufacture of machinery. The mineral wealth of California is unparalleled as to variety. Many of the things necessary for the national defense program come from our soil. Gold, manganese, quicksilver and oil are aiding greatly in the production of defense machinery. Through our great pipelines is pouring the black gold so necessary for industrial achievement.

"Our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers founded well the state we all love so dearly, and we can well be proud of the part we, as Native Daughters and Native Sons, are playing in the further advancement of California.

Clarice E. Cook

Pioneer Trail Placued.

Alleghany—Henness Pass, named for its discoverer, Pat Henness, was marked with a bronze plaque by Sierra No. 258 August 12. The pass was at one time the main emigrant trail from Virginia City, Nevada, to Marysville, California, and was traveled by the pioneers as early as 1849. Stopping houses were erected at intervals of eight or ten miles so horses could be changed. One of these old buildings, still standing, is called "Plum Valley Inn" and has many interesting features of early day architecture.

The plaque was dedicated by Grand President Clarice Cook, Thelma Carvin and Esther M. McCluskey. Preceding the plaque's unveiling a short program was presented by the Alleghany School Band, Emma Devon, Dorcas Douglas and Supervisor Elton Carvin. The plaque is inscribed:

"PIONEER EMIGRANT TRAIL, Henness Pass Road. The main Emigrant Trail leading from Virginia City, Nevada, to Marysville, California, traveled by the Pioneers as early as 1849. Tablet placed by Sierra Parlor No. 258 Native Daughters of the Golden West. Dedicated August 12, 1941." In the evening Grand President Cook officially visited the Parlor.

BOOK REVIEWS

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

"WESTERN AMERICA."

By LeRoy R. Hafen and Carl Coke Rister; Prentice-Hall, Inc., Publishers, New York; Price, $4.65.

This 698-page volume, written by LeRoy R. Hafen, Professor of History, University of Denver, and Carl Coke Rister, Professor of History, University of Oklahoma, is a detailed story of the economic, political and social development of the lands lying beyond the Mississippi. It emphasizes popular movements, and presents the biography of numerous pioneers — explorer, trader, builder, financier, preacher, etc.

As the introduction points out, "As closely as possible, the authors have followed a chronological sequence. Thus, the first four chapters are concerned with the achievements of the Spaniards and the French in establishing themselves in the Southwest, on the Pacific Coast, and in the Mississippi Valley. . . a brief survey of the Anglo-American background is given in the next four chapters. . . The remaining chapters are concerned with the gradual emergence of the new Westerner, his problems, his institutions, his interests, and his culture."

"Western America" is a valuable addition to the history books dealing with the great West. It has several maps and is liberally illustrated.

"FROM FOUR WINDOWS."

By Betty L. Whitsell; The Kaleidograph Press, Publishers, Dallas, Texas; Price, $1.50.

This is a collection of some of the delightful poems of Betty L. Whitsell, a member of the League of American Pen Women residing in Burlingame, San Mateo County. The Grizzly Bear has been privileged to publish several of Mrs. Whitsell's poems, and others recently appeared in a booklet titled "Golden Nuggets."

LOS ANGELES

CITY AND COUNTY

SEPTEMBER 4, 1781, vigorous Felipe de Neve, Governor of California, led an adventurous colonizing group from San Gabriel Mission to found the Pueblo of Los Angeles. September 4 of this year, 160 years after that first trek, the route taken by the first families will be retraced by a picturesque procession of horsemen and old vehicles from San Gabriel Mission to the Plaza in Los Angeles. Sponsor of the celebration is the Women's Auxiliary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, of which Grace S. Stoermer, Past Grand President of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, is president. Christine Sterling is chairman of the day's activities.

The sentimental procession will leave San Gabriel at 9 a.m., stop at Lincoln Park enroute to place a wreath upon the statue of Miguel Hidalgo, father of Mexican liberty, rest for lunch, and arrive at the Plaza in Los Angeles at approximately 3 p.m. In the procession the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West will be represented by an entry provided by the Friday Luncheon Club.

At the Plaza a civic program will be staged, with city officials and members of early California families participating. After that a reception for pioneers and civic dignitaries will be held at the Avila House in Olvera street. Grand Marshal Mary B. Noerenberg of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, chairman of the reception, will be assisted by John Mott and Isidore Dockweiler.

Elena Wolfskill, great-granddaughter of William Wolfskill, the Kentucky trapper who became the father of the citrus industry in Los Angeles, has been chosen "La Reina" of the fiesta and will preside over the day's activities. SCHOOL DAZE

It's time to start getting the kids ready for school again—clothes, books, bicycles, roller skates and whatever. And it'll cost money to get 'em ready. In case you're a little short of funds your "columnut" has a suggestion: If you don't want to disturb your savings; or if you've already invested them in Defense Bonds to help Uncle Sam, drop in at any California Bank office and ask about an Installment Loan.

SANTA BARBARA NEWS

Santa Barbara—The ninth annual supper given August 7 by Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. to honor the Los Angeles County sheriff's mounted posse was largely attended and pleasing in every detail. The posse always appears in the historical parade, a feature of the Old Spanish Days Fiesta that attracts an immense crowd to the Channel City.

Harold T. Campbell was the toastmaster. Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer said that serious illness detained Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz at home, and he introduced the members of the posse. The main address of the occasion was delivered by Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, who outlined the objectives of the Order of Native Sons, and stressed its members' interest in the past, the present and the future of the Golden State. Other speakers were Grand First Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar and Superior Judge Louis C. Drapeau. Among others introduced were Secretary Cliff Reilly of the sheriff's posse, Harry C. Sweetser, grand marshal of the splendid parade, President Raymond B. Romero of Santa Barbara Parlor, Walter C. Richards and Dr. Walter Franklin. Dancing followed the supper.

Arrangements for the occasion were in charge of a committee that included District Deputy A. C. Dinsmore, chairman, Leland Smith, Raymond Stearns and George Streeter. The supper was handled by Harry Doubek, who was commended for doing a hard job well.

Harrison, Arthur Williams, F. L. Birabent and Henry Griffith; O. Frank Huffman, Lester Buell, Walter Gerow, Leland Smith, Leland Holiday and Raymond Romero.

OLDEN DAYS.

Cards have been received announcing the wedding of Miss Hannah Harwood Green and Harry Clark Sweetser to take place September 1 at the bride's home in Elizabeth, New Jersey. Harry is one of our bright young businessmen, and a brighter and sturdier is not to be found among us. Miss Greene also has many friends here, where she visited. We predict a bright future for the happy couple.—Santa Barbara Daily News, August 16, 1891.

(This refers to Harry C. Sweetser, long active in Native Sons affairs and for years the recording secretary of Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116.—Editor.)

Anne Schiebusch. The August card parties under the chairmanship of Margaret Kreider were very successful. The Florencita Thimble Club met August 6 and 20, with Ann Menveg and Katherine Mooney as the respective hostesses.

Several pre-nuptial showers were held for Virginia Anderson, a member of Rudecinda, who was wedded August 24 to Paul Newman of Wilmington, affiliated with Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. The bride is a daughter of Gertrude Crawford of Rudecinda.—R.W.

If we are wise, these values can be made to serve all mankind. My countrymen, we have marched into the twilight of a world war. Should we not stop here and build our defense while we can still see? Shall we stumble on into the night of chaos?"—Herbert Hoover, former President of the United States.

Their unique entry, an "elephant train," gaily decorated in patriotic colors, with the members gowned in white satin dresses, trimmed in red, white and blue, received hearty applause. JANE LATHROP STANFORD

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

THIRTY-SIX YEARS AGO THE TWENTY-EIGHTH Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West convened at historic Monterey. A resolution to the memory of Jane Lathrop Stanford, who had passed away shortly before, was adopted. At the present time Stanford University, endowed over fifty years ago by Senator Leland Stanford and Jane Lathrop Stanford, his wife, is celebrating its half-century of instructional service to the youth of California and of the United States. Leland Stanford was a man who made history in the West. Civil War Governor of California, leader in the railroad building movement, co-founder of Stanford University and United States Senator, his life and career are well known. Overshadowed by her illustrious husband, Mrs. Stanford measured up to his capacities in the realm of womanhood. She was the great public soul. She was the good wife, the loyal mother, the philanthropic heart. And the reader may learn something about Mrs. Leland Stanford at this time, when the name of Stanford University is being heralded far and wide, this article is presented.

Mrs. Stanford was born at Albany, New York, August 25, 1828. Her name as given at baptism is Jane Eliza Lathrop, and by this she was known to her people and friends until after her marriage to Leland Stanford. He fondly nicknamed her "Jennie," and she was privately known by this appellation for many years. After the death of Senator Stanford in 1893 it became necessary for her to deal officially with the world at large in the management of the large estate and the university trust. Hence she adopted the name, Jane Lathrop Stanford.

Jane Eliza Lathrop was raised in her native city, Albany. Her rearing was of the strict type common in the early days of the United States. She attended the Albany Female Academy and received her share of education. However, following the custom of the times, Jane Eliza was educated for what may be termed maternal womanhood. She learned a minimum of cultural subjects in school. At home she learned housekeeping, an art so highly necessary to the successful wife and mother. In the days of Mrs. Stanford's youth no young woman went out to earn her own living if her father could afford to support her. So it was that Jane Eliza Lathrop lived that covert life of so many young women of her generation. There are many who may opine that such an existence is wasted. However, there can be no doubt that these young women became a most valuable contribution to building the new America by their excellence as wives and mothers.

Jane Lathrop was married to Leland Stanford in 1850. For a short time after their marriage the young couple lived at Port Washington, Wisconsin, where Stanford practiced law. A fire, however, in which his law library was wiped out caused them to move away. Stanford wished to come West and join his brothers in business. Lathrop was ill and needed his daughter's attention. Hence, Stanford took his wife back to Albany and left her with her father, while he came to Hail to the winners, champions all," comments James Hall Snell, publicity co-chairman of the Admission Day committee. "A summary of the celebration would be remiss, however, unless mention be made of the many thousand Native Sons and Native Daughters who competed and marched unawarded. Let their award be the acclaim of thousands who noted with pride their deportment and their resolute dedication of allegiance to state and country. Hail to all Native Sons and Native Daughters, champions all. As a mellow sun melted behind the Golden Gate Admission Day, when Native Sons and Native Daughters had completed the task that he gathered them in Oakland, the thought common to all was 'on to San Diego!'" on to California. Established in business in this state he returned to Albany in 1855 and brought Mrs. Stanford west. At this point it should be stated that during the three years that she was in Albany caring for her father, evil tongues were at work and it was suggested that she was a deserted wife too proud to divorce an errant husband. Before returning to Albany, Stanford had closed out his business interests in California and had planned upon permanent residence in Albany. Disgusted at the gossip against her, Mrs. Stanford insisted upon moving to California. It was, therefore, her decision, and not his, that gave Leland Stanford to California as a permanent citizen.

In California, Jennie Stanford followed the occupation of being the wife of a great man. They settled in Sacramento. Shortly after he became active in the Republican Party. A few years later, the great engineer, Theodore Judah, convinced him of the importance and the possibility of bringing the railroad to California. He probably would not have run for public office, but in 1861 it was necessary to bring two issues before the people of California. One was the matter of building the railroad. The other was the question of remaining loyal to the Union. Stanford's election as governor guaranteed that the people of the state did wish the road built, and evidenced their faith in the preservation of the Union. Stanford received the counsel of wise and leading citizens. There was one, however, who was ever his best and silent adviser, his wife, with whom he discussed all of the important decisions he was called upon to make.

May 14, 1868, eighteen years after their marriage, and just a few months before her fortieth birthday, Mrs. Stanford gave birth to her only child, to whom his parents gave the name Leland De Witt Stanford, but who, because in early boyhood he dropped his middle name, is known in the history of California as Leland Stanford Junior. No one but God Himself can know what joy the birth of this boy meant to his parents. Life indeed had been good to them. Wealth, fortune, the honor of public office had been theirs. Now, their joy was completed by the birth of a son. Some idea of their pride and joy may be obtained from the following account quoted from Berner's "Mrs. Leland Stanford."

"When the baby was only a few weeks old, Mr. Stanford asked Mrs. Stanford to arrange a dinner party for a group of their particular friends. It was a large party, and when they were seated the waiter brought in a large silver platter with a cover and placed it in the center of the table. Mrs. Stanford was very much surprised, for she had planned nothing of the sort, and also had not seen the platter before. Then Mr. Stanford arose and said, 'My friends, I wish now to introduce my son to you.' When the cover of the dish was lifted, the baby was discovered lying in it on blossoms. He was carried around the table and shown to each guest. He was smiling and went through his introduction very nicely."

The years from 1868 to 1884, a sixteen-year period, the years which carried Jane Stanford from age forty to age fifty-six, constitute a span in which she may be said to have rendered the fullest service both as a wife and mother. It was during this time the Stanfords moved from the old house still standing in Sacramento to the mansion at Powell and California streets in San Francisco. It was in this period that they acquired just on the Santa Clara side of the San Mateo-Santa Clara Counties line, a country estate known as "The Mayfield Grange," but which Stanford re-named, "Palo Alto," because of his admiration for the great trees which grew about. This is now the campus of Stanford University and the home in which they lived is used as a convalescent hospital for poor children. In this period the Stanfords made a number of trips across the continent, visited the Centennial Exposition in 1876, spent the years 1879-1881 in Europe, and were spending their second sojourn there when, March 13, 1884, just sixty-one days before his sixteenth birthday would have been reached, Leland Stanford Junior was taken from them. This blow was taken hardest by Senator Stanford, and in those dark days the bereaved mother, her own heart breaking with sorrow, was stolidly brave and was her husband's best comforter. And when this great senator decided that the youth of California should benefit in the fortune which his son would some day have inherited, Jane Stanford concurred unselfishly with him when he pronounced the words, "The children of California shall be our children."

It is indeed unfortunate that a changed outlook has brought about a high tuition at Stanford University, intended by its founders to be open to the children of the poor. It is also unfortunate that so many believe that the university is the gift of Leland Stanford. It should never be forgotten that Jane Lathrop Stanford was the co-founder of this great university.

In 1893 Senator Stanford passed away, and the management of the estate fell into Mrs. Stanford's hands. Normally this might have been an easy task to perform, but his death came just as a panic was descending on the financial structure of the country. The years from 1893 to 1897 were truly years of a hard and bitter depression. Many of the securities of the Stanford estate as well as the extensive holdings suffered a drop in value. For a time there was danger that the income of the university would be severely curtailed. This naturally worried Mrs. Stanford, but, strong character that she was, she bravely carried on. As soon as the danger had passed and the permanence of the estate and trust fund was established she undertook what was her major project in the university, namely, the erection of the Stanford Memorial Church. Having visited the universities of Europe she was impressed with the presence of a church on each campus. Accordingly she spared no effort to give Stanford University an edifice that would stand as a fitting monument to God. Workmen were brought from Europe. She studied engravings in Bibles and books on church architecture. Proud indeed was Jane Lathrop Stanford when this edifice was completed and the front inscription placed, "To the honor and glory of Almighty God, and in loving memory of my husband, Leland Stanford. Erected by his wife, Jane Lathrop Stanford."

The Stanford University Trust was established in 1885. The university was opened fifty years ago, in 1891. There was a clause in the endowment that the founders might exercise a control over the trustees as long as either one of them lived. In 1903, the financial difficulties having been settled, and Mrs. Stanford, the surviving founder, having reached the age of seventy-five, she surrendered to the trustees the complete management of the university, becoming a trustee herself. Her health was poor at this time. Early in 1905 she went to the Hawaiian Islands for a change of climate. There, February 28, the soul of Jane Lathrop Stanford joined those of her husband and her son.

Her love of California history was indeed great, and one of her cherished possessions was Admission Day in San Diego.

San Diego—The Admission Day parade here under the auspices of San Diego No. 108 and San Diego No. 208 N.D. outlined the history of California and San Diego. Rear Admiral Charles A. Blakely, commandant of the Eleventh Naval District, was the grand marshal. In line were the Nineteenth Regiment band, leading a battalion of coast artillerymen; Camp Callan soldiers, headed by their band; the 252-piece Marine Corps band, behind which came the United States marines, and the 150-piece Naval Training Station band, followed by recruits for the navy. Following these were other bands, marching and mounted units, attractive floats and other features.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

SAN ANDREAS (CALAVERAS COUNTY)—A historical marker erected at the old town of Sandy Gulch—which might truly be termed a "ghost town," since hardly a trace of the trading center of north-eastern Calaveras County miners in the days of '49 now remains.—was the incentive for an interesting program September 14.

A parade of pioneers of the district, riding in old-fashioned vehicles, proceeded to West Point and returned to the monument, where the program was held. Postmaster Hazel Avise of Walnut Creek, a member of Coloma No. 212, Sacramento, was the chairman and introduced the oldtimers. Grand Trustee Doris Treat extended greeting on behalf of the Order. Superior Judge J. A. Smith gave an interesting resume of the history of Sandy Gulch. He was born at nearby West Point and is a charter member of Chispa No. 139 N.S., Murphys.

An honored guest was Mrs. Mary Noyes of Sacramento, who was born eighty-five years ago at Sandy Gulch, a daughter of the late James H. Hussey, who located a claim there in 1853. Also in attendance were members of Ursula No. 1, Jackson; Coloma No. 212, Sacramento, and San Andreas No. 113, San Andreas. Concluding the day, a delicious barbecue lunch was served.

Officers Commended.

Etna—Eschscholtzia No. 112 and Mountain Dawn No. 120, Sawyers Bar, met here in joint session August 23 to welcome Grand President Clarice E. Cook on her official visit. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Ella Cook. Preceding the evening's ceremonies a delicious potluck dinner was served at tables decorated by Dorice Young with bouquets of autumn flowers in the colors of the Order, red, white and yellow.

The lodgeroom was also adorned with gorgeous flowers, arranged by Anita Tucker and Bird Freitag. At the conclusion of the ritualistic work Grand President Cook spoke of the Order's projects and commended the officers for the manner in which the ceremonies were conducted. On the Parlor's behalf President Gladys Young presented a gift to Miss Cook. Other speakers were Supervising Deputy Amy Derham, Deputy Reita Campbell, Lettie Lewis, Minna Horn and Margaret Weston.—B.E.S.

Baby Spoons Presented Mothers.

Santa Ana—The officers of Santa Ana No. 235, with Marie Schroeder as president and Genevieve Hiskey as recording secretary, were publicly installed August 25. Deputy Leola Temby, who officiated, was assisted by Grand Marshal Mary B. Noerenberg and members of Long Beach No. 154. The installing officers wore white formals, with pink corsages, and the Arranging for "At Home" Celebration.

Santa Cruz—Santa Cruz No. 26 had a splendid Admission Day program September 8, to which the public was admitted. Zinnias of various colors decorated the hall. President Algia Smith presided, Inez Antonetti and Elva Kiff, color bearers, placed the National Emblem and the Bear Flag upon the platform, and the salute to the flag was led by Lucille Barnhill. Past Grand Stella Finkeldey and Mrs. Anna Lorenz, charter members, were introduced.

A candlelighting ceremony featuring the Order's foundation stones—love of home, devotion to the flag, veneration of the pioneers, and abiding faith in the existence of God—was presented by Arista Mellor, Mary Antonetti, Inez Antonetti, Mamie Cavanaugh, Alta Macauley, Algia Smith, Elva Kiff and Josephine Brazil. Leona Geyer explained the background of the Admission Day celebration, and the significance of the Great Seal of State was interpreted.

Members of the Parlor are collecting furniture and relics to be used in furnishing a room of "long, long ago" for the Santa Cruz "a home" celebration to be held October 11 and 12. A room in the Civic Auditorium has been placed at the disposal of the Native Daughters for their concession. Sunday, October 12, at 2 p.m. golden bear markers will be dedicated, showing the location of the original Mission Santa Cruz.—L.E.S.

Indian Teepee Contained Gifts.

Alturas—Grand President Clarice E. Cook officially visited Alturas No. 159 and Mount Lassen No. 215, Bieber, in joint session here August 21. At a dinner preceding the meeting Mrs. Ella Cook, the mother of the Grand President, was also an honored guest.

The ritual was exemplified for the benefit of two candidates, Alturas conducting the floor work with President Eppa Coffman presiding, an Mount Lassen conducting the initiatory ceremony, with President Anne Mitchell presiding. Grand President Cook thrilled the assemblage with an enthusiastic address, and Loretta Gysl delighted with a recital of music.

A teepee surrounded by aspen trees contained gifts for the Grand President and three of Alturas' recent brides, Alfreda Yarribarren, Roxi Silveria and Bessie Raker. The gifts were presented by Minnie Fralley, attired in a lovely Indian costume, and her address, expressing genuine Indian and Modoc County hospitality, was greatly enjoyed. Also in attendance were Past Grand Irma Laird, Deputy Mabel Cary and Supervising Deputy Imelda Bawden.

Alturas Parlor took first prize in the parade at the Modoc County Fair in Cedarville September 7. The entry included a horse-drawn covered wagon and a marching unit of members attired in white and red. The Parlor sponsored a picnic in honor of the pioneers of Modoc County and Admission Day.

Busy at Red Cross Sewing.

Placencia—Admission Day, September 9, was celebrated by Grace No. 242 with a barbecue at lovely Irvine Park which more than a hundred members and friends thoroughly enjoyed. Evelyn Stroheim was in charge, and the Stroheim brothers barbecued the delicious meat. Dances followed the dinner.

A very successful card party was given September 18. Of great interest to all was an announcement of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kent (Johanna Lemke). Members of the Parlor kept busy at Red Cross sewing at the home of Erna Watts, when the sewing club held its monthly luncheon-meeting September 2. Assisting hostesses were Christine Dunham, Edna Gendar and Christine Sorenson.—N.M.C.

N.D.G.W. — NEWS PARAGRAPHS. — N.D.G.W.

"The wellbeing of our members should be of most importance to us, and we should also interest ourselves in the welfare of others. The newspapers are full of heartaches and sadness, and often much of this grief could have been avoided if someone had bothered to help. Happy people make good American citizens! It is up to us as an organization to cooperate with the charitable agencies, the public school authorities and the parochial schools in the various communities. Christmas is not the only time for us to remember. The welfare of our people should be in our minds all the year through!"—CLARA STROHM, state chairman Veterans Welfare and Welfare Committee.

HOMELESS CHILDREN

OCTOBER — HOMELESS CHILDREN — OCTOBER!

THE EIGHTH OF OCTOBER!

Native Sons and Native Daughters: Time to think about what you are going to do to help the work for the Homeless Children.

Quite a number of the Parlors have already announced the dates of their benefits. Many claims have reached the Central Office for exemption from the amusement tax. The affidavits have been prepared, signed and delivered to the Collector of Internal Revenue in San Francisco.

As soon as your Parlor has decided on the date, place and nature of a benefit entertainment, please send the information to the Central Committee, 998 Eddy street, San Francisco, that an exemption may be secured. Otherwise, the Federal Government tax will reduce the contribution for the children.

It has been quite interesting to note that in many of the smaller communities organizations and churches have agreed on dates for different affairs, that there may be no duplicate dates, thus permitting each organization to receive its part of public patronage without competition. A sort of "live and let live," always well to observe in any community at any time of year. "You help us and we'll help you," and while all may have particular charities nearest their hearts, each one tries to help the other. To be sure, all the shekels come from the same pockets but, after all, what if we lived in a land where we were not allowed to do the things our hearts tell us to do to help humanity, Christian institutions, CHILDREN?

In gratitude for freedom, let each member of the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West help those who will lift up their tiny arms to be loved, needing the care so many hundreds of would-be-parents are willing to bestow when their applications have been reached and the plans can be made by the Native Sons and Native Daughters Central Committee to get parents and child together.

Begin NOW to plan your contributions. Your HELP is needed! Do not wait until the storms come and the world is in greater confusion. Let us help while we can.

OCTOBER — HOMELESS CHILDREN — OCTOBER!

freshment tables were covered with newspapers and decorated with greenery in tin cans. Ramona Schmidt surprised the members by announcing her forthcoming marriage.

Oakland—Fruitvale No. 177 entertained two brides, Florence Delsescoux and Helen Olsen, September 12, and they were presented hand-embroidered pillowcases. The occasion also afforded an opportunity for the many in attendance to greet six recently initiated members. Fruitvale's sewing club spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of Sister Turnbull.—N.E.B.

Byron—Donner No. 193 initiated three candidates September 3. Plans are progressing for the annual bazar, to be held October 15.—A.P.

San Diego—The officers and committee chairmen of San Diego No. 208 were entertained by President Annetta Tweed at a luncheon in her lovely new La Mesa home August 20. September 4 the officers club met there. The marriage of Helen Jourdin to Ted Baker was announced, and gifts were presented the bride. At the Parlor meeting August 27 the engagement of First Vice-president Dorothy Brown to Cecil Holly was announced on tiny scrolls concealed in gardenia corsages. The sewing club of San Diego had a picnic-luncheon in Presidio Hills Park September 17, and outlined plans for an active year, including a November bazar.—S.M.

Bieber—Mount Lassen No. 215 had its annual pioneer day dinner September 9. Many oldtimers from Bieber, Big Valley and Fall River Valley enjoyed an abundance of good things to eat, exchanged greetings and had a fine time generally. They were welcomed by Frances Summers.

Quincy—Plumas Pioneer No. 219 donated, September 15, $10 to the Child Welfare Association to help sponsor a dental clinic, and $10 to help with a community paragonage. The Parlor also decided to adopt a disabled veteran.

San Bernardino—At the September 9 meeting of Lugonia No. 241 the arrival of two native daughters, Roanne Reece and Sharon Hamilton, ASSOCIATE JUSTICE THOMAS PATRICK White of the California Appellate Court was honored at the September 19 meeting of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., September 19, the occasion anticipating his fifty-second birthday anniversary. President William J. Bright designated Frank Ruiz as chairman of the evening.

Superior Judge Ruben S. Schmidt eulogized Justice White as one whose advancing career brought pleasure as well as admiration to his fellow jurists. Concluding his remarks, Leo V. Youngworth said: "Of all the friends I have in Los Angeles, and I have many, the first one I would turn to for a sympathetic understanding would be 'Tom' White. 'Tom' White, you are a great man! God bless you!" J. Deacon Taggart remarked, "Justice White is always right—not merely technically right, but morally right."

Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar presented Justice White, who responded with a brilliant address that thrilled the assemblage. He expressed deep appreciation for the friendships made within the Order, and his remarks evidenced a real, sincere devotion to the Order. Other speakers were John B. Haas, Ray Howard, Ben Hiss, Joseph P. Coyle, Benton Worley, George Walker, Woodrow Wade, August Nardoni and Howard Earl.

The whole tenor of the various speakers' remarks was a deep, abiding affection for Justice White who, they all agreed, never went back on a friend, rich or poor, and had reached his high position by persevering study, honesty, and devotion to God, country and fellowman. The outstanding occasion concluded with a late supper.

Ramona has an exceptionally extensive calendar for October. It includes: 3rd, "Zobelein family night" at the plant of the Los Angeles Brewing Co., 1910 North Main street, in celebration of the birthday of Richard Zobelein, a member of the Parlor; supper at 6:30; all members of the Order invited; hall dark. 10th, dinner in honor Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, Patriotic Hall diningroom, 6:30; no business meeting. 17th, Superior Judge B. Rey Schauer night; refreshments. 23rd, annual banquet Ramona Past Presidents Association, Past Grand President Herman C. Lichtenberger dean, Ray Howard secretary; 317 Commercial street, 6:30. 24th, initiation; refreshments. 31st, Cabrillo Parlor night; Superior Judge Louis C. Drapeau, the president, and other members of "The Wonder Parlor" will be honor-guests; 6:30 dinner and everything; all Native Sons invited; meet the men who initiate thirty-five to sixty candidates every month!—H.L.K.

PROSPECTIVE MEMBERS PARTY.

Wearing white and carrying hoop bouquets of pink gladioli tied with showers of blue ribbon, the officers of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. made a pretty picture as they entered the hall for installation September 3. Deputy Marion Johnson headed the installing team from Californiana Parlor No. 247, with Grand Marshal Mary B. Noerenberg at her station. Following the ceremonies Elsie Amidon, the new president, addressed the gathering and expressed thanks for the honor conferred on her.

President Robert Pesqueria of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. and Organist Marie Hanley entertained with vocal and piano selections, respectively. On behalf of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., Glen Packer presented a bouquet of beautiful flowers to President Amidon, and there were many other presentations. Also in attendance were Past Grand President Grace S. Stoermer, Supervising Deputy Eugenia Smith, Deputies Marcella Palethorpe, Beatrice Warrmund and Ann Schiebusch, City Librarian Althea Warren, Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar and Grand Organist Roger M. Johnson of the Native Sons, and Orpha Klinker, the painter. Refreshments concluded the happy evening.

During September members of the Parlor enjoyed the hospitality of Mildred Ripling, Grace Norton and Lucille Duncan at a meeting of the sewing club at the former's home; met at the home of Dahlia Vucovich for a surprise wedding shower for Evelyn Howell-Ryberg, and started a new Red Cross first aid class.

Jacqueline Wilson and her veterans welfare committee have planned a program and refreshments for Los Angeles' October 15 meeting; honorees will be candidates to be initiated that evening. Louise McNary and May Sherwood head a committee arranging a prospective members party for October 22; a potluck supper will be served at 6:30; the place, Women's University Club, 943 South Hoover. October 25 a sewing party will be held at the home of Juliette de Nubila, 2966 West Eighth street; co-hostesses will be Elsie Amidon, Emma Biles, Louise Crawford, Lillian F. Carey, Grace DuCasse and Marjorie McAuliffe.—E.V.S.

MEMBERSHIP INCREASING.

East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W. gained nine members during the "ask an eligible" contest sponsored by Grand President Edward T. Schnarr. The membership is now seventy-two and a goal of 100 by the end of the year has been set.

Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar will officially visit the Parlor October 27, at which time a dinner will be served and several more candidates will be initiated. Past President Reg Anderson, an officer of the Royal Canadian Air Force, will visit the Parlor October 20 and 27.

East Los Angeles No. 277 and East Los Angeles No. 266 N.D.G.W. will hold a Halloween hardtimes costume dance November 1. The public is invited, and a good time is assured.

FASCINATING DISCOURSE.

With President Ethel Smith making her initial bow as director of its affairs, the opening luncheon of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W., September 9, was characteristically delightful. Commemorating Admission Day, Program Chairman Mary Ann Thomas presented Rex Goodcell in a history narrative, "California Under Twelve Flags."

That was followed by a fascinating discourse by Florence Irish on the progression of music in the state from the era of its most primitive expression to its present culmination in the "Symphonies Under the Stars." Honor-guests were Supervising Deputy Eugenia Smith and Deputy Josephine Reichman. Other honorees were past presidents of the Parlor.

Californiana played a prominent part in Los Angeles' birthday celebration September 4. Plans are under way for a reception in honor of Grand Marshal Mary B. Noerenberg early in October. Isabel Fages is the chairman of arrangements.

AID THIS CAUSE
A semi-formal dance, sponsored by the Southern Counties N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Homeless Children Committee under the chairmanship of Carl Martin, will be held in the blue room of the Biltmore Hotel Saturday, October 18, at 9 p.m.
It will afford an opportunity for Native Sons, Native Daughters and the public generally to aid the homeless children and enjoy the music of Larry Kent's orchestra.
The nominal charge of seventy-five cents per person should substantially increase the fund necessary to carry on this greatest of all charities.
A broadcast of the dance is being arranged, and it is hoped that Miss Mary E. Brusie, general secretary of the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Central Homeless Children Committee, will be here to address the radio audience.
Tickets may be obtained from Miss Flora Holy, treasurer of the local committee, P.O. box 204, Hollywood, or from the chairman of any Parlor of Native Sons or Native Daughters.—W.V.

Flora Jacobson is handling luncheon reservations for the season, and Isabella Granz is hospitality chairman and sponsor of the monthly tea the fourth Tuesday.—B.S.M.

PRESIDENT'S SONS AFFILIATE.
Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. was host to many visitors from surrounding Parlor Septem-ber 15. President M. U. Rosenthal extended a welcome and introduced George LaRue of Glendale Parlor, who presided during the initiation of a class of eight candidates in honor of Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar.

Among the initiates were Carl and Walter, sons of President Rosenthal. Grand Trustee Odemar outlined the Order's projects, and among the other speakers were Supervising Deputy Fred Leonetti, District Deputies William Quast and William Blaha, President William J. Bright of Ramona, President Woodrow Wade of University, Deputy Grand President Hervey Kitchin and Recording Secretary Willard Allen of Los Angeles Parlor. Movies were shown after the meeting and refreshments were served. Secretary William Hortenstine, John Bodkin, Elmer Koop and Harold Thomas were active in looking after details for Hollywood.

The Parlor will be officially visited by Grand Trustee Odemar October 13, and at that time another class of candidates will be initiated.

MISSION REDEDICATED.
Canoga Park—Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. had a potted plant party August 22 for Jean Fuller, to help landscape the gardens of her new Woodland Hills home. A handkerchief shower for President Edith Sprague was held September 12 in recognition of her birthday.

Mission San Fernando Rey de Espana, founded September 8, 1797, was rededicated September 7. Archbishop John Cantwell conducted the solemn dedicatory rites, Rev. Charles Burns, pastor of the mission, read a descriptive narrative, and vocal selections were rendered by the Franciscan choir of Santa Barbara Mission. A barbecue dinner was followed by fiesta dances and songs typical of old California. Jennie Wooley of Topanga, in charge of the tickets, the setting of the tables and the serving of the many in attendance, was assisted by several members of the Parlor.

UNIVERSITY PARLOR NEWS.
Thursday evening, October 9, University Parlor No. 272 N.S.G.W. will be host to a grand officers ritual team composed of Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, Grand First Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Second Vice-president Wayne R. Millington, Grand Third Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson, Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer. Every member of University is expected to have at least one candidate for initiation at that time. The members of all Parlor are invited to spend that evening at 1832 South Hope street.

October 1, Leslie Drown will conduct another of his famous amateur nights at an open meeting; bring your prospective candidates. October 15 a speaker will disclose various phases of history work confronting Los Angeles Native Sons. October 29, University will have open house for all Native Sons, Native Daughters, their wives, husbands and friends. There will be dancing, card games and refreshments.—W.W.W.

SANTA BARBARA NEWS

(JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE.)

Santa Barbara—Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. will make a joint motor pilgrimage to La Purissima Mission, Sunday, October 5. There they will unite in pageantry and program with the newly-organized Santa Maria Parlor No. 276 N.D.G.W. and the citizens of Lompoc, near which the historic landmark, just restored by the Federal Government, is located.

Leaders of the three Parlors realize the importance of bringing cultural programs to the youth now in the United States Army training camps of California. One of them is under construction in the Lompoc-Santa Maria area. Sunday there will be a picnic, with impressive program, in the mission garden.

President Raymond B. Romero and Historian Paul G. Sweetser will head the delegation from Santa Barbara Parlor, President Sylvia Griffiths, Dr. Anna E. McCaughey and Mrs. William Wagener will lead the Reina del Mar party, which will include the Fiesteros group of dancers, and President Helen R. France and Mrs. M. F. Turnage will be in charge of the Santa Maria representation.

Community Strength Is National Strength.

Realizing that community strength is national strength, the two Santa Barbara Parlors are preparing for joint participation in the Santa Barbara Community Chest campaign which opens October 17. Mrs. Stanley Clem and Leland Holiday will serve as chairmen.

Homeless Children Benefit.

Santa Barbara Parlor continues, with success, its monthly dinner-meeting. The program presents one outstanding speaker and several turns of professional vaudeville. Carty, a native of Santa Barbara, is a resident of Oxnard and an officer of Cabrillo Parlor No. 114 N.S.G.W., Ventura.

October 16, for the benefit of the homeless children, Santa Barbara Parlor will feature a "Forty-niner nite," with dinner, entertainment, etc.

NATIVES DEED HISTORIC LANDMARK TO NAPA COUNTY

Napa (Napa County)—Saint Helena Parlor No. 53 and Calistoga Parlor No. 86 N.S.G.W. have deeded to Napa County the restored Bale Mill, a noted landmark of Napa County near Saint Helena. The deed provides that the county will "preserve and perpetuate the historic landmarks of the early pioneers of Napa County." The restored mill was dedicated by the Native Sons June 21, 1925. Fronting it is a marker, inscribed:

"This historic grist mill, known as the Bale Mill, was erected by Dr. E. T. Bale, grantee Carne Humana Rancho, in 1846. The mill with surrounding land was deeded to the Native Sons of the Golden West by Mrs. W. W. Lyman, restored through the efforts of the Native Sons Parlors of Napa County under the leadership of Past Grand President Bismarck Bruck, a grandson of Dr. Bale, and by the historic landmarks committee of the Native Sons of the Golden West."

SERVICES OFFERED DEFENSE COUNCIL.

"At the meeting held last night, the following resolution was passed by unanimous vote: That this Parlor offer its services to the Colusa County Defense Council for the organization and supervision of public First Aid Classes in the City of Colusa. This would include (1) necessary preliminary publicity, (2) securing of suitable quarters, (3) securing from the local Red Cross unit qualified instructors, (4) registration of applicants and (5) assistance with the classes.

"If this project meets with the approval and sanction of the Defense Council, it is proposed to start the classes immediately. Kindly advise your wishes and decision in the matter. Sincerely, OATHER L. HAMPTON, president; PHIL J. HUMBURG, secretary."

The California State Grange is to have its annual meeting at Santa Barbara October 21-24.

Whereas, Again the Angel of Death has entered our Parlor and has taken from us our dearly beloved sister, Sister Mary Thompson, who was a true and true Native Daughter.

Not lost but gone before,
She lives with us in memory
And will forever more."

MARY McDONNELL.

To the Officers and Members of Piedmont Parlor 87 N.D.G.W.—We, your memorial committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the loving memory of our departed Sister Mary McDonnell, submit the following:

"Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach;
Sweet to remember her who once was here,
And though absent is just as dear."

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father in His Divine Wisdom has again seen fit to remove from our fraternal circle of our loyal and faithful members, and a devoted and precious mother from her family. We who knew and loved her mourn her passing, and while we keenly feel the loss of her presence we are comforted by the belief that she has left something of great value with us—the comradeship and goodfellowship she spread wherever she went. Her generosity and endearing ways will always reverberate in the memory of each of us and make us better women for having known and loved her. Be it, therefore,

Resolved, That this expression of our sympathy be spread to the family, that it be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor, and that a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

LILLIAN WHITE.

To the Officers and Members of Dolores Parlor No. 12 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee assigned with the sorrowful duty of drafting resolutions of respect to the memory of our late Sister Lillian White, herewith submit the following:

Whereas, The Shadow of Death has stalked through our Parlor and taken from our midst our beloved sister; and

Whereas, The trials, the sorrows and the disappointments that must come in every life, however sheltered, are ended, and our sister now peacefully sleeps, we hereby record our tribute of fraternal love to a loyal Native Daughter, and resolve that we extend to her bereaved family our sincere sympathy. It is our earnest prayer that God may send peace into their hearts.

We do not sigh when golden skies have donned
The purple shadows and gray of night,
Because we know the morning lies beyond
And we must wait a little while for light.
So, when grown weary with the care and strife
Our loved ones find in sleep the peace they crave,
We should not weep, but learn to count this life
A prelude to the one beyond the grave.

Be it further resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning, that an engrossed copy of these resolutions be presented to her husband, that a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication, and that a copy be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor.

WILLIAM P. TOLER AND THE RAISING OF THE FLAG OVER CALIFORNIA

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

IT IS GENERALLY KNOWN THAT ON JULY 7, 1846, the Flag of the United States of America was raised over California by Commodore John Drake Sloat. A fact not so well known is that Sloat did not actually raise the flag himself. That was done by Midshipman William P. Toler under Sloat's orders. Another fact not well known is that actually the Stars and Stripes was raised over California four years before Commodore Sloat ordered it hoisted. This was on October 19, 1842, when, by direction of Commodore Thomas Ap Catesby Jones, the flag was raised over Monterey. The actual raising in this case was also done by Midshipman Toler.

In 1841 the relations between the United States and Mexico were greatly strained, due to the situation with regard to Texas. It was freely predicted on all sides that war would soon break out between the two nations. It was also well understood that, if war did take place between the United States and Mexico, England or France would attempt to take California. The British had a squadron of four vessels in the Pacific, bringing a total of 116 mounted guns. The French had a squadron of eight vessels, with a total of 242 mounted guns.

The United States was concerned for two reasons: First, it was felt that the nation should watch from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and therefore California should be acquired. Second, the Monroe Doctrine would be seriously violated either France or England should be permitted to acquire California. For these reasons, on December 10, 1841, American interests on the Pacific were entrusted to Commodore Jones, and earlier that date he was given very broad instructions from the Secretary of the Navy. In the summer of 1842 he was anchored at Callao, Peru. There he heard a number of distressing rumors. One was to the effect that Mexico had sold California to Great Britain, and another was that war between the United States and Mexico had broken out. In either event, he felt that he had duty to perform with regard to California. For that reason he left Peru September 7th and reached Monterey the 18th of October.

Commodore Jones demanded the immediate surrender of the fort which then stood on the site of Monterey Presidio. Governor Michelena had just entered California from Mexico. He had not yet reached Monterey to relieve Governor Alvarado. The latter called a meeting of officials and prominent citizens, and it was decided that it would be best to acquiesce in the demand for surrender. Accordingly, Commodore Jones was so notified. At high noon on the 20th, Midshipman Toler raised the Stars and Stripes over the fort.

In the meantime, Commodore Jones began to investigate the relations between the United States and Mexico on the one hand, and between Mexico and England on the other. United States Consul Thomas O. Larkin and others insisted they had no evidence of war having broken out. Recent letters from Mexico were read and confirmed this. Commodore Jones acted accordingly. On the 21st he apologized to the Mexican officials for his error, hauled down the American flag and re-hoisted the Mexican flag. Thus, for the first time in history, the Stars and Stripes lay down officially over any part of California. Commodore Jones, however, was convinced that every day might witness the break between the nations which had so long been expected, and so he remained anchored at Monterey until the end of 1842, ready to repeat his performance and retake Monterey. Nothing happened, however, and he withdrew from Monterey in 1843.

In June 1845 Commodore Sloat received instructions from the Secretary of the Navy similar to those issued to Commodore Jones in 1841. Commodore Sloat was anchored at Honolulu in the autumn of that year and, believing that war had broken out between the United States and Mexico, sailed at once for Mazatlan. War had not broken out, however. In the months that followed the diplomatic negotiations, relations between the two nations became more and more strained. In the late spring of 1846 Commodore Sloat was greatly concerned over the presence of the British Admiral Seymour at Mazatlan. In May he heard that hostilities had broken out, and sailed at once for Monterey. He arrived July 2nd. He, too, demanded surrender of the Presidio, but the commander replied that he lacked authority to comply. Commodore Sloat fixed July 7th as the date upon which he would raise the Stars and Stripes and take over the city. Accordingly, the morning of that day sailors and marines were landed and, after the reading of Commodore Sloat's proclamation, Midshipman Toler, now attached to Commodore Sloat's command, raised Old Glory on the flagpole of the Custom House. Thus for the second time, and this time permanently, the Flag of the United States was raised over California by Midshipman Toler upon the orders of a commodore of the United States Navy.

In the year 1896 the people of California looked back with grateful appreciation for the American occupation of their state. The voice of public sentiment spoke, and demanded that on the fiftieth anniversary of Commodore Sloat's flag raising there be a commemoration at Monterey that would both honor the past and reproduce the ceremony. Accordingly, July 7, 1896, people from all parts of California traveled to Monterey to witness the re-raising of the national flag. Hon. Henry C. Gesford of Napa, then Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, was present and spoke on behalf of the young native Californians. The committee in charge arranged with the Navy Department, and battleships entered the bay and from them marines were landed as they had been fifty years before. The time came for raising the flag from the old pole on the northwest corner of the Custom House. This honor the committee gave to him who, of all, deserved it, namely, William P. Toler, now seventy-one years of age and a resident of Oakland. The venerable man performed his task. For the third time he had raised the Flag of the United States of America over California, this time over a state that rejoiced in its fifty years of American ownership.

William P. Toler was born in Venezuela, December 23, 1825, and it was his knowledge of Spanish which caused his assignment to the Pacific department of the navy. His father was a Virginian who, on a business trip to Venezuela, married and settled there. Mrs. Toler died when William was about three years of age. The father returned to the United States, but his son was destined to grow up in Latin America, for his father was soon thereafter appointed United States Consul to Puerto Rico. When his father's service in Puerto Rico was over, William Toler returned to the United States. He worked first as a clerk in the office of the attorney-general in Washington. On the recommendation of Henry Clay, he was appointed a midshipman in 1841. He was a staff officer under Commodore Jones, and secretary and signal officer under Commodore Sloat. It is believed that it was he who translated Sloat's proclamation into Spanish.

Following the flag raising, Toler was charged with building a small garrison known as Fort Mervine. After this was done and the Mexican War came to a close he sought to present his resignation. Commodore Biddle would not accept it, and he was sent to Washington. He was determined to quit the navy, however, and so arrangements were made to accept his resignation when he returned to California. Accordingly, he was assigned to the Sloop-of-War St. Mary's, and as soon as she arrived in San Francisco Bay he took his leave of the service. Toler engaged in the customs brokerage business. In 1852 he married Maria Antonia Peralta, a granddaughter of Don Luis Antonio Peralta, who once owned all of the present City of Oakland, and of this marriage there was born one son, J. Hoyt Toler.

William P. Toler passed away at Oakland, January 24, 1899, and his funeral took place from his residence at 546 Albion street. A requiem mass was celebrated at St. Mary's Church, and interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery. A number of pioneers and veterans of the Mexican War attended the last services for their old friend, who has been described by Major Edwin A. Sherman as having led a life "against which nothing can be said."

COME AND GET IT!

Under date of October 23, Grand President Edward T. Schnarr sent the following letter to all Subordinate Parlor, with a request that secretaries read it in full to their Parlor. Accompanying the letter was a pamphlet setting forth reasons why eligibles should affiliate with the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, a 100 percent American organization:

"To all Parlor Native Sons of the Golden West—Dear Sirs and Brothers: As you have been previously informed, I have deposited the sum of fifteen dollars to the account of your Parlor's social fund.

"For the period October 1, 1941, to December 31, 1941, and for each member that your Parlor gains either by initiation or reinstatement, $1.50 will be credited to your account. For the same period and for each member lost—suspensions, resignations, withdrawals, deaths, etc.—$1.50 will be deducted from your account.

"Here is an opportunity to secure some additional cash that your Parlor can spend at will. Money to help out that ball team, drum corps, or to add to next term's good of the order for that coming banquet.

"COME AND GET IT!

"Let's see if your Parlor will be solvent at the close of this year.

"Your Parlor's money on hand will be forwarded upon the filing of its semi-annual report by your Recording Secretary with the Grand Secretary. However, no moneys will be allowed any Parlor based on a report received by the Grand Secretary after February 15, 1942."

Native Daughters of the Golden West

STOCKTON (SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY)—Graceful pampas grass plumes arranged with white cattails in large baskets formed the decorative accent at the reception given by Caliz de Oro No. 206, September 27, in honor of Grand President Clarice E. Cook, a member of the Parlor. The affair was under the general chairmanship of Supervising Deputy Imelda Bawden. Included among the 300 who greeted the honoree during the evening were state, county and city officials, grand officers of the Native Daughters and the Native Sons, and members of both Orders from all parts of the state.

Boquets of red, white and yellow centered both lace-covered tables, and candlelight prevailed. The service at the coffee table was entirely in silver, and that at the punch table in crystal. Pouring were Claire Wilber, Ora Hammer, Lura Beers and Mary Tay. In the receiving line, headed by Mrs. Bawden, were Grand President Cook, her mother, Mrs. Ella Cook, Past Grand May C. Boldemann, "mother" of the Parlor, President Edythe Flint and Laura Jane O'Brien.

Musical numbers were delightfully presented by the glee club and trio of Karl Ross American Legion Auxiliary, directed by Corinne Barrow Williams; Raymond Tong and Blanche Ciarlo, with Mrs. William Stuart at the piano. The orchestra was directed by Chuck Raggio.

Bidwell presented a skit, and Dr. Etta Lund entertained with piano selections. On behalf of the members in the district Mae Houston presented a lovely gift to Supervising Deputy Feige. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Sacramento—Two hundred guests attended the fashion show and card party of Rio Rito No. 253 October 9. Fall gowns and millinery for sports, afternoon and evening were modeled by Isabel Parker, general chairman of the affair, Mildred Pegram, Edna Lowery, Margaret Kelly, FREQUENTLY, admired skin and complexion owe their rose-petal loveliness to Chamberlain's, the lotion that satinizes. This clear, golden liquid lotion, used regularly, enhances natural loveliness, encourages smoothness, freedom from irritation, relieves chapping. Chamberlain's Lotion is most convenient to use, dries quickly, is never sticky, greasy, gummy nor "messy." At all toilet goods counters.

Give Thanks

"To the Officers and Members of Subordinate Parlor's, Native Daughters of the Golden West—Dear Sisters: Thanksgiving greetings to you all! Holidays may come and go, but the one dear to the American heart is Thanksgiving, that day set aside to give thanks to God for the blessings of the past year.

"For centuries harvest festivals have been held in many parts of the world. These celebrations are of a very ancient origin and were universal among primitive peoples. They usually took place in the late autumn after the crops had been harvested.

"Our American Thanksgiving is doubtless the outgrowth of the Harvest Home celebration of England, for the first Thanksgiving in the New World was that held by the Pilgrims at Plymouth. After their first dreadful winter in America, during which almost half of their company died, their hope was renewed when God blessed them with an abundant corn crop. Governor Bradford decreed a day of thanksgiving that fall. Thus, the year 1621 marks the first Thanksgiving in the New World. To the Pilgrims it was a day not only of feasting, but one of prayer and thanksgiving to God for His protection and care. From Plymouth the custom spread to the other colonies until the time when the governor of each colony ordered an annual Thanksgiving Day proclamation.

"During the Revolutionary War, eight special days of thanks were observed after signal or wonderful deliverance from danger. In 1784 a special day of thanksgiving was appointed for the return of peace. After the adoption of the Constitution, in 1789, President Washington appointed a Thanksgiving Day, while a special thanksgiving for the welfare of the nation was given in 1795, and another for the return of peace was appointed by President Madison in 1815. The festival has been observed annually in New York since 1817, but its general observance in the United States dates from 1863, when President Lincoln issued a proclamation recommending that the last Thursday in November be observed as Thanksgiving Day.

"This year, as we partake of the bounties of our glorious land, let us pause, as did the Pilgrims, to give thanks to our Heavenly Father for His blessings of the past year and to ask for guidance to carry on during the year to come.

"Sincerely and fraternally yours,

Clarice E. Cook

Elza Paul was chairman of the affair, which concluded with delightful refreshments. At the meeting that preceded the reception ten candidates were initiated. October 12 the Parlor's drill team participated in the Columbus Day festivities at San Francisco.—P.R.

Ada Fox and Margaret Cobb entertained the officers of the Parlor at a dinner at the former's home October 13. To increase the Parlor's funds President Hulda Hertz arranged for a successful rummage sale, and card parties are being conducted. The sewing club was entertained October 1 and 15 at the homes of Sisters Weiss and Amaral. Supervising Deputy Helena Hansen and Deputy Florence Morton were visitors to Vendome October 8 and 22.—I.M.S.

AN EXTRA LARGE CROWD ATTENDED the October 10 meeting of the Native Sons Friday Luncheon Club at the Rosslyn Hotel. Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer was the chairman of the day, and introduced as the speaker Grand President Edward T. Schnarr of Oakland, who said, in part:

"We are natural born citizens of the United States of America and as sons of this great commonwealth, California, are definitely interested in the maintenance of our form of government, to the end that in these critical times we are especially lending every effort to assist our President in the exemplification of the duties of his office and do place all faith in his leadership and decisions.

"In all parts of our state the members of our Order have formed classes in first aid under the direction of the Red Cross, indicating we are preparing to assist if a national emergency arises.

"We note in the press that an organized movement has been started by some of the distinguished citizens of our nation, particularly in our State of California, to bring about a better understanding between the White race and the American-born Japanese who are residing in this country.

"We are in accord with this humanitarian viewpoint, but we call attention to the fact that at least fifty percent of these native-born Japanese have dual citizenship. That is, at birth they were registered at the Japanese consulate by their parents and have not relinquished their allegiance to the emperor of Japan. Until such relinquishment they are considered Japanese subjects. If and when this organization, interested in the welfare of these people, can assure us that all, or nearly all, of these Japanese born in this country have relinquished this allegiance to the land of their ancestry, we will wholeheartedly co-operate with them in their endeavors."

Federal Judge Ben Harrison spoke briefly, and commended the Grand President for his assertions. Other out-of-city visitors were Grand Secretary John T. Regan, and Past Grand Presidents Chas. A. Koenig and Harmon D. Skillin, all of San Francisco.

At the October 24 session of the Luncheon Club, Peace Justice O. Benton Worley told about the "Trials and Tribulations of a Justice of the Peace." He was introduced by President George M. Cuthbertson.

MEN IN SERVICE ENTERTAINED.

The October 14 luncheon of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. was well attended, and Mary Ann Thomas provided a fine program of music—piano numbers by Sylvia Rudelson Snyder, and contralto solos by Rose DiConti, accompanied by Helen Omeron.

Spanish California history, spiced with a fiesta air of music and dancing at the Casa de Adobe, was the form of entertainment provided by the americanism committee of Californiana for Lieutenant George Ditson Jones and seventeen out-of-state selectees from the Third Coast Artillery at Fort McArthur October 19. A bevy of attractive girls, including a group of co-eds from Pomona College, regaled them with homemade cakes and coffee. Stamped postcards were provided, with facilities for writing, reading and general relaxation. The entertainment was much appreciated, and the guests asked to be invited again.

The affair was outlined at a meeting of the Gertrude Sewing Circle of the Parlor at the Hollywood Riviera home of Florence Irish, October 3, and Chairman Margaret Kerr of the americanism committee delegated Isabel Pages, Marcella Palethorpe, Florence Irish, Martha Decker, Ethel Hearst, Romilda Moree and State Chairman Evalyn D. Wilson to make the arrangements. These entertainments for men in service will be a monthly activity of the americanism committee of the Parlor.

October 25, Isabel Monroe, chairman of history and landmarks, conducted a tour of the Palomares Adobe at Pomona. Built in 1855, this place is an important link in history with the old stagecoach days, having been a mail station. One wing of the big, rambling casa is now a museum of historic articles.

Californiana will have a fund-raising party, in the form of a dessert-bridge, at the home of Edith Adams November 3. As she is generously providing refreshments and all accessories, it is hoped to raise a substantial sum for the Parlor treasury. The reception planned for Grand Marshal Mary Noerenberg, a member of the Parlor, has been advanced to November 16.—B.S.M.

UNIVERSITY PARLOR NEWS.

The drive of University Parlor No. 272 N.S.G.W. for new members, conducted by President Woodrow Wade in honor of Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, was a grand success. Thirty-three candidates were initiated October 9, thirty for University, two for Compton Parlor and one for Hollywood Parlor. The ritual was impressively exemplified by the following:

Grand President Schnarr, president; Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, senior past president; Past Grand President Harmon D. Skillin, junior past president; Grand Secretary John T. Regan, first vice-president; Past Grand President Chas. A. Koenig, second vice-president; Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar, third vice-president; Roy W. Tarleton of Compton Parlor, marshal; Supervising Deputy Fred T. Leonetti, inside sentinel; Grand Organist Roger M. Johnson, pianist.

Addressing the assemblage at the conclusion of the ceremonies, Grand President Schnarr called attention to the fact that the Order is founded upon patriotism and that its membership is made up exclusively of native-born Americans. Past Grand President Koenig told of the homeless children project, the Order's main charity. A surprise of the evening was the presentation by Grand Secretary Regan, on behalf of the visiting grand officers, of a silver twenty-five-year membership emblem to Deputy Grand President Clarence M. Hunt, a member of Sacramento Parlor No. 3 since June 21, 1895. Also in attendance were District Deputies Howard Woodward, Albert Seaman, Paul Traynor, Fred Smith, William Blaha and William Quast, and Deputy Grand President Hervey L. Kitchin. Light refreshments closed the happy occasion.

KEEPING IN STEP.

To keep in step with other patriotic organizations, Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. has organized a Red Cross first aid class where, once every week, members go to learn how to be use-

Marie Hanley and Wilma Holmes provided music. A grand march was composed of members costumed to suggest how discarded articles may be put to good use. Some one hundred members and eligibles enjoyed the buffet supper and entertainment October 22 under the supervision of Louise McNary and May Sherwood.

Members of the americanism committee, Juliette de Nubila chairman, will be the hostesses at the November 5 meeting of Los Angeles. A new film, "Washington, the Shrine of Americanism," will be shown.

SANTA BARBARA NEWS

(JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE.)

Santa Barbara—Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.G.W. accented the work of the homeless children placement bureau during October, contributed to community bridge building by active participation in the regional Community Chest campaign, and participated in historical endeavor.

Sunday, October 5, the two Parlors made a joint pilgrimage to the park which the State of California has built around La Purisima Mission near Lompoc. There they were joined by members of Santa Maria Parlor No. 276 N.D.G.W. Leaders in the three Parlors realize the importance of bringing cultural programs to the youth of many states now in training camps in Santa Barbara and San Luis Obispo Counties for the rebuilding of the United States Army. One of the largest of these camps, this one for armored divisions, is now under construction in the Lompoc-Santa Maria area. The Sunday at La Purisima was the first of joint endeavors to present the county's historical store.

President Raymond B. Romero and Historian Phil G. Sweetser headed the pilgrimage for the girls; Mrs. Henry Griffiths, president, Dr. Anna McCaughey and Mrs. William Wagener, co-chairmen in the history field, led the Reina del Mar party; Dr. Helen R. France and Mrs. M. F. Magee directed the participation for Santa Maria. Mrs. Stanley Clem and Leland Holiday acted as Community Chest campaign chairmen for the Santa Barbara Parlors.

October 26, Reina del Mar Parlor gave a breakfast at San Ysidro Rancho, in the Montebello Hills, at which the Grand Parlor youth program was outlined by June Vance King. Miss Maxine Hartman spoke to the breakfast group.

built the adobe in 1875 on the old Overland mail route which was established in 1858. It was the center of community life in that section, being the stockmen's headquarters, the postoffice and the polling place. From 1858 to 1875 the site was known as Rancho Canoas, and was originally a vaquero camp of the Sebastian Indian Reservation. The committee expects to have several descendants of Wm. Rose present for the dedication. Many oldtimers still living in the vicinity of Los Angeles and Bakersfield remember when Rose Station was one of the principal stopping places on the road to Los Angeles.—M.L.

Sacramento County Group Initiation.

Sacramento—The Sacramento County Parlor will participate in a joint class initiation November 1 in the clubhouse on the Guy Foulks ranch near Elk Grove. Grand President Edward T. Schnarr has signified his intention of being present. More than forty candidates will be presented, and a special team will exemplify the ritual. General John A. Sutter Past Presidents Assembly No. 10 is actively supporting this initiation and has offered a prize for the Parlor showing the largest percentage gain.

Supervising Deputy J. G. Fitzhenry has a very active corps of deputies in District No. 4, and they are hopeful of recording a marked increase in the Parlor's activities and membership. A number of important affairs are scheduled for the coming months and the members of the Parlor are showing an unusual interest.

Grand Trustee's Official Itinerary.

Los Angeles—Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar will officially visit the following Subordinate Parlor on the dates noted:

November 19, Arrowhead No. 110, San Bernardino.

San Mateo County Initiation.

Pescadero—The San Mateo County group initiation here October 19 was preceded by a parade in which the drum corps of El Carmelo No. 256, the drill team of Ano Nuevo No. 180 N.D., the Pescadero Mounted Posse, Grand President Edward T. Schnarr and wife, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar, John O'B. Bodkin of Los Angeles, William Dombrink and wife of Oakland, and a goodly number of San Mateo County Native Sons and Daughters participated. Grand President Schnarr was made an honorary member of the posse and rode a horse in the parade. He was presented a beautiful shirt by Pebble Beach No. 230 and a silver cowboy boot tie-clasp by Ano Nuevo. Immediately after the parade a delicious luncheon was served the one hundred in attendance.

Then followed the initiation of twelve candidates, ten for Pebble Beach, and one each for Seaside No. 95 and El Carmelo. A special initiatory team, composed of the following past presidents of Redwood No. 66, exemplified the ritual in a most efficient manner: Eugene Cerqui, president; Charles Deluchi, junior past president; Allen McKay, senior past president; Charles Rockwell, first vice-president; Jack Moore, second vice-president; Ernest Locatelli, third vice-president; Edwin Holmquist, marshal; Irvin Bloomquist, inside sentinel; Ralph Dodge, organist. N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

The Parlor of San Francisco and Alameda Counties are taking an active interest in the first aid movement and many classes have been formed. The American Red Cross reports a scarcity of male instructors, and is therefore pleased that the Native Sons are becoming interested. As soon as those comprising the present classes finish their studies and receive their certificates they will be requested to take advanced courses which, when completed, will permit those who get certificates to teach first aid.

Winning Parlor in the "Ask an Eligible" membership contest sponsored by Grand President Edward T. Schnarr include: class 1, South San Francisco No. 157; class 3, Bakersfield No. 42; class 5, Estudillo No. 223; class 6, East Los Angeles No. 277.

Sacramento—After many years of faithfully serving Sacramento No. 3, Charles A. Root and Robert D. Finnie have retired as trustee and treasurer, respectively. In acknowledgment of their valued service, the Parlor will entertain in their honor November 27.

Sacramento—John Thomas Skelton, a former grand trustee affiliated with Sunset No. 26, was instantly killed in an auto accident October 18. He was born here May 10, 1869, and is survived by his wife and daughter.

Saint Helena—Saint Helena No. 53 celebrated its forty-second institution anniversary September 26 at a turkey dinner. President Ray Palmer was the toastmaster, and the speakers included J. P. Steckert, A. N. Bell, Arnold Metzner, Charles York and Walter Metzner. Ralph Paulson entertained with piano selections. The dinner was served by Remo Corbella, Gilman Clark, Harry Prouty, Charles Palmer and William Buttol.

Also at that time Piedmont will present a fifty-year-anniversary to Fred J. Hammerly, and twenty-five-year-anniversary to Louis De Avila, W. Derbfus, Lester H. Man, Fred J. Koernig and Louis J. Koernig.

Lower Lake—Plans for the 1942 Grand Parlor were discussed at a conference at Hoberg's resort, September 20, participated in by representatives of Lower Lake No. 159, Saint Helena No. 53 and Calistoga No. 86, Grand President Edward T. Schnarr and Grand Secretary John T. Regan. It was definitely decided to have a meeting at Hoberg's, which is well equipped to properly handle the gathering.

San Diego—At the annual dinner-meeting of the North San Diego Coordinating Council, Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer of San Diego No. 108 stressed the importance of preserving the city's historic landmarks. He presented to Mrs. D. W. Glasser, council secretary, a trophy in recognition of her efforts to make the San Diego Admission Day celebration the success that it was.

(JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE.)

Santa Barbara—Following Grand Parlor accent on the preservation of historic landmarks over the years, Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. met emergency needs a decade ago and participated in the restoration of Santa Barbara. "Queen of the Missions," founded in Santa Barbara December 4, 1786. Later, when Santa Ynez, the "Gem of the Missions," founded in Santa Ynez Valley September 17, 1804, was threatened by termites, the two Parlors helped raise funds for repairs that prevented its collapse. When La Purisima Mission, founded at Lompoc December 8, 1787, was made a state park and the Federal Government took over its rebuilding the Parlors again were helpful in various ways to speed the project to successful conclusion.

Civic organizations in Santa Barbara County were recently called on to plan an annual celebration, to be known as "Old Mission Days in Santa Barbara County," with programs at all three of the missions on different days. The initial celebration has been set for December 4-7, opening on the birthday of Santa Barbara Mission Archbishop Cantwell of the Archdiocese

TREE-OF-HEAVEN MARKS SITES EARLY CALIFORNIA SETTLEMENT

Introduced into California by the Chinese miners and early American settlers, the alhambra, or tree-of-heaven, is among the last remaining vestiges of the days of '49, according to Harry M. Butterfield, specialist in the University of California Agricultural Extension Service.

Usually, he says, the presence of this tree marks the sites of early California settlement. Many specimens are to be found in the Mother Lode region around buildings dating back to the early fifties. The name alhambra is derived from alyanto, the native name meaning tree-of-heaven given this tree in the Moluccas or Spice Islands.

Once planted extensively as an ornamental tree, the alhambra has now fallen into disrepute because of its tendency to sucker and produce seedlings, says Butterfield. Two of the largest specimens still to be found are growing in Santa Clara County, one in San Jose and one at Mission Santa Clara.

CHRISTMASTIDE IN CALIFORNIA

346-49 WITH WALTER COLTON, ALCALDE OF MONTEREY AND CHAPLAIN UNITED STATES NAVY

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

IN THE OLD CITY OF MONTEREY STANDS Colton Hall, famous because within its walls California's first State Constitution was made in 1849. This building was erected by Rev. Walter Colton, chaplain of the "Congress," one of the naval vessels which followed Commodore Sloat to Monterey in 1846. The Flag of the United States of America was raised under Sloat's orders July seventh of that year. About a month later he was succeeded by Commodore Stockton. This officer was most anxious to preserve the civil government in Monterey, and to that end and purpose July twenty-ninth appointed Chaplain Colton to the important civil office of Alcalde of Monterey. September fifteenth an election was held and he was, in a democratic fashion, chosen for the post. Colton greatly enjoyed his work as public magistrate, and developed a good understanding of the people of the locality. He tried to participate in their affairs and to make himself one of them. A stranger to them and their ways, he tried to evince a sympathy for their customs. From the description which Colton has left, it is evident that the Mexican Californians ushered in Christmas in much the same manner as New Year Day is now awaited. In 1846, Christmas came on Friday. At sundown of Thursday, December twenty-fourth, bonfires were lighted in all parts of Monterey, skyrockets were shot, and bells pealed out in joyous strains. In short, a carnival spirit prevailed. But this was not all. The appointed hour the church became the center of activity. One would expect that the midnight mass was about to commence, but apparently the church was used on Christmas Eve for something else. A play, in the nature of the morality plays shown in the churches of Europe before the invention of printing and the translation of the Bible into the modern languages, was enacted. Colton's Diary is quoted at this point:

"While the bonfires still blazed high, the crowd moved towards the church; the ample nave was soon filled. Before the high altar sat the Virgin Mother, in wonder and love over her newborn babe; a company of shepherds entered in flowing robes, with high wands garbed with silken streamers, in which floated the colors of the rainbow, and surmounted with coronals of flowers. In their wake followed the hermit, with his long white beard, tattered cassal, and his sin-chastising lash. Near him walked a wild hunter, in the skins of the forest, wearing a huge truncheon, surmounted by an iron rim, from which hung in jingling chime fragments of all sonorous metals. Then came first of all the Evil One, with horned frontlet, disguised huff, and robe of crimson flame. The shepherds were led on by the Angel Gabriel, in purple wings and garments of light. They approached the manger, and kneeling, hymned their wonder and worship in a sweet chant, which was sustained by the rich tones of exulting harps. The hermit and hunter were not among them; they had been beguiled by the Tempter, and were lingering at a game of dice. The hermit seemed to suspect that all was not right, and read his missal vehemently in the pauses of the game; but the hunter was troubled by none of these scruples, staked his soul and lost. Emboldened by his success, the Tempter shoved himself among the shepherds; but here he encountered Gabriel, who knew him of old. He quailed under the eye of that invincible angel, and fled his presence. The hermit and hunter, once more disentranced, paid their penitential homage. The shepherds departed, singing their hosannas, while the voices of the whole assembly rose in choral strain."

The diary is silent on the matter of how Christmas Day was spent. Presumably it was a religious observance. However, the whole week from Christmas to New Year was more or less of a carnival. For example, Colton reports, under date of the twenty-sixth, that on this evening the shepherds of the Christmas Eve play in the church came to his house and repeated it with some modifications. This was in conformity with the custom of reproducing the play in the homes of some of the most prominent citizens. The repeat performance, being in a private home, lacked the solemnity which the church imposed, and for this reason the act was concluded with the riata dance which, Colton says, was executed "with a lightness and precision of step that would have thrown enchantment on any occasion less sacred in its associations than the present."

On the evening of the twenty-seventh, Sunday, the shepherds performed at the home of General Castro. Colton's diary entry indicates that he did not believe that it should be shown on the Sabbath Day. The following day, Monday, December twenty-eighth, on the church calendar was the feast of the Holy Innocents, that is to say, the date upon which the church commemorates those babes who were put to death by King Herod so as to destroy the Christ. This feast has solemn implications, but they were not followed at Monterey. On the contrary, the day was made one of practical joking, whereby the joker triumphs, due to the whole innocence or unsuspecting attitude of the one upon whom the trick is played. One phase of this was borrowing, and every article which was borrowed had to be redeemed. For this reason tricksters sought to borrow necessities so as to force an immediate redemption.

The thirtieth of December witnessed the arrival of the "Dale" in Monterey Bay with a large quantity of mail. This ship had left New York the sixth of June 1846. There was a letter for Colton, which told him that he was the father of a son, and this message gave him ample cause to wind up the holiday season with especial joy.

In September 1848 Colton, with a group of men, left Monterey for the mines. He spent Christmas of that year in Monterey, however. His diary entry does not mention anything about the local celebration, but is devoted to a description of health conditions in the mines. Nor does his entry for December 25, 1847, add any information on this subject. However, there is reason to assume that the festivities described in 1846 were traditional ones and were repeated each year.

The Christmas observance of the people of old Monterey should be interpreted in the light of their background and their geographical location. They were isolated from the rest of the world and, therefore, they had to provide their own amusement. They had inherited certain customs from the Old World. Among these was

The covered wagons creaked along
Clouds blurred the sun above
But nothing stifled their brave song
For they rode on with love.

They shared sorrow and loneliness
And prayed to God above
For faith was precious to possess
As they rode on with love.

The covered wagons, that strained west
Through miles of desert glare
Met thirst and hunger's dreadful test
Because true love was there.

the carnival expression of the birth of Christ. Another was the idea of the religious significance of Christmas Day. It is apparent from what Colton reported that the people of Monterey were attempting to realize both these traditions in their methods of observance. There are writers who have ridiculed as absurd these old customs, but the diarist, Colton, is most respectful and appreciative of what transpired.

MUST BRIDGE GULF BETWEEN

SCIENCE AND SOCIAL INSTITUTIONS.

The world is in a fourth great period of world revolution—a period comparable to the dawn of history, the breakdown of the Roman empire or the collapse of the Medieval system, according to Dr. Harry Elmer Barnes, well-known educator. "In our day the reason for the change is that we have allowed our science and machinery to get too far ahead of our social institutions," he says. "The resulting inefficiency of the institutions has led to disintegration and chaos."

"We must bridge the gulf between science and our social institutions by democratic, non-violent methods, as Sweden did, or by violent revolutionary methods, as in the totalitarian countries of Europe."

"It is obvious that the American way, the democratic way and non-violent way, is preferable. But if we do not bring about the necessary changes before the situation becomes as bad as it was in Europe—Russia in 1917, Italy in 1922 and Germany in 1932—we are bound to go the same way these countries have."

TAXPAYERS SHOULD GET TOGETHER

TO PROTECT THEIR OWN INTERESTS.

"Discouraging to the utmost extreme are the stories continually heard about government extravagance. Evidence is at hand in every newspaper office to prove outrageous waste in government publicity practices, and while these are but very minor items they may be typical of what is transpiring on a big scale in other branches. These things are being charged at the same time Congress is increasing present taxes and searching for new sources."

"Without even economizing, by merely applying common sense in purchasing and doing business, that tax bill could be greatly reduced. Unfortunately there is no one to protect the public, and the taxpayers can't get together to protect their own interests. The only hope is that the tax load will be so staggering next year that the public will howl loud to be heard and long enough to get action in eliminating extravagance."—Livermore Herald.

HISTORY AUTHORITY PASSES.

Oakland.—Dr. Charles Edward Chapman, one of the first traveling history fellows of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, died November 20, at the age of 61. He joined the University of California staff in 1910, and was an authority on Hispanic-American history.

In the mythology of California Indians the creation of the earth was more like the great flood of Noah's time than the Biblical tale of Genesis.

Santa and the Sandman

(MINNA M. GARVEY.)

(Written Especially for The Grizzly Bear.)

The children never see him. No matter how they plan

To wait and watch for Santa, they never get their man.

For Santa has a courier who tiptoes on ahead

To scatter sleepy stardust about each curly head.

He knows their roguish secret, and, true to old St. Nick,

Though 'tis a sly conspiracy, he plays his time-less trick;

And when St. Nick emerges from the chimney wide and deep,

His eyes are bright and merry—and the children? Fast asleep!

Yet in that rosy slumber they see their Santa dear,

They know he'll not forget them when Christmas bells ring clear.

Aye! Santa and the Sandman, that immemorial pair

Unite to guard the happiness of children, everywhere.

Christmas Message

"Officers and Members Subordinate Parlors, Native Daughters of the Golden West—Dear Sisters: Merry Christmas greetings to you all!

"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." It has been over nineteen hundred years since the angels sang its message to the shepherds guarding their flocks upon the hills surrounding Bethlehem. The story is an ancient and sacred one, dear to hearts the world around. Regardless of color or race, class or creed, the season of Christ's birth draws together all humanity in a closer bond of understanding.

"On earth peace, good will toward men"—how futile is the hope of peace unless, among all nations, we have 'good will toward men.' Because of greed, nations down through the ages have disregarded the angels' song and turned peace and good will into hatred and wars. Our Christmas season is overshadowed by storm clouds, dark and sinister looking.

"Whether you worship in a church, amid the strains of beautiful music, or by your own fire-side, pray for ALL nations, so that soon the angels' song can ring again—'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.'"

"Sincerely and fraternally yours,

Clarice E. Cook

THE NOVEMBER 6 GROUP INITIATION sponsored by the deputies of District No. One in honor of Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz attracted a large number of members of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, among them many oldtimers. President Robert Pesqueria of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 and President William Bright of Ramona Parlor No. 109 conducted, respectively, the opening and the closing ceremonies.

Sixty-one candidates were initiated—thirty-three for Ramona Parlor No. 109, ten for Los Angeles Parlor No. 45, six for Hollywood Parlor No. 196, five for Glendale Parlor No. 264, two for Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267, and one each for Stephen M. White No. 263, University No. 272, Compton No. 273, East Los Angeles No. 277 and Long Beach No. 278 Parlors. The ritual was exemplified by the following deputies, with Grand Organist Roger Johnson at the piano: Albert Seaman, president; Fred Leonetti, senior past president; Fred Smith, junior past president; William Blaha, first vice-president; Howard Woodward, second vice-president; William Quast, third vice-president; Paul Traynor, marshal; Hervey Kitchen, inside sentinel.

Sheriff Biscailuz took charge after the initiation and introduced as the main speaker Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, who welcomed the new members and commended the deputies and the participating Parlors. Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer spoke briefly and, on behalf of Los Angeles Parlor, Grand Trustee Walter Odemar presented birthday cakes to Willard Allen and Clarence M. Hunt—complete surprises to both recipients. Refreshments closed the most successful occasion.

CHRISTMAS PARTY.

Activities of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. during November successfully stressed the homeless children work, according to Co-chairmen Louise Cash and Ellen Wilson. More than twenty members entertained in their individual homes, the proceeds going to the Parlor fund. "The selling of Christmas cards, stationery and stickers has also aided materially, and now we are urging all to respond to the annual Christmas letter," says Miss Cash. The club which sews monthly for the homeless babies met November 12 at the home of Dora and Laura Davis. The members presented the hostesses a walnut coffee table for their new home.

Some twenty members of the Parlor joined the Historical Society of Southern California at its annual banquet November 6. The Native Daughters table was decorated with California poppies.

Los Angeles' December 3 meeting will feature initiation. December 17 the Parlor will have its annual Christmas party. The committee, Sophia Rosshirt, Olive Hedges, Louise Cash, Dahlia Vucovich, Louise McNary, President Elsie Amidon and the other officers promises a program befitting the occasion.—E.V.S.

"LET'S CO-OPERATE!"

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. observed its fifty-seventh institution anniversary November 13. At a delicious dinner Andrew Stodel was the master of ceremonies, and among the speakers were Grace Norton, who extended greetings on behalf of Los Angeles Parlor N.D.G.W., District Deputy Howard Woodward, Mildred Odemar, Albert Metz and Clara Hunt. Grand Organist Roger Johnson presented a program, and dancing concluded the happy occasion. George Walker, in charge of arrangements, was assisted by President Robert Pesqueria and Secretary Willard Allen.

Los Angeles is sponsoring an amateur contest for the benefit of the homeless children at its meetingplace, 1832 South Hope street, December 4. Each Parlor of Native Sons and Native Daughters is expected to present a ten-minute "stunt," and the talent must be Native. A small admission fee of 35 cents will be collected at the door. "The cause is worthy, so let's co-operate," urges Grand Organist Johnson, the director-general. "Santa Claus" Owen Adams is busy arranging for Los Angeles' annual Christmas tree party for less-fortunate kiddies.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of five or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1942.

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION.

November was truly a month of thanksgiving for Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. and it was replete with delightful occurrences and much active expression of goodwill and generosity. The dessert bridge at the home of Edith Adams the 3rd attracted many members, who appeared to enjoy friendly visiting as much as the entertainment, and the affair proved a huge financial and social success.

The reception in honor of Grand Marshal Mary Noerenberg November 16 was a delightful affair. The attractive home of Mary Ann Thomas, the hostess, was beautifully decorated, an orchestra played well-loved airs, and Marybelle Chapman and Alphonse Fages sang old and new melodies. Presiding at the handsomely appointed tea table were Mary Foy, Edith Adams, Postmaster Mary Briggs, Olive Lopez, Priscilla Noerenberg and Ethel Newman. Mary Joan Noerenberg, Margaret Connor, Margery Newman, Diane Robbins and Lois McCausland, Californiana Juniors, assisted with the serving.

November 22 the Parlor had the second of a series of entertainments for men in service. Thirty men from the One Hundred and Sixtieth Infantry at Camp San Luis Obispo were entertained. Following a sightseeing tour in the afternoon they were served a home-cooked Spanish dinner at Plummer Park. Then the Gabriel Ruiz family put on a real fiesta, and Alphonse Fages led in community singing. Margaret Kerr is chairman of the americanism committee of Californiana that sponsors these affairs, and she has named Isabel Fages chairman of arrangements and Marcella Palethorpe dinner hostess, assisted by Charlotte Carpenter.—B.S.M.

N.S.G.W. LUNCHEON CLUB.

November 14 was judges day at the Native Sons Friday Luncheon Club, and there was a good attendance of members of the bench and bar. Superior Judge Ruben Schmidt, chairman of the day, was in a happy mood. The guest-speaker, Philip H. Angell, president California State Bar, extended greetings to John Gee Clark, newly-appointed judge of the Los Angeles County Superior Court.

The Luncheon Club, remember, is in session every Friday at 12:15 noon in room 1126 of the Rosslyn Hotel, Fifth and Main streets. All Native Sons and their friends are welcome at all times. The annual Christmas party luncheon is billed for December 19. "There will be music, California refreshments and presents," says Secretary Hervey Kitchin.

UNIVERSITY PARLOR NEWS.

First Vice-president Angelo DeFazio has taken over the chairmanship of the membership committee of University Parlor No. 272 N.S.G.W. and promises a large class of candidates for initiation in honor of the hard-working president, "Woody" Wade, December 10, when Grand Trustee Walter Odemar will pay his official visit. Seven teams have been appointed, each with two captains and eighteen men. The team securing the most candidates will be awarded $15.

University's meetingplace will be dark December 17, 24 and 31. However, the Parlor will meet jointly with La Reina No. 267 N.D.G.W. December 18 at its hall, 1853 South Arlington, for the annual Christmas party sponsored by these two active Parlors for underprivileged children. Every effort made to exemplify the real Christmas spirit on this occasion will ever be cherished by them. Carl Martin, Harold Shoemaker and Angelo DeFazio, University's committeemen, want every member of the Parlor to assist in making this another grand affair.

A merry Christmas and a most happy and prosperous New Year for one and all. Secure a candidate for December 10!

VENTURA CABRILLO NO. 114 HELD its October 28 meeting at Oxford, and there was a large attendance. Charter Member Adolfo Camarillo and Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar, paying his official visit, were specially honored. A delicious chicken dinner was served by Mms. Louis C. Drapeau, Ed Hearne, Les Williams, Bob Parr and Joe Parr, Mildred Boucher, Mary Lewis and Bunnie Murphy, wives and friends of members of the Parlor. Charles Blackstock presided at the social session after the feast. Speakers included Charter Member Camarillo, Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz of Los Angeles County and Superior Judge Louis C. Drapeau, Cabrillo's president, and entertainment was provided.

At the meeting of the wonder-Parlor twenty-two candidates were initiated, among them being Andrew, Henry N. and Raymond R. Borchard, brothers, and H. Oliver Borchard, a son of Henry N. Borchard; George W. Suytar and his son, George W. Suytar Junior, and Richard B. Culbertson and his son, M. W. Culbertson. Grand Trustee Odemar welcomed the new members and lauded the accomplishments of Cabrillo. Henry Borchard responded for the initiates, and other speakers were District Deputies William R. Blaha and A. C. Dinsmore.

The November 18 meeting of Cabrillo, attended by 275 members, was dedicated to Edward Henderson, a former judge of the Ventura County Superior Court. After a fine Italian dinner Judge Henderson made an interesting talk and predicted the Parlor will accomplish great things. President Drapeau called attention to the fact that the Parlor is well on the way to its first goal of 500 members. It will soon be, he said, the largest in the Order. Other speakers were Deputy Grand President Clarence M. Hunt and Charles Feraud. Good entertainment was presented.

Then followed initiation, conducted by the officers of the Parlor. Twenty-nine candidates Increasing Interest.

According to a report submitted by Grand President Edward T. Schnarr to Edwin H. Carroll, director of first aid for the American Red Cross in the Pacific area, over 1,000 members of the Order are participating in first aid courses. Classes of twenty-five to thirty-five members have been organized in over forty Subordinate Parlors. Reports from various parts of the state indicate increasing interest in the program.

"We expect another thousand volunteers before the first of January," Grand President Schnarr says. "Two and even three classes will be organized in some Parlors to take care of the many who desire first aid training. Ultimately I believe we will train around 4,000 members."

Charter Member Honored at Anniversary.

Cambria—Cambria No. 152 celebrated November 8 its fifty-second institution anniversary and honored its sole surviving charter member, George W. Gillespie, who was born near Cambria in 1867 of parents who came to California in 1849 and to San Luis Obispo County in 1860. While the Parlor meeting, at which four candidates were initiated, was in progress the wives of the Native Sons and the husbands of the members of El Pinal No. 163 N.D. were entertained at cards.

At 11 o'clock a delicious turkey dinner was served at tables adorned with fall leaves and flowers. President Edwin Soto of Cambria introduced as master of ceremonies Mayor Roy Tarleton of Compton No. 273, who presented twenty-five-year emblematic pins to Rafael Mora, Antone Williams, Dick Sanders, E. C. Blake, B. F. Soto and J. M. Soto. Alfred Ferrini, supervisor San Luis Obispo County, congratulated the Parlor.

Walter C. Richards of Compton No. 273, a former grand trustee, in introducing the honoree, Charter Member Gillespie, referred to his outstanding record of fifty-two years of continuous service to the Order, and made to him the personal presentation of a desk set with grizzly bear bases supporting United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags. Grand Trustee Thomas C. Ryan was the guest speaker. Dancing brought the delightful evening to close.

Among the many others present were Mms. George Gillespie, Alfred Ferrari and Thomas Ryan; Lou Giegrich, Pacific No. 10 and wife Matt Soares, Stephen M. White No. 263; Fran Terrymorse, Compton No. 273; Supervising Deputy Evelyn Evans of the Native Daughters. The committee in charge of the affair included Le Nock, chairman, Donald Evans and Mrs. Archi Soto, president El Pinal No. 163 N.D.

District Two Group Initiation.

Modesto—Modesto No. 11 recently sponsored the organizing of a Fifty Plus Club of Stanislaus County, composed of White males 50 years of more of age born in the county. Chas. D. Blaine represented the Parlor in this affair and twenty-five charter members were admitted October 2 at a dinner-meeting.

Modesto had its anniversary party November 5, at which time Grand Third Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson paid his official visit to the Parlor. Other visitors were Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, and Supervising Deputy Donald Cocanour and Lloyd Alexander. Following a delicious supper, served by Mrs. Carl Lewi and her two daughters, assisted by Mrs. Chas. D. Blaine, a musical program was presented.

At the business session, at which President Gordon Kelley presided, excellent addresses were made by Grand Third Vice-president Williamson, Grand President Schnarr, and Supervising Deputies Alexander and Cocanour. During an intermission President Gertrude Schroeder and Ethel Enos of Morada No. 199 N.D. presented the visitors with gifts on behalf of that Parlor.

A joint whist party was staged by Modesto and Morada No. 199 N.D. November 12, with fifty-two tables of players enjoying the evening refreshments and dancing followed the play. The next party will be held by the two local Parlors December 3. The net proceeds from these parties are used for charity.

Saturday evening, December 13, Modesto will be host to all the Parlors in District No. 2. Donald Cocanour supervising deputy. The meeting will be held in the clubhouse of the old Fisherman's Club near Modesto. Parlors participating will be Selma No. 107, Fresno No. 25, Yosemite No. 24 (Merced), Los Banos No. 206, Tracy No. 186, Byron No. 170, Stockton No. 7, Lodi No. 11 and Modesto. A group initiation will be held with the grand officers, headed by Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, exemplifying the initiatory ceremonies. Modesto's quota for the class has been set at ten, and that many applications have already been secured; the other Parlor will contribute not less than twenty candidates.—C.D.B.

A FIGHT FOR OUR LIVES

(Managing Editor
Peru, Indiana, Daily Tribune.)

SINCE THE FUNDS RECEIVED FROM the sale of Christmas Seals are used to help in the fight against tuberculosis, those who are helping in this great work should find out what they really know about tuberculosis.

It is imperative that we know all we can about tuberculosis, for knowledge is our real weapon against the prevention of disease. There is no vaccine for the prevention of tuberculosis, no drug for its cure. The victories gained in the past have been truly victories of education. Yet, surprising enough, there are still many misconceptions about the disease held by many people.

The medical profession and the tuberculosis associations have been telling, showing, us for years what we should know, what we should do, to prevent, control and cure tuberculosis in this country. But many of us have paid little attention. Many of us do not know even the few facts that we should know—the facts which, if we knew and put into practice, would drive tuberculosis out of this country in a relatively few years.

The mistaken belief that tuberculosis can be inherited still tortures some people. But tuberculosis is caused by a germ, the tubercle bacillus. Every person having the disease has "caught it" from someone else who has it.

Despair, based on ignorance, still strikes some people when they hear the verdict—tuberculosis. Another wrong belief has persisted—the incurability of the disease. But tuberculosis can be cured if found early. The hope in getting well lies in beginning treatment early.

Tuberculosis can be in an advanced stage before any symptoms appear. It can hide behind apparently "healthy looks" for months. But the X-ray can find tuberculosis before any symptoms appear. When the time comes that a chest X-ray will be a routine part of every physical examination, tremendous strides can rapidly be taken toward complete eradication of the disease.

Not even the symptoms of tuberculosis are known by all of us. Unexplained tiredness is a danger signal. Other signals that point toward the necessity for a competent medical examination are loss of weight, loss of appetite, indigestion, an afternoon fever, a cough that hangs on, blood spitting.

Some of us are not yet rid of the belief, long since exploded, that climate is of major importance in the treatment of the disease. With expert medical care and absolute bed-rest the disease can be cured in almost any climate.

Another fact that too few of us pay attention to is the extent of the disease in this country. We emphasize the declining death rate because it is good news. We need to emphasize the alarming number of persons still dying with tuberculosis every year. Sixty thousand persons died from tuberculosis last year! We need to emphasize the tremendous mortality among young people. Tuberculosis kills more persons between the ages of 15 and 45 than any other disease!

These are only a few things we should know about tuberculosis. We can prevent the attack by this enemy by using our one weapon—knowledge.

We have a double duty in the fight against tuberculosis. We must support it financially—it is a fight for our lives, remember,—and we must take an active part in the fight by using the knowledge about the disease that is available to us.

Aid the fight against tuberculosis by purchasing Christmas Seals.

HIGH SCHOOL PRESENTED SET MARCHING FLAGS

Nevada City (Nevada County)—Hydraulic Parlor No. 56 N.S.G.W., through a committee consisting of Dr. C. W. Chapman, Clarence E. Martz and Max Solaro, presented United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to the Nevada City High School at an Armistice Day assembly November 7. Dr. Chapman made the presentation address, saying:

"A place on this program is something that affords this committee real pleasure. We have been instructed by Hydraulic Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, to present on its behalf to the Nevada City High School a set of marching flags consisting of the national colors and the official emblem of the State of California. The organization of N.S.G.W. is, as you know, a patriotic fraternal Order, with loyalty as one of its principal tenets—loyalty to the United States of America and loyalty to the State of California that gave it birth.

"The gift of these two flags,—the Stars and Stripes, the most beautiful flag that has ever given cheer to the patriots of any land, and the Bear Flag, which indicates that the State of California claims you as her own,—is the best evidence that we think the greatness of this Nation depends on the allegiance and patriotism of its citizens.

"We have purchased the very best that we could get, for the best is none too good for you. We have done so with the hope and with the belief that you will feel that the best there is in you is none too good to offer for the defense and the preservation of your country. Mr. Superintendent, Hydraulic Parlor is proud of the privilege to furnish for these boys and girls this set of standards that will mean so much to them."

For the school, the flags were accepted by Student Dick Gregory. From Principal H. E. Kjolrie, Hydraulic Parlor received this letter of appreciation, dated November 13:

"In behalf of the student body and faculty of the Nevada City High School, I wish to take this means of expressing our sincere appreciation for your gift of two beautiful marching flags and auxiliary equipment.

"Since the parade last Armistice Day we have heard countless compliments regarding the appearance of the band as enhanced by the presence of our state and national colors. Needless to say, we are all very proud in the possession of these two beautiful emblems. We are sure that the flags are going to be a continual inspiration not only to the student body and faculty, but to the whole community as well. The existence of organizations such as yours will assure a continued desire to maintain and promote the ideals of our great country."

"Patriotism must be founded on great principles and supported by great virtue."—Ex.

FALSE ARITHMETIC EMPLOYED

TO PERSUADE WAR BENEFICIARIES

"I abhor war and view it as the greatest scourge of mankind. Never was so much false arithmetic employed on any subject as that which has been employed to persuade nations that it is to their interest to go to war. Were the money which it has cost to gain, at the close of a long war, a little town or a little territory the right to cut wood here or to catch fish there expended in improving what they already possess, in making roads, opening rivers, building ports, improving the arts, and finding employment for their idle poor, it would render the much stronger, much wealthier and happier. This I hope will be our wisdom."—Thomas Jefferson.

The average American family pays about $1 a year in indirect gasoline taxes collected on motor fuel used in moving food, fuel and clothing over the highways.

California national parks—Kings Canyon, Lassen, Sequoia and Yosemite—attracted 1,175,000 visitors during the 1941 travel-year, an 8 per cent increase over the previous year.

SAN FRANCISCO

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO PARLOR NO. 157 N.S.G.W. celebrated November 12 the twenty-third anniversary of Armistice Day with a banquet and entertainment. Three hundred and twenty members of the Order were in attendance. At the conclusion of the banquet twenty-nine members of the Parlor were presented twenty-five-year emblems. One year ago one hundred and forty-three members received similar recognition, making a total of one hundred and seventy-two emblems presented members who have been such for a quarter-century.

Among those receiving the pins was Frank J. (Lefty) O'Doul, manager of the San Francisco Baseball Club. Addressing the assemblage on behalf of the honored members, he stated his baseball career actually started with the baseball team sponsored by South San Francisco twenty-five years ago, at which time he joined the Parlor. He went from that team to the San Francisco Baseball Club, and thence to the National and the American Leagues, and twice during his baseball career he led the big leagues in hitting.

The Armistice Day address was made by and Third Vice-president Raymond D. Wilmonson, the Parlor's visiting grand officer, and handled his theme, "Americanism," in a masterly manner. Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. (Lefty) spoke on the Past Presidents Association. Entertainment was provided by the San Francisco Boys' Club; Eugene H. O'Donnell, Dolores Parlor No. 208, in a skit entitled "Truth or Consequences;" Al Seligman, songs, and professional entertainers. Also in attendance were Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Treasurer John Corotto, Grand Trustee Joseph E. Tinney, Past Grand President Chas. A. Koenig, Supervising Deputy John M. Reid, District Deputy Raymond Arata and Director General James F. Stanley of the Past Presidents General Assembly.

PRINCIPLES AND PROJECTS PORTRAYED. Approximately 1,000 were in attendance at the public meeting of the San Francisco County D.G.W. deputies honoring Grand President Clarice E. Cook November 7. Four different formations were presented by the escorts deputies, assisted by the Native Sons. The first, preceding the entrance of Grand Presidents Clarice Cook and Edward Schnarr, ended with a stage tableau of the Goddess of Victory. Her feet were figures in sackcloth and chains, begging release from captivity, while members of all teams trumpeted victory. In front of the figure were the massed colors. An original song, "Victory," written by Ruby Bried, was sung by Mardelle May. Grand Marshal Mary Noerenberg led in the pledge to the flag. Part two included selections by the Elks Glee Club and a solo by Mardelle May. Addresses by Grand Presidents Cook and Schnarr impressed an audience with the value of membership in the Orders. Remarks were also made by Supervising Deputies Emily Ryan and John Reid. The principles and projects of the N.D.G.W. were portrayed in tableaux, the commentator being Ann Dippel. Devotion to the flag, love of home, veneration of the pioneers, education, veterans welfare, Native Daughters Home, homeless children, and abiding faith were displayed with appropriate settings.—C. LeG.

HOMELESS CHILDREN BENEFIT. At the Civic Auditorium November 22 the San Francisco N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Parlors had their annual benefit for the homeless children. It was one of the most successful ever held, approximately 4,000 being in attendance. The evening started with drum corps and drill team contests, and the winners were: N.D. drill team—Dolores Parlor No. 169, first; Marinita Parlor No. 198, second; Utopia Parlor No. 252, third; Green Patrol (Argonaut No. 166 and Alby No. 260 Parlors), fourth. N.D. drum corps—El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, first; Mission Parlor No. 227, second; Genevieve Parlor No. 2, third. N.S. drum corps, class A—Castro Parlor No. 232, first. N.S. drum corps, class B—Pacific Parlor No. 10, first; Utopia Parlor No. 10, second. N.S. drum and bugle corps—Seaside Parlor No. 158, first. N.D. Juniors—Prelio.

A full hour of fine entertainment followed, and then came the colorful grand march, in which some 500 couples participated. It was led by Mayor and Mrs. Angelo J. Rossi, Chairman Thomas P. Brown of the San Francisco committee and Mrs. Brown, co-chairman Mildred Elbert of the committee and Albert Schmidt, Grand President Edward T. Schnarr of the Native Sons and Mrs. Schnarr, Grand President Clarice E. Cook of the Native Daughters and escort. Following were other officers of the San Francisco committee, present and past grand officers of the Native Sons and the Native Daughters, members of the committee and other members of both Orders. Dancing was enjoyed until 1 a.m.

N.D.G.W. HOME BREAKFAST.

At the Native Daughters Home breakfast November 9 the deputies of Alameda County were the hostesses. Supervising Deputy Kathleen Dombink presided, Grand Trustee Marion White gave an invocation and Grand Marshal Mary Noerenberg led in the flag salute.

Grand President Clarice E. Cook gave a message of thanks. Grand President Edward T. Schnarr of the N.S.G.W. spoke on preparedness, and suggested that all Natives should prepare to be of assistance in some way in case of an emergency. Past Grand President Dr. Mariana Bertola told of the Red Cross work being done at the Home, and thanked the deputies for the chair given the Home.

Among the many others in attendance were Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler and Grand Vice-president Claire Lindsey. Congratulations were extended Past Grand President Evelyn Carlson and husband, the date being their wedding anniversary.—M.E.S.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W. featured November 18 a lecture on "Plans for the Future in the Pacific" by Commander Charles A. Beardsley of the United States Naval Reserve. Past Grand President Evelyn I. Carlson, chairman of the evening, complimented the drill team on its accomplishments, and wished it continued success. Cecelia Quinn Neal, president of the Parlor, and Clare Haughey, chairman of the drill team, extended good wishes. Captain Betty Michie thanked the sponsors, Mrs. Carlson, Ada Saunders and Emma O'Meara, and presented the Parlor with three trophies recently won by the team. A delicious spaghetti dinner was served at tables decorated with gorgeous autumn blooms.—B.A.M.

MONUMENT MARKS SITE FIRST SISKIYOU COUNTY GOLD DISCOVERY

Yreka—A monument marking the site of the first gold discovery in Siskiyou County was recently dedicated at Scott Bar, near the intersection of the Scott and the Klamath Rivers. The find was made in 1850 by John W. Scott and band of twelve men.

Scott, for whom Scott River, Scott Bar, Scott Mountain and Scott Valley are named, came to California in 1849 from the East. He and his group were driven from their gold strike by hostile Indians, but regained the ground when a party of fifty men from the Forks of the Salmon came to their aid.

The largest nugget known to have been taken from Scott Bar was found in 1855 and weighed 187 ounces. At the price paid for gold in those days, $18.74 an ounce, it brought $3,405.83.

MODESTO—MORADA No. 169 HAD A dinner honoring California Pioneers now residing in Stanislaus County November 4. Twenty-six guests and many members and friends enjoyed an evening of instrumental and vocal music and the recounting of earlyday experiences. President Gertrude Schroeder extended a welcome and Chairman Ann Michael of the history and pioneer roster committee, assisted by Pearl Gordon and Mary Martin, conducted the program. Past presidents of the Parlor had a meeting November 3 at the home of Agnes Frost, who was assisted by Ann Osborne and Julia Stutchman.

Members having birthdays in September, October and November were guests of honor November 26. Three candidates were initiated, and a speaker gave an outline of what women can do to assist the national defense program. November 29 a dinner-dance honoring Grand President Clarice E. Cook was held under the leadership of Supervising Deputy Lillian Stammerjohan and the deputies of Mariposa, Merced and Stanislaus Counties.

A luncheon club that meets weekly has been formed. A bowling team is being organized, and Chairman Alice Lopez says an escort team will be active shortly. A decorated car was entered in the Armistice Day parade under the chairmanship of Ella Halford. Entries for a baby show sponsored by the Parlor were gratifying. Good publicity is obtained through the local radio station, over which bimonthly programs of fifteen minutes each are broadcast. In appreciation for services rendered, Morada and its junior unit presented United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to the station.

The Juniors had a Halloween party at the home of Advisor Ethel Enos October 29. Games were played and a ghost story was related. A Christmas party will be held December 19 at the home of President Lois Elmore. December 23 a radio program outlining Junior activities will be presented, and Christmas Day scrapbooks will be distributed to the children at the Stanislaus County Hospital.

Campfire Girls Entertain.

San Diego—San Diego No. 208 honored Deputy Doris Hoffer with a dinner October 22. The tables and the lodgeroom were beautifully decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums.

FREQUENTLY, admired skin and complexion owe their rose-petal loveliness to Chamberlain's, the lotion that satinizes. This clear, golden liquid lotion, used regularly, enhances natural loveliness, encourages smoothness, freedom from irritation, relieves chapping. Chamberlain's Lotion is most convenient to use, dries quickly, is never sticky, greasy, gummy nor "messy." At all toilet goods counters.

CALIFORNIA UNDER MEXICO

DR. AUBREY NEASHAM

(Regional Historian, National Park Service, Federal Interior Department.)

THE MEXICAN PERIOD IN CALIFORNIA was similar in many respects to that in New Mexico. Also lasting for a quarter of a century, 1821-1846, it was marked by an increase of trade, immigration, general development, and final conquest by the United States.

The story of trade in this area is an interesting one. Although there was some trade with New Mexico, that with Sonora and the west coast of Mexico was even more important. The sending of California mules and horses overland to Mexico especially grew in volume. Sea trade was also a distinct phase of this period. Boston traders, carrying on their ships the merchandise of the United States, Europe and the Orient, found it to their profit to develop the trade with California. Their ships, often going as far as China and the Hawaiian Islands, would deposit their merchandise at the California ports, taking on in exchange the valuable hides, tallow and soap which had become main California products. Among the articles exchanged for California products were clothing, cloth, household goods, staple food products, furniture and milled lumber. Richard Henry Dana in his "Two Years Before the Mast" has described this trade thoroughly.

Another important activity carried on in California was the fur trade. Thousands of southern sea otter (now almost extinct) and fur seals were slaughtered annually along the California coast for their valuable furs, which were shipped to the Orient and Europe. In this activity keen competition was carried on between the Californians, the Russians who had settled north of San Francisco Bay at Fort Ross and the American sea captains. These, often with the aid of Aleuts from Alaska, ranged the coast to Lower California in their search for furs.

The interior of California was also a center of fur activity. The great central valleys especially, with their streams full of beaver and otter, became a favorite rendezvous for trappers and the expeditions of the Hudson's Bay Company. These latter, often comprising brigades of over a hundred, would travel yearly from British Columbia in their treks. Their accounts of the men, women and children who accompanied them, and the immense herds of elk, deer, antelope and other wildlife in the California valleys still remain one of the great stories untold for the modern American.

The lumber industry, particularly in the redwood country north and south of Monterey, the capital of California, also had its start at this time. Carried on largely through the efforts of enterprising New Englanders, it reached an increasing volume. Some of this lumber was used in the construction of California houses which, built often by New England carpenters, showed a curious New England influence upon adobe structures. Other regions used California redwood also. Records show more than one shipload having been sent as far as the Hawaiian Islands during the Mexican period.

While trade, fur trapping and the lumber industry were being developed, towns and ranches were increasing. This period of the California rancho is picturesque. Developed largely through the efforts of the missions and private individuals, their value continually increased because of the growing demand for hides and tallow. Often of thousands of acres, they formed a center of pastoral life which has rarely been equaled. The riding of a spirited horse was the pride of many a señorita or California don. Besides riding, the rodeo, bear baiting and lassoing, and elk hunting on horseback became popular sports.

Although the missions of California were important during the early part of the Mexican period, they had passed out of existence as individual units by the late 1830s, as they had in New Mexico and Texas. Never intended to be permanent institutions, their secularization and the taking over of their lands and cattle by private individuals caused bitter dissension between the padres and those who succeeded them. The fight became most bitter where valuable lands, trade, and the control of Indians were concerned.

By the 1830s immigration of outsiders, especially Americans, had become a serious problem for the California authorities. These immigrants gradually had gained control of much of the trade. Some of them took up large grants of land. Of these, Thomas Larkin, Nathan Spear, John Sutter, John Marsh, J. J. Warner and others came into prominence.

By the 1840s it was apparent that the transition to the American period was near an end. The Californians, realizing the danger of the growing immigration and influence of the Americans, attempted to stem the tide. One group of Americans was put in jail in Monterey, as was the case in New Mexico with the Texas Expedition, and were sent to Mexico, where they were later released. Political dissension among the Californians themselves, in which some fighting was done and the capital was moved for a time to Los Angeles, prevented any serious opposition to the American occupation, however.

The American occupation of California had many forerunners. As early as 1842, Commodore Jones of the United States Navy had captured Monterey without justification or orders from his superiors. Realizing his mistake, he lowered the American flag shortly afterwards with as much grace as was possible under the circumstances. Other events followed. Colonel John Fremont was on the scene almost continuously from 1845, engaged in official exploration for the United States Government. While near Monterey, his forces came into near-conflict with the forces of General Castro. Too, the American settlers, irked because of the Mexican attempts to control them, were ready to take matters in their own hands, which some of them did at Sonoma later when they created the "Bear Flag Republic."

By 1846, the war with Mexico gave the signal for the actual military conquest of California by the United States. Commodore Sloat's race with the British by sea from Mazatlan on the west coast of Mexico resulted in his arrival at the Bay of Monterey first. Raising the American flag at Monterey July 7, 1846, he declared California to be under the rule of the United States. Subsequently helped by Commodore Stockton and Fremont, and later by Kearney, the United States forces brought California under complete control. General Kearney, who marched from Santa Fe after the conquest of New Mexico, reached San Diego December 12, 1846, after some hardships and a battle with the Californians near San Diego. Taking command in California, he promulgated final military and civil rule.

California, like New Mexico, was now ready for American rule. It, too, was officially made a part of the United States with the final ratification of the Treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo, May 30, 1848.

and southwestern New Mexico, including Tucson, the northernmost important town of Sonora remained under Mexico's rule until 1853, when it was acquired by the United States under the Gadsden Purchase.

The history of this area under Mexico was much the same as that for New Mexico. There was a close connection also with California, especially in the extension of trade and travel from California to Sonora. As in other regions of the Southwest, the missions went through the period of secularization, and privately-owned ranchos came into existence.

The reasons why this area was purchased by the United States were numerous. Boundaries difficulties after 1848, the desire for further expansion, the need for a southern railroad route and Mexico's financial needs were predominant factors. Filibustering expeditions and Indian raids, continuous annoyances to both Mexico and the United States, were additional reasons.

The boundary question was perhaps the foremost factor in the Gadsden Purchase. After the Treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo was consummated in 1848, there was quite a little discussion of the part of Mexico and the United States as what was the correct boundary. Finally, commissioners of both nations met in San Diego 1849, and in El Paso in 1850. After several unsatisfactory discussions, a survey was started by Major Emory in 1853. The treaty of December 30, 1853, concluded by James Gadsden, United States Minister to Mexico, guaranteed the boundary as it is today. Mexico was paid $1,000,000, and the United States gained undisputed title to the land which would give it a desired railroad to the West. Major Emory appointed United States Commissioner and Surveyor, completed with the aid of the Mexican commissioners the survey and marking of the boundary between the two nations by the end of October 1855.

Thus ended the regime of Mexico in what our Southwest. Texas, New Mexico, California and that area of southern Arizona and southwestern New Mexico included in the Gadsden Purchase, had come under the jurisdiction of the United States. The transition from Spanish to American rule had been completed.

ELECTRICITY NO LUXURY.

Hand in hand with the widespread extension of electric service to rural areas has come an increasing emphasis on productive use of electricity upon the farm and in the farm homes, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The old notion that electricity is a luxury which the farmer cannot afford is giving place to realization that it is a necessity he cannot afford to do without.

CALIFORNIA'S QUADRICENTENNIAL YEAR

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

THE YEAR 1942 USHERS IN A GREAT anniversary for the people of California, for it marks the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the coast by the great navigator, Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo. It was on the twenty-eighth of September 1542 that Cabrillo sailed into the harbor now known as San Diego Bay. This was just fifty years after Columbus had made his initial voyage across the Atlantic and discovered the New World. The year 1942 is also, therefore, the four hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the discovery of America. It seems fitting and proper that the people of California should, during 1942, commemorate in some manner the quadricentennial of the discovery of their state. This will be done at San Diego in conjunction with the annual observance of Admission Day, September 9. It was for this reason that Albert V. Mayrhofer, on behalf of San Diego Parlor No. 108 N.S.G.W., asked and the Grand Parlor N.S.G.W. of 1941 decreed, that the 1942 observance of Admission Day be held in San Diego, oldest settlement in California, and the first part of the state to have been seen by our discoverer, Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo. Because California's discovery by the great navigator in 1542 will be much emphasized by Native Sons and Native Daughters in 1942, it seems well to present some of the important historical facts in conjunction therewith at this time.

Exploration of the New World by the Spanish was a slow process. This was because it was almost impossible to penetrate the wilderness in places. The Spanish conquest of Mexico began under Cortes in 1519. It took fourteen years to spread the rule of Spain across Mexico from Atlantic to Pacific. In 1533 the west coast had been reached and Jimenez sailed from the mainland to what is now Navidad, in Lower California. It was then believed that what is now known as the Gulf of California was a great strait dividing the continent and connecting Atlantic and Pacific. In 1539 the explorations of Ulloa showed that the body of water was a gulf. In 1540 two expeditions were sent out to explore the headlands of the gulf. One of these proceeded by land under Coronado; the other by sea under Alarcon.

The next link in this chain of explorations was forged in 1542 when Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo was sent out by sea with two vessels, the San Salvador and the Victoria, with directions to explore and map the coast beyond. Not a great deal is known about the life of Cabrillo. He was probably a native of Portugal, born late in the fifteenth century. He came to America in 1520 with Panfilo Narvaez and took part in the conquest of Mexico under Cortes. Later he served in Guatemala. In 1539 he was engaged in building a fleet of ships under Pedro de Alvarado. When this was finished he was appointed Alvarado's almirante (second in command). The fleet was then sailed to Navidad, in Jalisco.

Shortly after this Alvarado went into Mexico with Mendoza, and Cabrillo was left in charge of the fleet. It was while serving in this capacity, in the spring months of 1542, that Cabrillo was commissioned by Viceroy Mendoza to conduct an exploration into the north Pacific, hitherto unexplored. In obedience to this mandate he set out from the Port of Navidad June 27. His expedition consisted of two vessels, the San Salvador and the Victoria. July 2 the west coast of Lower California was sighted. August 27 Cabrillo reached a fairly good harbor in about the middle of the west coast of Lower California and, entering therein, he took possession in the name of the king. This port was thereafter known as the Port of Possession. Here some Indians were met who told the explorers they had previously seen White men dressed as they were.

Leaving the Port of Possession, Cabrillo and his party continued up the coast for another month, making occasional landings. September 28 they reached a very fine harbor, which they entered and named San Miguel, in honor of the feast of St. Michael, the archangel whose feast was on the following day, September 29. This was none other than the present San Diego Bay, hence that date, September 28, bears the distinction of being the day upon which Alta California was first visited by Europeans. When Sebastian Viscaino explored the California coast in 1602-03 he applied a set of names different from those given by Cabrillo. For this reason

San Miguel Bay came to be known as San Diego Bay. The following description of San Diego, taken from the diary of Cabrillo's voyage, is reproduced here:

"The Thursday following they proceeded about six leagues along a coast running north northwest and discovered a port enclosed and very good to which they gave the name San Miguel. It is thirty-four and one-third degrees; and after anchoring in it they went on shore which had people, three of whom remained and the others fled. To these they gave some presents and they said that to the interior had passed people like the Spaniards. They manifested much fear. This same day at night they went on shore from the ships to fish with a net, and it appears that there were here some Indians and they began to discharge some arrows and wounded three men. The next day in the morning they entered farther within the harbor, which is large, with the boat, and they brought away two boys who understood nothing by signs, and they gave them both shirts and immediately sent them away. And the following day in the morning there came to the ship three full grown Indians, and by signs they said that there were traveling in the interior men like us with beards and clothed and armed, like those of the ships, and they made signs that they carried crossbows and swords, and made gestures with the right arm as if they were throwing lances, and went running in a posture as if riding on horseback, and made signs that they killed many of the native Indians, and that for this they were afraid."

After spending five days at San Diego the expedition sailed north, and in three days reached the channel islands. October 8 Santa Monica Bay was reached. This was called Bahia de los Fumos, because of the many Indian fires burning. November 1 they reached Point Sal, which they called Todos los Santos (All Saints), after the church feast of the date. From here they continued up the coast. They named Point Pinos at the southern entrance to Monterey Bay. Obvious San Francisco Bay was passed. By November 15 they reached Point Arena and then turned south, reaching the Santa Barbara Islands by the 23rd. Cabrillo selected one of these islands as his port of possession. Here the expedition wintered from November 23 until January 29, 1543. Cabrillo died January 3, 1543. The diary entry records the fact:

"While wintering in this Isla de Possession on the 3rd day of January 1543 departed from this present life, Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, Captain of the said ships from a fall which he had on the same island at the former time when we were there, by which he broke an arm near the shoulder. He left for captain the Chief Pilot of Bartolome Ferrello, a native of the Levant, and he charged them much at the time of his death that they should not give up the discovery, as far as possible of all that coast. They named the island, La Isla de Juan Rodriguez."

Faithful to his master's instructions, Ferrello retraced the exploration of the coast. He reached Cape Mendocino February 28, only to experience a most terrible storm. At this point the diary is again quoted because it shows the dangers of those early explorations and the faith of the explorers when the elements were beyond the control of man:

"The Wednesday following, the 28th of the said month, at day break, the wind shifted directly to the southwest, and it did not blow hard. This day they observed the latitude 43 degrees. Towards night the wind freshened and shifted to the south southwest. They ran this night to the west northwest with much difficulty, and Thursday at day break the wind shifted to the southwest with great fury, and the seas came from many parts which harassed them much, and broke over the ships, which not having the decks, if God should not succor them, they could not escape, and not being able to lay to, of necessity they scudded northward toward the land; and now holding themselves for lost, they commended themselves to Our Lady of Guadalupe, and made their vows, and ran thus until three o'clock in the afternoon with much fear and labor, for they saw they were going to be lost. At this hour the Mother of God succored them with the grace of her Son and there came a very violent rainstorm from the north, which made them scud all that day and the following night to the south, with the foresails furled and because there was a high sea from the south, it broke over them every time at the bow, and swept over them as if over a rock . . . with such a high sea that it made them cry out that if God and the Blessed Mother did not miraculously save them they could not escape; Saturday at noon the wind moderated and remained at the northwest, for which they gave many thanks to Our Lady. They suffered also in provisions as they had only biscuit that damaged."

Turning south, the expedition now ran a homeward course and arrived at Navidad, a port of sailing, on the 14th of April 1543, after a voyage of nine and one-half months. But the brave commander did not return, and the diary closes with the sad words: "Came as Captain of the ships, Bartolome Ferrello, Chief Pilot of the said ships, in default of Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, who died on the Island of Possession."

Thus closes the story of the first Spanish exploration of Alta California. As a result, Cabrillo's expedition to the coast line of California from San Diego to Cape Mendocino was charted. The land had been visited, the Indians and their customs observed. Cabrillo was kind to the Redskins and gave them presents as he progressed along the coast. Indeed, while anchored in the Santa Barbara Islands a storm arose and a number of Indians took shelter upon the ship. The bravery of the Spanish explorer is nowhere better exemplified than in the expedition of Cabrillo. The great mariner himself gave his life from infection resulting from a broken arm. We are told there was much scurvy, and there were the violent storms of the sea to contend with in poorly built boats. And yet, on all this dismal side, the challenge to explore land and sea was answered again and again more and still more of these brave men from old Spain. The terror of the wilderness, the scourge of the savage, the danger of disease and the deadly storms of the sea daunted them not. Somewhere in the Santa Barbara Islands the mortal remains of the brave Cabrillo lie in unknown and unmarked grave. Decoration of his tomb is impossible, but in 1942 all California will offer a tribute of praise to his spirit. No braver explorer ever set foot upon our soil than Cabrillo, father of Spanish explorers and discoverer of California.

"IN THIS TIME OF NATIONAL PERIL, when we all must realize is that the United States Government is you and I and all the other families next door all the way across the country back again. It is one great partnership. Fellow Americans, I ask you to demonstrate again your faith in America by joining me in investing in the new defense savings bonds." Franklin Roosevelt, President of the United States of America.

THE OBLIGATION OF THE HOUR

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

FOR MANY, MANY YEARS THE GRIZZLY BEAR has waged a publicity campaign against the Japs, continually warning that, unless their "peaceful invasion" of the Pacific Coast of the United States of America be stopped, they would, in time, resort to armed invasion to achieve their desired goal, the acquisition of the Pacific Coast states.

Had the warnings been heeded—had the federal and the state authorities been "on the alert," and rigidly enforced the Exclusion Law and the Alien Land Law; had the Jap propaganda agencies in this county been silenced; had legislation been enacted, as proposed in the Federal Congress by the late Senator James D. Phelan, California's outstanding Native Son, denying citizenship to the offspring of an alien ineligible to citizenship; had the Japs been prohibited from colonizing in strategic locations; had not Jap-dollars been so eagerly sought by White landowners and businessmen; had a deaf ear been turned to the honeyed words of the Japs and the pro-Japs; had the yellow-Jap and the white-Jap "fifth columnists" been disposed of within the law; had Japan been denied the privilege of using California as a breeding-ground for dual-citizens (Nisei);—the treacherous Japs probably would not have attacked Pearl Harbor December 7, 1941, and this country would not today be at war with Japan.

In The Grizzly Bear for March 1920 the editor had an article titled "Japan's Creed a Menace to the Peace of the World, and Furnishes Substantial Proof of Her Purpose to Japanize California, and, Eventually, the United States." The featured portion of that article, "The Obligation of the Hour," being timely, is reprinted here:

"The RECOGNITION of Japan, as a world power, by the nations of the West, forced the issue arising from contact with Orientals. We know the Orient—the history of Japan is an open book. In geography, in mental perspective, in moral sanctions, and in political conceptions, she is on the opposite side of the globe.

"WE ARE PREPARED TO PROVE, WITHOUT QUALIFICATION, FROM THE MOUTHS OF JAPANESE THEMSELVES, THAT THEY CONSTITUTE A MENACE TO OUR INSTITUTIONS AND GOVERNMENT; THAT IN POLITICAL CONCEPTIONS, THEY ARE DIAMETRICALLY OPPOSED TO THE PRINCIPLES ESTABLISHED BY THE FOUNDERS OF THIS REPUBLIC; AND THAT THEIR SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT FOSTERS THE DOCTRINE OF DIVINE RIGHT, WHICH PRECLUDES THE IDEA OF AMALGAMATION OR ASSIMILATION

WITH A PEOPLE IMBUE WITH THE SPIRIT OF DEMOCRATIC IDEALS. WE HAVE THE FACTS—AUTHORITATIVE AND INCONTROVERTIBLE.

"Resolved to its final analysis, the Japan-American problem is a controversy between imperialism and democracy. By 'peaceful penetration,' THE JAPANESE HAVE CHALLENGED US TO COMBAT, within our own territory, and by a system of powerful propaganda unparalleled in the history of the world are forcing the issue. Backed by unlimited funds and inspired by the zeal of religious fanatics, they maintain their ground, not infrequently, be it said to our shame, aided and abetted by persons enjoying the privileges of American citizenship. There is no question as to the verity of these facts.

"Knowing these things to be true, WHAT IS THE OBLIGATION OF THE HOUR? 'He who sees his duty and does it not is a man without courage;' thus spoke Confucius five hundred years before Christ. When we are convinced by the logic of facts—when we realize the imminence of peril to our institutions, to our hearths and homes—the question of means and measures will not give us concern—they will become incidentals. Our sense of duty—our consciousness of right, inspired by the noble maxims of self-defense,—will admit of no debate on the incidents of the campaign.

"THE PERIL BEING IMMINENT, OUR DUTY IS CLEAR. WE WILL NOT, IN THE DISCHARGE OF OUR DUTY, BE CHARACTERIZED BY A PATRONIZING ATTITUDE—WE WILL NOT BE NEUTRAL, UNLESS WE HAVE THIS CONVICTION, THE BATTLE IS LOST—WE HAVE STULTIFIED OURSELVES BY OUR HALF-HEARTED EFFORTS. UNLESS WE HAVE THIS FAITH, WE ARE WASTING OUR TIME IN OUR DECLARATIONS. UNLESS WE HAVE THIS DETERMINATION, WE CAN OFFER NO PLAUSIBLE EXCUSE FOR OUR ORGANIZATIONS AS PROTECTIVE LEAGUES. BUT WE KNOW WE ARE RIGHT! THEREFORE, LET US MOVE FORWARD—LET US RESPOND TO THE ONSLAUGHTS OF THESE ALMOND-EYED SONS OF THE ORIENT IN KIND, AND, WHERE MEANS ARE LACKING, LET US CREATE THEM. LET US AGITATE, EDUCATE, AND ERADICATE. THIS IS THE ONLY VERSION OF THE CONVICTION THAT WILL CONQUER."

"TODAY THERE IS JUST ONE JOB before the American people. We must defeat this invasion by Japan and we must fight it in any place that will defeat it. Upon this job we must have and will have unity in America. We must have and will have support for the President of the United States in this war to defend America. We will have victory."—Herbert Hoover, former President of the United States of America.

SANTA BARBARA — SAINT BARBARA'S Day, December 4, Santa Barbara No. 116 had its annual pre-Christmas party, observed the anniversary of the founding of Santa Barbara Mission—the beginning of the "Queen City of California"—and received an official visit from Grand Trustee Walter Odemar.

The evening's festivities began with a sumptuous turkey dinner, prepared by Mms. Jeanne Romero, Ethel Corral, Addy Guest, Louise Wendel and Sophie Essau, wives of members of the Parlor, and served by Dr. E. D. Trott, Wm. McCaffrey, R. P. Romero, Ernest Smaniotto, C. W. McCormick and Robert Tenney at tables attractively decorated in a Yuletide motif.

President Raymond B. Romero, in charge of all arrangements for the occasion, was the master of ceremonies. Grand Trustee Odemar proposed a toast to the President of the United States, and an orchestra pleased with familiar selections. The guest-speaker, Father Eric O'Brien of the faculty of Saint Anthony's Seminary, delivered a delightful and informative address on Saint Barbara, "the great unknown of history," martyred because of her acceptance of Christianity. Said the speaker, in part:

"Her father, who may have been Diocorus, a wealthy man in the reign of Maximaok, is presented as a conscientious pagan. She has been presented standing beside a castle tower in which there were three windows, representing the blessed trinity. All we really know of Saint Barbara is that for 1,500 years or more she has been honored throughout the world for a great soul in a frail body. We know that she was martyred in her teens, either in Asia Minor in the third, or in northern Egypt in the fourth century. We know that artillerymen, seamen and munitions workers the world over have accepted her as their patron saint. We know, assuredly, that 339 years ago this December 4 she gave name to this locality and that she stands for us a symbol of abiding faith, intrepid zeal and undaunted courage. Need any city or county ask more inspiring patroness?"

The meeting following the dinner was dedicated to Santa Barbara's sister city, Santa Maria, originally called Central City. Four candidates were initiated, the ritual being exemplified by the following: Paul Sweetser, president; Leland Holiday, senior past president; John McCaughey, junior past president; Leland Smith, first vice-president; Raymond Romero, second vice-president; George Dow, marshal; George Streeter, inside sentinel.

Grand Trustee Odemar, addressing the gathering at the conclusion of the ceremonies, urged full co-operation in defense activities, and Charles A. Storke, one of the initiates, spoke of the Old Mission Days in Santa Barbara County celebration. Among others introduced were District Deputy Gus Dinsmore and Deputy Grand President Clarence M. Hunt. The enjoyable evening concluded with fine entertainment provided by Juan and Rosita Cota, Chiquita Cota, Beatrice Robbins, Trent Bessant and William Powers.

Group Meeting District Two Parlor.

Modesto—Although the sudden outbreak of war with Japan curtailed the attendance to some extent, the gathering of the north San Joaquin Valley Parlor of District No. 2, under the guidance of Supervising Deputy Donald Cocanour, December 3, was very successful. Parlor representatives included Stockton No. 7, Modesto No. 11, Yosemite No. 24 (Merced), Tracy No. 186 and Los Banos No. 206. The meeting was held in the clubhouse of the Old Fishermen's Club, with Modesto as the host-parlor.

A delicious dinner was served, following which twelve candidates were initiated, five for Modesto, three for Tracy, two for Stockton, and one each for Yosemite and Los Banos. The following exemplified the ritual: Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, president; Past Grand Chas. A. Koenig, senior past president; Grand Second Vice-president Wayne R. Millington, junior past president; Grand Secretary John T. Regan, first vice-president; Grand Trustee Walter N. Bailey, second vice-president; Grand First Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, third vice-president; Grand Trustee Richard F. McCarthy, marshal; Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, inside sentinel; Miller Markey, Fruitvale No. 252 (Oakland), pianist.

President Gordon Kelley of Modesto opened and closed the meeting, and Charles D. Blain welcomed the more than 100 in attendance. The speaker of the evening was Grand President Schnarr, who gave an inspiring talk on the defense of the nation. A thirty-minute entertainment program was immensely enjoyed. Also present were Deputies Lloyd Altamirano, Lero Lambert and Fred Krumb. Modesto's general committee of arrangements included Charles I. Blaine, chairman, Walter Crow, Edwin Craig, Carl Lewis, Barlow McCleary, George Ingle and George Hansen. Conditions permitting, this district meeting will be followed by other similar gatherings of the north San Joaquin Valley Parlor.

Past Presidents Exemplify Ritual.

Marysville—At a district meeting here November 19, called by Supervising Deputy Robert Kohler in honor of Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, eight candidates were initiated by a ritual team from Fred H. Greely Assembly No. 1. Past Presidents Association. There was a high turnout of past presidents and other members of the Order from Grass Valley, Nevada City, Oroville, Downsville, Sutter City, Colusa, Lincoln and Roseville.

At the conclusion of the initiatory ceremony, Grand Trustee Eben K. Smart addressed the group, and President Harold Hansen of Quarry No. 58 (Grass Valley) sang "I Love You, California." Grand President Schnarr, in a patriotic address, stressed the ideals of the Native Son and A. C. Casci of Quartz led the assemblage in singing "God Bless America."

After the meeting Marysville No. 6 provided banquet, which was served by members of Sutter No. 261. Supervising Deputy Kohler was the toastmaster, and the speakers included Past Governors General R. P. L. Bigelow and Frank W. Boyle, and Supervisor Guerdon Ellis of the Tahoe National Forest, who was one of the initiates and spoke in their behalf.

Fifteen Initiated.

Napa—At a group initiation here December 15 fifteen candidates were initiated—eight for Napa No. 62, five for Lower Lake No. 159 and two for Vallejo No. 77—by the following ritual team:

Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, president; Grand Trustee Louis Bosch, senior past president; Past Grand Harmon D. Skillin, junior past president; Grand Secretary John T. Regan, first vice-president; Grand Trustee Joseph J. Tinney, second vice-president; William Dornbrink, Fruitvale No. 252 (Oakland), third vice-president; Grand Trustee Richard F. McCarthy, marshal; Grand Marshal George Bruno, inside sentinel.

This was also the official visit of Grand Trustee Tinney, and he and Grand President Schnarr delivered splendid addresses.

Keeps 'Em Coming.

Ventura—The December 16 gathering of Cabrillo No. 114 attracted approximately 300 members of the Parlor from all parts of Ventura County. They came in response to a notice of the meeting in which Recording Secretary H. V. Hammons Junior declared: "War or no war Cabrillo Parlor must go ahead. A countywide organization like ours will have an opportunity to play a great part in [the affairs of the nation and the state]. So, let's band together, stronger than ever before." A delicious turkey dinner prepared under the supervision of Ed Hearne, mainly responsible for the phenomenal growth of the Parlor, and Charles Ferraud, made every one happy. As usual, wives and friends of the members did the serving, and in appreciation for services rendered Christmas boxes of candy were presented Mms. Joe A. Parr, Bob Parr, Reid Hunt, Ed Hearne, Mary Lewis, Jack Ross, George Suytar, Catherine Suytar, Ruth Suytar, Ruby Peirano, Dorothy Drapeau, Hal Hammons Junior, Juanita Ward, Shirley Smith, Theresa Maldonado, Virginia VanEvery, Doris Turner, Mae Beaman, Flo Williams and Edna Bouche. Misses Bunny Murphy, Coral Ash, Lucile Brock and Mildred Boucher.

After the dinner there was an open meeting at which Superior Judge Louis Drapeau, the president of the Parlor, presided, and members of the Ventura City Council were guests. Charles Blackstock paid tribute to James C. Hollingworth, former district attorney of Ventura County and a longtime member of Cabrillo, to who the evening was dedicated. In a brilliant response, Hollingsworth praised the Order, referred to the Jap menace, and commended those responsible for the Parlor's increase in membership. Other speakers were Fire Chief Charles Hawley, Councilman Jack Rose, Dr. George Houghton, and Henry Borchers, who signed up twenty-five new members for No. 114. Entertainment preceded the speaking.

The doors were then closed and the officers of the Parlor proceeded with the initiation of twenty-four candidates, bringing the membership to 39, and recording an increase of 318 for the year 1941. Among the initiates of the evening was Edgar Wade Howell, born in Lake County 1858. The January meeting of the Parlor, to be dedicated to Robert M. Sheridan, will be held on the 20th. CALIFORNIA'S
NEW LAKE NAMED
MILLERTON

California's new lake in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada, northeast of Fresno, has been officially named Millerton Lake. It is being formed by Friant Dam, a 320-foot concrete structure on the San Joaquin River, now nearing completion by the Federal Bureau of Reclamation as one of the two important storage dams on the great Central Valley Project.

Millerton Lake was so named because the reservoir will completely submerge two historical points of interest: the townsite of Millerton, the first government seat of Fresno County, and Fort Miller, the first United States military post established for the protection of early settlers from Indian depredations.

The lake has already grown to a length of six and one-half miles up the San Joaquin River and a depth of seventy feet just behind the dam. Water is backed up just beyond Fine Gold Creek, which enters the reservoir from the Madera County side.

Water stored in Millerton Lake will be diverted north in the Madera Canal and south in the Friant-Kern Canal to furnish life-giving water for millions of dollars' worth of crops in the fertile San Joaquin Valley. To many people in the valley whose very existence depends upon an adequate water supply for irrigation, these two main canals are the most important features of the entire project. The lake now stands ready to protect valley lowlands from devastating floods.

NATIVE SONS PROPOSED NAME.
At the N.S.G.W. 1941 (Lake Tahoe) Grand Parlor a resolution was adopted, petitioning the Federal Government to name the lake to be formed by Friant Dam "Lake Millerton." Under date of December 12, Commissioner John C. Page of the Department of the Interior Bureau of Reclamation, wrote Grand Secretary John T. Regan as follows:

"The matter has now been considered carefully and the lake officially named Millerton Lake. The Board of Geographic Names suggested as definitely preferable the form 'Millerton Lake' instead of 'Lake Millerton' to conform to the better modern usage and to make sure that the name will always be indexed under 'M' rather than being lost under 'L' as is likely to be the case with the names that have the word 'lake' first."

County, August 5, 1850. In 1887 he married Livia Cox, whose parents came by wagontrain in 1853, who survives.

Deceased served Contra Costa County as clerk, and Martinez as postmaster, and as justice of the peace for many years.

Livermore—Las Positas No. 96 had its annual Christmas tree party for less-fortunate children December 22. A program of entertainment preceded the visit of Santa Claus.

Roy C. Anderson was chairman of the general arrangements committee, and heading the several subcommittees in charge of details were J. J. Kelly, C. G. Clarke, H. L. Wenthe, Jack Rose, J. H. Bargmann, E. J. Mulqueeny, Fred S. Young, William Medau and J. M. Beazell.

Valued Member Departs.
San Bernardino—John Andreson Junior, one of the most valued members of Arrowhead No. 110 and the Order, died November 27, as briefly recorded in The Grizzly Bear for December 1941. He was born at San Bernardino, January 7, 1873, and is survived by his wife and two children.

Deceased joined Arrowhead February 18, 1891, and for many years was its treasurer. He represented the Parlor at numerous sessions of the Grand Parlor, the first being the Twentieth (Redwood City 1897) Session. He was elected Grand Trustee at the Forty-second (Yosemite Valley 1919) Session, and at the Forty-eighth (San Bernardino 1925) Session he was appointed Grand Director by Grand President Judge Fletcher A. Cutler. He was also treasurer of Arrowhead Past Presidents Assembly No. 14.

The officers-elect of Arrowhead and Santa Ana No. 265 will be jointly installed at public ceremonies to be held in the Crestline Clubhouse of No. 110 Sunday, January 18. This installation party will be an all-day affair for the families and friends of all Native Sons.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

DUE TO THE PRESENT CRISIS," SAID Grand President Clarice E. Cook in a communication to the Subordinate Parlors under date of December 13, "inquiries have been made through the Grand Parlor office concerning the activities of our organization. In order to assist in maintaining the morale of our nation, . . . those in charge of our national affairs have requested that we 'carry on.' . . . I have been advised that fraternal and benevolent associations should use their own judgment regarding social affairs, but that regular meetings should be continued.

"In the event of emergency, Parlors may regulate their meetings to the benefit of all concerned, but all members must be notified and a vote taken before any change is made. I will, in accordance with the duties of my office as specified in the Constitution, continue with my official visits until such time as I deem it inadvisable. . . . The Board of Control has given permission to the Subordinate Parlors to purchase defense bonds, and it is not necessary to secure forms or further permission from the Grand Parlor. . . .

"Never before in the history of our great nation have the principles upon which our Order is founded been closer to our hearts, and we should strive to uphold these traditions."

Ninth Anniversary Observed.

Ontario—Janet Traver was re-elected president of Ontario No. 251 December 14. Due to the blackouts it has been decided to dispense with night meetings for the time being, and a committee has been named to arrange for daylight meetings. The members have voted to do Red Cross work following the meetings. The first meeting in January is to be held Sunday afternoon, the 11th, at the Ontario Women's Clubhouse. At that time two candidates will be initiated.

The afternoon of December 21 the Parlor celebrated its ninth institution anniversary at the Upland home of Maude VanFleet. Husbands of the members were guests. Following dinner Christmas gifts were exchanged and games were enjoyed. Ontario has been saddened by the loss of Charter Member Elizabeth Serio, mother of Charter President Adele Frankish. Affectionately referred to as the "Little Pioneer Mother," she was born in Tuolumne County eighty-four years ago.—W.T.

East Met West.

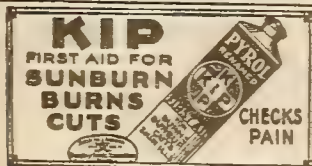

Fresno—East met West, and liked it, when Wawona No. 271 entertained twenty-five soldiers stationed at the Fresno Air Base December 5. A sport dance for the out-of-state lads was the attraction. The annual Christmas party was held December 16 in the Holmes Playground clubhouse, with the very new native sons and daughters as special guests.

This clear, golden liquid lotion, used regularly, enhances natural loveliness, encourages smoothness, freedom from irritation, relieves chapping. Chamberlain's Lotion is most convenient to use, dries quickly, is never sticky, greasy, gummy nor "messy." At all toilet goods counters.

cers resulted in the selection of Martha Faulner for president. At the December 17 meeting Sue Engfer reported a splendid response to the homeless children benefit dance December 13.

From Observatory No. 177 N.S. Vendome received a check for a substantial sum and the combined with the Parlor's donation, made possible for Sue Mattel, chairman of veterans welfare, to provide a merry Christmas for the boys at the Palo Alto Base Hospital. "The wellbeing of our members should be of utmost importance to us, and we should also interest ourselves in the welfare of others. The newspapers are full of artaches and sadness, and often much of this grief could have been avoided if someone had bothered to help. Happy people make good American citizens! It is up to us as an organization to co-operate with the charitable agencies, the public school authorities and the parochial schools in the various communities. The life of our people should be in our minds all the time through!"—Clara Strohmeier, state chairman and Parlor Veterans Welfare and Welfare Committee.

In San Francisco, Mrs. O'Donnell has established an enviable reputation as a first aid teacher. Members of the Parlor will attempt to organize another class, and it is hoped she will be the instructor.

Miss Norma Gaetjen, employed in the office of the Grand Secretary N.S.G.W., also took the regular, as well as the advanced course, and it is possible that in the near-future she will be one of the instructors.

ALL PLANS BEING SUBJECT TO CHANGE without notice these days, the americanism committee of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W., Miss Margaret Kerr chairman, found it necessary to make an eleventh-hour cancellation of a pinata party scheduled for December 21 for a score or more of naval trainees from Chavez Ravine. The informal, homelike hospitality of preceding entertainments seemed to score a direct hit with the recipients, and enthusiastic requests for more like them inspired Isabel Fages, chairman of arrangements, to plan a traditional Spanish Christmas observance for the occasion. The question arises, must we wait for the next in the series to be a "V" party?

Californiana's regular schedule was enlivened December 1 by a large and beautifully-appointed luncheon in honor of the Gertrude Sewing Circle, with Mrs. Emma Joughin Osborn as hostess. The spacious Osborn home in the Los Feliz hills was beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and delphinium, and roses in varying shades of pink. The everlasting hills made an inspiring setting. Thanks to the generosity of the sewing circle's "Aunt Emma," the Parlor will adopt a baby as its Christmas contribution to the homeless children project. Many Christmas baskets were distributed also to the less-fortunate, under the supervision of Mrs. Edith Harmon Adams.

At the December 9 luncheon a beautiful Christmas story written by Isabel Fages from episodes connected with the De Anza expedition was presented by her, assisted by Bud Fages, who sang ballads of the period, accompanied by Miss Mary Gruber. Special guests included Deputy Josephine Reichman and Gertrude Riddle from Long Beach Parlor No. 154. The semi-annual election of officers resulted in the entire corps being retained by acclamation. The initiation of two candidates completed a very active day. A round table meeting at the home of President Ethel Smith December 23 concluded Californiana's activities for 1941.

A THOUSAND YEARS OF MEMBERSHIP.

The November 28 meeting of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. reminded of the old days, there being a large attendance and considerable enthusiasm. The occasion was the presentation of twenty-five-year emblems to forty quarter-century members. President William Bright asked Past Grand President Eldred Meyer to preside and he, in turn, introduced Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, who made the presentation address. Receiving the pins were:

Walter Baskerville, Irving Baxter, William T. Blakely, Ed. C. Bodie, William J. Bright, Charles A. Bryant, William T. Calderwood, Felix H. Clavere, Monroe H. Conlee, Louis A. Duni, William J. Durm, Harry W. Frost, Charles Gassagne, Geraldo M. Guzman, John B. Haas, Martin Hauser, Ray Howard, J. Paul Kiefer, F. H. Lampe, Dave Lee, Harry J. Lelande, Dr. William R. Molony, Lon S. McCoy, William T. Paul, A. G. Pedroarena, M. A. Richley, John T. Ronan, Joseph G. Rosso, Newell Ruggles, John V. Scott, Charles Stansbury, Charles Straube, Deacon Taggart, Charles R. Thomas, Robert A. Todd, A. Roy West and Clarence West.

After the presentation reminiscences were related by John Scott (1893), longtime recording secretary; Ed Bodie (1896) and Past Presidents Robert Todd (1897), Charles Stansbury (1897), Harry Lelande (1899), Charles Thomas (1908), Paul Kiefer (1903) and Louis Duni (1905). Earlier in the evening a delicious dinner was served more than a hundred members of the Order. Forty additional quarter-century members will be given emblematic pins at a near-future meeting.

The December 19 meeting of Ramona was dedicated to Charles R. Thomas, and among those present to greet the former Los Angeles marshal were his three sons. Among the several who accepted the invitation of First Vice-president Frank Ruiz to say a few words were Deacon Taggart, Walter Slosson, Joe Coyle, Earle Magee, Lon McCoy, Paul Kiefer and Walter Baskerville.

The officers of Ramona for the January-July term, with Frank Ruiz as president, will be publicly installed January 9; refreshments will follow the ceremonies. January 23 the Parlor will have initiation, followed by refreshments.

GAVE AND RECEIVED.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive," but Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. in December shared in both giving and receiving. Remembering the service men, decks of cards were sent to the recreation camps, and cash donations were made to the American Red Cross and the Community Chest. Realizing the necessity of aiding democracy by the purchase of defense bonds, the Parlor voted to invest its entire clubhouse fund in those securities.

The Parlor received recognition and valued publicity at the annual Christmas luncheon sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the Chamber of Commerce by winning a prize for the most elaborately decorated table. Ann Schiebush, Lucille Duncan and Grace Norton were in charge of the decorations. Sharing honors with Verdugo Parlor No. 240, Los Angeles won first prize at the amateur show sponsored by Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. A schoolroom scene was carried out, with members representing well-known local Native Sons and Daughters.

At the suggestion of Grand President Clarice E. Cook, the Parlor has decided to "carry on" during the emergency, so evening meetings will be continued. The December social affair was the annual Christmas party, this year held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Hunt. Gay decorations, buffet refreshments, exchange of gifts and charming hospitality were enjoyed by more than sixty members. Chairman Edna Neikirk, Grace Norton, Grace Haven, Grace DuCasse and Flora Holy are raising funds for the Annie L. Adair scholarship fund, a Grand Parlor project.—E.S.

COLORS PRESENTED BATTALION.

At Exposition Park, December 14, Walter E. Smith of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. presented United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to the Women's Ambulance and Nursing Battalion, California State Guard, said to be the only battalion of women recognized by the United States War Department.

Led by the National Institute of Music band, the battalion, under command of Sergeant Esther G. Paul, marched in review. Presentation addresses were made by the flags' donor, Walter Smith, and Grand Marshal Mary Noerenberg of the N.D.G.W., and the colors were accepted by Major Frank G. Nolan, Supervisor

At the December 12 meeting of the Parlor the incumbent officers, with Edith Sprague as president, were re-elected for the forthcoming term. Treasurer Jean Hill is the mother of a new native son, Theodore.

Grand Trustee Walter Odemar was in attendance on his official visit. He referred to the Parlor's fine condition and praised President "Woody" Wade for his conduct of its affairs. Other speakers were Deputy Paul Traynor and Ben Hiss. At election of officers Angelo DeFazio was chosen president, and Woodrow Wade was selected for recording secretary. Refreshments were served at the meeting's close.

N.S.G.W. NEWS

True W. Fowler welcomed the many in attendance, including large delegations from Modesto No. 11 and Los Banos No. 206.

In addressing the Parlor, Grand Second Vice-president Millington stressed the need of the membership participating in progressive movements for the good of the community. Testimonials were presented Charter Member E. D. Kahl and 80-year-young F. W. Burney, a faithful member who drives over sixty miles to attend meetings. At the meeting's conclusion a banquet was served under the direction of Mike J. Dalforno.

Twenty-five-year Emblems Presented.
Ferndale—Ferndale No. 93 had its annual turkey feast December 15, under the supervision of Chas. Kistner. S. J. Damon was the toastmaster and a short program was enjoyed. Supervising Deputy Ray Breeden and Charter Member J. A. Shaw were among the eighty in attendance.

At the meeting following the dinner the Parlor made a substantial donation to the Central Homeless Children Committee, and presented twenty-five-year emblematic pins to Shirley A. Boyd, Bollen Z. Boynton, Dr. Leslie R. Codoni, Dr. Joseph N. D. Hindley, Richard M. Holman, Emmet L. Tighe, Edward L. Tarpley, John D. Shaw, Charles J. Grinsell, Ralph C. Jacobsen, O. R. Frame and Henry J. Tonini. The presentation address was made by Henry E. Giacomini, who also gave a talk on the amendments to the Federal Constitution known as the "Bill of Rights."

Faithfuls Honored.
Sacramento—Sacramento No. 3 honored November 30 two of its oldest, in service, recently retired officers—Charles A. Root, trustee thirty-one years, and Robert D. Finnie, treasurer thirty-seven years. Root joined the Parlor in 1885 and served as president during 1889. Finnie became a member of No. 3 in 1892, transferring from Quartz No. 58 (Grass Valley). On the Parlor's behalf Root presented a gift to Finnie, and Frank E. Michel presented a gift to Root.

Many oldtime members of the local Parlor were present to pay their respects to the honorees. A supper concluded the occasion. In charge of arrangements for the evening was a committee consisting of Roy C. Cothrin, chairman, J. Frank Didion and June J. Longshore.

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.
Oakland—The group meeting of the Alameda County Parlor December 10 was a memorial for the late Past Grand Harry G. Williams. Some 100 members were in attendance and seven candidates were initiated.

Placerville—The annual New Year Eve dance of Placerville No. 9 for the benefit of the homeless children was largely attended. Arrangements were in charge of a committee that included Harold Duden, chairman, Robert Hook, Kenneth McCoy, Gordon VanVleck and Stanley VanVleck.

No applications, no new members to fill the ranks. And California needs more Native Sons! Today's responsibility of every member of the Order is to contact eligibles. Don't leave this important duty for "George" to perform.

Sacramento—Federal Judge Harold Louderback, affiliated with Pacific No. 10 (San Francisco), died here suddenly December 11, survived by his wife. He was born at San Francisco, January 30, 1831. Prior to his appointment to the federal bench in 1928 deceased served San Francisco County as a superior judge for seven years.

Calistoga—Calistoga No. 86 received an official visit December 1 from Grand Trustee Joseph E. Tinney who, in the course of an address, eulogized the homeless children project. Other speakers were Grand Marshal George Bruno and District Deputy Theodore Freitas. During the evening officers for the ensuing term were elected, Ray Bentley being selected president. A banquet concluded the meeting.

There are thousands of fine eligibles just waiting to be extended an invitation to affiliate with the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. Be a recruiter—extend the invitation today, not tomorrow!

San Diego—Cave J. Coutts, born in San Diego County in 1856, affiliated with San Diego No. 108 December 3. His father was the late Colonel Cave J. Coutts, who was stationed with the United States Dragoons at the old mission, and his mother was the late Isadora Bandini of the pioneer family of that name. Almost a century ago Colonel Coutts built the old hacienda at the Guajome Rancho. Grand Trustee Walter Odemar will officially visit the Parlor January 7; a supper will precede the meeting.

Los Banos—Members of Los Banos No. 206 were guests of Lomita No. 255 N.D. December 17. A potluck dinner was served and gifts were distributed from a brightly decorated Christmas tree. More than 125 members of the Parlor were in attendance.

San Bernardino—Arrowhead Past Presidents Assembly No. 11 will meet Sunday, January 25, at 12:30 noon, at the Good Fellows Grrotto, 341 South Main street, Los Angeles. A dinner will precede the business session. All past presidents are invited to affiliate.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC POWER PLAYING PART IN DEFENSE PRODUCTION.
Today the West is undergoing a significant industrial development. Throughout the West are springing up new or enlarged plants to build airplanes, manufacture munitions, steel, aluminum and other products. Much of this industry has been made possible because of the hydro-electric power generated by projects developed for irrigation and other purposes. That power, which some once thought would never be fully used, is now playing a vital part in defense production; it will play a part in peace-time production later on.—U. S. Department Agriculture.

Major John Henry Dockweiler, brother of Adore B. Dockweiler (Ramona NS), died December 21. He was a native of New York, aged 77.

ADMISSION DAY COMMITTEE ORGANIZED.
At the call of Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, representatives of the Los Angeles County S.G.W. Parlor met December 17 and organized a committee to arrange for participation in the Admission Day celebration at San Pedro, September 9.

Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 was elected chairman, and Bernard G. Hiss of University

Parlor No. 272 was chosen secretary. The next meeting of the committee will be at the call of the chairman.

YULE LUNCHEON.

San Pedro — Rudecinda Parlor No. 239 N.D.G.W. had election of officers December 8, and selected Rowena Wheeler as president for the ensuing term. The Florencita Thimble Club met December 3 and 17, with Emma Peterson and Letitia Sarciaux as the hostesses. Due to the emergency, the Parlor's time of meeting has been changed to the second and fourth Saturday afternoons.

December 22, members of Rudecinda enjoyed a Yule luncheon, with turkey and all the trimmings, served by Letitia Sarciaux, Juanita Brooks, Katherine Mooney, Mabelle Simpson, Dolores Reinke and Madeline Marich. Gifts were exchanged, and "secret sisters" of the year were revealed. The Parlor's newly-elected officers will be publicly installed the afternoon of Sunday, January 18, at Odd Fellows Temple.

STIRRING TALKS.

Wilmington—The December 12 dinner-meeting sponsored by Stephen M. White No. 263 (San Pedro), Compton No. 273 and Long Beach No. 278 Parlor N.S.G.W. was well attended and there was much enthusiasm. Walter Hopcraft was the toastmaster, and Manager Earle O. Lloyd of the Long Beach Municipal Airport was the guest-speaker. Stirring talks on the Jap question were made by Senator Henry Carter and Chester French.

All present declared their intention to take a very active part in bringing about a United States of America victory in the war with Japan. A resolution was adopted directing the presidents of the Parlor to have each member fill out a questionnaire, to be delivered to Clarence S. Hunt, general chairman of civilian defense of the three Parlor. Many expressed the opinion that during the war the get-together dinners should be held oftener than once a month.

In Memoriam

CATHERINE E. GLOSTER.

To the Officers and Members of Forrest Parlor No. 159 Native Daughters of the Golden West: We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed Sister Catherine E. Gloster, beg to submit the following:

Whereas, The Angel of Death has invaded the golden circle of sisterhood within our Parlor and has removed the presence of our beloved Past Grand President Catherine E. Gloster from our midst. And

Whereas, The memory of her will ever linger with those who knew her and loved her. In her was personified all the attributes of a true and faithful friend and all the requisites of generous womanhood. And

Whereas, She was richly endowed by Nature with an understanding heart and superior qualities of mind, so that all who came in contact with her felt enriched by the warmth of her outstanding personality. And

And while we bow humbly to the will of our Heavenly Father, we will retain in our hearts a lasting affection for our dear Catherine Gloster. We realize that she left a glorious heritage to the Order of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, for which she worked long, faithfully and well. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That our sincere sympathy be extended to our Sister Dorothy Gloster and to all members of the Gloster family, that this report in full be spread upon the minutes of our Parlor, and that copies be sent to the Modoc County papers and to The Grizzly Bear for publication.

Sincerely and fraternally submitted,

IRMA LAIRD,
ELIZABETH C. CALLAGHAN,
ANNA B. ESTES.

ELIZABETH SERIO

The members of Ontario Parlor No. 251 N.D.G.W. have been called upon to mourn the death of a beloved charter member, Elizabeth Serio, who passed away November 23, 1941.

Whereas, We are deeply grieved at the loss of another faithful member, and will miss her presence among us.

Resolved, That we extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathy to her daughter, Adele Frankish, her sons and her sister, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the family, and one to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Little Pioneer Mother, with your charming grace,
There is no other to take your place;
Lingering in our dreams is your sweet smile,
Like bright sunbeams come to stay while,
Love does not depart, it fills earth and sky;
Courage warms the heart, Little Mother—goodbye.

Respectfully submitted,

MAUDE VAN FLEET,
ISABEL GRAVES,

ELLEN HOLDEN.

To the Officers and Members of Forrest Parlor No. 68 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our late Sister Ellen Holden, herewith submit the following:

Whereas, The Almighty, In his infinite wisdom, has seen fit to call to the Heavenly Parlor on High our Sister Ellen Holden, thus taking from her home a devoted wife and mother, from us one of our most devoted and loyal members, a faithful and true friend. We feel the loss measureless, and by her death a place has been left vacant in her home, and hard though it be, we resign ourselves with the memory of an honorable life.

Resolved, That in the passing of our Sister, the Parlor has lost an honored member and the Order a true and loyal Native Daughter of the Golden West.

Resolved, That our deepest sympathy be extended to her family, and may the chain of golden memories lessen their sorrow. May God comfort and bless those near and dear to her. Be it further

THE LETTER BOX

"GOLDEN JUBILEE VICTORY BALLS."

"Editor Grizzly Bear: When we read of the marvelous interest the Native Sons and Daughters take in their great state, California, it gives us courage to carry on the movement here.

"You have made the nation conscious of the vast empire of the West. The grandeur with which you endow your historical pageants excites the admiration of all your sister states. You have shown America the meaning of Western hospitality, and the entire nation looks with astonishment upon your progress. You have become the wonder of America.

"The Grizzly Bear Magazine is an inspiration, and one may not fail to become a better citizen, to shoulder more responsibility in his community, if he be a regular subscriber to and reader of this official publication. Find enclosed our subscription for the coming year. . . .

"We ask your co-operation in our resolution requesting that the funds from the President's 'golden jubilee balls' be made available to the Red Cross in this emergency and be called 'golden jubilee victory balls.' We are in war! The funds are not needed, at this time, for the infantile paralysis foundation, as this project has been amply provided for. We have made this request to both local and national headquarters, and need the assistance of our sister states, to avoid the conflict of two major campaigns. . . . Please give this immediate publicity."—ELLA C. WILLACY, publicist Native Sons of Colorado, member Colorado Press Women, Denver, Colorado.

JAP QUESTION EDITORIALS GRAND.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: I should think you would take a big degree of satisfaction in saying 'I told you so.' Your editorials in past years on the Jap question have been grand."—MISS MAGDALENA M. WILDASIN, Los Angeles, California.

SUPPORT APPRECIATED.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: President Stewart Meigs and the Board of Directors have asked me to express for them the appreciation of the California State Fair for the very excellent support given the 1941 exposition by your publication.

"We know that without the co-operation extended by you, and the press generally, it would not have been possible for the State Fair to again break all attendance records."—KENNETH R. HAMMAKER, secretary-manager, Sacramento, California.

In the national food-for-defense program, farmers are urged to use their shovels to produce more foods. It's up to the homemakers to avoid the teaspoon wastes."—U. S. Department Agriculture.

THE BOOMERANG.

(Captain Jack Crawford.)

When a bit of sunshine hits ye
After passing of a cloud,
When a fit of laughter gits ye
And your spine is feelin' proud,
Don't forget to up and fling it
At a soul that's feelin' blue,
For the minit that ye sling it
It's a boomerang to you.

BOOK REVIEWS

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

"BONANZA RAILROADS."

By Gilbert H. Kneiss; Stanford University Press, Publishers, Stanford University, California; Price, $3.00.

This book records the interesting history of the five small railroads—Sacramento Valley, San Francisco & San Jose, Virginia & Truckee, Eureka & Palisades, and Nevada Central—that played no small part in the development of the West. Each had its great ambition and rendered valued service, but in time all passed out of existence.

"Born at a time when the highroads left much to be desired," says Edward Hungerford in the foreword, "they brought an order out of transport chaos and enabled the sturdy young commonwealths to go ahead. In their passing, they are entitled to a full meed of respect."

"Bonanza Railroads" is liberally illustrated, including drawings by Arthur Lites. An appendix gives the history of the railroads' locomotives. Author Kneiss is Pacific Coast representative of the Railway and Locomotive Historical Society, and is said to have tramped afoot a great many miles of these small railroads' rights-of-way, and to be steeped in their lore and their tradition.

"THE MISSIONS OF CALIFORNIA."

By Will Connell; Hastings House, Publishers, New York City, New York; Price $2.00.

This book, as the foreword states, "makes no pretense at being a history," but does present, "with the authority made possible by the camera, the missions as of today," in most artistic pictures. Its author is recognized as one of the country's outstanding photographers.

The numerous illustrations are impressive and beautiful. Accompanying is a brief description of each of the twenty-one Alta California missions, beginning with the first, San Diego de Alcalá, founded at San Diego by Father Junipero Serra, July 16, 1769,—three and a half years before the Boston Tea Party—and ending with San Francisco Solano, founded at Sonoma, August 25, 1823.

AIRPLANES MAY BECOME AS

COMMON AS AUTOMOBILES

After the war, there will be little slackening in the production of airplanes and Los Angeles will be definitely established as the "Detroit" of the aviation industry. So says Thomas A. Wilson of the University of California at Los Angeles. He predicts "there will be a great surge in air travel. Within ten years almost all ships may be reduced to the status of freighters while passengers and first-class mail will be carried over the seas in planes."

"Travel for pleasure will increase and southern Californians will be spending short vacations in South America, China or Australia. The number of private planes is bound to increase as the use of the helicopter and certain safety devices will make planes almost as common as automobiles."

NATIVE DAUGHTERS PROVIDE PLAQUE

Lompoc (Santa Barbara County)—Celebration of mass at La Purisima Mission for the first time in 105 years, December 7, was the closing highlight of the four-day observance of "Our Mission Days in Santa Barbara County." The mission has just been restored.

He died at La Purisima, April 28, 1823, from hardships suffered on a trip with Imperial Commissioner Fernandez to the Russian settlement at Fort Ross. The presentation address was made by Past Grand President Grace S. Stoermer.

THE WAR RELIEF WORK OF OUR FOREFATHERS

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

NOW THAT THE UNITED STATES IS again at war, loyal citizens throughout California are seeking to promote various endeavors calculated to aid in the common defense. Among these is the support given universally to the Red Cross. Good citizens are also undertaking the sponsoring of "hospitality houses" and the United Service Organizations. In all of these undertakings the people of California are following the example set by their fathers not only in the older sections of the United States but here in their own state as well. It may not be amiss, therefore, to at this time look back and recall some of the ways in which the pioneer men and women of California gave non-combatant support to the armies during the Civil War and that which the citizens of the state gave during the war with Spain in the nineties.

A movement now being promoted by a newspaper to raise funds with which to purchase a bomber to be presented to the Federal Government was not without its counterpart during the Civil War. In those days the United States Navy was concentrated along the coast of the South, and San Francisco was left unprotected. To this end and purpose a move was started for one or two ironclad vessels to protect the harbor. In 1862 the State Legislature had before it a proposition to build two such steamers and finance the enterprise by bonds. The measure was passed by the Assembly, but failed to reach the Senate before adjournment. The Federal Government, however, hearing of the interest of the people of California in their own defense against possible foreign aggression, sent out the parts for a monitor which, in due time, was assembled and named the Comanche.

There were defense industries in California then, as now and, concerning the loyalty of the boys he had taught, John Swett proudly stated late in 1862: "I have taught school long enough in San Francisco to see the boys of my first class grow up into young men. Some of them are in the army, some are in the foundries and machine shops and will soon be at work on an ironclad monitor for the defense of our harbor; I find them in the stores, offices and countingrooms; all over the state, wherever I go, I find some familiar faces to welcome me; and all these young men are Union to the backbone."

The most important contribution of California to morale building during the Civil War, however, was the people's subscription to the famous Sanitary Fund. It should be pointed out that the organization known now as the Red Cross did not exist during the Civil War. It was organized in Switzerland in 1864. When the war between the states broke out, therefore, there was no organization to look out for the morale of the enlisted men. There was no institution which took care of hospitalization and disaster relief. It was to fill this need that a Protestant clergyman, Rev. Henry W. Bellows of New York, undertook to organize the Sanitary and Christian Commission. This was novel in war endeavors, so much so, indeed, that even President Abraham Lincoln himself is said to have regarded its formation as questionable. Bellows' organization began to appeal for funds at once. The response in the East was meager at first. Indeed, the whole movement probably would have succumbed, had it not been for the stimulus which came from California.

A great clergyman came to San Francisco in 1860, a man whose name will be written in golden letters whenever the story of California's Civil War record is told. Reference is here made to Thomas Starr King, minister of the First Unitarian Church from 1860 to 1864. He was an ardent advocate of loyalty to the Union, deplored slavery and condemned secession. When the appeal for support for the Sanitary Commission reached him, he gave himself wholeheartedly to the work. In all, $5,000,000 was contributed during the war from the loyal states of the Union, and one-fourth of that total, due to the efforts of Reverend King, came from California alone.

The Sanitary Commission movement started in California in 1862 and by September of that year $160,000 had been collected. Between September and the close of the year 1862 an additional $200,000 had been collected. Dr. Bellows visited San Francisco in 1864 and $200,000 was publicly presented to him on that occasion. Bancroft makes the statement that California's total contribution was $1,234,257.31. The movement spread from California into Nevada and Oregon, and thus an additional $234,506 was obtained. It will be seen, therefore, that it was during the Civil War that the West learned to co-operate in all forms of war work. In 1862 the State Legislature authorized the colleges of the state, under certain conditions to give courses in military training and to use and issue arms in those classes. This has its counterpart today and also had it in World War I, when the Reserve Officers Training Corps and the Students Army Training Corps exist and existed, respectively.

In the years between the close of the Civil War and the outbreak of the Spanish-American War the people of California devoted themselves almost entirely to the arts of peace. Notwithstanding the fact that both the telegraph and the railroad had been extended to the Pacific, the people of the West were still largely isolated from the rest of the nation. When, after thirty-three years of peace, war did come, the people of California were not slow in adjusting themselves to the demand for civilian participation. The outbreak of the war with Spain in 1898 witnessed the birth in California of that great and noble institution which is known as the American Red Cross.

When the California National Guard and the First Regiment of California Volunteers were ordered to Manila the demand for a public organization to interest itself in the welfare of the young soldiers was manifested. In various parts of the state Red Cross Societies were formed. It soon became necessary to standardize and correlate the activities of these associations, and May 16, 1898, each sent delegates to an advisory council to organize a state unit. It was at the second meeting of this body that the California Red Cross was organized, May 25. The society was given two rooms, rent free, in the Hearst Building, San Francisco, by Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst. Mrs. W. B. Harrington was the first president of this organization.

The California Red Cross immediately took steps to become an integral part of the American Red Cross. Correspondence was at once started with the latter, and in July Judge Joseph Sheldon was sent to this state from the headquarters of the national association. After fully acquainting himself with what had been done, and approving the constitution of the California Red Cross, he recognized the same as a part of the American Red Cross and assigned the California organization to work in this state and the Philippines. At the time the California Red Cross was taken over by the national society, it had membership of about twenty thousand. Mrs. L. Dunbar was its first secretary, and William J. Brown was treasurer.

Between May 27 and October 18, 1898, the California Red Cross (state organization) received $32,940, of which $24,270 was expended. For the year from October 18, 1898, to October 17, 1899, it received $25,714, of which $19,47 was expended. Of these expenditures, $6,683 was for Manila Field Hospital supplies. The expenditures were by the state unit, acting separately from local units. The most active local unit was that of the City and County of San Francisco. The war record of the San Francisco branch shows a total of $80,000 collected, of which $30,000 came from popular subscription. The greater part of the balance was by donation from special groups. To mention a few, the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West gave $440, the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West $110, and the San Francisco Produce Exchange $2,149. In San Francisco, Red Cross tents were maintained at the Presidio and Union Square, and a center was also kept at the Ferry Building.

Oakland followed San Francisco in developing a pretentious Red Cross auxiliary. Some of the other local branches that rendered exceptional fine service were those of Alameda, Antioch, Arroyo Grande, Auburn, Berkeley, Byron, Calistoga, Centerville, Colusa, Dixon, Ferndale, Fresno, Grass Valley, Hollister, Jackson, Los Angeles, Napa, Riverside, Sacramento, Salinas, San Diego, Santa Ana, Santa Barbara, San Joaquin County, San Jose, Visalia and Woodland. The Red Cross was also organized efficiently in a large number of other California centers.

May 10, 1899, the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of San Francisco gave a grand ball and entertainment, the purpose of which was to raise money for the reception which they later gave to the California Volunteers upon their return from Manila. Later the Grand Parliament N.S.G.W. gave a medal to each of the one hundred and fifty members of the Order who served in the Spanish-American War.

Experienced in war work in both the Civil and the Spanish-American Wars, the people of California repeated their performance on a large scale during World War I, and now that the United States is again engaged in conflict the once more are turning their efforts to effect a program of civilian co-operation.

EARLYDAY SEA-SURGEON'S CRUDE METHOD OF COMBATING DISEASE

The advance of medicine during the past few decades seems almost miraculous, when the careers of doctors of less than two centuries ago are studied. So writes Frances Tomlinson Gardner, assistant in the library of the University of California Medical School, in an article in the "Annals of Medical History."

The story concerns Pedro Prat, a surgeon on the Spanish ship San Carlos, sent from Mexico in 1769 to help establish the first colonies in California. By the standards of his time, Prat was a good doctor, yet he was almost helpless in his attempts to tend to the needs of the scurvy-ridden crew of the ship San Carlos as made its way to California. Mrs. Gardner describes some of the attempts of Prat to help the crew as follows:

"He stirred the staggering survivors in using boiling vinegar to wash down the inside of the ship. He fumigated with everything he could find: brimstone, asafetida, condemned tobacco, a barrel of pitch, and even flashed gun powder moistened with vinegar, hoping that the explosion would jar loose the infectious matter from the timbers.

"All this sounds absurd, and was, yet it must be remembered in deference to Prat and other eighteenth century sea-surgeons whose abilities seem completely lacking, that conditions of dry land were hardly any better. This was the age of darkness in the progress of medicine when the processes of disease were unhampered by intelligent treatment and physicians were groping in an abyss of conflicts and misformation."

Only a few of the crew died during the voyage, but after the arrival of the ship at San Diego only a few could move about, and many died in an improvised hospital tent. The same conditions existed when Prat went with a party to Monterey, but in spite of handicaps the California colonies were established.

CALIFORNIA MOTORISTS MUST have the 1942 California license plates by February 4 or pay a penalty, and they must also pay the Federal Government auto use tax of $2.09.

ALL JAPS RESPONSIBLE FOR WAR IN PACIFIC

The Japanese people as a whole, and not simply the so-called militarists of that nation, must be held fully responsible for the war in the Pacific and the attack at Pearl Harbor, according to Dr. N. Wing Mah, associate professor of political science at the University of California and authority on Far Eastern affairs. The Japanese people, he says, are not often given their full share of the blame for aggression in the Pacific. Quoting Dr. Mah:

"If the people of Japan had not been behind this war the militarists could not have carried it as far as they have. Whether or not the Japanese people have been propagandized to support the war, they are behind it. The military class in Japan has been in control since the twelfth century. Their position has been developed to such an extent that their rule is a part of the social fabric of Japan."

"After the opening of Japan by Perry and the restoration of the mikado to the throne, the island empire was said to have become a liberal, modern state, and even adopted a constitution. However, the restoration of the mikado was just a palace revolution. It was simply a case of one group of military clans taking over power from another. The emperor has no power; he is a pawn of the clans."

"When the constitution was adopted, it was drafted by and for the Satsuma and Choshu, the ruling clans. They protected their interest, and in no way modified their position. What they did, actually, was to make themselves the constitutional rulers of Japan. Through the emperor, they are the absolute rulers of Japan, just as they and other clans like them have been since the twelfth century."

"Japan is acting in her own interest and on her own initiative. She is merely utilizing the political and military exigencies in Europe created by German aggression. The Japanese believed that their opportunity to gain dominance in the Pacific had arrived, and so they acted. The war in the Atlantic had made it necessary to keep a large part of the American fleet there, and consequently the Pacific forces were weakened."

"Japan believes that if she can gain control over the south Pacific and southeast Asia, she can, with the resources of this area, make herself impregnable. Therefore, I believe that it cannot be maintained that the Japanese are acting at the behest of Germany. Such a view tends to relieve Japan of full responsibility for her acts."

The quaint whaleback steamer Charles A. Wetmore proved to be a great attraction February 5 at the Beale Street wharf, San Francisco.

"The Inter State Artificial Rain Company. A. B. Montgomery, General Manager. Contracts made to furnish rain." Such was the wording of an advertisement published at Pixley, Tulare County, February 5.

CALIFORNIA'S 1941 MINERAL PRODUCTION

The total value of the mineral production of California for 1941 is estimated by the State Department of Natural Resources to have been $367,784,000. The estimated total is an increase of approximately $24,958,000 over the 1940 total value.

Petroleum output showed an increase of about 9,000,000 barrels in amount and about 6 percent in value. The yields of tungsten, quicksilver, lead, zinc, chromite and manganese showed marked increases, while copper, gold and silver showed decreases.

LESS GOLD AND SILVER MINED.

The total 1941 production of California's gold mines has been fixed by the United States Bureau of Mines at $49,413,000, as compared with $50,948,485 the preceding year. The loss is attributed to the abandonment of many small operations. For the third successive year, the Idaho-Maryland-Brunswick group of mines in the Grass Valley-Nevada City, Nevada County, area ranked first among the state's gold producers.

California's 1941 silver production had a value of $1,526,756, slightly less than the 1940 record value of $1,678,063. The copper production slumped in value last year to $913,770, the lead production increased to $370,770, and the zinc production increased to $59,280.

Flag to the San Diego Police Station January 3. The Parlor, one of the most active in the Order in history and landmarks work, has planned many affairs for 1942.

Getting in Sound Condition.

Sacramento—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Native Sons Hall Association of Sacramento January 14 the following directors were elected: Hugh B. Bradford, Roy C. Cothrin, Joseph G. Fitzhenry, Manuel Joseph, Elmer F. Leavitt, John J. Monteverde Junior and Al Schaden. The directors elected the following as officers: John J. Monteverde Senior, president; J. Frank Didion, vice-president; Percy G. West, secretary; Henry Wittpen, treasurer. This is the thirty-fifth consecutive year West has been chosen secretary.

The Association is getting in sound financial condition. It now owes but $32,000, and last year the net earnings, before depreciation, were approximately $5,000.

Installation Outing.

San Bernardino—The officers of Arrowhead No. 110 and Santa Ana No. 265 were jointly installed at the Crestline Clubhouse of the former January 18. District Deputies Julien Lecrivian and Avery Anderson presided, and Bruce Jordan and Ralph Chaffee became the respective presidents. On Arrowhead's behalf, District Attorney Jerome B. Kavanaugh presented an emblematic ring to Elmer Hoiem, retiring junior past president.

Nearly 200 attended the all-day affair. Games and entertainment occupied the morning, and dinner was served at noon. The installation followed at 2 p.m., and dancing was in order during the late afternoon and evening. Music was furnished by the Native Sons orchestra.

"Biggest Budget" Call Answered.

San Francisco—The Board of Grand Officers unanimously voted January 9 to invest the $10,000 in the James D. Phelan Relief Fund in United States of America defense bonds.

"We were organized as a patriotic fraternity in 1875," declared Grand Secretary John T. Regan, "and this is one way we can give substance to our first precept. The American people have reframed their budgets in response to our national emergency, and fraternal organizations will do the same."

Deputies Exemplify Ritual.

Santa Ana—Santa Ana No. 265 had seven visitors from surrounding Parlors January 1. Two candidates were initiated, the ritual being exemplified by the following deputies: Willie Blaha, Ramona No. 109, president; Fred Smith, Compton No. 273, senior past president; Juli Lecrivian, Santa Ana No. 265, junior past president; J. Avery Anderson, Arrowhead No. 110, first vice-president; Howard Woodward, El Los Angeles No. 277, second vice-president; William Quast, University No. 272, third vice-president; Paul Traynor, Long Beach No. 278, marshal; Hervey Kitchin, Ramona No. 109, insistentinel.

Walter Odemar was present on his official visit to the Parlor and told of a proposed movement to curb the Jap menace in California. Other speakers were Walter Hiskey, Deputy Grand President Clarence M. Hunt and Paul Traynor and Supervising Deputy Fred Leonetti. President Ralph Chaffee welcomed the visitors on behalf of Santa Ana, and at the meeting's close refreshments were served.

Very Successful Year.

Santa Rosa—More than two-thirds of the voting stock was represented at the annual meeting of the Santa Rosa N.S.G.W. Hall Association January 20. The financial report of the secretary showed the year 1941 was a very successful one for the Association.

The following directors were elected: George Colgan, Frank Doyle, T. V. Butts, Judge Mary Vaughn, Chris Schlake, O. G. Pegido and Sid Kurlander. The directors organized by electing Colgan president, Doyle vice-president and Butts secretary-treasurer.

Jap Situation Discussed.

Ventura—The January 20 meeting of Cabrillo No. 114, held at Oxnard, was attended by 11 members. Following a sumptuous chicken dinner twelve candidates were initiated, bringing the wonder-Parlor's membership to 381. Those would have been more candidates, had "Ogetem" Ed Hearne not been confined in a Santa Barbara hospital, and defense work prevented many other members from being in attendance. The Parlor having re-elected all its officers, with Superior Judge Louis Drapeau as president, they were re-installed for another term by District Deputy Gus Dinsmore.

Charles Blackstock presided following initiatory ceremonies and, in the course of an rousing patriotic address, paid tribute to the honoree of the evening, Robert M. Sheridan, with related reminiscences. Deputy Grand President Clarence M. Hunt referred to the Jap situation in California, and urged action within the Order to remove the yellow peril. District Deputy Dinsmore said both the white-Japs and the yellow-Japs should be exposed. Dr. W. R. Livingston, just recently returned from a tour of the Orient, gave a stirring and informative talk that was roundly applauded; he said that, unless adequate preventive measures are enforced, the Japs will eventually overrun California and the Pacific Coast just as the rabbits brought to Australia, have overrun that island. President Drapeau closed the discussion with the declaration that Cabrillo and its members are ready and willing to support any movement having for its objective the wellbeing of the nation and the state.

February 24, at the Elks Temple, Ventura, Cabrillo will initiate another class of candidates. Supper will be served at 6:30 and a program will follow.

PROSPECTING IN THE FIELD OF HISTORY

Accompanying is a letter, dated Berkeley, December 17, 1941, received by Past Grand President Edward J. Lynch, chairman of the N.S.G.W., Grand Parlor California History Board, from Dr. Frederic L. Paxson, chairman Department of History, University of California. Suggesting publication of the letter in The Grizzly Bear, Past Grand Lynch says: "I think this letter is a beautiful tribute to Prof. Bolton and to our Order. Dr. Paxson gives us a rather brief record of the achievements of our Native Sons History Fellows and outlines some of the accomplishments of our Order working in connection with the History Department of the University." —Editor.

IT IS NOW THIRTY YEARS SINCE HERBERT Eugene Bolton came to the University of California and the Bancroft Library. In his appointment, the record shows the influence of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, as well as guidance by the experienced imagination of the late Henry Morse Stephens. His task was to undertake, in this State, the development of a center for the study of the history of California, the West Coast of the Americas, and their origins wherever these might be discovered. As a consequence of his appointment a great field of significant history has been opened up, and the story of Latin-America and the Pacific Coast is now largely in the hands of scholars who have been trained on this campus.

"Among the men and women who have had a hand in prospecting the field, uncovering the resources, and relating the story, the largest group includes those who have been assisted in their work by the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. It was in the autumn in which Professor Bolton began his work that the negotiations conducted among the Native Sons, Professor Stephens, and the University, resulted in the appointment of the earliest of the Fellows of the Native Sons of the Golden West. There have been forty-nine of the Fellows. I am not aware of any Fellowship elsewhere whose history over thirty years is more distinguished.

"In acknowledging the receipt of the Fellowship funds for the current year, and announcing formally the appointment by the University of the forty-eighth and forty-ninth Fellows, William Newell Davis Junior and William J. Griffith, it seems to me appropriate to review briefly the services of their predecessors to our history and to history in general.

"This is the list, with the year of original appointment: Lawrence Palmer Briggs (1911), M. C. van Mourik Broekmann (1912), Joseph John Hill (1912), Charles Edward Chapman (1912), Tracy Barrett Kittredge (1912), William Lytle Schurz (1913), Gordon Charles Davidson (1914), Charles Henry Cunningham (1915), Karl Clayton Leebrick (1915), George Leslie Albright (1916), Charles Wilson Hackett (1917), James Fred Rippey (1917), Charles Solomon Mitran (1917), John Lloyd Mecham (1917), Arthur Scott Aiton (1917), Raymond Chambers (1918), Doris West Bepko (1918), Ralph Simpson Kuykendall (1918), Rolland A Vandegrift (1919), Lawrence Francis Hill (1922), George Peter Hammond (1922), David Knuth Bjork (1922), Ferdinand Varella Custer (1923), Lewis Burt-King Lesley (1923), Abraham Phinehas Nasatir (1924), Eugene Albert Taliaferro (1924), Alfred Barnaby Thomas (1925), John Rydjord (1925), John Tate Lanning (1926), George Verne Blue (1926), Donald Winslow Rowland (1927), John Walton Caughey (1928), Rufus Kay Wyllys (1928), George Tays (1929), Charles Edward Nowell (1929), Helen Salisbury Carr (1930), Vernon Dale Tate (1930), Charles Lockwood Stewart (1931), Philip Coolidge Brooks (1932), Theodore Edward Treutlein (1932), Adele Ogden (1934), John Haskell Kemble (1934), John A. Hussey (1935), George Wolcott Ames Junior (1936), Earl Spencer Pomeroy (1938), Outten Jones Cinarad (1940), Francis A. Wiley (1940), William Newell Davis Junior (1941), William J. Griffith (1941).

"The Native Sons Fellows, most of them still alive, did not stop work upon leaving the University. They are a productive group. At least ninety-seven volumes are catalogued under their names; and we have found 452 articles, mostly in learned journals, carrying their signatures. Several of them have been decorated by foreign governments on account of their contributions to the history of the countries concerned. Twelve of them have received a place in Who's Who in America.

Mrs. Briggs is very anxious for other regions to follow up.—F.W.

Busy With Wartime Activities.

Placentia—Lena Lawson and Jessie Anderson, co-chairmen of Grace No. 242's welfare committee, read to the Parlor enthusiastic letters of thanks from its two adopted veterans at Sawtelle and San Fernando for the fine Christmas boxes sent them. A very successful rummage sale was also reported. Returns from the newspaper drive will be donated to the local Red Cross. Members are busy with wartime activities—rolling bandages, sewing, knitting and first aid instruction. The sewing club met at the

At a short business meeting preceding the ceremonies the Parlor donated $10 to the Red Cross and purchased defense stamps to the amount of $10. Plans were also made for a first aid class.

On Red Cross Honor Roll.

Sacramento—Some 200 members and friends witnessed the joint installation of officers of La Bandera No. 110 and Junior No. 5 January 16. The ceremonies were conducted by Deputy Bess Hulks, assisted by the officers of Liberty No. 3, and Past President Barbara Dalton, and Mrs. Dodge Glyer and Miss Louise Auger became the respective presidents. Special guests included Past Grand Mary Bell, Dr. Eva Rasmussen and Edna Briggs, and Supervising Deputy Frances Wackman. Pastel shades of pink and blue were used in the banquet room, where buffet refreshments were served.

The Red Cross unit of La Bandera, organized April, has completed over 500 garments, the first allotment including thirty woolen dresses. Mrs. Mordecai is the general chairman, and the group sew every Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The Parlor has invested $700 in defense bonds, and plans to purchase more at an early date. The drill team has suspended drilling temporarily and its members are devoting their time to a course in first aid. The team has put $100 in defense bonds, and will be the official dress at U.S.O. headquarters February 1, when entertainment and refreshments will be in order. All units of the Parlor are on the Red Cross honor-roll, having donated 100 percent to the recent emergency drive for funds.

La Bandera's past presidents club will have its second annual anniversary dinner February 2, at which time plans will be formulated for the annual benefit for the homeless children. The Parlor has "adopted" its tenth baby and, as has been the custom in the past, she was named Anna, for Past Grand Briggs. The Junior, too, progressing and now has a membership of thirty-eight. A successful paper drive made possible its purchase of defense stamps. At the January 16 installation the local group was honored by the presence of twelve members of the recently organized Elk Grove Junior, sponsored by Liberty No. 213. —F.A.S.

"Doing Their Bit."

San Bernardino—Lugonia No. 241 is now meeting in the Pioneer Log Cabin in Lugo Park. Louise Cluff, the speaker at the January 13 meeting, brought the splendid results of much travel and observation to her subject, "Education, Up the Minute." January 27 was past presidents night. Margaret McKenzie was in charge, and good entertainment was provided.

February 9 the Parlor will have initiation, and February 18 a benefit party, with luncheon, culture and cards, will be held from 12:30 to 4 p.m. Lugonia's first aid class, with thirty enrolled, started January 28, and the defense committee reports the ambulance corps, the motor corps, the dietetics class and the sewing club are all "doing their bit." —A.McI.

AT THE THIRTEENTH ANNIVERSARY breakfast January 11, Joaquin Parlor No. 5 presented a beautiful mirror, four by seven feet in dimensions, to the Native Daughters Home in memory of that Parlor's lately deceased member, Past Grand President Carrie Roesch-Durham. The mirror has been placed in the lounge. Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, chairman of the occasion, presided, Madeline King led the salute to the flag, Ann Neilan offered a prayer, and musical selections were rendered by Sally Lou Morris, Genevieve Bently, Betty Schultz, Barbara Schultz and Carolyn Hill.

Past Grand President Mamie Peyton made the presentation address, which was responded to by Past Grand President Dr. Mariana Bertola, permanent chairman Grand Parlor Home Committee. Past Grand President Sue J. Irwin spoke inspiringly on "National Defense," and Grand President Clarice E. Cook was a speaker also.

More than a hundred members of the Order attended the breakfast. The tables were beautifully decorated in lavender, and at each place was an anniversary card with a photograph of Mrs. Durham. Others introduced were Laura May Roesch, sister of Mrs. Durham, Supervising Deputy Imelda Bowden and representatives of the following San Joaquin County Parlors: Joaquin No. 5 (Stockton), El Pescadero No. 82 (Tracy), Ivy No. 88 (Lodi), Caliz de Oro No. 206 (Stockton) and Stockton No. 256. Members of the Home Committee will place in the lounge a mirror, similar to the one presented in memory of Past Grand President Durham, honoring Past Grand President Bertola.

TO HONOR FAITHFUL NATIVE SON.

Commemorating the completion of forty years of faithful and efficient public service, friends of James A. Wilson, Past Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, will hold a banquet in his honor the evening of February 11 at the Union League Club.

For the past forty years Past Grand President Wilson has been the cashier both of the county clerk and the municipal court of San Francisco. Having attained the age of seventy years, he is now required by law to retire on pension and give up those duties he has performed so honestly, sincerely and efficiently during that long period of time.

Although his public duties have required a great amount of his time, he has yet found it possible to devote considerable of his efforts to the Order of Native Sons, even to the extent of assuming the Grand Presidency. It is because of his great love for the Order and his many efforts put forth on its behalf that his many friends in the fraternity have determined to show their appreciation by giving a dinner in his honor.

The committee in charge of the affair consists of Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Past Grand Presidents Chas. A. Koenig and Jesse H. Miller, Superior Judge George W. Schonfeld and Eugene H. O'Donnell. Tickets may be obtained either from the Grand Secretary's office or through O'Donnell, 655 Russ building, Douglas 7980.

CITY AND COUNTY

WHEREAS, MANY OF THE JAPANESE residents of Hawaii, despite their citizenship and professed allegiance to the United States, have amply demonstrated through their treacherous actions on December 7, 1941, that the presence in any combat area of Japanese, whether citizens or aliens, constitutes a great and imminent menace to our security; and

"Whereas, Native Sons of the Golden West, alert to the danger created by the presence of many thousands of Japanese in the combat area extending two hundred miles inland from the Pacific Coast of the United States, believe such Japanese to be enemies or potential enemies of our country and liable at any time to duplicate the fifth column activities of their compatriots in Hawaii; now therefore, be it

"Resolved, That Arrowhead Past Presidents Assembly No. 14 of the Native Sons of the Golden West hereby respectfully petitions the proper authorities of the United States Government to remove all Japanese, both citizens and aliens, from the combat area on the Pacific Coast of the United States; and be it further

"Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the President of the United States, the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, and the Chairmen of the Offices of Civilian Defense of the southern California counties."

The above resolution was unanimously adopted at a largely-attended meeting of Arrowhead Past Presidents Assembly No. 14 N.S.G.W. at Los Angeles, January 25, following a discussion of the Jap menace. A resolution commending Representative Leland Ford for advocating the moving of all Japs, native-born and alien, to concentration camps was also adopted.

To promote a series of radio talks to enlighten the people as to the Jap situation in California, a committee consisting of Eldred L. Meyer, Clarence M. Hunt, Walter H. Odemar, Judge Donald E. VanLoven, John O'B. Bodkin, Walter E. Hickey and Harry T. Honn was authorized, and an appropriation to help defray the expense thereof was made.

Ten candidates were initiated during the Assembly meeting, and officers were installed by Deputy Governor General Clarence M. Hunt, Dr. Robert L. White becoming governor. A fine dinner preceded the business session. The next regular meeting of the Assembly will be held at San Bernardino, March 22, during the National Orange Show.

NAVAL TRAINEES ENTERTAINED.

Chairman Margaret Kerr of the americanism committee of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. may well feel gratified with the success of plans to entertain young men from other states in the various branches of Uncle Sam's defense service stationed in the Los Angeles area. From one of the earlier groups entertained she received a letter saying they had heard of the hospitality of the Southern states, but they felt nothing could surpass the cordiality of the Native Daughters and they would always be cheered by remembrance of it.

For the fourth in the series of monthly affairs, naval trainees from the Midwest were entertained at a delightful luncheon at Casa de Adobe January 18. Big trays of delectable cakes and other "goodies" passed in a continuous round, and no Oklahoman or Texan—and these chiefly comprised the group—could feel otherwise than at home. Hostess Marcella Palethorpe was assisted in serving by her mother, Mrs. Wolfskill, Charlotte Carpenter, Miss Kerr, Ethel Hearst, Martha Decker, Ernestine Aylward and Josephine Gaige. Isabel Fages, chairman of arrangements, marshaled the contributors to the program.—Dr. Charles Mathewson, Gabriel Ruiz, Elias Verdugo and Senor Fages—and Florence Dodson-Schonenman conducted a tour of the historical rooms. Romilda Moree, Margaret Carpenter and college friends were attractive partners for the fine-looking boys in trim uniforms.

Another event on Californiana's January calendar was the program luncheon on the 13th, when Chairman Mary Ann Thomas presented Franklin B. Cole, manager of the Business Service Department of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, who drew a clear picture of "What Los Angeles Is Doing in the Line of Defense." The efficiency of Flora Jacobson is building up a large group of members who enjoy the social hour with their eating. The January 5 meeting of the Gertrude Sewing Circle at the home of Marguerite Dobson, sister of President Ethel Smith, was a success and well attended. An enjoyable potluck luncheon was served under the supervision of Mrs. Edith Harmon Adams, hospitality chairman.—B.S.M.

TO PRESENT 25-YEAR EMBLEMS.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. was officially visited January 15 by Grand Trustee Walter Odemar. President Robert Pesqueria and his corps of officers exemplified the ritual in an impressive manner and four candidates were initiated.

In addressing the assemblage, Grand Trustee Odemar complimented the Parlor on its fine showing and urged co-operation in all activities. Other speakers were District Deputy Howard Woodward, Owen Adams, President Allan Butler of East Los Angeles Parlor, President Frank Ruiz of Ramona Parlor, George Walker, District Deputy William Blaha and Deputy Grand President Hervey L. Kitchin. After the meeting tasty refreshments were served.

February 19, Los Angeles will present twenty-five-year membership emblems to A. J. Bernal, Paul Brunette and Kyle Grainger. February 26 has been set aside for initiation, to be followed by refreshments.

REAL PARTY PROMISED.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., with its national defense committee in charge, is sponsoring a card and games party at the spacious home of Alice Hamilton, 1903 South Oxford, Saturday evening, February 14. Chairman Ann Schiebusch promises a real valentine party, and the proceeds will go to further the work of the committee. Also in February, it is planned to initiate a group of candidates at the second regular meeting of the month.

The monthly sewing party of the Parlor was held January 31 at the home of Genevieve McGinley. Luncheon was served. The assisting committee included Emma Rose, Jeanette Downhour, Marie Starr, Jacqueline Wilson, Gertrude Allen, Louise Cash and Beverly Hart.—E.S. and Plants." Theodore Payne, the speaker, was introduced by John B. Haas.

January 16, H. E. Alford spoke on "Everyman's Income Tax," and Ralph E. Yambert, a January 23 speaker, had for his subject "Facing Tomorrow."

The Club passed July 23 a resolution endorsing the contention of Representative Leland M. Ford that all Japs, native-born and alien, should be moved to concentration camps, and ordered the following telegram sent him: "The Native Sons have long been of the belief that our shores are periled by the presence of Japanese and that something should now be done to eradicate this menace. We don't want another Pearl Harbor."

WILL NOT FORGET HOMELESS CHILDREN.

At formal public ceremonies January 22 the officers of La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W., with Wynne Vis as president, were installed by Supervising Deputy Eugenia Smith, who was assisted by Margaret Burch, Grand Marshal Mary Noerenberg and Louise Crawford. Speakers included Past Grand President Grace S. Stoerner and Lura Pesqueria, and entertainment was provided by Orabelle Brandon, Patricia McCormick, Gaylen Lurwick and Jeannette Stinchfield.

On the Parlor's behalf, Helen Spring presented an emblematic ring to Past President Nell Brown, and the latter presented a gift to Jeanne Clark Branch, La Reina's latest bride. President Vis remarked that during her term defense work will be paramount. Red Cross activities, the purchase of defense bonds, the entertainment of men in service will all tend to fill the calendar. "However," she said, "in doing everything possible to aid the country our group will not forget to aid the homeless children."

UNIVERSITY PARLOR NEWS.

District Deputy Albert Seaman installed the officers of University Parlor No. 272 N.S.G.W., January 7, Angelo DeFazio becoming president and Woodrow Wade taking over the recording secretaryship. The new officers were encouraged by a large attendance, and a very active calendar for the term has been planned.

February 4 the Parlor will have initiation; plenty of refreshments. Saturday evening, February 14, at 9, daylight saving time, a sports dance will be held, blackout or not. That's Valentine Day, and that theme will be carried out. A fine orchestra is promised, and a real good time is assured. February 25 will be ladies night. Remember, University now meets every Wednesday night.—W.W.W.

JOINT INSTALLATION.

Officers of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 and Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed January 22, George Walker and Elmer Koop becoming the respective presidents. District Deputy Howard Woodward, who officiated, was assisted by Michael Botello, Grand Trustee Walter Odemar and Grand Organist Roger Johnson.

On behalf of Los Angeles Parlor, Grand Trustee Odemar presented a past president emblem to Robert G. Ricks, and Financial Secretary Albert Metz of that Parlor, active in the Order's affairs for forty years, was given a fine greeting. Remarks were made by Moritz Rosenthal, retiring president of Hollywood, Robert Pesqueria, retiring president of Los Angeles, John Bodkin, Frank Frank, Jim Lynch, Otis Page, Mms. Glen Biles, Robert Ricks, Frederic Hudson and William Girard.

FAVORS EVACUATING JAPS.

The public installation of officers of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., January 9, was well attended by Natives and their friends. District Deputy Albert Seaman, who officiated, was assisted by Lee Conger, Ysidro Reyes and District Deputy William Blaha, and Frank Ruiz became president.

On the Parlor's behalf, Robert Dunn presented a past president ring to Robert M. Bushnell, and among those who spoke briefly were Supervising Deputy Fred Leonetti, Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, Robert Zeigler, George Cuthbertson, John Sheffield, Ivo Lopizich and Ward McConnell. That's a laboratory formula for producing good-flavored sour cream—a formula any housewife can apply in her own kitchen.—U.S. Department Agriculture.

SANTA BARBARA NEWS

(JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE.)

Santa Barbara—With impressive ceremonies, Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W., Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. and Santa Maria Parlor No. 276 N.D.G.W. installed officers January 29. It was the first time in Santa Barbara history of the Orders that the officers of three Parlor were installed simultaneously. Leland Smith succeeded Raymond B. Romero as president of Santa Barbara Parlor, Mrs. Mabel Erwin replaced Mrs. Henry Griffith as president of Reina del Mar Parlor, and Dr. Helen France succeeded Mrs. Essie Turnage as president of Santa Maria Parlor.

The theme for the installation ran: "Native Californians stand today as a united force for all-out participation in national defense and for aggressive action in making the world a real democracy." Dr. Mariana Bertola, Past Grand President of the Native Daughters, was the speaker of the evening. She brought a message on child welfare and other objectives of the Orders that was of great interest to the civic leaders of Santa Barbara County who witnessed the installation.

Past presidents of the two Santa Barbara Parlor handled the arrangements for the ceremonies, Leland Holliday acting as chairman for the Sons and Mrs. George McCrear for the Daughters. Deputies A. C. Dinsmore, Mrs. William Wegener and Mrs. Fred Acres officiated.

WISHING

Do you wish the world were better?
Let me tell you what to do:
Set a watch upon your actions,
Keep them always straight and true;
Rid your mind of selfish motives,
Let your thoughts be clean and high.
You can make a little Eden
Of the sphere you occupy.

Do you wish the world were wiser?
Well, suppose you make a start
By accumulating wisdom
In the scrap book of your heart.
Do not waste one page on folly;
Live to learn, and learn to live.
If you want to give men knowledge,
You must get it, ere you give.

Do you wish the world were happy?
Then remember day by day
Just to scatter seeds of kindness
As you pass along the way;
For the pleasures of the many
May be oftentimes traced to one,
As the hand that plants an acorn
Shelters armies from the sun.

TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL GOLD DISCOVERY BANQUET

San Francisco—Celebrating the historic gold discovery of James W. Marshall at Coloma, El Dorado County, January 24, 1848, the Native Sons of the Golden West had their twenty-third annual gold discovery banquet at the Grizzly Bear Club January 24. "The days of old, the days of gold, the days of forty-nine" was the theme of the evening.

Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington was the toastmaster. "There is no more important date in the history of California than that which marks the discovery of gold by James W. Marshall," he declared. "That discovery was responsible for the admission of California into the Union a very short time thereafter. It is the only state admitted without previously having had a territorial form of government."

Other speakers of the evening were Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, Past Grand President Joseph R. Knowland, Superior Judge Franklin Griffin, Harold Cosgrove, Mayor Angelo J. Rossi and Junior Past Grand President Henry S. Lyon. Also in attendance were Judges Conlan, Harris, Foley and Fitzpatrick, City Attorney O'Toole, Grand Trustees Thomas C. Ryan and Richard F. McCarthy, Grand Historian Dr. Peter

SAVE CALIFORNIA!

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

Glory be! There is a possibility that, at last, California's Alien Land Law, for long flagrantly violated and evaded by the yellow- and the white-Japs, may be enforced. Public officials, charged with the enforcement of the law, enacted in 1920 to thwart the Japs' "peaceful invasion," have failed to perform their sworn duty and, as a result, yellow-Japs, aided by dollar-worshipping white-Japs, have acquired title to and occupy much of the state's best agricultural land, as well as considerable other acreage, in strategic locations.

Because the Alien Land Law has not been rigidly enforced, California is today in grave danger, from within! Had the authorities been on the alert and enforced the law, thereby preventing the Japs from "getting a foothold," there would today be no Japs in the combat zone, and very few of them elsewhere in the state.

Possessors of the soil have in their keeping the destiny of any country! The Japs know that, so Japan sent its agents here to acquire land, at any cost and by any method, and then, in line with its "peaceful invasion" program, supplied its male nationals with "picture brides" for propagation purposes—to breed, upon California soil, dual-citizens to serve Japan. While the California authorities have been sleeping, the Japs have been faithfully carrying on for the glory of their worshiped emperor!

Well, the State Attorney-General has called a conference of all sheriffs and district attorneys of the state for February 2 in his San Francisco office. The purpose, it is said, is "to launch an investigation into the alien land situation." Newspapers quote the Attorney-General as saying: "There has been a good deal of apathy about the whole thing, [the Alien Land Law] and very little has been done to investigate the legality of a lot of the alien ownership." As a matter of fact, there has been NOTHING BUT APATHY and no INVESTIGATING WHATSOEVER for many, many years. This scheduled conference should not be simply another talkfest for publicity purposes, but out of it should come necessary action. And the white-Jap individuals and organizations that have aided the yellow-Japs in violating and evading the law should also be hunted out and prosecuted.

The Japs must be dispossessed of every foot of California land they now hold, and the land must be escheated to the State! That course alone will eliminate the possibility of another "Pearl Harbor incident." If the law-enforcing authorities will not do their duty, they should be replaced by those who are capable of and anxious to strictly and impartially enforce the Alien Land Law, and thereby save California for the White Race. WE MUST HAVE ACTION, within the law, NOW!

PROSPECTING

"They are contributing in a notable way to the training of the next generation of scholars. One of them, Bjork, is chairman of the Department of History in the University of California at Los Angeles; with a second, Caughey, in the same department and busy as associate editor of the Pacific Historical Review. Another, Rowland, chairman of the Department of History at the University of Southern California. Others hold or have held, professorships in distinguished American Universities: Chapman (California) Hackett and Mecham (Texas), Rippey (Chicago) Aiton (Michigan), Lanning (Duke), Kuykendall (Hawaii), L. T. Hill (Ohio), Hammond (New Mexico), Thomas (Alabama); while Leebri has become president of Kent State College (Ohio). Others, in the smaller colleges, are carrying on the California tradition.

"Some have stepped away from the academic field, with distinction for themselves and the state. Schurz (chief of the division of Latin America in the Department of State), Blue (in the research section in the same Department), Tate, Broth and Stewart (in the National Archives), Kirtledge (in the Commission for Relief in Belgium) and in the Rockefeller Foundation.

"The story of some of their activities has been told at least twice before: by the late Charles Edward Chapman, in The Southwestern Historical Quarterly, XXI (April 1918); and by Arthur Scott Aiton, in Grizzly Bear (January 1921). To tell the whole story would take me into Spain through the whole hemisphere south of the Rio Grande, across the Southwestern Borderlands of the United States, and even into the Pacific Ocean, where Dr. Ogden has discovered in the nearly extinct sea otter one of the active provocatives in the development of our Pacific Coast. The cards which record their historical activities are part of the archives of this Department; the summary is perhaps sufficient to indicate the pride which the University of California has in their work, and the high appreciation in which it holds the generous grants of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West."

"A FRIEND is a person who lets you alone good deal, perhaps, when things are going well with you; but once get into trouble, there he is at your side, . . . and he believes in you through thick and thin."—Dr. Riley D. Moore.

"CALIFORNIA, A LANDMARK HISTORY."
By Joseph R. Knowland; The Tribune Press, Oakland, California; Price, $3.50.

This 245-page book records in an out-of-the-ordinary way the story of many of the principal historic shrines of romantic California, and outstanding events intimately associated with the state's early history. Its author, Joseph R. Knowland, is a Past Grand President and since 1902 the chairman of the Landmarks Committee of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, publisher of the Oakland Tribune, and from 1904 to 1915 a member of the House of Representatives of the United States of America.

The expressed aim of the author—"to make available a permanent record, chronologically presented, of landmarks restored and historic spots marked by permanent monuments and tablets, with the story briefly told of each event and epoch, and of the chief characters participating"—has been achieved. New material is presented and little-known facts about California's epic past are set forth.

Historic sites in all sections of the state are featured in the contents, among the several chapters being those devoted to the visits of early voyagers, the Franciscan missions of today, overland treks of pathfinders and colonizers, the Vigilance Committee of 1856 and roving state capitals. The addenda list markings and restorations of California historic landmarks by the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West and the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West.

"California, a Landmark History," should have a place in every collection of Californiana, for it is informative, authentic, and valuable as a reference work. It is profusely and beautifully illustrated.

"CITY OF THE GOLDEN FIFTIES."

By Pauline Jacobson; University of California Press, Berkeley and Los Angeles, California; Price, $3.00.

As the title implies, this delightful book concerns San Francisco. Its author, Pauline Jacobson, now deceased, was one of the best-known feature writers in the history of San Francisco journalism. Prior to her death she revised sketches originally written for the old Bulletin; these comprise "City of the Golden Fifties."

"Possibly this book requires some explanation; but certainly no apology," comments Editor Harold A. Small. "To the skeptic who flips it open and says, 'Oh, another hodge-podge of early Californiana,' the adequate reply is the book itself; let him read it, he will change his tune . . . our author, as she herself says, 'has not attempted to write a history, but rather to recapture the attitudes of a life.' She views that life in her own way; other people's ways should not be permitted to interfere. She writes about it so that the old scenes have an air of melodrama played seriously; another atmosphere should not be suggested. And this last is why the book has no pictures. . . . The word-pictures of the text must suffice; as, in fact, they do."

In the opening chapter, "She, the Seventh," the author refers to the devastating conflagration of April 1906, the seventh in the history of San Francisco, as "she": "That fire of April, 1906, was a 'she.' The firemen all say: 'She jumped,' 'She crossed,' 'There she was a-comin' down the street.'" Chapter five, "Consider the Lilies," concerns the careers of two dogs, Bummer and Lazarus, and chapter twenty-two tells about Lola Montez and her world-famed spider dance.

SHALL THE UNION BE PRESERVED?

"I appeal to you again to constantly bear in mind that not with politicians, not with presidents, not with office seekers, but with you, is the question: Shall the Union and shall the liberties of this country be preserved to the last generation?"—Abraham Lincoln, addressing the people, February 11, 1861.

CALIFORNIA'S CITRUS FRUITS (oranges, lemons and grapefruit), were first in value among all the state's crops last year. The 68,560,000 boxes of citrus fruit produced brought $93,698,000.

Imperial County will have its thirteenth annual fair—the largest exposition in the world below sea level—at Imperial March 7-15. Americanism will be the theme.

NATIVES HONOR
GRAND PRESIDENTS

Oakland—The February 14 dinner arranged by the Alameda County N.D.G.W. and N.S.G.W. deputy grand presidents in honor of Grand Presidents Clarence E. Cook and Edward T. Schnarr was an outstanding social event and was attended by 250 members of the Orders. The tables were decorated in a valentine motif, with favors made by Deputy Dora Brayton. Supervising Deputy Kathleen H. Dombrink presided.

The flag was presented by the drill team of Piedmont Parlor No. 87 N.D.G.W., and an invocation was delivered by Richard F. McCarthy, Grand Trustee N.S.G.W. Mayor John F. Slavich of Oakland welcomed the assemblage, and Chairman George A. Janssen of the Alameda County Board of Supervisors extended greetings.

Miss Sue J. Irwin, Past Grand President N.D.G.W., and Joseph R. Knowland, Past Grand President N.S.G.W., were the principal speakers, and their subjects were, respectively, "On Your Toes!" and "Patriotism." Miss Theresa Loughney, accompanied by Albert Gallagher, was the vocal soloist of the evening, and dinner music was furnished by Betty Schultz, Carolyn Hill and Barbara Hill of Berkeley Parlor No. 150 N.D.G.W.

During the evening the Native Daughter deputies formed a large heart in the center of the room, and on their behalf Supervising Deputy Dombrink presented a large brass bowl to Grand President Cook. Expressing her deep appreciation for the remembrance, Miss Cook said she had for years hoped someone would present her such a gift. Mrs. Dombrink was the recipient of a silver platter, presented by the deputies through Elza Paul.

In addition to those heretofore mentioned, there were present: Native Daughters—Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Grand Trustees Marion White, Laura Anderson and Sidonia Geiger, and Past Grand Presidents Mae C. Boldemann, Anne Theusen and Orinda Giannini. Native Sons—Junior Past Grand President Henry S. Lyon, Grand First Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Second Vice-president Wayne R. Millington, Grand Third Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Marshal George Bruno, Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Trustees Walter H. Odemar, Eben K. Smart, Louis Bosch, Joseph E. Tinney, Thomas C. Ryan and Walter N. Bailey, and Past Grand President Charles L. Dodge.

HOMELESS CHILDREN

(MARY E. BRUSIE, Secretary.)

HAVING LIVED IN WHAT MOST OF us have considered a rather comfortable and stable world and having placed our confidence in the things we considered of permanent value, we are finding today that these things are falling in ruins about us. We of America and California are beginning to realize that "We are not here to play, to dream, to drift,

We have hard work to do and loads to lift," that we must

"Shun not the struggle, but face it—'tis God's gift!"

The added, varying and multitudinous task, unexpectedly thrust upon each individual to perform as best he can in his small way, perhaps toward lessening and shortening the tragedy of World War No. 2, will be met with strength and bravery by the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the Golden West. All will do their full part for their own country and for other men's countries.

However, a corresponding degree of faith, integrity, helpfulness, generosity and affection will be necessary on the part of the members of the Orders, if they are to continue to do their full part toward the work for the Homeless Children to which, in the balmy days of 1911 they dedicated their services and their support.

This obligation has been faithfully met, even during World War No. 1 to which so many Native Sons gave their lives—in order that their children who, through no fault of their own were homeless might be given the advantage which father and mother and home provide.

Those who have been at the helm during the past thirty years find themselves contrasting the security of those earlier days with the unnecessary, unwarranted stress and strain of today, which exclude no man or woman, young or old.

The unprotected children of California are needing protection today as never before. Who shall be in store for them or for their benefactors no one knows, but while there are native born men and women of California dedicating their services and their substance to urgent needs this obligation will not be overlooked. The Homeless Children will be a part of the Orders' planning so long as there be breath in the bodies of the Native Sons and the Native Daughters.

Now that new, unpleasant and demanding obligations are ours to assume, do you mind assuring yourselves that your Parlor's Homeless Children obligation for the fiscal year, April 1, 1941, to April 1, 1942, has been met as far as is humanly possible? THE TIME IS SHORT.

Keep in mind that many of the children who have depended upon your generosity and interest will take the places of many of us in this world, a world which we swear by our might shall be a good world, cleansed of brutality, hatred, selfishness, aggression.

Keep in mind that there may be fighting in your side hundreds and hundreds of young men placed for adoption in infancy through your efforts. The demands for proof of birth, which we have been able to supply them, and discussions with them of their plans to enlist during the past year or two, acquaint us with this fact.

And again, do not forget that you and they are sacrificing and planning for the future safety of thousands of children, still too young to do their part in helping the world, who will be grateful for Health and Home, School and Church, which we have been able to provide through the loving generous foster-parents of California.

Ashworth, Donald Gleason, James Lomba, Judge Allen G. Norris, Maui Pessano, Milton O. Peterson, T. Burke Woodard and Louis J. Zimmerman.

California's sales tax revenues during 1941 broke all records, totaling $124,533,232; $23,495,055 greater than the previous year.

LET US NOT BEQUEATH A CANKER WE SHOULD HAVE REMOVED—THE JAPS

DR. W. R. LIVINGSTON

WAR WITH JAPAN HAS GIVEN US lessons that should be heeded: First, that behind a smiling face saying "so sorry" may lurk a WILL to strike at the first unguarded moment. This was illustrated by the ending of a special peace envoy, and a secret squadron of destruction, from Japan at the same time. Second, the fanatical devotion of the subjects of the emperor of Japan, who place no value on their own lives, if they believe the sacrifice will in any way further his interests. Many such fanatics are interspersed among our defense works in California. Third, the full organization of the Japanese at Honolulu, and the perfect execution of long-arranged fifth-column plans with such disastrous effect. An activity not confined to foreign-born Japs alone; so much as reported by an American cabinet authority after his investigation of the catastrophe.

Why, then, are Japanese, foreign and native, still permitted to remain in large numbers in proximity to practically every defense activity—airports, naval stations, oil tank farms, power transmission lines, oil fields, airplane factories and others? What chaos such men can produce within striking distance of their own homes! No valid reason has been given why this grave danger cannot at once be removed.

Japan, in reason, could not object, for similar protection of that country has been its policy for years. When I was in Japan, at the beginning of the European phase of the war, I was permitted nowhere without surveillance. No foreigner was privileged to carry a camera. On leaving Yokohama the ship was not allowed to pass between the Japanese islands. Bound foranghai, it was compelled to sail around the entire group. Japan promised not to fortify mandated Caroline and Marshall Islands. Yet, built bases upon those islands and, I am told, as for several years forbidden them to any foreign shipping.

The menace to our efficient defense preparation should be abated at once by the removal of Japanese to localities remote from defense areas; a measure of safety, also, for the Japanese themselves. In the event of extensive sabotage an outraged public, not able to discriminate, might take vengeance upon the innocent as well as the guilty, whether alien or native Japanese. Present conditions give full promise of a repetition of the Pearl Harbor fifth-column activity whenever Japanese authorities believe "der tag" has arrived.

Aside from the present emergency which, of course, is now paramount, it seems to me in the long view there are two phases of the whole question which are also of much importance. They accentuate the timeliness of the efforts of native Sons of the Golden West to arouse a public realization of the probable results of Japanese victory.

First, the danger of ultimate invasion of Europe.

The White race has escaped destruction by statistics a number of times only by a series of fortunate events, after White defense had all but failed.

There must have been a prehistoric Mongoloid invasion, which all but exterminated the ancient European race. Descendants of these invaders constitute the present broadheaded inhabitants of central Europe. Study of these, and the skeletal remains of the ancient race, give us our knowledge of this prehistoric tragedy.

About the beginning of the Christian era, the Huns, or Huns, began a mass western migration from the Desert of Gobi. By the third century they had so far advanced westward they had forced back the white peoples of the Nordic race, namely, Alani, Suevi, Vandals and Goths, who had migrated eastward to west central Asia. The fleeing of these Nordic tribes brought them against the Roman Empire, and finally led to its destruction. By 451 A.D., the Huns had so far conquered Europe, they had invaded and devastated France, but were checked at Chalons, near Paris. Before reorganization could be effected, their leader, Attila, died. Strife of his sons for the succession prevented another active advance, and by this narrow chance Europe was saved. Under Baijan, about 680 A.D., the Huns again invaded Europe. After preliminary successes in Spain, unfortunately, became insane, and Europe again saved.

Genghis Khan, also out of the Gobi, built an empire extending from Siberia to Siam and Su-

The Grizzly Bear is delighted to present this article, requested from Dr. W. R. Livingston of Moorpark, Ventura County, a member of Cabrillo's Parlor No. 114 N.S.G.W. It is timely, and overflowing with food for serious thought. In a letter accompanying the article, Dr. Livingston expresses the "hope that the portion relating to Japs in defense areas may be obsolete by the publication date."—Editor.

matra, across Asia and Persia to the Mediterranean, and north to the Baltic, including the Russia of today. His death in 1227; the two years of mourning; and the return of his sons and generals to the Gobi to elect a new khakan, again saved Europe. Ten years later his grandsons had conquered Hungary and Poland, and the road was again open to France, when the death of another khakan recalled the victorious generals to the Gobi, and again Europe was saved.

In the sixteenth century the Turks, also an eastern Asiatic tribe, battled for Europe, but were repelled from the walls of Vienna and their fleet was destroyed at Lepanto. A family quarrel in Europe then, as now, prevented a united front against the Asiatics—England grasping what could be grabbed, and France in actual alliance with the Turks. Spain and Austria under the Hapsburgs, financed by such gold from America as escaped the rape of the English pirates, were successful in repelling the Turks.

We find Europe seriously menaced by the Mongol at intervals of four centuries. Those in the past have been mass migrations, with women, children and myriads of non-combatants dependent on sustenance taken directly from the country invaded. The next invasion will be of fighting men only, directed from a distant base! The death of any leader, which in the past so often saved Europe, will then be relatively unimportant.

Herein lies the tremendous importance of the present war in the Pacific. If Japan emerges victorious, and then consolidates its dominion over eastern Asia, it could well mean, before the lapse of a century, a Mongol would be found again ravaging Europe, with the probable final submergence, if not the extermination, of the White race. A Mongol ravage is not a pretty picture. Genghis Khan massacred whole populations in city after city of Persia, and even sent back detachments to slay any refugees who might later come out of hiding. When I saw the City of Shanghai, in China, after the attack of the Japanese, not a wall was standing, not a human habitation.

If, because of the present family conflict in Europe, Japan finds Europe prostrate, its manpower wasted in internecine struggle, the day of Japan's total world dominance may well be materially advanced.

The one hopeful element is Japan's momentous blunder in arousing the antagonism of the Chinese by an attempt to conquer China. The consistent dictatorial and outrageous policy of the British Government toward China, and the pompous arrogance of individual Englishmen toward the Chinese, had made them resentful and in a mood to accept relief from any reasonable source. The Japanese, by a supposed affinity of race and tradition, had an opportunity for dominance by friendship and peaceful percolation, which would have made a federation impregnable to outside influence. Fortunately, Japan chose the mailed fist and has aroused an antagonism that may prevent co-operation for a generation.

The second danger apparent in the long view more particularly concerns us in California.

Viewed as a human animal, the Japanese has a peculiar fitness for continued survival in California. It is a biologic law that a species migrating to an environment for which it is adapted, will displace less-adapted species and, in time, become dominant from sheer rapid increase in numbers. It breeds faster, and individuals live longer than do those of less-adapted species. Applied to the human, if there is at the same time a relative economic betterment the movement is accelerated.

A few examples will suffice to show that within the human race are a number of sub-species, each of which has special adaptation for healthy survival in a certain environment; and from this environment he wanders at his peril. When this change is not too extreme, several generations may be required to make the fact apparent. Hence, the erroneous belief that races of any human type may permanently inhabit any part of the world has been given more or less currency. A few examples may illustrate the fallacy of this conclusion.

The white human type is adjusted for a north country, with oblique rays of the sun, and even there the actinic quality of those rays filtered by passing through fog or mist-darkened air. A typical area is that around the Baltic Sea. This type there multiplies freely, and develops in fullest strength. From this general area he has spread eastward and southward across the plains of Russia, throughout the ages. Most of the Nordics, driven on Rome from the east by the advance of the Huns, had first migrated southward by this route. Other tribes have crossed Europe southward across the Rhine. The farther south they ranged, the more rapid their deterioration or extinction. Africa has always been a graveyard for the white. The hardy Vandals from Sweden survived only a century in Carthage. In other countries, conquered by them in their might, they are now found in islands of white population, generally at the northern border of each political subdivision—along the Bay of Biscay in Spain, the Channel area of France, north of Rome in Italy, etc. Their unpigmented skin, and other maladjustment for that latitude, could not protect them against the more direct actinic rays of the sun.

The rapid spread and increase in numbers of the White race came only after the discovery of somewhat similar territory lying westward. In the short period of two centuries they have overrun most of North America. It is interesting to compare these Whites with that opposite extreme of human adaptation, the Blacks.

The Negro suffers when out of a moderately warm, humid environment. The hotter, drier, desert air and the cold of the north are, in time, equally fatal. In areas to which he has been transported, he has tended to survive in the warmer portion, hence is found in the southern limits of each political subdivision as, for example, in the southern tier of the United States. Recent mass Negro migration to northern United States for economic advantage is a passing phase. The lack of adaptation will be continuous. In this brief article space does not permit detail description of the dozens of special adaptations of the Negro for his own warm, moist habitat. The wide-open nostril without nasal whorls, which admits the icy northern air unwarmed into the lungs and exposes those organs to irritation and infections, is alone sufficient to preclude permanent northern occupation. Negro slavery was originally introduced into the north, as well as into the south, but because of lack of Negro adaptation for the northern climate was unprofitable, hence was abandoned.

The West Indies islands are now almost completely Black, notwithstanding the former extensive White migration. Cromwell sold his Scotch prisoners as slaves in Barbados, now almost completely Black. The White man was out of his adjustment, and few of his kind have survived.

In brute creation, too, we have examples of the rapid multiplication of adapted types of suitable new environment. The few rabbits introduced into Australia, finding a suitable environment and no serious predatory enemies, soon became a national pest and, to protect pastures, have been slain by the millions. The two types of horses show similar adaptations. The white skin of the northern horse (przevalski) makes it worthless in the tropics, as also are mules from such mares. Only the Arabian strain, with a black skin, or hybrids in which the black skin persists, endure any continued service there.

The Brown man occupies a mid-zone in a belt around the world, too far south for the best White development and too far north for the Black. He has a wider range than either of the two other grand types and, being less differentiated from the presumed original primitive man, suffers less at either extreme. The higher the differentiation of the species, the more circumscribed is his habitat.

Draw a belt around the world, including the approximate latitude of California but with some extension to the south, and you will find it occupied by peoples with a more or less pigmented skin, the pigmentation increasing as we proceed southward. Of course, this area will include some Whites, chiefly of recent percolation. People who have inhabited this region a long time (autochthonous) are most certainly of this pigmented type.

SAN FRANCISCO — THE BOARD OF Grand Officers met February 14. In attendance were Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, who presided, Junior Past Grand President Henry S. Lyon, Grand First Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Second Vice-president Wayne R. Millington, Grand Third Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, and Grand Trustees Richard F. McCarthy, Walter H. Odemar, Eben K. Smart, Thomas C. Ryan, Louis Bosch, Joseph E. Tinney and Walter N. Bailey.

The national emergency was given consideration, and during the discussion it was pointed out that many people are not taking into consideration the seriousness of the situation.

Grand Third Vice-president Williamson, chairman of a committee that considered a resolution pertaining to death benefits referred to the Board by the 1941 Grand Parlor, submitted a written report saying that while the "program of the Grand Parlor's assuming death benefit payments is the most practical way of maintaining membership," it is not possible to put it into practice at this time. The report will be presented to the coming Grand Parlor.

District No. 1 having had the largest membership gain during the year, Grand Trustee Odemar, visiting grand officer for that district, was awarded a prize offered by the Board of Grand Officers.

Membership in the California Safety Council and the California Historical Society was ordered continued.

The following resolution—prepared by a committee, consisting of Grand First Vice-president Cosgrove, chairman, Grand Second Vice-president Millington, and Grand Trustees Smart, Odemar and Tinney, to which had been referred suggestions and communications relating to the subject matter,—was adopted and copies were

"Resolved, By the Board of Grand Officers of the Native Sons of the Golden West in regular session assembled, that all Japanese, including Japanese citizens of the United States, be removed immediately from Pacific Coast combat and defense areas; and be it further resolved, that the proper authorities are hereby urged to take such steps as may be necessary for the arrest and removal of Japanese in the interest of national defense for the purpose of forestalling sabotage and fifth column activities; and be it further resolved, that all civil authorities of the State aid Federal and Military authorities to such extent as they may request."

A second resolution—prepared by a committee consisting of Grand Third Vice-president Williamson, chairman, and Grand Trustees Ryan, McCarthy, Bosch and Bailey—was adopted, too, and copies were ordered sent various national and state officials, all Subordinate Parlors, etc.:

"Whereas, The United States of America is engaged in a war against three foreign powers; and whereas, California is in a combat zone of this war; and whereas, it is true that the citizens of California were aroused to the dangers of their situation immediately after the dastardly Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor; and whereas, since that time many citizens of California have lapsed into a state of complacency toward the dangers of their situation; and whereas, said complacency is not indicative of an all-out war effort and is detrimental to our wellbeing as a liberty loving people and to our national defense; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Board of Grand Officers of the Native Sons of the Golden West in session assembled in San Francisco, February 14, 1942, urge the people of California to be alert to the dangers confronting California and urge every loyal citizen of California to be most active in engaging in the civilian defense program so that California may be prepared to meet any emergency that may confront it, and to the end that this war be brought to a successful and early conclusion."

On motion, a committee to arrange a radio program for the northern part of the state was authorized. As members thereof Grand President Schnarr has appointed Grand Second Vice-president Millington, Grand Trustees McCarthy, Smart and Ryan, and Grand Secretary Regan.

On motion, a committee was ordered appointed to investigate and report on the large number of American-born Japs sent to Japan in early youth; it is hoped some way may be found to prevent their returning to this country. Grand President Schnarr has appointed as such committee Grand First Vice-president Cosgrove, Grand Third Vice-president Williamson, and Grand Trustees Odemar, Tinney and Bailey.

The Grand Secretary reported the United States military authorities may take over the Native Sons Building in San Francisco, where the Grand Parlor offices are located. So, a motion prevailed, giving Grand President Schnarr Grand First Vice-president Cosgrove and Grand Secretary Regan full power to arrange for other office facilities if necessary.

After transacting much other business and disposing of many communications, the Board adjourned to the call of the Grand President.

Going Ahead With Celebration Arrangements.

San Diego—San Diego No. 208 is going ahead with arrangements for the statewide Admissior Day celebration here September 9. Assurance of full co-operation has been given by the United States forces, the County and the City of San Diego and all local civic and fraternal organizations. Major-General Clayton B. Vogel of the United States Marine Corps has consented to act as the grand marshal. Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer is the general chairman and Joseph C. Kelly heads the parade committee.

Johnston O. Miller, active in the business civic and fraternal life of San Diego for thirty two years, died suddenly February 11, survived by his wife and three children. He was a native of San Francisco, aged 55, and was affiliated with San Diego Parlor.

Joint Public Installation.

Grass Valley—The officers of Quartz No. 51 and Manzanita No. 29 N.D. were installed February 2 at joint public ceremonies. Supervising Deputy Robert W. Kohler and Deputy Theresa Alaria, who officiated, were assisted by Richard Hoskins and Elsie Flynn, as acting grand marshals, and Neil Whiting and Louise Wales became the respective presidents. The drill team of Manzanita, gowned in yellow lace formals formed an arch through which the presidents were escorted to their stations while Mrs. L. V. Dorsey sang "Beautiful Dreamer." Alynne Bishop was chairman of the evening and the accompanists were Pauline Matteson and Ethel Vale.

Being in military training in New Jersey Senior Past President Floyd Williams could not be present to receive from Quartz an emblematic watch charm. So, Grand Trustee Eben K. Smart paid tribute to him for his loyalty to the Nation and the Order, and gave the charm into the keeping of his parents, who were in attendance. Arthur Williams, his father, is an oldtime member of the Parlor, and he has another son Elton, also a past president of Quartz, in the military service of the country. On behalf of Manzanita, Marie Trathen presented a past president emblem to Kay Gallino, and there were other presentations.

Brief remarks were made by President Whiting, President Wales, Supervising Deputy Hannabelle Daley, Supervising Deputy Kohler, Deputy Alaria and Tony Casci. Program numbers included a vocal solo by Pauline Douglas and saxophone solo by Norman Foote. Dancing followed the installation, and the much enjoyed evening terminated at the banquet board, where 300 members and guests were served.

Past Presidents To Meet.

San Bernardino—The next gathering of Arrowhead Past Presidents Assembly No. 14 will be held here, at Reggie Savio's cottage, corner Fifth and Mount Vernon avenue, Sunday, March 22. The womenfolks are especially invited.

NATIVE SONS SIXTY-FIFTH ANNUAL GRAND PARLOR

The Sixty-fifth Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West will convene at Hobergs, Lake County, May 18. Grand President Edward T. Schnarr of Fruitvale Parlor No. 252, Oakland, will preside throughout the deliberations.

Arrangements for the meeting are in charge of Lower Lake Parlor No. 159, which is being assisted by Saint Helena Parlor No. 53 and Calistoga Parlor No. 86. Lower Lake has a planning committee, with John Wesley Constable as chairman, and including Wesley Allen Carey, Lake County agricultural commissioner. This committee is very active and will provide many novel entertainment features, to make the gathering an outstanding one. Chairman William Everett Harrington of Calistoga's committee promises one and all a very generous taste of world-famous wines, donated by Napa County wineries for the hospitality house.

Lake County has no railroad service, so those who anticipate attending the Grand Parlor at Hobergs must arrange for other means of transportation.

At the coming Grand Parlor, unless custom be reversed, Grand First Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove will be advanced to Grand President, Grand Second Vice-president Wayne R. Millington to Grand First Vice-president, and Grand Third Vice-president Raymond D. Williamson to Grand Second Vice-president. The Grizzly Bear has communicated with many "suspected" candidates for the other Grand Parlor offices and, from the replies received, announces the following candidacies:

Grand Secretary—John T. Regan, South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, incumbent.

Grand Treasurer—John A. Corotto, San Jose Parlor No. 81, incumbent.

Grand Trustees (seven to be chosen)—Thomas C. Ryan, Pacific Parlor No. 10, incumbent; Walter N. Bailey, Elk Grove Parlor No. 41, incumbent; Eben K. Smart, Quartz Parlor No. 58, incumbent; Joseph E. Tinney, Rincon Parlor No. 72, incumbent; Walter H. Odegar, Ramona Parlor No. 109, incumbent.—C.M.H.

cash awards were donated to the Central Homeless Children Committee.

FINALS OF THE SAN FRANCISCO COUNTY public speaking contest sponsored by the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West for high school students were held February 13 in the rooms of the Grizzly Bear Club. There were thirteen contestants, and the competition was keen. Chairman Frank M. Buckley of the San Francisco County Public Speaking Committee welcomed the contestants, and Chairman Reynald J. Bianchi of the Grand Parlor Public Speaking Committee presided during the speaking.

Doris Krutmeyer of Lowell High School was declared the winner. Her subject was a popular one, that chosen by seven of the contestants, "Coloma, El Dorado, Place of Destiny." She participated in the 1941 contest, but was unsuccessful. John G. Scharfen of Saint Ignatius High School was awarded second place; his subject was "Stephen Mallory White, Lawyer, Senator and Native Son of California." An unexpected treat was the appearance of Miss Nancy White, a sister of Senator White, at the contest. Doris Leveira of Polytechnic High School was awarded third place; her subject was "Coloma, El Dorado, Place of Destiny."

The judges were Sheriff Dan C. Murphy; Dr. A. C. Lee, English instructor San Francisco Junior College; Dr. A. L. Leonard, president California Historical Society; Superior Judge Elmer E. Robinson and Past Grand President Chas. A. Koenig. The latter presented a gold medal to Miss Krutmeyer, and Grand Secretary John T. Regan presented a silver medal to each of the other contestants.

Miss Krutmeyer will represent San Francisco County at the northern California counties finals to be held at Oakland next month, and the winner of that contest will compete with the winner of the southern California counties finals for the state championship at the N.S.G.W. Grand Parlor at Hobergs, Lake County, in May.

CITY AND COUNTY

MARCH 7 THE NATIVE SONS AND THE Native Daughters will take their place with other groups working to build enthusiasm for the sale of United States defense bonds. They will demonstrate in a practical way their patriotism at a defense bond program at Victory House, in Pershing Square.

The idea of participating in the Victory House campaign originated with Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. It caught the imagination of other Parlor, to the extent that it was made a countywide undertaking, with all Parlor participating. The program will begin at 2:30 p.m. and will continue throughout the afternoon until 4:30 o'clock.

Miss Grace S. Stoermer, Past Grand President N.D.G.W., will serve as general chairman, with Miss Anne Schiebusch as vice-chairman. Superior Judge Ruben Schmidt and Appellate Court Justice Thomas P. White will be the masters of ceremonies, and Leo Carrillo will be the feature artist. Mary B. Noerenberg, Grand Marshal N.D.G.W., Walter H. Odemar, Grand Trustee N.S.G.W., and Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz will bring inspirational messages.

The afternoon will offer much in the way of diversion. A fiesta atmosphere will prevail, and outstanding professional talent will be presented. All Native Sons and Native Daughters and their friends are urged to attend and to help make the sale of United States savings bonds March 7 a record one. On the program will be:

The forty-five-piece Little Symphony Orchestra, Ernest Katz, founder-director, and 13-year-old Norma McKinley, the soprano of the group; Jose Arias and his troubadours; Vicente Lugo and a group of California native dancers; Tavo and Adelina and a group of Spanish dancers; Nacho Galindo, Mexican tenor; Estelita Baca, soprano, in popular Spanish songs; 7-year-old Alfred Purcell, who will give Patrick Henry's address in costume; Postmaster Mary D. Briggs, who will speak on "California, Fourth in the Nation;" Arlene Harris, the "Human Chatterbox of the Air;" Lorraine and Marlene Klugh, accordion experts; Barbara Corlett, accompanied by George Scharl, in several vocal selections; Mrs. Leiland Atherton-Irish, manager of "Symphony Under the Stars," will present George Burnson who, accompanied by Lydia Marcus, will sing "Bill of Rights," "I Love You, California," and Albert Hay Malotte's "Pledge to the Flag."

"WHERE PARKING IS EFFORTLESS"

GOLD DISCOVERY CENTENNIAL.

It is heartening to know that, despite the turmoil and chaos confronting the world today, there are many people still interested in the traditions and the historic events which have brought great recognition to California. So, to attract a large group of history-minded people, Sunday, March 8, has been fixed as the date for celebrating, in Placerita Canyon, the one hundredth anniversary of the first recorded gold discovery in California, March 9, 1842, and the fiftieth anniversary of the creation of the United States Forest Service.

As president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, Miss Grace Stoermer is in charge of arrangements, and is being assisted by the following participating groups: Native Daughters of the Golden West, Native Sons of the Golden West, History Division of the Women's Auxiliary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, Newhall Chamber of Commerce, Historical Society of Southern California and Los Angeles County Pioneer Society.

Municipal Judge Frank G. Tyrrell of Ramona Parlor N.S.G.W. will speak on "The Significance of the Discovery of Gold in California," and President J. Gregg Layne of the Historical Society of Southern California will tell about "Gold's First Trip." Rev. Charles Burns of San Fernando Mission will deliver a timely message, and Supervisor Wm. V. Mendenhall of the Angeles National Forest will give an educational talk on "The Front Line Forests."

Most of those who will participate in this dual celebration will go to Placerita Canyon early, so that they may enjoy a picnic luncheon prior to the official ceremony, which will begin promptly at 2 p.m. Each is requested to take along luncheon for two, so that the 150 United States Army boys stationed there may be taken care of. Most of them are far from home, and sharing lunch with them will be extending California hospitality.

Since many are conserving tires, arrangements have been made for transportation to Placerita Canyon via comfortable motor busses. They will leave in a caravan from the Fifth and Grand avenue entrance of the Biltmore Hotel. Last bus, 10:45 a.m.; charge, $1.00 per round trip. RESERVATIONS MUST BE MADE with presidents of the Parlor by FRIDAY, March 6.

A substantial sum was added to the defense committee and the general funds of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. as a result of the party given February 14 at the home of Alice Hamilton. presentation address, and the recipients expressed their high regard for the Order. Among the other speakers were President George Walker, Michael Botello, Clarence M. Hunt, Frank Frank, Bennie Solomon, Robert Pesqueria, William Girard and Walter Fisher. At the meeting's conclusion refreshments were served.

Los Angeles' March calendar includes: 12th, past presidents night, with oldtimers filling the stations. 19th, open meeting, eligibles especially invited. 26th, initiation, followed by refreshments.

NEVER A DULL MOMENT.

Ora May Evans, largely responsible for the formation of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W., one of its first presidents and one of the main promoters of the De Neve statue project, opened her lovely San Fernando home for the benefit of the americanism defense committee of the Parlor February 14. The affair was in the form of a salad-bridge, and brought forth a record attendance. There was never a dull moment, and the proceeds insure the continuance by the committee of entertainment for the men under arms.

Colonel W. W. Hicks, commanding officer at Fort McArthur, accepted the invitation for a contingent of men to attend a buffet supper at Casa de Adobe February 28.

Other affairs of the month included the Gertrude Sewing Circle luncheon February 2 at the home of Third Vice-president Mary Ann Thomas, and the regular program luncheon February 10, when Florence Irish gave a stirring talk on "Personal Responsibility in Patriotism."—B.S.M.

N.S. OFFICIAL TO VISIT.

Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. honored Junior Past President William J. Bright February 20. Previous to the meeting an excellent steak dinner, prepared under the supervision of Ralph Walters, was enjoyed by 120 members of the Order. President Frank Ruiz, in the United States Navy now, presided in his new uniform at the Parlor session, and three candidates were initiated.

Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer of San Diego told of the elaborate plans being made to celebrate in that city Flag Day, June 14, and Admission Day, September 9. Grand Trustee Walter Odemar stressed the need for civilian defense workers. Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer welcomed the initiates, and Captain Bright said now is the time to strengthen the organization.

Ramona's March calendar includes: 6th, civilian defense night; a speaker will tell "The Truth About Civilian Defense;" refreshments. 20th, Grand First Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove will officially visit the Parlor; dinner at 6:30, all members of the Order invited; Ralph Walters and his culinary posse will ride the range, and Bob Ziegler and the good of the order committee will handle the diningroom. 27th, open meeting; motion pictures, other entertainment and refreshments; bring your families and invite your friends.

PRESIDENT WINS PLAUDITS.

Compton—Officers of Compton Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W., with Robert Allan as president, were installed February 5 by District Deputy William Quast, who was assisted by Mayor Roy Tarleton, Ray Olmstead and District Deputy William Blaha. Allan won the plaudits of all present, both for his excellent delivery of the president's charge during an exemplification of the ritual, and for the constructive program for the Parlor he outlined after his induction into office.

Grand Trustee Odemar, paying his official visit, commended the Parlor and spoke of the Order's activities. Others among the several speakers were Walter C. Richards, District Deputy Quast, Clarence M. Hunt, Walter Hopcraft, Mayor Tarleton, Judge Stanley Sargent and District Deputy Blaha. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

PEARL HARBOR ATTACK HELPED BY AMERICAN-BORN JAPS.

Dr. Gordon S. Watkins, professor of economics and dean of the College of Letters and Science at the University of California at Los Angeles, is authority for the statement that Pearl Harbor's fall was mainly caused by fifth-column work of American-born Japs.

It is known, says Dr. Watkins, who recently spent much time in Hawaii, that Jap graduates of McKinley School and the University of Hawaii returned to Japan and became officers for the mikado. A number of them are fliers. Millions of dollars have been sent back to Japan, and comfort kits containing prohibited articles were smuggled into various receiving stations for shipment.

To prevent the Nisei from being loyal to America, parents and teachers from Japan use stern measures. There are 178 Jap schools in the Hawaiian islands, and the Buddhist priests see to it that the boys and girls do not "lose the virtues of their ancestors."

NEW FRUITS.—Four new peach varieties and a new nectarine have been released for propagation by the Federal Bureau of Plant Industry. Farmers desiring budwood should consult their local farm advisor.

The homeless children committee, Stephanie Holod chairman, is busy working on that project.—L.B.

Modesto—In a beautifully decorated hall, the officers of Morada No. 199, with Hazel McCreary as president, were publicly installed by Deputy Marguerite Johnson. The Parlor has invested $500 in defense bonds.—M.H.

who recently announced her engagement, was given a miscellaneous shower. The refreshments table was decorated with spring flowers and red paper hearts, and the placecards were comic valentines. Martha Roberts was chairman of the arrangements committee.—A.S.

Fresno—Wawona No. 211 mixed the serious and the ridiculous February 6; material for Red Cross garments was distributed before the business of the evening gave way to a social hour of fun. During a grand march judges picked the best from costumed members and top honors went to Marie Randrup, Hazel Crosby and Alice Garrison. Favors representing the "villain" with the mortgage and "our Nell" greeted the guests at a table decorated in true hardtime style, while apricots, whipped cream and marble cake, arranged to appear as bacon and eggs with coffee, made up the refreshments. Formal initiation and a joint Washington-Lincoln Day program occupied the February 20 meeting.—B.LaP.

Berkeley—The sewing club of Sequoia No. 272 met February 27 at the home of Hannah Bredehoff. Luncheon was served and a pleasant afternoon was spent sewing on articles for the annual bazar. The Parlor has purchased a $75 defense bond. Many packages of goodies donated by the members have been sent the boys in service. Hannah Bredehoff and Marian McGuire are in charge of that work.—E.W.

San Jose—President Alice Roll of the General Past Presidents Association paid an official visit to Association No. 8 in Stockton February 12. She was accompanied by Sue Mattei, Claire Borchers, Clara Briggs and Margaret Farnsworth. A dinner preceded the meeting.—C.B.

In Memoriam

LOUISE FRANCES SHEPPARD.

"The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want."

To the Officers and Members of the Marguerite Parlor No. 12 N.D.G.W.—We, your memorial committee entrusted with the sad duty of drafting resolutions of love and respect to the memory of our late Sister, Louise Frances Sheppard, submit the following:

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has seen fit to call from this life one who was very dear to the members of Marguerite Parlor; and

Whereas, Sister Sheppard was not only just a member of Marguerite Parlor, but one of the few who had the distinction of being a Charter Member, having kept a continuous membership in Marguerite Parlor, and continued active in the affairs of the Parlor to the time of her death, having held the office of Financial Secretary for forty-three years; and

Whereas, We realize that our loss is great, that a fond memory will long linger around her vacant chair, that we will miss her cheerful presence and her counsel, yet we must be ever mindful that a far greater loss has come to those who were nearest and dearest to her; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we extend to her bereaved relatives our sincere sympathy. May they find much comfort, knowing that the world was made better by her living in it, and the spirit of kindness she exemplified in her daily walks of life will stand as a monument that time cannot erase.

"She is not dead, just sweetly sleeping."

God knows what's best, cease then thy weeping."

Be it further resolved, That copies of these resolutions be sent to her bereaved relatives, to The Grizzly Bear Magazine, and that they be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor.

ROUT THE JAPS!

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

Regardless of the United States' anticipated and hoped-for complete victory over the Japs in the struggle now raging, California, as well as the other Pacific Coast states, will, in time, be lost to the White race unless all Japs now here, alien and native-born, be permanently routed from these shores.

The Japs must be dispossessed of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title. That can be accomplished by a rigid and impartial enforcement of the California Alien Land Law. If the authorities do not act promptly to recover this land for the State, they should be removed from office. They have been "stalling" too long.

The citizen-rights of every native-born Jap must be challenged, because of allegiance to Japan—dual citizenship. And the Federal Congress must enact legislation denying citizenship to the offspring of aliens ineligible to citizenship.

Every Jap-language school must be closed. And the State Legislature must enact legislation prohibiting the operation of any private school not licensed and supervised by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Evidence is abundant that Japan plans the acquisition of California. That threat must be met by ACTION, within the law, NOW. Want to preserve California as a White man's paradise? Speechifying and resolving will not do it. So, organize and prosecute a campaign along the course here suggested.

Enforcement of the California Alien Land Law will bring to light the fact that many prominent business institutions and individuals have, for a few yellow-dollars, betrayed California, and also will expose public officials who have been disgracefully derelict in the performance of their sworn duty. But, having the need for results in mind, we must proceed without fear or favor, let the chips fall where they may.

A. C. Madsen, Redwood City, San Mateo County, saloonkeeper, blew his head off March 24.

The steamer Ventura was wrecked March 2 at Rockport, Mendocino County, and both engineers, the steward, a fireman and a sailor were drowned.

Mrs. Ann Halverson was run over and killed by a street car in San Diego March 26.

The burning of the Union Copper Mine hoisting works March 29 paralyzed business for time in Copperopolis, Calaveras County.

Trinity Presbyterian Church, Twenty-third and Capp streets, San Francisco, was dedicated March 6.

The cornerstone of the Macdonough Theatre, Fourteenth and Broadway, Oakland, was laid March 10. Frederick Warde, famed tragedian, delivered the oration.

The safe in the Santa Fe station at Redland, San Bernardino County, was blown open March 6, and Policeman R. H. Kendall exchanged shots with the burglars.

The Los Angeles Citrus Fair was held the week of March 7.

The Australian ballot system had its initial California tryout in the city election at Sacramento March 8.

Humboldt Hall, the oldest assemblyroom in Oakland, collapsed March 6.

LET US NOT BEQUEATH A CANKER

Within this belt, whether in Asia or America the ruthless sureness of the adjustment of type for long survival in definite environment has so fully operated that, among the mass of autochthonous peoples, a Japanese, clad in the garments of the locality, would pass unnoticed.

Space does not permit detail of the perfect adaptation of the Japanese for permanent survival in California. It is so perfect that unless checked is, by the undeviating law of the dominance of adapted species, alone destined, by the unchecked breeding of those now here, to ultimate preponderance in numbers in this home state we all love so dearly. Experience in Hawaii somewhat illustrates this danger. The White population there is static, but the Japanese blood in the comparatively few years since immigration began now flows in approximately one-half the population. Pearl Harbor has recently shown us they are still Japanese.

The war is our first care, and must be brought to a victorious conclusion. When ended, let not sentimentality obscure the more-lasting peril. Let us not bequeath to our children's children a canker we should have removed! It may then be past all remedy.

The effort of Native Sons of the Golden West in endeavoring to arouse Californians and the national public to a realization of the disastrous results that may accrue from temporizing with this vital problem should have the approval and the active support of all who wish to preserve our California for our own White race.

REMOVE BARNACLES FROM SHIP OF STATE

"The expulsion of all parasites from Washington would purge Uncle Sam's payroll of a lot of leeches, as well as give the actual workers elbow room. The removal of these barnacles from the Ship of State would lighten the burden of the old barge enormously, raise the morale of the active crew and enable them to function with greater efficiency. Political plums are a luxury at any season—a sinful extravagance when Uncle Sam is sorely beset with war and debt."—Ann Webb in Hollywood Citizen-News.

Napa—Granville Perry Swift Junior, born in Sonoma County February 8, 1861, died near this city February 27, survived by four children. He was affiliated with Napa Parlor No. 62 N.S.G.W.

He was a son of Captain Granville Perry Swift, who came to California in 1841 and was identified with the Bear Flag Party. In 1858 he built near Sonoma for his bride the famous $300,000 Temlec Hall, now a state monument. Captain Swift's wealth is claimed to have come from a "fabulously rich gold mine in Napa County," never located after his death.

"IT IS FOLLY not to prepare people for life. Such folly, to our sorrow, has penetrated to very high places in our schools. Now we reap the harvest. Faced with terrible emergency we cannot find enough young people who can handle quantities safely and accurately."—Dr. Earle R. Hedrick.

WHOLE NO. 420

DOES THE U. S. CONSTITUTION MAKE CITIZENS OF CHILDREN BORN OF JAPS?

SENATOR TOM STEWART

I THINK THE TIME HAS ARRIVED WHEN we should deal sternly with the Japanese in this country. If we do not, we may come to grief. I have, therefore, introduced a bill which has for its purposes the incarceration of all Japanese in the United States and its Territories.

"There are within this country, especially in the States on the west coast and in some of our island possessions such as Hawaii, many thousands of Japanese who were born on American soil, and for that reason, under the first clause of the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States, claim citizenship. The first clause of the fourteenth amendment provides that all persons born in the United States are citizens of the United States, provided they are subject to the jurisdiction thereof.

"It is my belief that Japanese born on American soil should not be allowed citizenship within the meaning of the fourteenth amendment, because they are not 'subject to the jurisdiction' in the sense that the amendment intends. Their parents could not have become naturalized under the laws of the United States, and it seems absurd to claim that those whose parents could not themselves become naturalized should become citizens by the mere accident of birth on American soil. Furthermore, under the Japanese law, very person whose father is Japanese is a subject of the Emperor and a citizen of Japan. We are, therefore, the question of dual citizenship is content with if we permit American citizenship by reason of birth on American soil.

"America is at war and will have to fight to the bitter end. The Japanese are among our worst enemies. They are cowardly and immoral. They are different from Americans in every conceivable way, and no Japanese who ever lived anywhere should have a right to claim American citizenship. A Jap is a Jap anywhere you find him, and his taking the oath of allegiance to his country would not help, even if he should be permitted to do so. They do not believe in God and have no respect for an oath. They have been plotting for years against the Americas and their democracies.

"It is my belief that one Jap at large in this country or its possessions is a threat to the defense program of America.

"I introduced the bill to which I have referred last Thursday, February 19, and on Saturday morning thereafter I was delighted to read in the newspapers that the President of the United States had issued an Executive order giving full wartime authority to remove any and all persons, even American citizens, from any area he might wish. We are given to understand that this action is aimed principally at the Japanese. This is a wise step. Many Japs live near our oil-reserve properties, naval bases, and factories which manufacture defense materials.

"My bill, which is S. 2293, directs the Secretary of War to take into custody and restrain, to be extent by him deemed necessary in the interest of national defense, any person who is considered by the laws of any foreign power with whom we are at war to be a citizen of such nation and is of a race or nationality ineligible to naturalization in the United States. The bill, therefore, is directed at the Japanese and raises directly the question of its constitutionality under the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution and, specifically, the first clause thereof which provides:

"All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside."

"As is known by most lawyers, the Supreme Court of the United States, by a divided Court, has held that a child born in the United States of parents of Chinese descent, who at the time of his birth are Chinese subjects but have a permanent domicile and residence in the United States and are carrying on a business and not employed in any diplomatic or official capacity for the Chinese Government, becomes at the time of his birth a citizen of the United States under the first clause of the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution.

"The case to which I refer is styled United States against Wong Kim Ark, and is reported in volume 169, United States Reports, page 649 et seq. It involves a young Chinese boy who was born in California, who returned to China for a temporary visit with intention of returning to the United States and who did return to the

An address delivered in the Senate of the United States by Senator Tom Stewart of Tennessee, promptly after the adoption of the bill to amend the Constitution to read: "All persons born or naturalized in the United States are citizens of the United States, and of the State wherein they reside," and in which he introduced a bill to amend the Constitution to read: "All persons born or naturalized in the United States are citizens of the United States, and of the State wherein they reside, if any, of Japanese birth or descent."

"I am particularly interested in your interpretation of the first clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, and in your opinion, you are in support of your viewpoint relative to the citizenship rights, if any, of Japanese born in this country.

"From it is abundant that for many years Japan has sponsored and financed a 'peaceful invasion' of the Pacific Coast States of the United States. And, regardless of the outcome of its recent resort to arms, that 'peaceful invasion' goal will, in time, be achieved, and the Pacific Coast will be lost to Japan unless the Japanese race has no offspring, and citizenship rights.

"In the coming (April) issue of this magazine would like to feature an article from you, setting forth your views on the citizenship claims of the Japanese. I am hopeful that you have advanced a solution of the Japanese menace, and therefore I am most anxious to present it to the people of California through the columns of this magazine, which for years has been calling attention to the menace.

In reply, Senator Stewart has given permission to publish the address. It is presented here in full, and directed to the attention of the attorney-general and the several district attorneys of California. The contention being correct, that the Constitution does not grant citizenship rights to Japs born in this country, it should be less difficult to recover from the Japs all the natural and urban, they have obtained through violation or evasion of the California Alien Land Law. Let's have action, NOW. Editor

United States but was refused admission by the collector of customs, whereupon habeas corpus was sued out. This was in 1897, 45 years ago. The Supreme Court turned to the common law and its principles and history, and interpreted the first clause of the fourteenth amendment in that light.

"The case is quite interesting in view of present-day developments. The opinion of the majority was written by Mr. Justice Gray. There was a dissenting opinion written by the then Chief Justice, Mr. Fuller, and concurred in by Justice Harlan. Justice McKenna, who had just come to the bench, did not participate—thus a six-judge opinion became the law.

"The majority opinion, in interpreting the exclusion clause of the fourteenth amendment—that is, 'subject to the jurisdiction thereof'—held it to mean only those born of alien enemies in hostile occupation and children of diplomatic representatives of a foreign state. This is a narrow construction, and one that should not obtain. As I have already stated, a Jap born on our soil is a subject of Japan under Japanese law; therefore, he owes allegiance to Japan, and, so owing allegiance to Japan, certainly he is not 'subject to the jurisdiction' of the United States under a proper construction and in the light of modern beliefs.

"I should like to quote briefly from the dissenting opinion in the Wong Kim Ark case. I think the reasoning there is much sounder than in the majority opinion and ought to be the law. At the beginning of the opinion, the Chief Justice states:

"I cannot concur in the opinion and judgment of the court in this case.

"The proposition is that a child born in this country of parents who were not citizens of the United States, and under the laws of their own country, and of the United States, could not become such as was the fact from the beginning of the Government in respect of the class of aliens to which the parents in this instance belonged—is, from the moment of his birth a citizen of the United States, by virtue of the first clause of the fourteenth amendment, any act of Congress to the contrary notwithstanding.

"The argument is, that although the Constitution prior to that amendment nowhere attempted to define the words 'citizens of the United States,' and 'natural-born citizens' as used therein, yet that it must be interpreted in the light of the English common law rule which made the place of birth the criterion of nationality—that that rule was in force in all the English colonies upon this continent down to the time of the Declaration of Independence, and in the United States afterwards, and continued to prevail under the Constitution as originally established; and that before the enactment of the Civil Rights Act of 1866 and the adoption of the constitutional amendment, all white persons, at least, born within the sovereignty of the United States, whether children of citizens or of foreigners, excepting only children of ambassadors or public ministers of a foreign government, were native-born citizens of the United States.

"Thus the fourteenth amendment is held to be merely declaratory except that it brings all persons, irrespective of color, within the scope of the alleged rule, and puts that rule beyond the control of the legislative power.

"If the conclusion of the majority opinion is correct, then the children of citizens of the United States, who have been born abroad since July 28, 1868, when the amendment was declared ratified, were, and are, aliens, unless they have, or shall, acquire majority before becoming citizens by naturalization in the United States; and no statutory provision to the contrary is of any force or effect. And children who are aliens by descent, but born on our soil, are exempted from the exercise of the power to exclude or to expel aliens, or any class of aliens, so often maintained by this court, an exemption apparently disregarded by the acts in respect of the exclusion of persons of Japanese birth or descent.

"The soundness of the dissenting opinion is repeatedly shown. Applying it, or at least parts of it, to conditions of today, it seems almost prophetic. Discussing the application of common-law principles in construing the first clause of the fourteenth amendment and as a reply to the majority opinion, I quote from the dissent:

"Obviously, where the Constitution deals with common-law rights and uses common-law phraseology, its language should be read in the light of the common law, but when the question arises as to what constitutes citizenship of the Nation, involving as it does international relations, and political as contradistinguished from civil status, international principles must be considered, and, unless the municipal law of England appears to have been affirmatively accepted, it cannot be allowed to control in the matter of construction.

"Nationality is essentially a political idea, and belongs to the sphere of public law. Hence Mr. Justice Story in Shanks v. Dupont (3 Pet. 242, 248), said that the incapacity of a person, even, at common law, 'do not reach their political rights, nor prevent their acquiring or losing a national character. Those political rights do not stand upon the mere doctrines of municipal law, applicable to ordinary transactions, but stand upon the more general principles of the law of nations.'"

"Twiss, in his work on the Law of Nations, says that—

"Natural allegiance, or the obligation of perpetual obedience to the government of a country, wherein a man may happen to have been born, which he cannot forfeit, or cancel, or vary by any change of time, or place, or circumstance in the law of nations, as it is in direct conflict with the incontestable rule of that law (vol. I, p. 231)."

"The dissenting opinion goes on to discuss the matter of natural-born citizens and points out that society cannot exist and perpetuate itself otherwise than by the children of the citizens. Here quoting from Vattel:

"Before the revolution, the views of the publicists had been thus put by Vattel: 'The natives, or natural-born citizens, are those born in the country, of parents who are citizens. As the society cannot exist, and perpetuate itself otherwise than by the children of the citizens, those children naturally follow the condition of their fathers, and succeed to all their rights. The society is supposed to desire this, in consequence of what it owes to its own preservation; and it is presumed, as matter of course, that each citizen on entering into society, reserves to his children the right of therefore that of the children; and these become true citizens merely by their tacit consent. We shall soon see whether, on their coming to the years of discretion, they may renounce their right, and what they owe to the society in which they were born. I say that, in order to be of the country, it is necessary that a person be born of a father, who is a citizen; for, if he is born thereof a foreigner, it will be only the place of his birth, and not his country' (book I, ch. 19, No. 212). 'The true bond which connects the child with the body politic is not the matter of an inanimate piece of land, but the moral relations of his parentage. The place of birth produces no change in the rule that children follow the condition of their fathers, for it is not naturally the place of birth that gives rights, but extrinsic.'"

"To the same effect are the modern writers, as, for instance, Bar, who says:

"To what nation a person belongs is by the laws of all nations closely dependent on descent; it is almost a universal rule that the citizenship of a person determines it—that of the father where children are lawful, and where they are bastards that of their mother, without regard to the place of their birth; and that must necessarily be recognized as the correct canon, since nationality is in its essence dependent on descent (International Law, No. 31)."

"Good sense, patriotism, public policy, even self-preservation demand that all persons who become citizens of the United States should first sever the ties, whatever they might be, that bind them to any other nation. Certainly the Japanese law which provides that all Japs are the Emperor's subjects is a tie to all Japanese. Concluding the dissenting opinion, Chief Justice Fuller states:

"It is not to be admitted that the children of persons so situated become citizens by the accident of birth. On the contrary, I am of opinion that the President and Senate by native government Congress by naturalization, have the power, notwithstanding the fourteenth amendment, to prescribe that all persons of a particular race, or their children, cannot become citizens, and that it results that the consent to allow such persons to come into and reside within our geographical limits does not carry with it the imposition of citizenship upon children born to them while in this country under such consent, in spite of treaty and statute.

"In other words, the fourteenth amendment does not exclude from citizenship by birth children born in the United States of parents permanently located therein and who might themselves become citizens; nor, on the other hand, does it arbitrarily make citizens of children born in the United States of parents who, according to the will of their native government and of this Government, are and must remain aliens."

"I am calling attention to this Wong Kim Ark case because it ought to be reversed or overruled. It is not good, sound law, and never was. No country should so fetter itself by laws that it cannot prosper and grow and be under the complete control of its actual, bona fide citizens who love it and cherish its institutions, and such full and complete control should be demanded and retained by them.

"The presence of Japanese in America is inimical to the interests of the people. We should oust them from our land, and now is the opportune time. They do not share the views of Americans; our social, political, and religious views are as different and as far apart as is the East from the West. In fact, this is a case of 'never the twain shall meet.' Their customs are not our customs, and ours can never be theirs. They retain allegiance to Japan, and we must deal with them accordingly."

Native Sons of the Golden West

SAN BERNARDINO—ARROWHEAD PAST Presidents Assembly No. 14 had a well-attended open meeting March 22 at which the Jap situation in California was discussed. District Attorney Jerome B. Kavanaugh told of conditions in San Bernardino County and cautioned that, unless measures are approved to prevent them from doing so, the Japs will resume their activities here after the war. The following was adopted:

"Being convinced that all Japanese are subjects and servants of Japan, and are inherently deceitful and treacherous; and believing that a vast majority of the people of California are opposed to the employment of Japanese in any department of the State Government; and being informed by the state press that the heads of the Motor Vehicle, the Public Works, the Employment and the Institutions Departments of the State Government have declined to discharge the several hundred Japanese employed in those departments, 'unless such action is requested by Governor Culbert L. Olson';

"Resolved, That Arrowhead Past Presidents Assembly No. 14, Native Sons of the Golden West, in session at San Bernardino, March 22, 1942, respectfully petitions the Hon. Culbert L. Olson, Governor of the State of California, to instruct the heads of all departments of the State Government that have not already done so, to immediately discharge as employees of their departments all Japanese; and further resolved, that copies of this petition be sent without delay to Governor Culbert L. Olson and to the heads of those departments of the State Government specifically referred to herein."

Another adopted resolution says that the Assembly "approves of the State Board of Equalization discharging all Japanese in its employ, and commends and applauds the members of the Board for their prompt and fearless action." It also provides that a copy of the resolution "be Previous to the meeting a fine dinner was served, and entertainment was presented. The committee in charge of the occasion included Judge Donald E. VanLuven, chairman, Elmer Hoen and Avery Anderson. The next meeting of the Assembly will be held May 3 at Los Angeles, and Governor Dr. Robert L. White directed John O'B. Bodkin to make the arrangements.

Fifty-Year Pins Presented.

Sutter Creek—Amador No. 17 and Amapola No. 80 N.D. had their annual dinner March 7 and more than a hundred members of the Orders were in attendance. Daffodils, jonquils and acacia were used in the attractive decorative scheme. After the feast the Flora Dora girls of Amapola entertained.

On behalf of Amador, Grand Secretary John T. Regan presented fifty-year membership pins to Past Grand Clarence E. Jarvis, William Lane, Joseph Garibaldi, Humphrey Jones and Clarence Culbert. Past Grand Jarvis responded for the recipients, and other speakers were Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Trustee Richard F. McCarthy, Junior Past Grand Henry S. Lyon, Past Grand Hilliard E. Welch, Supervising Deputy Ellsworth Williard and Secretary Harold Duden of Placerville No. 9. Past Grand Gladys E. Noce extended the greetings of the Native Daughters.

The joint arrangements committee included Joe Lawrence, Mario Raffetto, Johnny Davide, Ethel Daneri, Lucetta Buzza, Julia Ferreccio, Adelle Tallia and Electra Trelease. Edith Murphy had charge of the decorations.

Twenty-three Initiated.

Lower Lake—Twenty-three candidates were initiated at the March 19 meeting of Lower Lake No. 159, twenty-two of them for that Parlor and one for Calistoga No. 86. The candidates were from Lower Lake, Kelseyville, Lakeport and Middletown. The ritual was exemplified by:

Superior Judge Benjamin Jones was toast master at a banquet served after the meeting and among the speakers were Grand President Schnarr and Grand Trustee Tinney, visiting grand officer for No. 159. The Grand President was assured that during April twenty-five additional candidates will be initiated, which indicates all of Lake County is deeply interested in the approaching Grand Parlor session.

Monthly Joint Meetings.

Sacramento—Believing a better opportunity will be provided to discuss jointly local problems and therefore prove of benefit to both Parlors Sacramento No. 3 and Sunset No. 26 have arranged to hold joint meetings the second Thursday and the fourth Monday of each month.

The first was held March 12, with President Philip C. Wilkins of Sacramento presiding. There was a large attendance, including many of the local oldtimers and several visitors, among the latter being a delegation from Stockton No. 7, who came to honor John McGinnis, a member of that Parlor residing in Sacramento.

Among the speakers were Larry Barrett of Placerville No. 9, President Oliver Pelligrini of Stockton, Guy C. Foulks of Elk Grove No. 41, President Nick Culjis of Sunset, Mayor Thomas B. Monk, Assemblyman Ed Cain, Grand Outside Sentinel Larry W. Marvin, District Deputy Clarence Casey, Chairman Archibald McDougall of the local public speaking contest committee Frank Lafferty, John J. Monteverde Senior, Thomas W. McAuliffe and John McGinnis.

Classy entertainment from San Francisco was presented, plentiful refreshments were provided, and the Kelly brothers of No. 3, James, Parke and William, danced Irish jigs.

A birthday cake centered the table at which refreshments were served after the meeting. Arrangements for the anniversary observance were made by the following committee: Carl Schroeder, chairman, Bill Merker, Herbert Witt and A. E. Selvidge.

Twenty-eighth History Essay Contest.

Elk Grove—The twenty-eighth annual California history essay contest for students of the Elk Grove Union High School sponsored by Elk Grove No. 41 was held February 27. Grand Trustee Walter N. Bailey was master of ceremonies, and the judges were Miss Ruth Gerrish, Mrs. Howard Straub Wackman, Dan H. Reese, Raymond Russel and Roy Butler.

Bill Waddams, who spoke on "The Roaring Furnace," was declared the winner. To him Miss June Barnby, the winner of last year's contest, presented the plaque that contains the names of all the winners, including his own, and on the Parlor's behalf Grand Trustee Bailey presented him a gold award. Waddams' subject not being one of those chosen by the Grand Parlor Public Speaking Committee, the runnerup, Bob Schrieve, whose subject was "The Vigilance Committee of 1851," represented the school at the Sacramento County finals.

Other contestants, and their subjects, were: Mary Sickich, "Father Junipero Serra;" Lillian Avilla, "Flags Over California;" Ruth Barnes, "I Am Destruction;" Alice Yoshida, "The Resurrection;" Alexander Lindsay, "California Under Twelve Flags;" Arleen O'Brien, "Where Is the Other Half of Half Dome?" The students were instructed by John Reynolds.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

SACRAMENTO—ONE OF THE MOST OUTSTANDING projects sponsored by the Native Daughters and the Native Sons of the City and County of Sacramento is the pioneer Camellia Grove in State Capitol Park. The grove, planned by Genevieve Didion of La Bandera No. 110, Grand Parlor civic chairman for District No. 15, became a reality March 8, when fifty-four camellia trees—said to be one of the finest collections in existence—were planted, and dedicated to the memory of the early builders of this community. The trees were donated by Native Sons and Native Daughters Parlors and early day families. Mrs. Didion, who is untiring in her efforts to honor the builders of California, is preparing a history of the grove which will be presented State Librarian Mabel Gillis for filing.

Guy G. Foulks of Elk Grove No. 41 N.S. introduced as chairman of the occasion Mrs. Didion. Past Grand Edna B. Briggs pronounced an invocation, the colors were presented by the R.O.T.C. of C. K. McClatchy High School, and the salute to the Flag of the United States of America was led by Walter Bailey, Grand Trustee N.S. The DeMolay band favored with selections, and Ruth Lehne and Clifford Mott were the vocal soloists. The grove was presented the state by Mrs. Didion, and was accepted by Frank N. Killam, superintendent of buildings and grounds. Addresses were delivered also by Clarice E. Cook, Grand President N.D., and Edward T. Schnarr, Grand President N.S.

Poppies Produce Dollars for Kiddies.

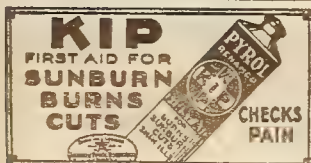

Fresno—Fresno No. 187 and Fresno No. 25 N.S. had their annual Poppy Day March 7, and 10,000 poppies, made by the Native Daughters, were sold on the downtown streets by sixty schoolchildren. As a result, a check for $500 was mailed the Central Committee to aid in the work of placing in desirable homes unfortunate children deprived of natural parents.

Poppy Day, originated by the Fresno Parlors in 1910, has been observed annually here since that time. In 1924 the N.D. Grand Parlor passed a resolution making the movement statewide. Rex Walgren, chairman of the joint Poppy Day committee, was assisted by Doris Gleim, Ella Smith, Harriet Boust, Maude Crosby, Edna Fitzsimmons, Ella Donnohue, Daisy Agnew, Mary

JOSEPH R. KNOWLAND OF OAKLAND, Past Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West and publisher of the Oakland Tribune, was the speaker at the N.S.G.W. Friday Luncheon Club March 20, and he was greeted by a large assemblage. "Preserving California History" was his subject, and in the course of his delightful address he said:

"Preservation of historic landmarks inspires patriotism, and that is what we need now, more than ever before in the history of our country. . . . I'm proud to belong to an Order which has helped preserve California history for more than forty years, and I hope the younger men of the state will continue the work we have begun. The surface has hardly been scratched." Knowland, author of "California, a Landmark History," particularly referred to the Franciscan missions, the old Custom House at Monterey, the Marshall monument in El Dorado County and Olvera street in Los Angeles.

The speaker was introduced by Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer. Credit for the success of the occasion belongs to Hervey L. Kitchen, secretary of the Club. Among the out-towners present were Superior Judge Louis C. Drapeau, District Attorney M. Arthur Waite and Clerk L. E. Halliwell of Ventura County, and Grand First Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove of San Francisco.

April 3, Captain Ed Duran Ayres will address the Club. His subject will be "Japanese Fishermen Still a Menace."

RECORD ESTABLISHED.

Native Daughters and Native Sons day at Victory House in Pershing Square, March 7, was a grand success. United States defense bonds and stamps to the amount of approximately $25,000 were sold, establishing a record. Among the bond subscriptions was one of $5,000 from the Grand Parlor N.D.G.W.

A large crowd thoroughly enjoyed the fine program, which was outlined in The Grizzly Bear for March. Miss Grace S. Stoermer, Past Grand President N.D.G.W., presided.

STIRRING MESSAGE.

Some 200 Native Daughters greeted Grand President Clarice E. Cook when she officially visited Los Angeles No. 124, East Los Angeles No. 266 and La Reina No. 267 Parlors in joint session March 25. Among the number were Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Grand Marshal Mary Noerenberg, Past Grand Presidents Grace Stoermer and Ann Thuesen, Supervising Deputies Emily Ryan and Eugenia Smith, Deputies Marcelle Palethorpe, Kate Glavenic and Ann Schiebush, Chairman Ethel Enos of the Grand Parlor Junior Units Committee, and representatives of all surrounding Parlors. Eight Juniors escorted the grand officers to their stations.

The meetingplace was beautified with quantities of pink, blue and white stock. La Reina, Wynne Vis president, conducted the opening ceremonies; East Los Angeles, Lorraine Selby president, exemplified the ritual for the benefit of six candidates, two from each of the hostess-Parlors, and Los Angeles, Elsie Amidon president, conducted the business session and the closing ceremonies.

Grand President Cook brought a stirring message on "Conservation," and concluded her remarks with: "By doing the job well, Native Daughters will be conserving not only natural resources, but themselves." Edna Neikirk spoke of the Annie L. Adair Scholarship Fund, a Grand Parlor project, and on behalf of Los Angeles Parlor handed the Grand President $50 for the fund. The grand officers were generous with their praise for the three Parlors, and all paid tribute to Past Grand President Stoermer for her untiring efforts in the Order's behalf. Previous to the meeting dinner was enjoyed at the Women's Athletic Club.—E.V.S.

TO PRESENT FIFTY-YEAR PIN.

To honor those members who join the armed forces of the nation, Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. has a service flag. March 12 was past presidents night. Grand Organist Roger M. Johnson presided, and among the speakers were Owen Adams, Michael Botello, Walter Fisher and Robert Pesqueria. Several eligibles attended the March 19 open meeting, when a program was presented under the supervision of William Girard, and refreshments were served.

The Parlor's April calendar includes: 9th, presentation fifty-year pin to Phil Alexander. 16th, open meeting, with President George Walker in charge. 23rd, visit to Glendale Parlor No. 264. Los Angeles has invested $500 in United States defense bonds.

DISAPPEARING PARTIES SUCCESSES.

East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W. had another disappearing party February 28, with Mary and Francis Konios and Edna Restovich as the hostesses. It was held at the charming Konios home. These parties are not only social and financial successes but, what is most important, they afford an opportunity for the sisters to become acquainted with the members' families.

Defense Chairmen Violet Agajanian and Melissa Wright are members of the Red Cross motor corps, and several members have volunteered for aircraft warning service. Hortense Hill, Mary Manning and Margaret Bobbington are among those doing their bit for defense.

THE EVENT OF THE YEAR.

The March 10 luncheon program of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W., in the hands of Viola Vejar, was made unusually interesting by a review of "Two Years Before the Mast" by Father Joseph Thompson. Marybelle Chapman added to the pleasure of the occasion with delightful songs. The Gertrude Sewing Circle, Evelyn Dotey chairman, met March 2, with Flora Jacobson and committee as hostesses, and turned out a good assortment of finished articles in appreciation of the fine luncheon served.

The event of the year most eagerly anticipated by all Parlors—the visit of the Grand President—was enjoyed by Californiana March 24, and President Ethel Fuller Smith and assisting committees were gratified with a notable attendance to welcome Grand President Clarice E. Cook and enjoy her stimulating address.

The meetingrooms were beautifully decorated with large baskets of vari-colored flowers. At the conclusion of the meeting, during which the ritual was exemplified, a delightful tea was served at beautifully appointed tables. Among those present were Past Grand Presidents Grace Stoermer, Anne Thuesen and Hazel Hansen, Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Grand Marshal Mary Noerenberg, Supervising Deputies Emily Ryan

WOULD SIMPLIFY PROCEDURE.

Long Beach—At its March 4 meeting Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. elected Havelock Fraser recording secretary. Clarence S. Hunt conducted the good of the order, and there were talks by Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar, President John M. Johnston, Chester French, Walter Hopcraft, Deputy Grand President Clarence M. Hunt, Paul Traynor, Walter M. Smith, District Deputy William Blaha and others. A 6:30 dinner session is now being held prior to each meeting of the Parlor.

Willard Buchanan and William Reuter of Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 (San Pedro) were visitors March 17, and discussed with members of Long Beach the procedure now necessary for a California-born citizen of the United States to obtain a birth certificate. As a result, Clarence S. Hunt introduced a resolution asking the State Legislature to simplify the procedure.

"KEEP THE BALL ROLLING."

Santa Monica—The officers of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W., with Ysidro Reyes as president, gave a fine rendition of the ritual March 17 and three new names were added to the membership-roll.

Grand Trustee Walter Odemar stressed the necessity for members not in active war service to "keep the ball rolling" during these trying times. Past Grand President Eldred Meyer called the initiates' attention to the patriotic air of the Order. District Deputy William Blab emphasized the value of the Red Cross "blood bank," and District Deputy Albert Seaman outlined the work being done in civil defense by members of No. 267.

"CLARICE"—"VICTORY."

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 15 Compton Parlor No. 258 and Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 (San Pedro) N.D.G.W. joined forces here March 26 for the official visit of Grand President Clarice E. Cook. The evening festivities began with a formal dinner at which visiting members of the official family and candidates for initiation were guests.

The meetingroom was decorated with baskets of spring flowers. The officers of Compton conducted the opening ceremonies, also the escort, the grand officers and Supervising Deputy Edgenia Smith, and Deputies Ann Schiebush, Betty Saunders and Lucy Ascoles. In accompanying the Grand President to her station the team used cards, one side of which spelled "Clarice" and the other "Victory;" the drill was very effective. The officers of Long Beach exemplified the ritual and the closing ceremonies were conducted by the officers of Rudecinda. Refreshments, prepared by a joint committee, were served at the meeting's close.

The California Thimble Club, an auxiliary of Long Beach Parlor, is sewing and knitting for the Red Cross. Recent gatherings have been at the homes of Lois Watson, Clara Fay and President Eleanor Starr.—J.R.

In Memoriam

LENORA C. STANTON.

To the Officers and Members of El Dorado Parlor No. 186 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to perform the last duty it is in the power of a Parlor to perform for a Sister, that of drafting resolutions of respect and esteem to her memory, respectfully submit the following:

We have the passing of Sister Stanton to the passing of a fragrant flower which, even in fading, leaves a pleasing fragrance permeating all by which it may be surrounded. Quiet, unassuming, never officious, ever ready with a pleasant smile and cheery word to extend a helping hand wherever she felt she might do good. Such was our recollection of the character of the lady, well known by we older members, whom we called Sister.

"To her the days are ended
Of earthly woes and ills,
She has passed to the morning sunshine
That dwells on the Heavenly Hills."

We ask that a copy of this memorial be sent to her family, that a copy be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor, and a copy be sent The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE

ONLY OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE NATIVE SONS AND NATIVE DAUGHTERS OF THE GOLDEN WEST

WELCOME, MILLERTON LAKE

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

COMPETENT FEDERAL AUTHORITY has recently decreed that the body of water to be formed by the Friant Dam in Fresno County shall be known officially as Millerton Lake. The application of this name by the United States Government followed a request submitted by the Board of Grand Officers of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. At the last session of the Grand Parlor a resolution was introduced, the first preamble of which stated that the water to be impounded by Friant Dam would forever cover the sites of Millerton and Fort Miller, two historic landmarks in Fresno County, and the second cited the interest of the Native Sons of the Golden West in the preservation of places of historic interest. The resolution also called on the Board of Grand Officers to take up with the Federal Government the possibility of naming the body of water Lake Millerton. It was amended to further provide: "that a copy of this resolution, with historical data furnished by Grand Historian Conmy, be forwarded to our representatives in Congress, and to such other national and state officials as may to our officers seem appropriate in the premises." As amended, the resolution was adopted without dissenting vote.

The Grand Historian reported to the Board of Grand Officers June 7, 1941, and his report, together with the resolution, was ordered sent to all members of Congress from California and also to State Engineer Hyatt. Impressed with the historical justice of the request, the members of Congress took the matter up with the proper authorities, and now the people of California await the construction of Millerton Lake. For this reason, it seems proper at this time to present some of the historical facts concerning Millerton. Before proceeding with that it should be noted that the request of the Grand Parlor was that the body of water be called Lake Millerton. Government authorities, however, [as announced in The Grizzly Bear for January 1942] while acquiescing in the demand of the Order for a perpetuation of the name Millerton, decided that Millerton Lake would be more suitable than Lake Millerton, for the reason that information can more easily be catalogued under the letter "M" than under the letter "L."

Gold, discovered at Coloma, El Dorado County, January 24, 1848, attracted thousands to California. The entire Mother Lode, that is, the foothill area now known as Placer, El Dorado, Amador, Calaveras, Tuolumne and Mariposa Counties, was searched within a few months of Marshall's great discovery. The quest for the precious metal extended far beyond the confines of the lode. To both north and south prospectors bent their weary steps. The foothills of what is now Madera County were visited, and at length, in 1850, gold was found at a point on the San Joaquin River in the present County of Fresno. This point was about twenty-five miles northeast of the present City of Fresno. Here, as elsewhere in California where the precious metal had been found, a mining camp sprang up which was known as Rootville.

The coming of the American miners to the southern San Joaquin was both resented and taken advantage of by the Indians of that vicinity. White people were attacked, and either murdered or robbed. For this reason it was necessary to establish a center of protection. Just as Fort Tejon was constructed near Bakersfield, the Federal Government established in 1851 Camp Barbour in the foothill region of Fresno County. A year later another such garrison was established about a half-mile from Rootville. The officer in charge of these posts was Major Albert S. Miller. He commanded a company of dragoons and was assigned to guard and patrol the main crossing of the San Joaquin River, which was where Fort Miller was built. The fort, as will be evident, took its name from Major Miller. In time his name also became the title of the nearby town of Rootville, which became known as Millerton.

Fort Miller was abandoned September 10, 1856, but was reopened during the Civil War. Its second existence as an army post was short-lived, because no hostilities broke out in California and, after one year's use, it was permanently abandoned in 1864. Since then it has been but a landmark. Most of the buildings of Fort Miller are, however, still standing. The first school in Fresno County was taught in the old hospital building of the fort.

April 19, 1856, the State Legislature created the County of Fresno and made Millerton the county seat. The population of the place was never large. However, a newspaper was established in 1856, and there were one hundred thirteen children enrolled in its school in 1870. Millerton's importance came from being located upon the south bank of the San Joaquin River, in the foothills, near the Mother Lode region. Furthermore, the famous Stockton Road crossed the river at Millerton, and for that reason it was at times popularly known as the Millerton Road. In the absence of any geographical name, Major Miller and his troops were assigned to the crossing of the San Joaquin, which was at Millerton. The Stockton Road was itself of historical importance because it was at that time the only valley road from Los Angeles to the northern part of the state. The road ran along the east bank of the San Joaquin, following at times the foothills until Millerton was reached. Then it crossed to the west bank and continued on to Stockton.

In 1862 part of the Town of Millerton was washed away by floods. In 1870 most of what was left was destroyed by fire. After that the town was never rebuilt, and the inhabitants began to remove to Fresno. In 1874 Fresno became the county seat, and since then Millerton has become more and more a ghost town.

Millerton was a typical California mining town. The soldiers from nearby Fort Miller spent their free hours there. There was much gambling, drinking and carousing, and from time to time there were bandits. Indeed, after the killing of the celebrated Joaquin Murietta his captors rode into Millerton and displayed his head to the gazing people. The newspaper established there in 1863 was owned by Samuel J. Garrison, a Confederate sympathizer. It was known as the Fresno Times.

The Central Pacific Railroad was built through the San Joaquin Valley in 1874, but the engineers did not include Millerton on the route mapped. For this reason a new locality, Fresno, was born. In the sixty-eight years that have elapsed the wisdom of making this new city the county seat has been demonstrated in a number of ways. Fresno has become a great city. But no history of Fresno County can be written without devoting space to the colorful days of the

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

Being muchly concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION NOW by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated; further resoluting and speechmaking will accomplish nothing:

Dispossess the Japs of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title.

Challenge the citizenship of every Jap—his right to exercise in these United States the voting privilege.

Close every Jap-language school, and be certain that it is kept closed.

Fresno Parlor No. 25 N.S.G.W. of Fresno has placed markers upon a number of the old buildings at Millerton and Fort Miller, and now those places are to be submerged the Order pleased to have the Federal Government perpetuate the old name in Millerton Lake. It expected that the Order will, in time, place plaque there.

Horses we've ridden and boats we've sailed
In the days of long ago;
But the craft you guide as today you ride
Is one that I would not know.

And I stand bereft in my lowly place,
And gaze with a misty eye,
To watch if you, in your ship of blue,
Might glide thru the arch of sky.

For Life that has given us trails to ride,
And boats to steer o'er the foam,
Has chartered your way thru the clouds today
While I must be left at home.

JAPS MUST BE DEFEATED FIRST.

Dr. David P. Barrows, professor of political science at the University of California at Berkeley and a noted soldier, said in the March issue of the California Monthly, alumni magazine:

"I am one of those who, rightly or wrongly, am convinced that Japan must be defeated first. In fact, I think she cannot be defeated through the defeat of Hitler. The defeat of Japan is easier, much easier, than the defeat of Nazi Germany, and it is a sound principle of warfare to strike hardest and first against the weaker force."

"IT MIGHT BE WELL for us to remember when we think of Lincoln that his life indicates clearly that when God wants a leader for people, whether such leader is a statesman, poet, a prophet, or a savior, He finds such leader among those who have known poverty and hardship—who have traveled the road of loneliness."—Alexander Wiley, United States Senator

FORBIDDEN TERRITORY.

The United States Army March 3 took over control of approximately 250,000 square miles of the western United States. All Japs, alien and American-born,—admittedly 120,000 of them—must leave the area.

The forbidden territory, now known as Military Zone No. 1, includes two-thirds of California, two-fifths of Oregon, two-thirds of Washington and one-third of Arizona.

"KEEP AMERICA STEADFAST in her reliance upon Thee, O Lord, who art the unfailing light amidst the world's darkness, and in whose keeping are the imperishable treasures in a day when, because of the folly of evildoers, so much beauty and strength have become a residue of ruin and destruction."—Rev. Jacob S. Payton D.D.

"WE HAVE FAR MORE TO DO than simply defense. We have set our hands to the plow. We must turn the weeds in this earth and we must prepare the soil where a lasting peace can grow."—Herbert Hoover, former President of the United States.

California's pine and redwood forests yielded approximately two and one-quarter billion feet of lumber in 1941, to establish an all-time record for sawmill production in the state.

Orange County agriculture smashed all record during 1941 with a total gross income of $45,000,000.

LET US HAVE FAITH IN THE NATIVE SONS OF THE GOLDEN WEST

Edward T. Schnarr
(GRAND PRESIDENT N. S. G. W.)

I AM WRITING THIS AS THE HAPPIEST and the busiest year of my life draws to a conclusion—my year as Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. I believe I can say it has been a year of progress, for which I wish to thank those loyal Americans we know as Native Sons. "Our fraternity has had a glorious past. The thousand little ones placed in good American homes by the Native Sons and Native Daughters Central Committee on Homeless Children substantiate this statement. The numerous historic spots in California which have been preserved and marked by our Order substantiate this statement. The work of the forty-nine Native Sons Story Fellows (I refer to the article in the February Grizzly Bear), substantiates my statement. Our public speaking contests and any other activities bear witness to my statement.

"But, what of the future?"

"I am writing this with the words of the youngsters who competed in the northern California finals of our public speaking contest ringing in my ears. They are the leaders of tomorrow; they are the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of tomorrow.

"I have faith in the future!"

"Today we are engaged in a great world war. The security of our beloved America the American way of living that we hold dear—is at stake. What the future holds for our country depends upon how we have built in the past, the foundation is firm, that which we cherish cannot be destroyed in a minute, a day, a year or a decade. Those who have gone before us, many who have passed beyond the touch of our hands, have handed us a torch. It represents the accumulated effort of Americans since 1875. It has burned, come good weather or foul, for sixty-seven years. It has burned for sixty-seven years which represent the formative years of our great State. It has burned because the principles it has stood for are true; because the foundation of our Order is firm.

"Fortunately, each generation receives from those who have gone before a great mass tradition which plays an important part in our existence. The traditions of the Native Sons of the Golden West are patriotic ones. The Order was founded on patriotism by pioneers, a fitting injunction. These '49ers and their followers were more than miners or adventurers. They were the builders of a great state. General Albert M. Winn was a '49er, one of the great builders, and a unique man because he had two visions. The records show his part in the building of California. The Order of Native Sons of the Golden West is evidence of a foresight. It seems strange that from a beginning so insecure, such as the participation in the Fourth of July parade, a sturdy organization like the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West should grow. It seems strange that the growth of the Order, year by year, has been steady, ample and progressive.

"This isn't a riddle; the answer is obvious. Previously, I stated that I have faith in the future; the reason is obvious. The answer is a yes, I want to tell you about.

"His father was a pioneer. Perhaps his father did not come across the plains in 1849; his father may have come from Italy, France, England or Norway less than fifty years ago. But he came because he saw, with those men one hundred years ago, a better, brighter land to the west. Probably the Man I am writing about is part German, part English and part Irish. One of his ancestors may have fought in the Revolutionary War, while another came through Ellis Island in very recent years. But they all, no matter when they came, left their prejudices and Old World cults and manners behind. They had the spirit of the pioneers, the open heart and mind.

"The Man I am telling about was born in a place where the sun was bright and golden. His father soon told him it was the most glorious spot on God's green earth. Perhaps he knew at be done—seeds to be sown, trees loaded with fruit, vines heavy with grapes, ships to be built—and every one had equal opportunity. Maybe he became a lawyer, a doctor or an engineer. He knew from experience the advantages of a great public school system, and at the top great universities, where he received training unsurpassed in the whole, whole world.

"He found he had the right to voice his own opinions. He might even disagree with his father, much as he admired him, and he might even call him old-fashioned because he always registered as a Republican or a Democrat. But he respected the opinions of his grandfather and his neighbor, and with them he freely exchanged ideas about current problems. And when he went to meetings, which he did once a week, he got on his feet and expressed himself of the things that came to mind, without fear that there would be dire consequences therefrom. Sometimes he got angry because the other fellow did not see the way he saw and then he thought, 'I voted against Jones at last election, and he has turned out to be a swell Supervisor.'

"Then he saw a girl. She was pretty, at least he thought so, and he fell in love. She was Irish and he was from the south of Europe; or maybe she lived in the wrong part of town, or their parents ran around in different sets; but these things weren't obstacles. They might even go to different churches, but they worshipped the same God, they stood for the same principles and they spoke the same language.

"They saved, he and this pretty girl, and one day they built a house. They went into debt, of course, but they did so voluntarily. They planned the whole thing themselves and they abided by the restrictions in their real estate subdivision. But this house was their castle, protected against intrusion by their Constitution.

"One day he waited in a hospital until at last the smiling nurse walked by and he looked into the face of a little boy. First to congratulate him was a rich man's son, who was waiting too. Their wives had had the same facilities, the same protection in their hour of need. Such is America.

"Then came the war. A brother in his fraternity came around one night and said they were organizing Civilian Defense. Would he participate? Would he? Would he protect all these rights he knew, would he protect that still pretty girl, would he protect his boy, his home? He responded with almost twenty thousand of his fellowcitizens to whom the appeal had been made.

"The Man I have been telling you about is a typical member of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West.

"I have faith in the future of our Order because I have faith in its members, faith in its leadership, faith in the youth of today who will be the 'eligibles' of tomorrow. The Old West is gone, but not the spirit that won for us this heritage, for that is the spirit of the Native Sons of the Golden West. That is our torch. We have held it high. We will hold it high!"

"LET US REPEL, as we would repel a rattlesnake, any proposed substitute of doctrine from abroad for our democratic system, our equal way of living."—Golden W. Bell.

"Lord of the far horizons, give us the eyes to see over the verge of sundown the beauty that is to be. Give us the skill to fashion the task of Thy command, eager to follow the pattern we may not understand."—Ex.

EDWARD T. SCHNARR of Oakland

still the turmoil of the great city, or the damp smell of broken sod. But wherever he was he knew the meaning of rolling valleys and the beauty of snow-capped hills and mountains. And early he knew, for his proud pioneer father told him, the story of this golden land. He heard how the pioneers came and he was just as proud of that parent who came in steerage to the land of opportunity as he was of the grandfather who came by covered wagon.

"He soon found out for himself that this was the land of opportunity. Here he got rewarded in full measure for his labor. There was work to

JAPS NOT CITIZENS OF THE U. S. AND NEVER CAN BE

SENATOR JOHN E. RANKIN

WE ARE GOING TO HAVE TO RUN the Japanese out of Hawaii or they are going to run us out. The sooner the American people understand that fact the better off we are going to be.

"I know the Hawaiian Islands. I know the Pacific coast where these Japanese reside. Even though they may be the third or fourth generation of Japanese, we cannot trust them. I know that those areas are teeming with Japanese spies and fifth columnists. Once a Jap always a Jap. You cannot change him. You cannot make a silk purse out of a sow's ear. . . .

"When I went to Hawaii in 1937 on a committee to investigate the proposition of statehood for Hawaii, we found the Japanese were one hundred percent for it. They wanted a state they could control. They knew they had the balance of power in Hawaii. . . . We found that the elective officers in Hawaii were all afraid of these Japanese because of their political power. They constituted about forty percent of the voting strength of the Hawaiian Islands. In our investigation I drew out and exposed the dual citizenship, under which, while claiming protection of the American flag, the Hawaiian-born Japanese admitted allegiance to the Japanese Empire.

"Some of them who had voted in our elections the year before were then being drafted into the Japanese army and navy. Some were volunteering. We found throughout Hawaii, Shinto temples where these Japanese worshiped the Emperor of Japan. Some of those temples exist in California, Oregon, Washington, and probably Alaska. When we came back I refused to sign the report recommending statehood for Hawaii. . . .

"This is a race war, as far as the Pacific side of this conflict is concerned, and we might as well understand it. The white man's civilization has come into conflict with Japanese barbarism. Christianity has come in conflict with Shintoism, atheism, and infidelity. One of them must be destroyed. You cannot regenerate a Jap; convert him, change him, and make him the same as a white man any more than you can reverse the laws of nature, or, as the Bible says: 'Bind the sweet influences of Pleiades or loose the bands of Orion.'

"This is a question we have to settle now, and we might as well understand it. I am for catching every Japanese in America, Alaska, and Hawaii now and putting him in concentration camps and shipping them back to Asia as soon as possible. If they own property in this country, after the war we can pay them for it, but we must ship them back to the Orient, where they belong. Until that is done, we will never have peace safety in Hawaii, Alaska, Oregon, Washington, or California. . . .

"This is not a new proposition with me. I agreed with Richmond P. Hobson when he called the Japs 'the yellow peril' more than 25 years ago. Right after the World War, if you remember, the Japanese sneaked into Mexico and tried to secure a naval base in Magdalena Bay in Lower California. I have seen the very spot where they tried to establish that base, and would have done so if we had not blocked them.

"We are at war. We are at war with Japan, the most ruthless and damnable enemy that ever insulted this country, and I am in favor of treating it as war and stopping all this interracial nonsense by which we have been petting the Japanese for the last quarter of a century. . . .

"Do not forget that once a Japanese always a Japanese. I say it is of vital importance that we get rid of every Japanese whether in Hawaii or on the mainland. They violate every sacred promise, every canon of honor and decency. This was evidenced in their diplomacy and in their bombing of Hawaii. These Japs who had been there for generations were making signs, if you please, guiding the Japanese planes to the objects of their iniquity in order that they might destroy our naval vessels, murder our soldiers and sailors, and blow to pieces the helpless women and children of Hawaii. Damn them! Let us get rid of them now!" . . .

Senator Rankin called attention to the following New York press dispatch of February 22: The American Civil Liberties Union today protested as "unprecedented and founded on no specific evidence of need," an executive order establishing military areas from which citizens or aliens may be removed. Continuing, he said:

The editor of The Grizzly Bear April 13 wrote Hon. John E. Rankin, member of the Senate of the United States of America Congress from Mississippi, as follows:

"Have read with interest your address in the United States Senate on 'Internment of Japanese.' Particularly interested in your statement: 'They (Japanese) are not citizens of the United States under the Fourteenth Amendment.' So, would like to have from you a story setting forth your views and outlining your reasons for arriving at the opinion expressed in your address."

Replying, Senator Rankin sent copies of addresses delivered by him in the Senate, and portions of them are here presented. In an accompanying letter he says: "This is one of the gravest questions that ever confronted this nation, and I believe that at least 90 percent of the American people agree with my views."—Editor.

"This Civil Liberties Union has long been regarded by many as a communistic and un-American organization. Recently the head of this Civil Liberties Union is quoted as having stated that 'the unhappy people of Japan are our brothers.'

"Well, so far as I am concerned, I am ready to become 'our brothers' keeper' for the duration of this emergency by putting them every one in concentration camps until the war is over, then shipping them back to Asia and never permitting another one to come to this country to live. . . .

"As for such action being unprecedented, let me remind these newcomers to our shores that Andrew Jackson was accused of acting without precedent on a similar occasion more than a hundred years ago, when he moved certain Indian tribes in order to avoid further trouble. We should follow Andrew Jackson's example now.

"Japanese fifth columnists have been stirring race trouble in this country for a long time. I am told that they have been so successful among the Negroes in Harlem, New York, that the city authorities have lost control and have called upon the State of New York to help maintain law and order. They are working through such organizations as this Civil Liberties Union and associations for the advancement of the colored races. . . .

"A news item from Tokyo on November 29, 1941, under the heading 'Japs see United States color problem,' we find the following striking statement from Yoshichi Nagatani, who is referred to by the Japanese press as a 'prominent business man and expert on America,' in which he is quoted as saying: 'When it becomes plain that America is going on the rocks, 20,000,000 Negroes, 10,000,000 Americans with Axis antecedents, 10,000,000 unemployed, and 5,000,000 members of labor unions, and numerous Communists will rise in revolt and create chaos.' . . .

"Remember this statement was published just eight days before the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. I do not know who led this Japanese spy to believe that all the American Negroes could be deluded into such a trap. If these agitators will let the Negroes alone, we will have

DO WE?

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

Being much concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION TODAY by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated; further resoluting and speechmaking will accomplish nothing:

no trouble with them. The white people of the South who have always been the Negroes' best friends, and who know the Negro problem, will have no trouble with the colored race if these fifth columnists and the flannel-mouthed agitators throughout the country will let them alone. . . .

"It is being argued in some quarters that we do not have the constitutional right to handle the Japanese who are born in this country. They take the position that these Japanese are American citizens and entitled to the same rights as are the descendants of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. I most emphatically deny that assertion. These Japanese are no citizens of the United States and never can be. The clause of the Constitution upon which this argument relies reads as follows: 'All person born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizen of the United States and of the State wherein they reside.'

"My contention is that these Japanese do not come within that provision of the Constitution. Their parents could not become citizens of the United States under our laws, but remained citizens of Japan. Legally they were mere visitors to our shores, and when their children were born they became citizens of Japan; and being citizens of Japan their children also took that same status. While born in the United States they did not become citizens because they were not subject to the jurisdiction thereof, but were subjects of Japan. I know that a different position was once taken by the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of United States v. Wong Kim Ark (169 U. S. Reports, p. 649) in the face of a powerful dissenting opinion by Chief Justice Fuller. I believe that Judge Fuller was entirely correct in his dissenting opinion and that if this matter were put before the Supreme Court today the decision of the Court at that time would be reversed, and Chief Justice Fuller's position would be sustained. I know the American people would sustain him. . . .

"It is my contention that since these Japanese could not become citizens of this country but remain citizens of Japan, their legal status was that of visitors to our shores and their children became subjects of Japan and not citizens of the United States, and that their children's children assumed the same status.

"The truth of the business is that these facts have been recognized by Japan from the beginning, and by these Japanese themselves. When these children are born their names are registered with the Japanese consul, who sends them in to Tokyo where they are registered as Japanese citizens entitled to all rights as such, just the same as if they had been born on Japanese soil. They never can become Americans. There is a racial and a religious difference they can never overcome. They are pagan in their philosophy, atheistic in their beliefs, alien in their allegiance, and antagonistic to everything to which we stand.

"This is one of the most momentous question that has confronted our people in a thousand years, and I for one am in favor of meeting squarely and deciding it in our favor by declaring that no Japanese can ever become a citizen of the United States but that they are aliens in our midst and should be deported at the earliest opportunity.

"Let us save America for Americans!

IMMEDIATE ACTION IMPERATIVE

"Here is a statement written by the daughter of an officer in our Navy which I hope you will all take time to read. It points out very forcefully the seriousness of the situation. It reads as follows:

"All Japanese—American-born and aliens—must be placed in concentration camps at once. There must be no half measures. Any one of them may jeopardize the lives and safety of hundreds, especially in Hawaii and in California, and their fifth column may cause us to lose these places and Alaska to Japan. The sexes must be kept absolutely separate. Only in concentration camps can they be later exchanged for our people now imprisoned in Japan.

"It is unthinkable that Japan is allowing a white people freedom there. Why should we allow [Japs] freedom here? Many of the present half measures now being taken are worse than useless. They lull our people into a false sense of security. . . . Having all alien Japanese registered and carry identification cards, having them turn in all radios, cameras, and firearms and having the Army empowered to remove some of

VICTORY FIRST!

Above everything else today — the job is to win the war.

WHAT GREYHOUND IS DOING: Greyhound is furnishing transportation for the armed forces and for war workers to and from plants. ★ Greyhound is continuing to serve civilian travelers, now more dependent on buses because of private car and tire restrictions. ★ This tremendous task constantly grows greater and is being done with the limited number of buses available under present conditions.

WHAT YOU CAN DO: You can help by traveling during the middle of the week — thus providing more seats for military personnel and war workers who must travel on weekends. ★ Greyhound will continue to furnish the best service that war conditions will permit. ★ But we must all remember — before personal convenience and pleasure — it is Victory First men living near vital areas en masse will not end this terrible danger. With each commanding army officer there will be varying degrees of surveillance and pressure will bear on him to pare certain groups because of agricultural needs. Among those not taken into custody or removed there will be a huge fifth column left to cause us losses only to be recovered by heavy fighting.

"Undoubtedly cruel 'bushido' methods are being used in Japan to get secret information from individuals and rubber-hose beatings [were] used on reporters and other white people long before December 7. . . . The Japanese are treating American prisoners better than they do the British and Dutch mainly because of the several hundred thousand Japanese in our midst. We must not let this valuable asset escape gradually over the border or by sea, but must use them as hostages they really are for the good treatment and final exchange for Americans. Our only hope to have a semblance of fair treatment or our people imprisoned there is to keep all those of Japanese ancestry here where they are confined and can do no harm.

"We can rid America of this pyramiding danger now. We must insist on keeping the sexes separate, or they will use this internment time as an incubating period and in five years each family may emerge with five more children. Unconfined, in one generation we will have five times, and in two generations twenty-five times as many Japanese to cope with. This is our golden opportunity to rid the United States of them for good. The Japanese will be glad to do while Japan is successful and Japan will welcome them and release Americans in exchange. . . . Among the thousands of aliens and the American-born Japanese, who have all been exposed to propaganda teaching at their language schools for years, too many have an important part assigned them for mass destruction and murder in a surprise attack to paralyze us that would make Pearl Harbor pale by comparison. These fifth columnists cannot be weeded out, but all must be confined for our self-preservation.

"Nothing short of every Japanese—American-born or not—in concentration camps with the sexes absolutely separate will give any real measure of security. Every day's delay may cost us heavily in loss of life and property and lose us our outposts of Hawaii and Alaska and our west coast States. Immediate action is imperative."

LET US KEEP FAITH

"Among ourselves let us keep faith with those who go forth to battle with the implements of war. Let us see that greed has no place within our effort and that demagogues do not satisfy their power lust through authority granted to win the war. Let us see that incompetents do not hide their blunders under guise of war necessity nor that misfits hold place at the price of soldiers' lives. To compel efficiency and unstinted service of those who wield authority is one of the ways we may keep faith."—W. E. Freeland.

"Whereas, There are many Japanese in this state [California] claiming citizenship by reason of birth in this country; and whereas, by reason of the laws of the Empire of Japan these Japanese, even though born in this country, are citizens of the Empire of Japan; and whereas, many of these same Japanese claim allegiance to both the Empire of Japan and the United States; and whereas, by reason of the dual allegiance, these Japanese are not subject to the jurisdiction of the United States as set forth in Article 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Grand Secretary, on behalf of the Board of Grand Officers of the Native Sons of the Golden West, be instructed to write a letter to each registrar of voters of all the counties of the State of California urging them to refuse to register for voting, or to issue a ballot to, any Japanese."

Joseph Berry and David Hughes of the Grand Parlor Transportation and Mileage Committee reported "the question of transportation [to the Lake County Grand Parlor] will be properly taken care of unless something unforeseen happens."

Grand Vice-presidents Cosgrove, Millington and Williamson were appointed a committee to examine many old books and records in the office of the Grand Secretary, principally of Subordinate Parlor that surrendered their charters, and to destroy those of no value.

Grand Historian Peter T. Conmy announced the California History Board of the Grand Parlor will have its annual dinner at the Claremont Hotel, Oakland, the evening of May 2 at 7 o'clock. President Robert Sproul and faculty members of the history department of the University of California will be in attendance.

Attention was called to the "Native California Loyalty and Victory Month" proclaimed by Grand President Schnarr, and a motion prevailed that defense bonds to the amount of $2,500 be purchased with funds in the Grand Parlor Insurance Fund.

Many other matters of a routine nature were considered, and at 8:10 p.m. the Board adjourned to the call of the Grand President.

Wonder-Parlor Over Its Goal.

Ventura—Cabrillo No. 114 had as special guests March 31 Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler and Grand Marshal Mary Noerenberg of the Native Daughters, and Mms. Mildred Odemar and Clara Hunt. One hundred and seventy-five members of the wonder-Parlor were on hand. A delicious baked-ham dinner, prepared under the supervision of "Gogetem" Ed Hearne and Charlie Feraud, was served by the following wives and friends of Cabrillo's members: Mms. Ada Hearne, Theresa Maldonado, Rafaelita Suytar, Reed Hunt, James Troup and Florence Williams; Misses Rose McCarthy, Mary Lewis and Catherine Suytar.

The open session following the feast was conducted by Superior Judge Louis Drapeau, the Parlor president. After a pleasing program put on by talent from Oxnard, Henry Borchard, to whom the evening was dedicated, gave a fine talk, in the course of which he reminisced. Grand Secretary Thaler said the Native Daughters hope to have a Parlor in Ventura in the not-distant future, and Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar and Deputy Grand President Clarence M. Hunt spoke briefly.

At the meeting, Cabrillo went over its 400-goal, twenty-one candidates being initiated and bringing the Parlor's membership to 409. One thousand dollars was ordered invested in United States victory bonds, and a committee was appointed to procure a service flag to honor the Parlor's several members in the armed service of the nation.

Supervising Deputy Joins Army.

Grass Valley—Quartz No. 58 celebrated charter night March 30 and entertained visitors from Hydraulic No. 56 (Nevada City), Downieville No. 92 and Sutter No. 261 (Sutter City). The evening's festivities began with a chicken dinner, and at the meeting which followed Supervising Deputy Robert W. Kohler, assisted by a ritual team made up of members of Quartz and Sutter, initiated three candidates. Kohler asked the privilege of conducting the ceremonies, as it would be his last opportunity for some time, he joining Uncle Sam's army two days later.

Grand Trustee Eben K. Smart paid tribute to Supervising Deputy Kohler, the twenty-first member of Quartz to go into the nation's armed service, and wished him godspeed. "Every Parlor in this district will miss him," he said. Kohler announced the appointment of Richard Hoskins of Quartz as district deputy to succeed Tony Casci, also in the army, and among the other speakers was District Deputy Harold Paxton. After the meeting everybody joined in a fun session at which fifty dollars was raised for the homeless children fund.

May Day at Los Banos.

Los Banos—The Merced County Parlor—Yosemite No. 24 (Merced City) and Los Banos No. 206—had a joint meeting here April 8 at which twelve candidates were initiated, nine for the latter and three for the former. Among the speakers were District Attorney Allen Henderson, president Yosemite; John Castellucci, president Los Banos; L. J. Spindt and Elge Mastrangelo. Previous to the meeting supper was served. Los Banos is sponsoring a May Day dance, to be held May 2.

Needed Legislation Urged.
San Bernardino—Arrowhead No. 110, at its meeting April 22, unanimously adopted the following resolution, presented by Federal Judge Ben Harrison:

"Whereas, The Native Sons of the Golden West have consistently and persistently urged for several years last past the enactment of legislation that would preclude aliens ineligible to citizenship from engaging in fishing off the coast of California; and whereas, the Honorable Harry R. Sheppard introduced in the House of Representatives of the United States Congress a bill that would have eliminated the evils arising out of that problem; and whereas, the enactment of such legislation would have materially lessened the present alien enemy problem; and whereas, upon the ceasing of hostilities many of those ineligible to citizenship aliens will return to their former pursuits of fishing off our coast; and whereas, the future national security of our country requires, as a precautionary measure, that said aliens be forever forbidden to engage in said commercial fishing; now, therefore, be it
"Resolved, That Arrowhead Parlor No. 110, Native Sons of the Golden West, believes it would be for the best interest of all concerned that Congress enact legislation that will preclude forever aliens ineligible to citizenship from engaging in fishing in the coastal waters of the United States; and be it further resolved, that Congressman Harry R. Sheppard be petitioned

THE COUNTY OF LAGUNA DE LUP YOMI

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

MONDAY, MAY 18, THE SIXTY-FIFTH Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West will convene at Hobergs, Lake County. This will be the first time in the sixty-four-year history of the Grand Parlor that the annual session has been held in Lake County. Grand Parlors have been held in four of the five counties bordering Lake, however: 1886 at Woodland, Yolo County; 1907 at Napa, Napa County; 1934 at Ukiah, Mendocino County, and thrice in Sonoma County, 1891 and 1926 at Santa Rosa and 1937 at Sonoma City. Lake County, lying high in the Coast Range, off the main highways and not reached by train, was not thought of as a Grand Parlor meeting place until proposed at the 1941 (Lake Tahoe) Grand Parlor by the delegates of Lower Lake Parlor No. 159.

Notwithstanding Lake County's inaccessibility, the Order has been represented there since August 10, 1889, when Lakeport Parlor No. 147 was instituted. Never large numerically, it went out of existence in 1889. Lower Lake Parlor No. 159, host to the coming Grand Parlor, was instituted at Lower Lake July 3, 1890. Kelseyville Parlor No. 219, instituted February 21, 1903, consolidated with Lower Lake Parlor February 26, 1931.

No part of California had a greater number of Indians than did the area that is now known as Lake County. This was undoubtedly due to the fact that there are several good-sized lakes there, the largest now being known as Clear Lake, but called by the Indians Lup Yomi. An abundance of fresh water and the attendant vegetation made the locality attractive to the primitive people, who were able to find a comfortable living there, and the mountains protected them in their isolation during the period of exploration and early settlement. In 1836, however, some of the Indians of the region of the lakes wandered down to the Sonoma Valley, committing acts of depredation. It was to punish them that Salvador Valles led an expedition against them, and although there is no definite proof of it, this is thought to have been the first entrance of White Men into the area.

About the year 1840 the same Salvador Valles recognized the importance of raising stock in this richly watered country and accordingly built a stockade and placed one or two men there to care for his herds. In 1847 he sold his stock and land to four men, named Stone, Shireland, Andy Kelsey and Ben Kelsey. Apparently Shireland and Ben Kelsey were silent partners, for they did not enter the lake area at this time. Stone and Andy Kelsey did, however, and they were the first American residents of what is now Lake County.

Stone and Kelsey, however upright they may have been in their relations with their fellow-citizens, were indeed cruel to the Indians. They entered the Lup Yomi country and proceeded to order the Indians with a high hand. The Indians were shot at for the fun of seeing them jump, and they were beaten at the slightest provocation. Finally the wife of Chief Augustine was taken over as a concubine. Unbearable as the situation became, the Indians continued to forebear.

On the outbreak of the gold rush in the early months of 1849 Ben Kelsey determined upon an expedition for gold in the upper part of the Sacramento Valley. For laborers he took along a large number of Lake County Indians. All might have gone well had he mined for gold, but he soon discovered there was more to be gained by selling supplies to other miners. Accordingly he sold all his supplies and equipment. As a result his Indians were greatly handicapped, and were in the country of a hostile tribe by which they were attacked. Without arms and materials they could not resist, and a great number were killed, others died of starvation and a few returned to their homes among the lakes. Those who returned and faced the loved ones of those left behind caused the wrath of the Red Men to rise high, and it was determined that the cruelties of Andy Kelsey and Stone should be no longer endured. So, on an autumn day in 1849, Kelsey was shot down with an arrow and Stone, who tried to escape, had his skull broken open by a rock.

However just the punishment meted out to Stone and Kelsey by the Indians may have been from their viewpoint, it certainly met with the disapproval of the White settlers, who regarded it as a massacre. For this reason soldiers were sent into the region of the lakes shortly after under Lieutenant Lyons. In the battle which ensued about a hundred Indians were killed and, thoroughly subdued, a treaty of peace was made. The killing of Stone and Kelsey and the subsequent sending of an armed force into the area gave rise to the sentiment among the settlers that the region of the lakes was a truly dangerous one, and for that reason settlement was slow.

When, February 18, 1850, the State Legislature established the twenty-seven original counties, the lake country was made part of Napa County. As the fifties wore on, however, settlers became more and more numerous. Within ten years the population had grown sufficiently to warrant a separate county government for the Lup Yomi region, and May 20, 1861, Lake County was officially established. The county will have been in existence eighty-one years as such on the third day of the Grand Parlor. The county seat was originally at Lakeport, situated on the northwestern end of Clear Lake, but in 1867 it was moved to Lower Lake, at the southern end. In 1870 it was returned to Lakeport.

The first permanent White settlers (other than Stone and Kelsey) in Lake County were Walter Anderson and his wife, who came there in 1848. They were good, solid people. Their stay in the region was short, however, and in 1851 they moved over the mountains into the valley which now bears their name, that is, Anderson Valley of Mendocino County.

Four townships were laid out shortly after the establishment of Lake County, Lower Lake, Big Valley, Upper Lake and Knoxville. The most important town in Lower Lake Township, Lower Lake, developed during the late fifties. In 1866 a newspaper, The Observer, was founded, in 1869 a flourmill was built, a brewery followed in 1870 and a planingmill was constructed in 1877. Lakeport, in Big Valley Township, also developed about the same time. In 1859 William Forbes took up one hundred and sixty acres at that point. Two years later, when the county commissioners were seeking a place for the county seat, Forbes suggested his locality and pledged a donation of forty acres if the center of the county government should be located there. His offer was accepted, and Lakeport became the county seat. In 1866 the Clear Lake Courier was established there, and in 1874 the Bank of Lake was founded. Practically no towns developed in Knoxville Township, and Upper Lake was the only settlement of any consequence in Upper Lake Township.

A bitter rivalry was engendered in the early days between Lakeport and Lower Lake. As stated above, the county seat was located at Lakeport in 1861. Lower Lake, however, soon sought the honor, and November 4, 1867, the Board of Supervisors ordered the county seat removed to that place. The citizens of Lakeport bitterly resented this and instituted court proceedings. It is questionable whether a board of supervisors may move a county seat; the Legislature, of course, has such power. The court issued a mandamus, ordering a return to Lakeport, March 28, 1868, but it was not obeyed. The case was tried at Napa in October 1869 and a jury in Judge Southard's court found as a fact that the county seat was Lakeport. Judge Southard, however, referred the question to the Legislature, and March 29, 1870, an act was passed ordering an election to determine the location of the county seat. The result of the vote was bitterly sectional. The canvass showed 471 votes for Lakeport as against 404 for Lower Lake.

Lake County has developed as an agricultural center. There is also much cattle raising, and mining has developed, too. But Lake County's claim to glory rests in something more than economic productivity. It is its position as a recreation center. With scenery and water, wild vegetation and the cool of the mountains, Lake County, the land of the Lup Yomi, presents a wonderland scarcely equaled either in our own California or elsewhere in the world. Hail, California's Coast Range wonderland, the County of Lake!

NATIVES HAVE NOT FAILED IN THEIR "HOME SERVICE"

(SECRETARY N.S.G.W. AND N.D.G.W. CENTRAL HOMELESS CHILDREN COMMITTEE.)

THE NATIVE SONS OF THE GOLDEN West will meet May 18, 1942, to transact the business of their organization. They meet, too, for the fun of getting together to renew old friendships and to begin the making of new friendships.

Many of the old friends will not answer the roll-call at this Grand Parlor session at Hobergs, Lake County, as they have gone from California on their "quiet journey." Other friends have responded with infinite pride to serve in the imperative and exacting business of their state's and their country's fight for peace, the permanent peace of the world.

LOVE of peace calls for unflinching willingness to FIGHT for it, even while understanding that it may mean being "Swept to the void by battles' iron broom." "We live war, think war, breathe war," some one has said; we MUST, if we are to WIN! In every free man and woman there exists an unwillingness to accept war, cruelty and bondage in place of peace, humanity and freedom. In the abhorrence of war and its degradation a man is almost forced to forget that in this dear land of ours there still exist free ideals and principles which must be kept intact; that there are still men, women and children who need the continued help and care which have been bestowed upon them in time of peace and accepted by them in the same spirit of trust, frankness and comradeship.

It is with genuine satisfaction that the Native Sons and Native Daughters Central Committee on Homeless Children realizes that the two Orders of Californian-born men and women have not failed during the past year in their "home service." And while assuming the additional burdens of "purposeful patriotism" which have been laid upon them, the Native Sons and the Native Daughters have kept their hearts warm, elastic and responsive to the child's need of protection and development.

During the years ahead there may be even greater necessity for the generosity and the consideration of the members, in order to assure every homeless child the joy of BELONGING to some one, knowing the love and the guidance of a good father and mother, and the surety of the greatest governing influence in a child's life—the environment of a good home.

Only last week a boy of twenty-one years came to the San Francisco office of the Committee. He said he was now in defense work in this locality and his mother had asked him to call at the office on one of his days off. When it was suggested to him that his mother probably wanted the office workers to see what a fine son she had reared, the boy quite naturally replied "No, the son wanted to tell you what wonderful parents he has had!" Then followed a detailed account of their manifested interest, understanding and affection, and he concluded with these words: "No boy could have had more wonderful parents in every way. I know that I am not the only one who has been made happy, because I know many, and the Native Sons and the Native Daughters certainly have a fine reputation for getting the right children into the right homes.

The following day a man and his wife came in to tell about their two children. The son is now in the navy, instead of going to college, and the daughter, just out of high school, is going into defense work, and wanted to secure her birth record before her sixteenth birthday.

These are recent (April) visits, but they have been duplicated many thousands of times as the children, placed in infancy and now from eighteen to thirty years of age, have called on the workers in the Los Angeles and the San Francisco offices to tell the listeners—and how they listen!—of their happy lives.

The contributions received by the Central Committee this fiscal year from the Native Sons and the Native Daughters totaled $15,647.05 from friends not belonging to the Orders $1,227.29; from the Legislature Committee $296.29; bequests, $950.00; refund on board of children, $4,768.02; interest and dividends $617.02; payments on principal of note receivable, $193.01 (less collection charge of $3.00). Total receipts for the fiscal year deposited in general operating fund, $22,123.65; savings accounts, $1,572.03.

Children placed this fiscal year, 160; replaced 1. Total different children placed since the beginning of the work, 5,718; children replaced 561. Total number of different homes in which children have been placed since the beginning of the work, 6,279.

The Parlor's thirty-second institution anniversary was observed at a downtown cafe April 22. Honor-guests were Organizer Delia Koneitzke, Deputy Betty Michie, Grand Trustee Loretta Cameron and the charter members. — L.M.C.

Yerba Buena Parlor No. 273 N.D.G.W. and its members are doing much in defense of the country. Through Mrs. Les Vogel a sound truck is sent to various spots for entertainment. Many members have close relatives in the armed forces of the nation. The Parlor has invested $200 in defense bonds, and given $75 to the San Francisco League for Servicemen.

Attractive girls, dancing, fine music and delicious refreshments made the party given five hundred of Uncle Sam's fighting men by Past Presidents Association No. 1 N.D.G.W. at Hospitality House the afternoon and evening of April 18 a jolly affair. The officers of the Association assisted President May L. Macdonald and Chairman Emma G. Foley in arranging the affair. — G.E.M.

SIXTY-FIFTH N. S. G. W. GRAND PARLOR

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

THE SIXTY-FIFTH ANNUAL GRAND Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West will convene at Hobergs, Lake County, Monday, May 18, at 10:30 a.m. Business sessions will be held Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. Grand President Edward T. Schnarr of Fruitvale Parlor No. 252 (Oakland) will preside throughout the 1942 Grand Parlor and, at its conclusion, will automatically become the Junior Past Grand President.

The reports of Grand Parlor officers and committees to the Sixty-fifth session will deal with the Order's activities during the 1941-1942 Grand Parlor year. During that year, The Grizzly Bear has given full publicity to the many important events and accomplishments.

Grand Secretary John T. Regan's report will detail the condition of the one hundred and thirty-two Subordinate Parlors as of December 31, 1941. Those with 450 or more members, also their assets-figures, include:

| Parlors. | Members. | Assets. |
|----------------------------------|----------|-------------|
| South San Francisco No. 157..... | 853 | $60,755.60 |
| Castro No. 232..... | 670 | 7,788.71 |
| Arrowhead No. 110..... | 665 | 25,736.78 |
| Ramona No. 109..... | 552 | 40,801.92 |
| Stockton No. 7..... | 469 | 29,607.75 |

Other Subordinate Parlors, with assets of $20,000 or more, also their membership-figures, are:

| Parlors. | Members. | Assets. |
|--------------------------|----------|-------------|
| San Jose No. 22..... | 212 | $71,913.45 |
| Amador No. 17..... | 129 | 39,002.42 |
| Pacific No. 10..... | 319 | 38,926.09 |
| Sacramento No. 3..... | 265 | 37,001.09 |
| Redwood No. 66..... | 232 | 33,054.84 |

| Sunset No. 26..... | 240 | 23,184.18 |
| Stanford No. 76..... | 384 | 23,133.86 |
| Eden No. 113..... | 110 | 22,506.84 |

| National No. 118..... | 174 | 21,011.20 |
| Excelsior No. 31..... | 115 | 20,743.09 |
| Placerville No. 9..... | 209 | 20,560.03 |
| Piedmont No. 120..... | 343 | 20,451.06 |

From these figures, it will be noted that South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 (San Francisco) continues the largest, numerically, in the Order; that San Jose Parlor No. 22 (San Jose) continues the wealthiest, financially, and that that Parlor also has the greatest per capita wealth.

At the close of 1941, the Subordinate Parlors had convertible assets totaling $1,153,273.00—$69.10 per member average; this total included cash assets of $317,924.84—$19.05 per member average. The Parlors' receipts for 1941 totaled $267,892.07—$16.05 per member average; their disbursements totaled $267,754.86—$16.04 per member average. Those Subordinate Parlors which pay benefits relieved 1,224 members to the extent of $73,581.92—$60.12 per beneficiary average.

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

HERE'S ONE TO PONDER OVER," says the Livermore Herald. "A juvenile book entitled 'Beautiful Hawaii' was published in 1939. In a chapter headed 'The Melting Pot of the Pacific' the author has a Japanese priest discuss with an American visitor what the young Japanese would do in case of war between the United States and Japan. The priest tells the story of a little Japanese boy talking to an American, the head of a school, and his wife, who teaches in the school. 'We want you to come to our house when it happens,' the little Japanese says. 'When what happens?' 'When the planes come from our country over the sea. Then we want you to come to our house. The planes won't hurt you there.' Read it again, remembering the book was published in 1939, two years before Pearl Harbor."

EARLYDAY HOSPITALITY EXEMPLIFIED.
East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W. members demonstrated that the famed hospitality of early California still exists when, during the blackout of April 8, they opened the doors of their meetingplace and received scores of unexpected visitors. President Lorraine Selby immediately summoned a committee into the kitchen and soon hot coffee and sandwiches were served everyone. When the all-clear signal sounded the hundred and more assembled saluted the flag.

A group consisting of Mildred Banning, Lorraine Selby, Virginia Cook and Leola Butler proved their patriotism by donating a pint of blood to the Red Cross. They were taken to the headquarters by Violet Agajanian, a member of the motor corps. Another group will do likewise as soon as requested.—H.H.

THE LETTER BOX

HISTORICAL SCRAPBOOKS.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: When trouble came to our ocean, the peaceful Pacific, we became united as never before and awakened to the realization that we must do our part to preserve our heritage, immaterial of the cost to ourselves. Immediately we became active in every possible field, endeavoring also to curb waste. We admit that in this land of plenty we have been wasteful; not only have we wasted material things, but time—our own and that of others.

"Each month Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, writes an article on California history especially for The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which represents hours of research. His articles are read with great interest, and if the magazines are saved, the material can be used for reference when necessary. If, however, we discard our magazines, then that valuable material is wasted. In addition to Dr. Conmy's writings, there is the work of Editor Hunt and others who contribute historical data. The wilful throwing away of this material is a waste of the efforts of all who contribute to the only official publication of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

"May I suggest that this historical matter be clipped from The Grizzly Bear Magazine and pasted in a scrapbook. Then, when you are invited to give a talk on California history it will not be necessary to spend hours in the library searching for speech material. If you have made a scrapbook and it is indexed, it takes but a moment to refer to your ready-and-valuable historical scrapbook.

"Now that times are as precious as golden nuggets and there will be more staying home, why not amuse yourself by making a scrapbook? In any case, please do not waste the history of glorious California. Pass the material to someone who is interested if you yourself cannot use it."—ROSE RHYNER, Salinas, California.

INTERESTING AND ENLIGHTENING.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: Have just finished reading Dr. W. R. Livingston's article ["Let Us Not Bequeath a Canker Wound Should Have Removed—The Japs."] in the March 1942 Grizzly, and agree with you that it is very interesting and enlightening. The biological angle is entirely new to me, and I must say that it sounds very reasonable."—ARTHUR A. SCHMIDT, Los Angeles, California.

IMPRESSED.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: Our Parlor was very much impressed by your article in The Grizzly Bear Magazine for April 1942 entitled 'Do We?', and heartily endorses the suggestion therein. We think it would be instructive to show how much land has been purchased by the Japs."—CALIZ DE ORO PARLOR NO. 206 N.D.G.W., by MRS. CHRISTINE NEELEY, Recording Secretary, Stockton, California.

(The Grizzly Bear has endeavored to secure information as to the quantity of California land owned and leased by Japs. It appears the data has been compiled, but some of the authorities will not release it, claiming it is confidential. In San Joaquin County, so-called "Japanese-Americans" own 152 parcels of land. Calling attention to the contention that there is no such person as a United States citizen of Japanese ancestry, the editor wrote the district attorney of San Joaquin County, April 16, suggesting he have that land escheated to the state, as provided in the California Alien Land Law, which limits the owning or leasing of land to citizens of the United States. Caliz de Oro Parlor and the other Parlors of San Joaquin County should demand action by their district attorney.—Editor.)

WILL LESSON BE REMEMBERED?

"Editor Grizzly Bear: You are no longer as a voice crying in the wilderness in your stand on the Japs. Oh, how easy it would be to say 'I told you so.' Hope the lesson learned the hard way will be remembered."—PERCY G. WEST, Sacramento, California.

APPRECIATIVE.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: The members of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. take this means of expressing to you their appreciation of action taken by you, through articles published in the magazine, regarding the Jap situation. The members of the Parlor feel that you should be commended for trying to bring this question to the attention of the public."—MAGDALENA M. WILDASIN, Recording Secretary, Los Angeles, California.

OPPOSED TO JAPS.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: Am in hearty accord with the stand of the magazine on the Japanese question. All my life I have been opposed to the Japanese and their appropriation of our country."—MRS. J. T. FLANAGAN, El Nido, California.

OF GREAT IMPORTANCE.

"Editor Grizzly Bear: The Grizzly Bear is of great importance to the Orders of Native Daughters and Native Sons of the Golden West. It would have been to the benefit of California if more had read your challenging articles on the Japanese menace."—EVA BEMIS, recording secretary Laguna Parlor N.D.G.W., San Bernardino California.

LAKE COUNTY, IN BRIEF

Lake is one of the Redwood Empire counties of California. No other section offers the variety of scenery and the vocational opportunities to be found within the comparatively limited area of Lake County.

Clear Lake, in the heart of the county, is twenty-eight miles long and from two to eight miles wide. It is the largest body of fresh water entirely within the state.

Blue Lake, in the northwestern part of the county, cannot be surpassed for beauty. Lake Pillsbury, further north, is an ideal camping spot.

Anyone looking for a place to spend a vacation or to establish a home, away from the noise and the grime of cities and railroads, should think of Lake County.

Lakeport, the county seat, a city of about 1,800 population, is the center for celebrations. Upper Lake is the center of the vegetable and seed growing area. Kelseyville is the center of the pear packing and drying industry. Lower Lake is the center of the walnut and pear growing area. Middletown is a supply point for the extensive mountain resort section and is fast becoming the poultry raising center. The east shore of Clear Lake, with the towns of Nice, Lucerne, Austins and Clearlake Highlands, is a resort and residential section unequalled for beauty and vocational opportunities.

Because of Lake County's superb climate and accessibility, practically all of its numerous resorts and camps are open twelve months in the year.

Lake County, due to its soil and climatic conditions, is famous for the quality of its agricultural products. The county's only important metal is quicksilver.

WHY?

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

It is generally conceded that, because of inaction on the part of the attorney-general and the district attorneys of the several Jap-infested counties of California, the California Alien Land Law was flagrantly and continually violated. As a direct result, the yellow-Japs, aided by dollar worshipping white-Japs, were permitted to acquire numerous parcels of land, and their "peaceful invasion" of California, for the glory of their worshiped emperor, proceeded unopposed.

Following Pearl Harbor, there was hope the authorities would, at last, do their duty. But, except in two instances, nothing, other than to advance more excuses for continued inaction, has been done. One suit has been brought by the district attorney of Kern County, and another by the district attorney of Fresno County. As a result of the continued inaction, land that should be escheated to the state is reverting to the white-Japs who sold or leased it to the yellow-Japs.

Why do these officials continue to "stall?" Why do they not go to the courts and contend that no Jap, regardless of where born, is, or can be, a citizen of the United States of America and, therefore, no Jap has a legal right to register and vote, or to own or lease land in California? Are the officials politically fearful of the powerful pro-Jap organizations and individuals that will assist the Japs to resume their "peaceful invasion" after the war?

Justice A. L. Zinn of the New Mexico Supreme Court said in a recent address: "I believe within the law"—the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States—"we can find the aid we desire. . . . I believe the courts would hold that children born in the United States, though presumptively citizens, yet when born of aliens whose residence was merely temporary, either in fact or in point of law, and who must of necessity hold allegiance to a foreign power, are not citizens. 'Born in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof' and 'naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof' must mean born or naturalized under such circumstances as to be completely citizens of the United States and not subject to any foreign power under any circumstances or conditions. . . . I refuse to admit that the children of persons so situated become citizens by the accident of birth."

ARE WE GOING BACK?

"The greatest issue today is whether war, the destroyer, or science, the creator, will survive," according to Dr. Robert A. Millikan of the California Institute of Technology.

"This is a terrifying but inspiring time to be alive. It is the most fateful crisis in human history. Is man to go on to greater control of nature, or are we going back to the jungle where passion and prejudice, instead of science, are enthroned? The issue is between life for the race guided by science, or eternal war caused by self-styled supermen. Are we going back to the caveman days when the idea was to murder to obtain part of the very limited supply of goods or are we to continue to believe that the solution is to make nature produce all we need? This is one more war in which savages are trying to rob those whose energy and intelligence have produced wealth."

AMY McDUGALD.

There passed away at the N.D.G.W. Home Amy McDougald, daughter of J. E. McDougald and Jeannette Ousterman, his wife; they came here in 1852 and settled in Hangtown, now Placerville. Mr. McDougald was a worker in the Gold of Ophir mine, which made Fair, Mackay and others rich men; Mrs. Jeannette McDougald was custodian of the gold. Among their children were John, long City Treasurer of San Francisco and N.S.G.W. Grand Treasurer, and Amy.

Amy, the dear, the sweet, the placid little old lady who has just entered the Eternal Portals of Heaven. As a Home member she was always co-operative, but able to defend the right principles. Her best work was done when she kept house for John, during that time she took three motherless girls and brought them up. They visited her often at the Home. Her niece, Mrs. Leila Brackett Baker, was to her as a faithful daughter. Amy often spoke of remembering the 1868 earthquake which shook California and especially Telegraph Hill, San Francisco, where they lived. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church, as were her people.

A good woman has gone on, leaving "footprints on the sands of time" of honesty, righteous living, and generous giving of herself to help others. Marcus Aurelius wrote, "In the life of man you find nothing better than justice, truth and sobriety."

So, farewell dear Amy, may these principles of living be an example to those who follow after.

GROWS AND GROWS

Ventura—Cabrillo No. 114, the wonder-Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, had another fine meeting May 28, when the grand officers were special guests. A chicken dinner, served under the supervision of Ed Hearne and Charles Feraud, was followed by pleasing entertainment presented by Jose Arias and family.

Like the fabled beanstalk, Cabrillo continues to grow and grow, and twenty-four candidates were initiated at the meeting, at which Superior Judge Louis Drapeau, the Parlor president, presided. The ritual was impressively exemplified by: Grand President Edward T. Schnarr, president; Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, senior past president; Past Grand President Harmon D. Skillin, junior past president; Grand Secretary John T. Regan, first vice-president; Grand Trustee Walter H. Odemar, second vice-president; William H. Dombrock, Fruitvale Parlor No. 252 (Oakland), third vice-president; Walter C. Richards, Compton Parlor No. 273, marshal; Supervising Deputy Fred T. Leonetti, inside sentinel; Grand Organist Roger M. Johnson, pianist; Deputy Grand President Hervey L. Kitchin and District Deputy William R. Blaha, assisting marshals.

The occasion was dedicated to Clarence M. Hunt of Sacramento Parlor No. 3, a frequent attendant at Cabrillo's affairs, who urged action now, to save California from becoming "japanized." Past Grand President Skillin addressed the candidates, and told them they will get out of the Order just what they put into it in the way of service. Roscoe Burson responded for the initiates, and Raymond B. Romero brought greetings and good wishes from Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116. Grand President Schnarr said that Cabrillo has established a record in the Order; he commended its members generally for the phenomenal growth of the Parlor,—membership May 28, 1941, 38; membership May 28, 1942, 433;—and specially mentioned President Drapeau, Ed Hearne and Secretary Hal V. Hammons Jr.

During the evening the Parlor's service flag, with twenty-eight stars, was unfurled, Charles Blackstock delivering a brilliant and impressive dedicatory address. May 26, Cabrillo will meet at Oxnard, and more candidates will be initiated. That occasion will be dedicated to Joe McGrath.

OUR RIGHTFUL PLACE IS AIDING IN THE PROTECTION OF CALIFORNIA

"Time and tide wait for no man."

THIS STATEMENT WAS NEVER more true than it has been this year. From a peaceful country, we were suddenly plunged into chaotic times and engulfed in the tide of war. Nations for centuries have endured such hardships, but it is always difficult to adjust oneself to change.

"Our California is now going through such an adjustment period, for never again will our beloved state be quite the same as we have known it in the past. Henceforth our watchword will be 'Vigilance,' even after peace has again come to us. What a great part Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West can play, not only now, but during the reconstruction period!

"Authorities tell us it is the years following a war for which we should have definite plans made well in advance. This time Californians have a very personal interest in the reconstruction period, because it will not only affect our nation, but our very homes. Our great problem concerns the actual population of California, and whether or not those now in retention camps will be returned to their former homes. The lesser problems will adjust themselves, but the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the Golden West should take the lead in aiding our government to gain a satisfactory solution to the question paramount in the minds of every American today. Our rightful place is aiding in the protection of California, and we should never lose an opportunity to advance ideas that are for the betterment of our state and our nation.

"In a short time the Fifty-sixth Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West will convene in Oakland to close this working year of 1941-1942. At this time we will be called upon to legislate for the new term of 1942-1943, after we have reviewed the problems and accomplishments of the past year and determined the needs of the Order for the year to come. This is a solemn obligation for our delegates, for they will be making the laws by which the organization will be governed.

The stage from Valley Springs to San Andreas, Calaveras County, was held up June 17 near North Branch and the masked highwayman forced Driver Fred Wesson to throw out the express box.

James Fielding, a boarder at the Union Hotel in East Oakland, Alameda County, was horse-whipped by Mrs. Kate E. Wilson, wife of the proprietor.

"We are endeavoring at this Grand Parlor session to conduct our business in a minimum amount of time, so as to conserve our energies and finances. Because of this, each delegate should be prepared to make decisions, advance good reasons for her position upon a question and, above everything else, she should never hesitate to state an opinion if she feels it is for the good of the Order. Never feel that your ideas are not good enough to be advanced; who knows, maybe you will hold the solution to some difficult problem. Remember, statements couched in simple language always mean the most when groups are trying to make decisions. Let us be tolerant of those whose views are not the same as our own, but firm in our determination not to be swayed by eloquent language if we feel the matter being decided is not for the good of all.

"As we begin this session, let our prayer be: 'Oh, Lord, give me wisdom and vision to pursue the right paths in our deliberations. May I be tolerant of the views of others, charitable to everyone, and loyal to my ideals. Give me courage to do what I feel is right, even though others may try to turn me from my purpose.'

"During the past year we have accomplished much, and as your Grand President I am proud, indeed, of the work that has been done by the rank and file. We have not been able to complete many of the things we had hoped to do, because of world conditions, but those things we have finished have been well done. You have worked in harmony and co-operation for the major projects of the Order, and the reports given by the Subordinate Parlors have shown enthusiasm and progress.

"The participation of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West in national defense is highly commendable. Your purchase of stamps and bonds will aid our boys in gaining a quicker peace. Your enlistment in the work of civilian defense and Red Cross is splendid, and the work you are accomplishing in the name of the Native Daughters is amazing. Hundreds of our sisters are engaged in Red Cross, first aid, nutrition classes, home nursing, motor and ambulance corps, working in canteens, manning listening posts, and hundreds of other services. Many of you are working in defense jobs, while others are knitting and sewing as your contribution.

"You have worked untiringly for the homeless children project, and have been able to turn in excellent reports. Many of the boys we have placed in years past have now joined Uncle Sam's fighting forces, so they may help repay a debt of gratitude. These are fine young men and women we are aiding, and we can be very proud of them.

"The Junior Native Daughter groups have shown fine progress, and now number fourteen units, with others in the process of formation. The charter president of Unit No. 1 was initiated into membership in the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West at the official visit to Marinita Parlor in San Rafael. The young girls are fine, enthusiastic Californians, and in their ranks we should be training the future leaders of the Native Daughters. In these groups we have a splendid opportunity to instill in these young people a love and devotion for their native state.

"The women who met in the small mining town of Jackson, Amador County, September 11, 1886, were little more than girls, but they had the vision to plan for an organization that would grow and prosper. Three of them are still active, and what a satisfaction it must be to those women of Ursula Parlor No. 1 to watch the Order they founded progressing year after year.

"Although we were organized primarily for the restoration and preservation of historic landmarks, our program now embraces many phases of service. In marking historic places we are endeavoring to leave a permanent record of early day happenings and their exact locations. In years to come we trust that those who pause to inspect and read the tablets will be carried back in thought to the beginnings of California. May these reminders of bronze, wood and stone again create in the mind's eye the picture of the pioneers as they wended their way across mountains, valleys and deserts, through unknown rivers and into the wilderness which was to become their home. May the thought of the trials and dangers these pioneer men, women and children encountered on the westward journey give encouragement to some soul who may be discouraged with the perplexities of a modern age.

"We owe much to the pioneer mothers who labored by the side of their loved ones in the building of this great state. While the men toiled for food and wealth, the womenfolk carried on the duties of restoring peace and order to a land teeming with 'gold mad' prospectors. They gained their goal through tireless effort. What satisfaction they must have had as they watched, unfolding before their eyes, the result of loving work and prayer. These great pioneer men and women have given us a golden heritage. Let us always keep its honor untarnished.

"One of the principles upon which we were founded is 'Devotion to the Flag.' We are proud to be a patriotic organization. The Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West was the first group in the state to use the United States of America Flag as a part of its ritual. This flag represents our freedom and the protection we enjoy from our government. Our forefathers fought first for freedom of religion, and liberty in all things, and since that great day, July 4, 1776, when our Declaration of Independence was signed, we have vowed as a nation to always maintain that freedom.

"As the years have passed we have taken into our country the peoples of all nations—we are the 'Great Melting Pot.' Our glorious flag affords protection to all who come to our shores, but unfortunately some have come who are not loyal. Today we are fighting this menace both from within and without. These elements will be cared for, but we must be ever vigilant with ourselves. So often we resent governmental discipline. At this time we must put down our personal feelings in these matters and work for the welfare of all. Remember that the only really happy nations are those that know a just amount of discipline.

"America—our homeland—is calling all of her loyal citizens to unite in one great effort to win, for all time, the right to live the lives of free people devoted to the ideals of 'Love of Home, Devotion to the Flag, and an Abiding Faith in God.'"

"PRODUCING VEGETABLES AT HOME puts the food supply right where it is to be used. It doesn't take any freight cars or trucks to move the food to these families—and transport is needed badly for other things these days."—Agriculture Secretary Wickard.

OAKLAND SITE OF EARLYDAY DUEL

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

THE FIFTY-SIXTH GRAND PARLOR OF the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West will convene at Oakland June 15. The meeting in downtown Oakland recalls the time when the land between the estuary, or San Antonio Creek as it was called, and Lake Merritt was a rough and more-or-less isolated camp. It recalls the days when Alameda County did not exist, and the infant Oakland lay within the boundaries of the then larger County of Contra Costa. As one mulls over the events that transpired in the early beginnings of Oakland, a duel fought between Broderick and Smith comes to mind.

September 12, 1859, United States Senator David C. Broderick was wounded in a duel fought with Supreme Court Justice Terry, and died a few days later. The fact that Broderick was a national figure; that he was opposed to the extension of slavery; that his death was sought by those who advocated the extension of slavery in California, and that he was a champion of the interests of the common man, have caused those who have written the history of California to devote a large amount of space to the Broderick-Terry duel.

Most of the histories fail to make mention of the fact that seven years before he engaged in the fatal duel with Terry, Broderick had fought one with a man named Smith, in what is now downtown Oakland. That was March 17, 1852.

Shortly after his arrival in California, Broderick was elected a member of the State Senate from San Francisco. From the outset of his legislative service he played an important part in shaping policies. His stand on every public question was both precise and definite. The session which convened in 1852 was an exceptionally important one, because it was at that meeting of the Legislature that the slavery and free-soil advocates strove to control the law-making body. Broderick was a sturdy opponent of slavery. Coming from New York, the home of the laborers, he took the stand that slavery degraded and cheapened labor. To the men whose sympathies were with the extension of slavery, Broderick was indeed a foe to be overcome.

A pro-slavery advocate active in California in those years was William Smith, a former governor of the State of Virginia. At the Democratic State Convention held early in 1852 he publicly denounced the stand taken by Broderick, who was not present at the time. At the next meeting of the Senate, however, Broderick took occasion to reply to Smith's criticism. This was on the nature of the unprofessional, political conduct of Smith at the last election for United States senator, when John B. Weller, a slave sympathizer, was chosen as successor to John C. Fremont.

Judge Caleb E. Smith, son of Governor Smith, did not choose to have Broderick denounce his father in this fashion, and for this reason he sought to engage him in mortal combat. March 10, 1852, he placed a card in a newspaper roundly denouncing Broderick and calling him a liar. Under the code of ethics which prevailed at the time, the only alternative which Broderick now had was to challenge Smith to a duel, or become an outcast from established society.

Smith and Broderick were both in San Francisco at this time and curious people followed them about, knowing that in the small city of that day they would surely meet and there would be an interesting spectacle of words and blows whenever they came face to face. They did meet, at the corner of Front and Sacramento streets, and as they approached one another a crowd of five hundred persons stood about. But nothing happened. The people about did not know it, but negotiations were under way by representatives of both Broderick and Smith. An overt attack on the part of either, while their friends were making preparations for a mortal satisfaction, would have indeed been a violation of the code of honor. At length an agreement was reached. Judge Smith withdrew his insulting card from the newspaper and challenged Broderick to a duel and, of course, the latter accepted at once.

The duel in which Broderick was killed in 1859 was fought on the shores of Lake Merced. The reason for fighting it there was due to the fact that on the previous day the antagonists had attempted the duel, but were dispersed by the chief of police. For the same reason, it was necessary to fight this Smith-Broderick duel in some out-of-the-way place. What was more removed from the eyes of the law than the little camp called Oakland, on the other side of the great bay?

Accordingly, we are told that the morning of March 17 Broderick and Smith met in Oakland, about a mile inland from the San Antonio Creek (now Oakland Estuary). Assuming about twelve city blocks to the mile, and assuming that they followed the road inland about a mile from the usual landing place, which was then, as now, the foot of Broadway, this would place the site of the duel somewhere in the vicinity of Twelfth and Broadway, the heart of downtown Oakland. The weather was very foggy, but this did not deter several hundred people from crossing the bay to witness the important duel.

It was agreed between the parties that they should use navy pistols. They were to walk ten paces apart and, at the word fire, each was to turn around and shoot. In due time the duel got under way. At the command fire, both turned and pulled the triggers of their pistols. Smith's gun fired without difficulty, but the cap caught in the cylinder of Broderick's pistol and he had to put the gun between his knees to cock it. In the meantime, Smith fired his six shots, one of which hit Broderick in the stomach. Broderick also fired his six shots, but failed to hit Smith. Upon examination, it was found that the bullet which had hit Broderick had been stopped by the very heavy and thick watch which he carried in his vest pocket. The only damage to his flesh was a slight abrasion. The combatants were then ready to continue the duel, but Smith said he was willing to acknowledge that Broderick was an honorable gentleman, Broderick accepted the acknowledgment, and they shook hands. In this manner a feud that a few moments before might have meant the death of either was settled. Shortly after this Governor Smith wrote Broderick the following note:

"Hon. D. C. Broderick—Sir: Having made remarks in the Democratic Convention which yourself and others thought reflected on you, and having just learned from a reliable source that you had no connection with the transaction then referred to, I now, deeming it my duty, take great pleasure in withdrawing anything then said of a disagreeable nature. Yours, Wm. Smith."

Shortly after receiving this note from Governor Smith, Broderick reported the fact to the Senate of the State Legislature, and after alluding to his previous denunciations of Smith read the letter, which he followed with these words: "Regretting as I do the occasion which led me into remarks unpleasant to Governor Smith, I now take pleasure in promptly withdrawing the same."

The psychology of the duel is difficult to understand. Reason should dictate that life should not be taken over political disagreements or charges of corruption. The fact that Broderick went into both duels unpracticed and unprepared, gives rise to the inference that he really did not wish to kill his opponent but merely desired to uphold a custom which demanded that he accept the challenge. The following quotation, taken from H. H. Bancroft, "Retrospection," page 199, shows Broderick's position. The quotation refers to his final duel with Terry, but his attitude in this earlier one with Smith is also portrayed:

"Opposed to the extension of slavery, he came in contact with southern chivalry, and certain gentlemen of that school determined on his death. It was arranged that one after another they should challenge him to mortal combat until he should fall. Indeed the risk of the fire-eaters was slight, as all were expert with the pistol, and familiar with the tricks of the trade, while Broderick was a novice and no murderer. He had fought duels before in a big boyish way, not wishing to kill or to be killed. Terry played with blood, not with boys."

His failure to score in the duel with Smith, showed that Broderick was no gunman. Had he killed Smith, his enemies might have feared to face his aim. But his poor showing convinced them that their chances of killing him were greater than his of hitting them. For this reason, the Southern conspiracy against Broderick grew with the years, until finally it ended in his death, September 12, 1859, seven years and six months after he had met Smith, in Oakland, March 17, 1852.

A TRUE FRIEND JOURNEYS AHEAD

HERMAN CARL LICHTENBERGER, Past Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, died at his South Pasadena, Los Angeles County, home May 17, survived by his wife, Mrs. Katherine Lichtenberger, a daughter, Mrs. Genevieve Burrows, and a brother, George Lichtenberger. He was born at Los Angeles, March 10, 1868, a son of Louis Lichtenberger, a pioneer from Germany who for many years conducted a carriage factory.

Deceased affiliated with Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. August 8, 1890. He represented the Parlor at several Grand Parlor, and was ever active in the affairs of the Order. At the Thirty-fourth (Santa Cruz 1911) Grand Parlor he was elected Grand President, and presided at the Thirty-fifth (Fresno 1912) Grand Parlor. He was one of the founders of The Grizzly Bear Magazine, the official publication of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West, and for years was president of the publication's board of directors. At one time he engaged in the art business, for ten years he was in charge of the probate department of the Los Angeles County clerk's office, and for the past seventeen years was associated with the office of the state controller as an inheritance tax appraiser.

In the passing of Herman Lichtenberger, California has lost a stalwart, upright citizen, and the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West one of its most valued and faithful members. He was a tried and true friend! By the many who knew and appreciated his real worth, he will always be well remembered.

"There is no death! It's just a change
From partial unto fuller life;
A glad relief from this world's cares;
Eternal peace succeeding strife."

Following services at the Holy Family Church, South Pasadena, the remains of deceased were laid to rest in Calvary Cemetery, May 21. There the burial ceremonies of the Native Sons were conducted by Eugene Biscailuz, Isidore Dockweiler, Deacon Taggart and Paul Kiefer. The pallbearers were Isidore Dockweiler, Leo Youngworth, Robert Todd, Ray Howard, Louis Dunn and William Durm.—C.M.H.

HERMAN C. LICHTENBERGER

(Graveside eulogy delivered by Municipal Judge Frank G. Tyrrell, a member of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W.)

"The Native Sons are saying today, 'We shall meet, but we shall miss him; there will be one vacant chair.' And of whom could our loss be more deep and poignant? Over fifty years an active member of the Order, conspicuous and influential in the highest degree, his passing is a tragic loss.

"Even a casual acquaintance recognized in our departed brother a character of strength and virility, and those who were fortunate enough to know him intimately felt the contagion of his understanding sympathy and deep insight. A fortunate heredity gave him a vigorous body and an active mind; to these, by discipline and industry, he added an extraordinary power of achievement. In his presence one felt the innate greatness of the man, enlarged and enriched by what he had done for the cause he loved.

"In him the diverse elements of strength were so closely integrated. This gave stability to his character. He was never swept off his feet by any gust of passion, nor carried about by winds of doctrine, religious, political or otherwise. Everybody knew where to find Herman Lichtenberger. At such a man moves in any cause, his light is irresistible. He is the incarnation of conquering energy. This strength was seen in his self-regarding activities, his devotion to business and to his home and loved ones, and it was equally noticeable in his manifold altruism,—his work for others.

"One can but wonder how he could find time for public service so widely extended and so wisely directed. His patriotism was unalloyed and unrestrained, and found one of its chief expressions in the multifarious work of the Native Sons of the Golden West, an Order whose high purposes are little understood by the general public, and often not fully grasped even by its members. He went through all the 'chairs' to the preme position of Grand President, and always lived with dignity and distinction.

"He was a man of accurate and reliable judgment, whether of men or of measures. There was never an excess or a bias in any of his opinions, and he had the tact to give them force and effect. His manner was never overbearing; he sought to win not by compulsion, even where he could have compelled, but by a considerate, gentle and ingratiating demeanor. It is to such qualities as these that he is indebted for his brilliant, long career, and that by the gentle art of loving memory will keep him enshrined in many hearts for years to come.

"But do not think for a moment that he was soft or effeminate. He hated dissimulation, arrogance, and every evil thing. He particularly detested demagogues, because he recognized their disgusting hypocrisy and pierced through their shams.

"It is not surprising to learn that at one time he conducted an art store, for he was ever a lover of the beautiful. He felt, with Emerson, that 'we live in a world embosomed in beauty,' and throughout his long life he never marred that manifest beauty, but treasured it.

"After all, how futile are mere words to depict human worth! We brothers of the Order today share with his family—wife, daughter and mother—their deep sorrow at his passing, the sense of desolation that must ensue, but withal he prides in his splendid achievements and bright career. Recall the scene when Robert Browning, at his last illness read the proof sheets of 'Asoundo,' and modestly appropriated these words, which are equally fitting to describe our brother one before,—

"'One who never turned his back, but marched breast forward,
Never doubted clouds would break,
Never dreamed though right were worsted,
Wrong would triumph,
Held, we fall to rise, are baffled to fight better,
Sleep to wake!'"

EVERY JAP POTENTIAL SPY

READERS OF THE GRIZZLY BEAR WILL recall the very excellent and informative article from the pen of Dr. W. R. Livingston of Moorpark, Ventura County, a member of Cabrillo Parlor No. 114 N.S.G.W., that appeared in the March 1942 issue under the caption "Let Us Not Beneath a Canker We Should Have Removed—the Japs."

Well, that article found its way to a far-distant land, and here are extracts from a letter referring to it received by D. Robertson of Los Angeles from Thomas Hunter, a member of the British Parliament from Perth, Scotland. The letter is dated April 18, 1942.—Editor.

"Received your letter of 17th March on 17th April with article by your brother-in-law, Dr. W. R. Livingston. I have read the article with interest. I like the warning he gives about Japs. America will make a vital mistake if she does not round up every Jap in the country. We have rounded them up in this country. They are dangerous. Every one is a potential spy. Dr. Livingston's history of Europe through the centuries is fascinating and accurate. What a pity responsible statemen and peoples of all countries now so little of history and do not take the trouble to study history. They teach lessons, which, if taken to heart, would avoid such conflicts as those in which we are engaged.

"I appreciate his reference to the policy of the British Government to China, and, above all 'the pompous attitude of individual Englishmen' not only to native races, but also in European countries. I have seen arrogant Englishmen and felt tempted to snub them. Only a year before the war I did snap out at one in Berlin when I and others were present in the Stadium to see and hear Hitler and Mussolini. He provoked a German to exclaim 'Sit down you damned Englishman.' The German in that instance was right and I took action to compel this arrogant individual to sit down and told him to try to behave like a gentleman in a country where he did not seem to have the capacity to realize he was a foreigner. Dr. Livingston has written an excellent article. Give him my congratulations on a contribution worth reading both from an instructive and informative point of view. . . .

"On Wednesday of this week I was present at a private meeting of M. P.'s in one of the rooms of the House of Commons to meet and hear Mr. Harry Hopkins, President Roosevelt's special envoy, who, with others, has been having important meetings with Churchill. He was given a most enthusiastic reception. What we liked about him was his strong sense of humor and his very original and unconventional manner of speech. He spoke only in general terms but he assured us that America will be with us until victory is achieved. Only to us, who have now had nearly three years of war, it was not so cheering to hear him speak of twelve to eighteen months before America would be working at top speed. I am afraid from information we have America was even worse prepared for war than we were at the outset. She has certainly a long way to go before she reaches our production records. However, we know America has the population and the resources which in time will come level and surpass what is possible in the Old Country. . . .

"We are wearied of the war in this country but more determined than ever to bring Hitler to his knees, and to achieve victory. How the end will come and when I cannot say, but I can say that our men and our people are straining at the leash. They remind me of Sir Colin Campbell, who led the Highland Brigade in the Crimea War. The men wanted to get to business and he had to hold them in check until the moment was right, and angrily exclaimed 'Highlanders! damn that eagerness!' . . .

"May the people of America and Britain soon be in a position to celebrate such a victory that war will be unknown for many generations. At

IT CAN'T HAPPEN HERE?

"Oh, yes, it can! Unless every single Californian exerts every possible influence and effort as an individual and through organization to promote, develop and support the ideals and concepts of the American Way of Life; unless native Californians acknowledge that, on the Pacific Coast, California means the United States, this coveted paradise faces the most stupendous conflict ever to threaten the security of every member of society."—Miss Sue J. FIFTY-SIXTH N. D. G. W. GRAND PARLOR

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 15, AT 9:30, the Fifty-sixth Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West will convene at Oakland, Alameda County, for a three-day session. Grand President Clarice E. Cook of Stockton, San Joaquin County, affiliated with Caliz de Oro Parlor No. 206, will preside throughout the deliberations and, at their conclusion, will automatically become the Past Grand President. The Grand Parlor headquarters will be at the Oakland Hotel, Thirteenth and Harrison streets, and the sessions will be held at the Madison Street Temple, 1433 Madison street.

This will be the fifth time in the Order's history a Grand Parlor has been held at Oakland. The Twenty-eighth, Grand President Alison F. Watt presiding, met there in June 1914; the Forty-fourth, Grand President Esther R. Sullivan presiding, June 1930; the Fifty-seventh, Grand President Anna M. Armstrong presiding, June 1933; the Fifty-fourth, Grand President Orinda M. Giannini presiding, June 1940.

Reports of grand officers and committees to the Fifty-sixth Grand Parlor will show the Order to be in a flourishing condition. The finances are in good shape, and the membership is increasing. All of the Order's many projects have been advanced during the Grand Parlor year.

Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler has advised all Subordinate Parlor that Grand Parlor legislation provides that the entire personnel of a Grand Parlor must pay a registration fee of two dollars. Also, that visitors to the Oakland Grand Parlor will be accorded the same privileges as delegates on payment of the registration fee.

MEMBERSHIP.

The Order is composed of 181 Subordinate Parlor, located in practically every county of California. The Grizzly Bear requested from each Parlor its membership-figures, and from responses received up to publication-time, the following has been compiled:

CANDIDATES GRAND PARLOR OFFICES.

By communicating with all the Subordinate Parlor and the many "rumored" candidates, The Grizzly Bear is enabled to announce the candidacies of several aspirants for Grand Parlor office honors. There continue to be whisperings, however, that other candidacies will be revealed at the Oakland session. Be that as it may, here

DO WE?

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

Being muchly concerned about the future, as well as the present, welfare of California, and being thoroughly convinced that, unless the "seed of the sun" be entirely uprooted, the Japs will, following the present armed conflict, proceed with their "peaceful invasion" and eventually overrun this state, the writer proposes UNITED ACTION TODAY by organizations and individuals actually desirous of preserving California as a paradise of the White Man for all time. TOMORROW, after the war, will be TOO LATE! In the hope of permanently removing the Jap menace, this course of action is advocated:

Dispossess the Japs of every foot of land, rural and urban, to which they now claim title.

Challenge the citizenship of every Jap—his right to exercise in these United States the voting privilege.

Close every Jap-language school, and be certain that it is kept closed.

Do we, or do we not, really want to see this glorious heritage given into our keeping by our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers? If we have the will, this suggested course points the way! What's your answer?

GREETING CARDS — GIFTS

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA

WITH GRAND PRESIDENT EDWARD T. Schnarr of Fruitvale Parlor No. 252 (Oakland) presiding throughout the deliberations, the Sixty-fifth Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West was in session at Hobergs, Lake County, May 18, 19 and 21.

The reports of grand officers and committees dealt, mostly, with matters heretofore given full publicity in The Grizzly Bear. Follows a summary of the Hobergs Grand Parlor proceedings, with no reference, however, to proposed legislation that failed of passage:

CHANGES IN CONSTITUTIONS.

Art. VI, Sec. 1, Grand Parlor, amended to provide: "Within fifteen days after his installation, each Grand President shall, under seal of the Grand Parlor, appoint as many District Deputy Grand Presidents and Deputy Grand Presidents-at-Large as in his judgment may be advisable, and furnish each with a certificate of his appointment, signed by the Grand President and the Grand Secretary."

Art. II, Sec. 7, Subordinate Parlors, amended to provide: "If any person fails to appear for initiation within six weeks after his election, such election shall be null and void; provided, however, that any applicant who is in the armed service of the United States during a period of war shall not be required to personally appear for initiation, but upon certification by the Secretary of the local Parlor shall be a member of this Order to all intents and purposes, just as though a personal initiation had been had, after signing the usual qualifying record."

Art. VII, Sec. 3, Subordinate Parlors, amended by eliminating the requirement that "The Financial Secretary shall announce in open meeting the name of a brother liable to" be deprived of sick benefits, and thus making the section provide: "The Financial Secretary shall serve a written notice on such brother so liable", etc.

BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

San Francisco was selected as the meeting place for the Sixty-sixth (1943) Grand Parlor.

Proposed slight changes in the rituals were referred to the Board of Grand Officers, with full power to act.

The incoming Grand President was instructed "to appoint a committee of not less than fifteen to supervise the 1942-43 public speaking contest."

The 1905-10 installment of "The History of the Order" that is being compiled by Grand Historian Peter T. Conmy was ordered printed in the 1942 Grand Parlor Proceedings.

Ordered, that the "Grand Parlor shall henceforth present a final award to the co-finalist" participating in the public speaking contest at the Grand Parlor.

For the use of the California History Board during 1942-43, $50 was appropriated.

For the purpose of continuing the Native Sons History Fellowships at the University of California, $1,000 was appropriated.

Fines levied against General Winn Parlor No. 32 (Antioch) and Mount Diablo Parlor No. 101 (Martinez) were ordered remitted.

The incoming Grand President was directed to appoint a committee of three from the Board of Grand Officers to prepare legislation, for submission to the State Legislature, that will "provide a simplified and inexpensive form for securing delayed birth certificates for native-born citizens of California."

Subordinate Parlors were instructed to "present in their semi-annual reports the actual present-day market value of all convertible assets, instead of the cost value, or par."

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Endorsing the movement, inaugurated by the California State Chamber of Commerce, for a statewide celebration of the California gold discovery centenary in 1948, and suggesting that the scope of the celebration be broadened to embrace other historic periods, including the hundredth anniversary of California's admittance to statehood.

Protesting the contemplated erection of "a dam in the South Fork of the American River which would flood the site of Sutter's Mill, where gold was discovered by James W. Marshall, and which would also inundate the Town of Coloma, so rich in historic memories."

Expressing regret at the passing of a great history scholar, Dr. Charles Edward Chapman, the first Native Sons Traveling History Fellow, 1911-13, and professor of history at the University of California, 1915-42. "Professor Chapman was a learned and fruitful scholar. . . . But this man of many parts and various talents loved the cause of Pacific Coast history above all other interest, and made it his life work."

Expressing thanks to all who contributed to the success of the meeting, and to the comfort and the entertainment of the members of the Grand Parlor and accompanying visitors. "And special heartfelt thanks to Vince Emerson of Forest Lake Resort and George Hoberg of Hoberg's Resort for their efforts in making this session an outstanding success."

BUDGET AND PERCAPITA TAX.

A budget carrying appropriations totaling $24,384 was approved. To provide that amount a percapita tax of $1.50 was levied, payable forty cents June 1, forty cents September 1, forty cents December 1, and thirty cents March 1, 1943.

ACTION!

The following resolution, calling for immediate action, was unanimously adopted by the Grand Parlor:

"Whereas, The policy of our country in permitting Japanese to live among us is now obviously proven to have been wrong. They came here, took jobs and work from our citizens, sent their money to Japan and made war upon us. And

"Whereas, The Order of Native Sons of the Golden West has for the past quarter-century warned against the very dangers which have now come upon us,

"Resolved, That the incoming Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West appoint a committee of five, whose duty it shall be to raise sufficient funds within the Order, first to prosecute, and carry through to the Supreme Court of the United States of America, if necessary, a suit challenging the United States citizenship of the Japanese; and second, to draft and sponsor an amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America which shall have as its object the exclusion of all persons of Japanese ancestry from American citizenship. And be it further

"Resolved, That said committee be authorized and empowered to solicit and accept contributions to said fund from other sources. Also,

"Resolved, That said committee shall deposit all such funds received from all sources with the Grand Treasurer, and said funds shall be expended only on claims authorized and approved by the Board of Grand Officers. Be it further

"Resolved, That the sum of $1,000 be appropriated by this Grand Parlor to assist in defraying such expenses as may be deemed necessary and advisable by said committee to consummate the objects and purposes of this resolution. Also,

"Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the President, the Vice-president and the Attorney-General of the United States of America, to the California representatives in the Federal Congress, and to the Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor and the Attorney-General of the State of California."

Drapeau of Cabrillo Parlor No. 114. Vocal selections were rendered by Phil and Mildred Crane, accompanied at the piano by Grand Organist Roger M. Johnson.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST.

At the final in the 1941-42 public speaking contest sponsored by the Grand Parlor, Chairman Reynald J. Bianchi of the Public Speaking Committee presided.

The contestants, and their subjects, were Warren Saltzman of Sequoia Union High School, Redwood City, "The Vigilance Committee of 1851," and Carl Shultz of Los Angeles High School, Los Angeles, "Ferdinand Francisco Lasuen, Knight of the Cross." The former represented northern California, and the latter represented southern California.

Shultz was declared the winner of the contest, and to him Grand President Edward T. Schnarr presented, on the Order's behalf, a diamond bar pin.

"NEW INTERPRETATION" NEEDED.

U. S. Webb of the California Joint Immigration Committee, former attorney-general of California, delivered a stirring address on "The Japanese Problem in California" May 19. He contended American citizenship should be denied all Japs, and said:

"Yellow dollars, and a policy of conciliation, appeasement and apology are responsible for the Japanese menace. We subjected our nation's security to a convenient market when we sold Japan materials for munitions, and now we pay in sorrow, blood and death. Productivity of the Japanese constitutes a definite threat which must be obviated by a new interpretation of the Federal Constitution or a new constitutional amendment."

General Webb suggested the "new interpretation" might be based on the preamble to the Constitution of the United States of America, which proclaims the duty of the Government to be "to promote the general welfare, provide for the common defense and insure domestic tranquility." He questioned whether the Fourteenth Amendment, guaranteeing the right of citizenship to all persons subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, regardless of race, was applicable to Japs, and argued that as Japanese-Americans were regarded by the Tokyo government as citizens of Japan they could not also be under United States jurisdiction.

NOTES OF THE SESSION.

Just prior to the opening of the Grand Parlor, greetings on behalf of Lower Lake Parlor No. 159 (Lower Lake) and Lake County were extended by President Wes Cary and Superior Judge Benjamin C. Jones.

Grand President Clarence E. Cook of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West was a visitor May 19, and in the course of a splendid talk extended greetings on behalf of that Order. Among the many accompanying her were Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, who also addressed the Grand Parlor, Grand Vice-president Claire Lindsey, Assistant Grand Secretary Irma Murray, Grand Trustee Sidonia Geiger, Past Grand President Ann Thuesen, Supervising Deputies Emily Ryan and Lena Carlenzoli, and Deputies Bess Foulks and Gladys Brooks.

Earl Warren of Fruitvale Parlor No. 252, attorney-general of California, addressed the Grand Parlor May 19. He referred particularly to the acquisition of land by Japs through violation and evasion of the California Alien Land Law which, he said, requires amending to make it technically-proof.

At the Grand Parlor banquet May 20, Superior Judge B. C. Jones was the toastmaster. On behalf of the Order, Junior Past Grand President Henry S. Lyon presented a silver service to Grand President and Mrs. Edward T. Schnarr. Other speakers were Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington and Attorney-General Earl Warren.

At the invitation of Grand President Schnarr, Superior Judge Louis C. Drapeau, president of the wonder-Parlor, Cabrillo No. 114 (Ventura), addressed the Grand Parlor. He urged enrollment of the thousands of eligibles throughout the state, and introduced Ed Hearne, Secretary Hal Hammons Junior and Charles Ferraud, who labor so faithfully and untiringly in behalf of Cabrillo Parlor.

John J. Monteverde of Sunset Parlor No. 26 (Sacramento) reported on the financial condition of the Sacramento N.S.G.W. Hall Association, and said the debt is being steadily reduced.

For having made such remarkable gains in membership, Grand President Schnarr presented $25 U.S. victory bonds to Cabrillo Parlor No. 114 (Ventura) and Lower Lake Parlor No. 159 (Lower Lake). He said that other Parlors were entitled to similar bonds and that they will be announced after a check of the records.

Albert V. Mayrhofer of San Diego Parlor No. 108 (San Diego) reported plans for the statewide Admission Day, September 9, celebration in San Diego are progressing. The celebration has, he said, the approval of the United States Army and Navy authorities, who have promised full co-operation in making the parade an outstanding one.

BLOODY ISLAND MARKED.

During the tour of Clear Lake, May 20, the site of Bloody Island, some two miles south of Upper Lake, was marked with a plaque inscribed as follows:

"BLOODY ISLAND. Scene of a battle between U.S. Soldiers, under command of Captain Lyons, and Indians, under Chief Augustine, April 14th, 1850. Dedicated as a Historic Monument by the Native Sons of the Golden West, May 20th, 1942."

Superior Judge Benjamin C. Jones was the master of ceremonies, and the speakers were Chief Augustine, a grandson of the chief who led the Indians in 1850, Grand President Edward T. Schnarr and Attorney-General Earl Warren. [An account of the Indian uprising in Lake County appeared in The Grizzly Bear for May, 1942.]

PAST GRANDS' REUNION.

The Past Grand Presidents had their annual reunion banquet at Forest Lake Resort May 19. Lewis F. Byington presided, and Henry S. Lyon was added to the "college." Others gathered about the festive board were Walter D. Wagner, Joseph R. Knowland, Clarence E. Jarvis, William P. Cauby, Edward J. Lynch, Hilliard E. Welch, James A. Wilson, Charles L. Dodge, Seth Millington, Chas. A. Koenig, Harmon D. Skillin, Hartley Russell, Eldred L. Meyer, Joseph J. McShane and Jesse H. Miller.

A fine repast was provided by Manager Vince Emerson of Forest Lake, and many splendid addresses were made. All praised the Grand Parlor arrangements.

IDEAL ARRANGEMENTS.

No Grand Parlor was better accommodated and entertained than the Sixty-fifth, in session at Hoberg's Resort Among the Pines, in Lake County. The arrangements, made by Lower Lake Parlor No. 159 (Lower Lake), with Saint Helena Parlor No. 53 (Saint Helena) and Calistoga Par-

UNITY FOR VICTORY!

LLOYD J. COSGROVE OF SAN FRANCISCO, affiliated with Precita Parlor No. 187, became the Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West at the Sixty-fifth Grand Parlor, which was in session at Hoberg's, Lake County. Addressing the assembled representatives of the Subordinate Parlors from all sections of California following his induction into office, May 21, Grand President Cosgrove said:

"Worthy installing grand officers, my fellow grand officers, delegates to this, the Sixty-fifth Grand Parlor, and friends: This is a very, very happy day for me,—an ambition has been realized. I would not be human to say otherwise. I was privileged to join the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, Precita Parlor No. 187, in 1929, and attended my first Grand Parlor in Monterey in the year 1931. It was there the thought, desire and ambition came to me—the seed of service to our Order was sown, and the foundation was there laid. Little did I anticipate or expect that in the short span of eleven years the privilege would be extended to me to guide the destiny of this great patriotic, historical and fraternal society.

"I begin my duties as your Grand President at a time, and under conditions, unparalleled in the history of our country. Our nation, our citizens are engaged in a conflict which appears destined to carry on for a long time, and with the entire world involved.

"In normal times the primary purpose of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West was to promote patriotism and to foster the principles of loyalty and brotherly love. The role of our Order today is, and must continue to be, that of organizing to win the war and to co-operate with the government and all constituted authority. This, of course, means our entire manner of living, our very means of existence, our world, our country, our business, our Order, everything, must be fitted to the moulds of war. To us as individuals comes a reshaping of our lives, the making of great sacrifices,—sacrifices unlimited, even beyond and above all expectations.

"We, as native Californians, must respond to whatever the task may be, irrespective of the labor required or the danger involved. We must be ever ready and willing to shoulder the responsibility placed upon us. Because of what we are, we must set the example and be the guidance for

LLOYD J. COSGROVE of San Francisco
Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West

"The credit for this achievement is not mine alone, but to others much credit is due. To the good members of Precita Parlor, the delegates who have labored in the realization of a Grand President, and to all who assisted me I owe a debt of gratitude. No man without the patience, goodwill and encouragement of his family and friends could ever attain the heights of a worthwhile ambition.

"I shall try to follow the splendid example of my predecessors, that we may continue to promote the patriotic aims of our Order and to inculcate in the hearts of all the spirit of brotherly love. May I congratulate our Junior Past Grand President, Edward T. Schnarr, on the completion of a most splendid and successful term as Grand President. No man has devoted, or could devote, more time and effort to our cause; to him we should extend our thanks.

all our fellowmen. Hate, envy, greed, despair and complacency must not be in our life,—have no place in the new order of things,—and must not be a part of the American picture. To the contrary, the spirit of the pioneers, the vision and the fortitude of the builders of this great state, and the teachings and the examples of our ancestors shall kindle in us the spirit of patriotism and unite us in the realization of our responsibility and duty to our country, our state and our Order.

"We cannot continue to look at things as we have in the past; our lives must be adjusted, our Order must be adjusted; we must put everything on a wartime basis and in an all-out war effort. True, many of our members have been called to the fighting forces of our country, some are engaged in defense work, and many others

That she is dead—she's just away.

It needs must be since she lingers there."

Flag Day Where California Began.

San Diego—National Flag Day, June 14, will be observed at San Diego, where California began, with dual ceremonies sponsored by San Diego No. 108 at Old Town Plaza—the exact site in North San Diego where Lieutenant Stephen C. Rowan, U.S.N., raised the Flag of the United States of America July 29, 1846,—and at Fort Stockton, overlooking Old Town Plaza.

During the ceremonies the United States Marine Band will play at the Plaza, and the Bonham Boys Band at the Fort. Preceding the raising of the Spanish, the Mexican, the California Republic and the United States of America Flags there will be brief addresses by, respectively, Judge J. Molina, Dr. A. P. At the request of San Diego Parlor, made through Mayrhofer and Frank Forward, the San Diego County Board of Supervisors has petitioned the Federal Government to save the century-old adobe house at Santa Margarita Rancho. The Parlor has also appealed to the county to acquire and restore a historic landmark at Campo.

Wants Jap Citizenship Challenged.

Los Angeles—Arrowhead Assembly No. 14 Past Presidents Association had its May 3 dinner-meeting at the Good Fellows Grotto here. John O'B. Bodkin had charge of the arrangements, and a fine dinner was enjoyed by the several in attendance.

Grand Parlor "To devise ways and means of immediately challenging in the courts the right of any Japanese to lawfully exercise the privileges of a citizen of the United States of America," and set aside $100 are enrolled in civilian defense. Consequently, attendance at meetings has suffered, and social activities and athletic events have become lessened. Still, we must continue, because this is war.

The next gathering of the Assembly will be July 26, at the Santa Ana home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hiskey. The womenfolks will be included on this occasion, and following dinner the officers-elect will be publicly installed.

"Those of us who remain must exert every effort to stabilize our Subordinate Parlor, to draw the older members to the meetings and thereby unite the young and old members in the common cause of winning the war. In addition to the worthwhile activities now being fostered in furtherance of our all-out war efforts, and I a plea for unity for victory, I recommend:

"First—Enlist in the armed service of our country or, in lieu thereof, because of age, disability or responsibility, enroll and participate in civilian defense.

"Second—Subscribe for and continue to purchase war savings bonds and stamps as individuals, and all Parlor should purchase bonds and stamps as their financial position warrants.

"Third—Engage in some social and recreational affairs for the benefit of the men in the armed forces of our country, and co-operate with organizations for the advancement of this war!

ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT FACTORS behind Jap aggression, claims Dr. Gordon S. Watkins of the University of California at Los Angeles, is a hatred built up from years of resentment at the opposition met in the western world. He was in Hawaii immediately before the Pearl Harbor bombing, and has had close contacts with the Japs for many years. Says Dr. Watkins:

"The Japanese have long yearned for a chance to dislodge from the Far East all westerners. A deep-seated spirit of revenge, therefore, partly actuates their drive and the ruthlessness with which they practice atrocities against white soldiers.

"Among the most important of the causes of Japan's unprecedented successes is the tendency of her enemies to underestimate the intelligence, the resourcefulness and the courage of her people. Nourished by a religious fanaticism, her soldiers and sailors have unlimited devotion to the emperor and to duty.

"The war can and will be won only by generating the will to win, reinforced by our almost unlimited natural resources and our labor power transformed into guns, tanks, ships and planes. The will to win is the will to work with efficiency, to save and salvage with cheerfulness, to accept discipline without complaint, to fight with conviction and undaunted courage. All of this is the great American tradition in moments of crisis."

NOT FORGETTING HOMELESS CHILDREN.

For the best decorated table at the May 18 foreign trade luncheon, the civic committee of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. was awarded the first prize, a two-day, all-expense trip to Lake Arrowhead Lodge. Venezuela was the theme, and the miniature objects were characteristic of that South American country. Grace Norton and Ann Schiebusch were in charge, and they generously donated the award to the national defense committee for disposal.

While co-operation with the government's wartime plans is the keynote of all Parlor activities these days, still Los Angeles' members are not forgetting the homeless children. Jacqueline Wilson and Josephine Lynn opened their homes for recent sewing parties, and June 27 a sewing party will be held in Fernell at 12 o'clock noon. "Bring your own lunch and cup; coffee will be furnished," warns Recording Secretary Ella V. Steinbeck. The history and landmarks committee of the Parlor proudly is displaying a handwoven coverlet about 100 years old that has been loaned by Elsie Ruiz for use in the Parlor's "governor's room" at Mission San Fernando. The room is now almost completely furnished.

HOLLYWOOD INVADED.

Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. was invaded May 11 by nineteen members of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277, who were reinforced by several members of other Parlors. President Elmer Koop extended greetings on behalf of Hollywood, and First Vice-president Leslie Cox responded for the East Los Angeles group.

Other speakers were Grand Trustee Walter Odemar, District Deputy Howard Woodward, John Bodkin, Clarence M. Hunt, Moritz Rosenthal, "Babe" Nighswonger, President George Walker of Los Angeles Parlor, Robert Ziegler, Ernest Foster, Bernard Hiss, George Cuthbertson and District Deputy William Blaha. During the evening Hollywood voted to invest $1,000 in victory bonds. Refreshments concluded the enjoyable occasion.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON.

Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. is planning additional bond buying with funds it expects to derive from a bridge luncheon to be given June 3 at the Women's University Club. A committee meeting was held May 6 at the home of Chairman Ora May Evans, and following a spaghetti luncheon plans for the event were completed. May 4 the Gertrude Sewing Circle had an enjoyable meeting at the home of Maria Welch.

The Parlor luncheon May 12 was a joint observance of Mothers' Day and Memorial Day. The floral decorations were roses, ferns and fuschias for the former, and vases of Flanders poppies for the latter. The occasion was also dedicated to Pearl Harbor victims now convalescing at Norconia Hospital, and there were many contributions of games, books, puzzles and records, and two radios. Dr. Charles W. Decker, the after-luncheon speaker, gave a reassuring talk covering the causes and the conditions of the first and the present world wars.

BARBECUE.

East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W. initiated eight candidates May 4. President Allan Butler presided during the exemplification of the ritual, and at the conclusion of those ceremonies past presidents filled the various stations. Ernest Foster presiding and District Deputy Howard Woodward conducting the good of the order.

During the evening Lester Cox, on the Parlor's behalf, presented an emblematic pin to Junior Past President Ludwig Trinajstich, and among the other speakers were Willard Allen, Alfred Hass and Clarence M. Hunt. At the meeting's close refreshments were served by Tony Leyva and Recording Secretary O. E. Nighswonger. East Los Angeles now has $2,300 invested in victory bonds.

Saturday, June 13, East Los Angeles will stage a barbecue at the A. R. Leyva Rancho, 1505 North Miller avenue. The womenfolks are invited, and so are eligibles. A fine feast is promised, and there will be dancing.

"IRON LUNG" DANCE BIG SUCCESS.

The "iron lung" dance sponsored by the Interparlor N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Committee, of which Margaret Tann is the general chairman, was a great success. The net proceeds, according to Woodrow Wade, dance chairman, were over $330.

Arrangements are now being made by a committee that includes Mary Hotaling, Woodrow Wade, Margarethe Bohannon, Louise Cash, Hervey Kitchin, Corporal William Arien and George Walker to present a resuscitator to the Marion Davies California State Guard Hospital some time in June.

The hospital, located at 11672 Mississippi avenue, West Los Angeles, provides care for state guardsmen injured in line of duty from Tehachapi to the Mexican border. It is fully equipped for all types of major surgery, and complete medical and military staffs are permanently stationed there.

PIONEER MOTHERS HONORED.

Long Beach. For the first time in its history Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. will be represented by three delegates at the Grand Parlor in June. Jessie Ehrmann and committee arranged a very lovely Mothers Day breakfast at Recreation Park Clubhouse May 17. Special honor was paid the pioneer mothers of the community. The tables were beautifully decorated with spring flowers and fern, and a musical program was enjoyed.

The third dance for servicemen, held at Silverado Park Clubhouse May 23 under the supervision of Chairman Grace Poole and committee, was a huge success. Homemade cookies and punch were much enjoyed by the guests. The California Sewing Club, an auxiliary of the Parlor whose members sew for worthwhile projects, met during May at the homes of Kate McFadyen and Bernadette Paulson.

TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.

May 8 was Walter H. Odemar night at Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., and the Grand Trustee gave a brief account of his activities. With President Frank Ruiz presiding, four candidates were initiated. Among the visitors were Supervising Deputy Fred Leonetti, Philip Molen, Willard Allen and Leslie Henderson.

June 5 will be Hervey Kitchin night at Ramona; officers will be elected, and refreshments will be served. June 12 the Parlor will celebrate its fifty-fifth institution anniversary with a steak barbecue at Campo de Cahuenga, 3919 Lanker-shim boulevard, 6:30 p.m.; Ralph Walters, in charge of the grill, will be assisted by Bob Ziegler and his good of the order committee. June 19 several candidates will be initiated. June 26 the Parlor's sailor president, Frank A. Ruiz, will be honored; a program will be presented and there will be refreshments.

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.D.G.W.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. initiated two candidates May 7. Speakers of the evening included District Deputy Howard Woodward, William Hortenstine, O. E. Nighswonger, Grand Organist Roger Johnson, Ray Lemoine, George Martin and Ernest Sieghold. May 28 the Parlor had its annual get-together dinner.

Glendale—The younger members of Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. sponsored a dessert card party May 13; Lucille Jacobson was the chairman. May 20 the americanism committee, Evelyn Wilson, chairman, presented United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to the Glendale News Press Exhibitrium. Deputy Margaret McKenzie was honored and presented a gift May 26.

At the May 13 meeting of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W. President Lorraine Selby outlined a program of service to the Red Cross, to which many members responded. May 24 the Parlor had a potluck dinner for servicemen of the district. Esther Molino's disappearing party was a grand success.

Canoga Park—Topanga No. 269 had a Mothers Day program May 8. Emma Graves, the first white child born in this district, was the honored guest and was given a life membership and an emblematic pin.

The next regular meeting of the Interparlor N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Committee will be held at the home of Hervey L. Kitchin, 1750 North Serrano avenue, June 15 at 7:30 p.m. The Committee is planning a picnic at Campo de Cahuenga for a day in June.

JAPS' CITIZENSHIP STATEMENTS ARE FALSE AND UNTRUE

AT SAN FRANCISCO, MAY 7, IN THE DISTRICT Court of the United States of America in and for the Northern District of California, Southern Division, John T. Regan, Grand Secretary of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West and a registered voter of San Francisco, filed through his attorney, U. S. Webb, a complaint for injunction directed against Cameron King, registrar of voters in the City and County of San Francisco. The purpose of the action is to have the voting privilege denied to all Japs, regardless of where born. Quoting from the complaint:

"This action arises under the Constitution and laws of the United States and more especially under the Constitution of the United States, Sections 1 and 2 of Article II thereof, the Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Seventeenth Amendments thereto, Section 1 of Article II of the Constitution of the State of California, and . . .

"The defendant, as Registrar of Voters of the City and County of San Francisco, charged with the registration of all electors who reside in said City and County and with the care, custody and control of the register of voters therein, and his predecessors in office, have for several years last past registered and retained, and the defendant does now retain upon said register more than twenty-six hundred Japanese of the full blood born in the United States and in the State of California of alien parents born in the Empire of Japan. . . . plaintiff is informed and believes, and upon such information and belief alleges, that said Japanese will be permitted to and will, unless their registration be terminated and cancelled and their names be removed and stricken from the register of voters in said City and County, vote for nomination of candidates for the House of Representatives at the primary election to be held on the 25th day of August, 1942, . . .

"Said Japanese of the full blood born in the United States and in the State of California of alien parents born in the Empire of Japan were at birth citizens, and each of them was and is a citizen of the Empire of Japan, owing allegiance to that government and subject to the jurisdiction of the United States of America in the same manner and to the same extent as all other aliens, but not otherwise. Said Japanese so born are aliens, and each of them is an alien, ineligible to citizenship in the United States of America and ineligible to exercise or be accorded any of the privileges of an elector of the State of California, which privileges are expressly prohibited them.

"Each of said Japanese so born and registered as aforesaid in the City and County of San Francisco has filed an affidavit of registration with the defendant, as Registrar of Voters of the City and County of San Francisco, charged with the registration of all electors who reside in said City and County and with the care, custody and control of the register of voters therein, in which each of them has stated under oath that he was and is a citizen of the United States of America and of the State of California. These statements are, and each of them is, false and untrue, . . .

"Unless the defendant is ordered and directed to strike and remove the names of said Japanese from the register of voters of the City and County of San Francisco and is ordered and directed to terminate and cancel their registration, said Japanese, . . . will be enabled and permitted to vote.

"Wherefore, plaintiff prays that the defendant, as the Registrar of Voters of the City and County of San Francisco, charged with the registration of all electors of the State of California who reside in said City and County and with the care, custody and control of the register of voters therein, and his successors in office, be ordered and directed to remove and strike the names of said Japanese born and registered as aforesaid from the register of voters of the City and County of San Francisco, and be ordered to terminate and cancel their registration as electors of the State of California, and for such other and further relief as may be meet and proper in the premises."

THE FIGHTING PARSON

(THOMAS BUCHANAN READ.)

The pastor rose; the prayer was strong;
The psalm was Warrior David's song;
The text, a few short words of might—
"The Lord of hosts shall arm the right!"
He spoke of wrongs too long endured,
Of sacred rights to be secured,
Then from the patriot tongue of flame
The startling words for freedom came.
The stirring sentences he spake
Compelled the heart to glow or quake,
And, rising on his theme's broad wing,
And grasping in his nervous hand
The imaginary battle brand,
In face of death he dared to fling
Defiance to a tyrant king.
Even as he spoke, his frame, renewed,
In eloquence of attitude,
Rose, as it seemed a shoulder higher;
Then swept his kindling glance of fire
From startled pew to breathless choir;
When suddenly his mantle wide
His hands impatient flung aside,
And, lo! he met their wondering eyes
Complete in all a warrior's guise.
"Who dares?"—this was the patriot's cry,
As striding from the desk he came—
"Come out with me in freedom's name,
For her to live, for her to die?"
A hundred voices answered, "I!"

FOOD FOR THOUGHT!

Here is an extract from a text book used the numerous Japanese language schools open operating in California before Pearl Harbor. And, unless a law prohibiting them is enacted, they will resume operations after the war. fact, it would not be surprising to find schools operating now at the evacuation camp breeding-pens for additional subjects and whisperers of the emperor of Japan. The extract from "Reader IX, 9th Grade, Lesson No. 28

"The Japanese residing in the United States of America and Brazil have established Japanese-language schools to teach their children Japanese language.

"Under a God-Emperor of unbroken lineage our nation became matchless in the world, and it continues to move forward. . . . The Japanese language is a ring of wedlock between feelings and spirits of our forefathers and ourselves, thus tying us together, today, as a community of citizens. Had it not been for our Japanese language, our ideals would by now have been scattered from place to place. Thus as we march forward in the time of nation difficulty, we shout 'banzai' to cheer our emperor, proud of our Japanese language heritage. . . . And so the Japanese language holds together all its citizens, no matter where they may reside.

"Those who forget the Japanese language are no longer Japanese. Respect the Japanese language. Love the Japanese language. The national language is the place where the spirits of citizens reside."

Incidentally, too, a California State music book used in the public schools contains the national anthem of Japan, and the pupils are—were, until just recently,—compelled to learn and sing it. That's a fact! What are you going to do about it?—C.M.H.

OUR DUTY

"No democracy, including our own, can long endure, much less achieve the desired unity of effort, which substitutes the false norms of the financial power of the few, or the political power of the many, or social usefulness without reference to moral law, in place of the true norms of the Christian law of justice and charity. Therefore, it becomes our duty to restore the full force of Christian law in the Nation. Only such a restoration can we justify the sacrifice of blood and life by the youth of our land, who give their lives that this ideal may endure."—Robert J. White.

ARTICLE MUCH DISCUSSED.

Editor Grizzly Bear: "I have read with a great deal of pleasure the article 'Japs Not Citizens of the United States and Never Can Be,' appearing on page 4 of The Grizzly Bear for May 1942. I passed the article around to some of my friends to read, and it has been the subject of much discussion. . . .

"I recall that many times during lodge sessions you discussed this problem with a great deal of force, but I did not anticipate that your ideas of these people would be brought to the surface like they have in the past few months." —C. M. LYNCH, Sacramento, California.

Japan and has two horns protruding from the skull. It is said to be several hundred years old."

"It isn't much, perhaps, but it seems to work in with the idea we are trying to put over, namely, that the emperor of Japan and all his subjects are very far removed from any possibility of heavenly paternity. Their actions have all the earmarks of descent from the original skeleton mentioned in the item."—J. H. MORRISON, Ventura, California.

NO JAPS IN PLUMAS, THANK GOD!

Editor Grizzly Bear—"Your letter of April 22nd received, relative to allowing or denying all Japanese the right to vote, and those are my sentiments: never allow any Japanese to vote in the United States of America or any of its possessions.

"I was born in the State of California over sixty years ago and have followed the trend of matters as they relate to the Japanese, and have always contended that we should stop the influx, and even have advocated that all Japs, native-born or otherwise, be deported.

"Thank God, we have no Japs in Plumas County, and never will have if the sentiment continues as now. Best wishes for you, and your efforts in your mission."—JOHN DONNENWIRTH, clerk of Plumas County, Quincy, California.

(This answer came in response to a letter sent by The Grizzly Bear April 17 to each of California's fifty-eight county clerks, saying, in part: "Being thoroughly convinced that ALL Japanese, regardless of where born, are subjects and servants of Japan, respectfully request that you immediately cancel the registration of every so-called 'Japanese-American citizen,' and that you steadfastly refuse to permit any Japanese to vote in [your] county. There is no such person as a United States citizen of Japanese ancestry, therefore no Japanese has a legal right to exercise the voting privilege."—Editor.)

GLARING JAP EVIL OBLITERATED.

LITTLE PEOPLE MUST PAY

"Even though the little people of no country on God's green earth wanted this war and even though none of them carry any guilt whatsoever upon their souls for it getting under way, nevertheless, it is their war. They will pay its costs and they will do the dying."—Edwin C. Johnson, United States Senator from Colorado.
